

The Mans Decree Chapter 1677 -

Chapter 1677 How Dare You Escape

Meanwhile, Skylar stared at Evangeline, his eyes filled with bewilderment.

How can a retard who doesn't exude any aura rescue Kai from the arcane array with such ease?

The answer eluded Skylar.

Snap out of it. Even if Kai isn't imprisoned, you still hold the sacred martial arts relic and are capable of killing him. Do it now!

The spirit within Skylar's body reminded him.

After he was jolted back to his senses, the scepter in his hand began to glow, unleashing a terrifying aura in the process. Just the aura alone was enough to pressure a Martial Arts Marquis into throwing out blood and dying.

The moment he sensed the massive power of the aura, Kai scowled in response.

Nevertheless, he knew that now wasn't the time to go all out with Skylar. With Josephine locked in a dungeon again, saving her that day was no longer possible.

Therefore, he had to survive, for his death would snuff out any chance of Josephine's rescue.

With that thought in mind, Kai leaped into the air to flee.

Obviously, Skylar wasn't going to give him the opportunity. Brandishing the scepter in his hand, he unleashed a devastating force to overwhelm Kai.

Gritting his teeth, Kai didn't dare slow down one bit. All he could do now was to pray that he could survive the sacred martial arts relic's attack.

Boom!

Following a thunderous rumble, powerful shockwaves were unleashed in every direction!

Prepared to be grievously injured by the massive attack, Kai was surprised when he didn't feel anything at all.

"What's going on?"

Filled with curiosity, he turned around to look.

He was immediately greeted by the sight of Evangeline following him from behind. It was evident that she had shielded him from the attack.

Shocked by the turn of events, Kai quickly examined Evangeline's body. There was no way he could allow her to be killed after Chester had instructed him to look after her.

Upon scrutinizing her quickly, he realized that she was unscathed. Other than that, she just stood there with the same listless look in her eye. Meanwhile, Skylar was dumbfounded by the sight.

"H-How is this possible?"

That was the power of a sacred martial arts relic! Even though it's weaker than the true power of a Martial Arts Saint, the difference isn't big. How could it have failed to physically harm an ordinary person?

The devastating force unleashed just now was enough to cause a Martial Arts Marquis to explode into mush, and yet, it didn't even land a scratch on Evangeline.

Upon realizing that Evangeline was significantly tougher than he had imagined, Kai broke into a smile.

Back when Chester told him about how hardy Evangeline's body was, Kai was skeptical, for there were few in this world who possessed a physical body more durable than his.

However, he didn't need any more convincing after watching her display her prowess. It also led him to wonder if it had something to do with her body being constantly exposed to Preservation Incense.

"If only she could regain her presence of mind and follow my instructions."

Kai stared at Evangeline, his mind filled with hope.

If she was capable of obeying Kai, they would have been able to rescue Josephine just now.

"Skylar, just you wait. It's just a matter of time before I take your life."

No sooner had he spoken than Kai continued to flee.

With Evangeline covering his rear, there was nothing left for him to fear.

"Kai, your delight is premature, as I'm not going to let you off the hook!"

With that, Skylar's scepter glowed with greater intensity before an even more powerful aura was released.

Sensing the impending attack, Kai picked up his pace, for fear that Evangeline wasn't strong enough to withstand it.

"How dare you flee..."

Just as he spoke, Skylar hurled the scepter in Kai's direction.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1678 -

Chapter 1678 Jealous

At that moment, waves of energy surged toward Kai like a raging tsunami.

The energy waves caused their surroundings to tremble violently and dark clouds to billow in the sky.

Many people, who had no idea what was going on, ran out of their rooms and stared at the strange phenomenon in the sky.

Even those in the Deragon residence dashed out.

"It's from the direction of Warriors Alliance. I wonder how Mr. Chance is doing."

"Don't worry. He'll be fine."

"Hope that the heavens are protecting Mr. Chance."

Everyone was praying for Kai.

Boom!

A deafening explosion resounded across the place. Despite feeling powerful gusts of hot air rushing toward him, Kai did not turn around and look. All he could do was hope that Evangeline would be fine.

The dust scattered. By the time Skylar caught up, Kai had already disappeared into thin air.

"D*mn it! I let him escape. What's up with that woman?" cursed Skylar, unable to hold himself back.

"With the sacred martial arts relic, you don't need to feel threatened by Kai," said the spirit calmly.

"You're right!"

As Skylar stroked the scepter gently, a passionate look raged in his eyes.

Meanwhile, Kai escaped back to the Deragon residence desperately. Everyone heaved a sigh of relief when they saw him return.

The commotion in the direction of Warriors Alliance was simply too huge.

“Are you okay, Kai?”

Upon spotting him, Lizbeth rushed forward and scrutinized him.

“I’m fine.”

Kai’s face was quite pale. He quickly spun around to face Evangeline, who had been following him. With a worried expression, he inspected her body.

An envious glint flashed across Lizbeth when she witnessed that scene.

Although Evangeline seemed quite foolish, almost like a puppet at times, she was still a woman.

Naturally, Lizbeth would feel jealous upon seeing Kai touch her all over.

“You’re fine... You’re fine... Your body is quite strong.” After Kai inspected Evangeline and discovered that she was completely unscathed, he patted her shoulders happily.

“Kai, she’s still a woman. It isn’t appropriate for you to keep touching her,” Lizbeth reminded Kai with a pout.

The rest laughed when they saw that, knowing that she was jealous.

“Are you jealous, Lizbeth?” asked Kai with a laugh.

“Who’s jealous? I’m just reminding you...” With that, Lizbeth whirled around and ran back to her room.

Kai immediately chased after her to explain himself while Evangeline continued to follow him closely.

She would go everywhere Kai went!

After entering the room and seeing the furious look on Lizbeth’s face, Kai explained, “Listen to me, Lizbeth...”

Kai told her what Evangeline’s true identity was; however, he left out the fact that he was the overlord of Dragon Sect.

As Lizbeth listened to Kai’s explanation, she shot a look of pity at Evangeline.

“She’s so pitiful! Is there a way to help her recover?” Lizbeth asked Kai.

He shook his head. "I still don't have a solution yet, so I'm planning to bring Evangeline to the Medicine God Sect to see if we can find a pill that can cure her. If that doesn't work, we'll have to seek another solution."

"What other solutions are there?" prompted Lizbeth.

"Perhaps, charm spells can help people regain their souls..."

After paying a visit to Skywrath Sect and realizing how powerful charm spells were, Kai had been extremely interested in them.

He chatted with Lizbeth for a while longer before leaving to rest.

Although the battle with Skylar did not kill him, there were injuries scattered all over his body. He would need to recuperate for some time.

However, he soon discovered an awkward problem.

Since Evangeline would remain by his side even when he slept, it meant that they would have to stay in a room together despite being the opposite s*x.