

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2952

Novel Chapter 2952 -"Sister Joanna!" Hazel saw Joanna first, and immediately said in surprise.

When Joanna heard the voice, she immediately turned her head.

When she saw Hazel and Robert, the shock on her face was greater than the surprise.

This Avonsville city was so big, and there were so many people coming and going on the road, how could it be such a coincidence that she ran into the two of them.

"Hazel, Robert." Joanna subconsciously moved the shopping bag in her hand back, "Are you here to buy flowers?"

"Yes!" Hazel's gaze was attracted by Finn, "Sister Joanna, who is he?"

"Well, this is my younger brother, Finn." Joanna said, and then introduced to her younger brother, "Finn, this is Hazel and Robert, Hayden's younger siblings."

Finn greeted them politely: "Hello."

"Hi Finn. What flowers do you want to buy? I'll pay for it." Robert said boldly, "Don't be polite to us, we are also here to buy flowers."

Joanna quickly said politely: "No need, we'll just pass by, just take a look around, we may not necessarily buy flowers."

"Let's buy some!" Robert said, and began to help them choose, "I think these pots are very beautiful, what do you think?"

Joanna and Finn: "Well, it looks good."

"Then these pots." Robert glanced at the Shop Owner, indicating that he wanted these pots, and then walked inside, "Pick out a few larger pots. This kind of flower tree is more festive, and it feels like New Year when placed at home. What do you think, sister Joanna?"

Joanna had already seen it clearly. Robert asked them that he wanted to buy it for them.

"Robert, I rent a small house, so I don't need so many. I'll just take a pot." Joanna's kindness was hard to resist, so she decided to take a pot.

"No matter how small your house is, you can definitely put a few pots of flowers in it! There is no extra space in the room, so you can put them on the windowsill." Robert saw that Joanna was shy and restrained, so he took the initiative to pick a big pot of flowers for him, "Just this one! Is this supposed to be a rose tree?"

The shop owner replied: "Yes, this rose tree is six years old! Whether it is placed in a potted house or transplanted in the yard, it is very beautiful."

"Well. Sister Joanna, where is your home address? Let the shop owner send it to your home later." Robert said enthusiastically.

Seeing so many potted plants and flowers that Robert had chosen for her, Joanna felt mixed emotions in her heart.

"Sister Joanna, just accept it! These are not particularly valuable, they are just a little thought from us, so they should be your New Year's gift." Seeing Joanna's hesitation, Hazel persuaded with a smile.

Joanna: "It's too expensive."

"It's okay, my brother gives us a lot of New Year's money every year." Hazel wanted to say, take these as gifts from my brother.

Joanna's face flushed.

"Sister, just accept it!" Finn thought it was boring to be so polite.

The main reason was that they were so rich, so there was really no pressure to send these flowers.

"Okay! Thank you!" After Joanna thanked, she planned to write the address to the shop owner.

At this time, Hazel saw the plastic bag from the mother and baby store that Joanna was carrying in her hand.

"Sister Joanna, do you have milk powder in this bag?" Hazel recognized the milk powder in the bag because the bag was transparent.

In addition, there was Dorian at home, and Dorian ate milk powder many times a day, so Hazel recognized the milk powder in the small foam bag at a glance.

Joanna's fingers holding the milk powder froze.

"I passed by the mother and baby store just now, so I couldn't help but go in and take a look. The salesperson said there was a offer for the milk powder, so I bought a can." Joanna was quick to wit, and handed the milk powder to Hazel, "Take it back and give it to Dorian! If he can't get used to it, forget it."

“Oh...Okay.” Hazel didn’t doubt, and immediately took the milk powder, “Sister Joanna, after becoming a mother, do you want to buy everything for your child?”

~End of the Chapter 2952~

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2953

Novel Chapter 2953 -Joanna smiled and nodded: “Yes! Originally, I also wanted to buy clothes for him, but I was afraid that the ones I bought would not be suitable. In addition, when I went to see him last time, I found that he had so many new clothes that he couldn’t wear them at all.”

“Hahaha! My sister likes to buy it for him. You don’t need to buy it for him. You really can’t wear it. It would be good if you visit him more.” Robert knew that Joanna’s financial conditions were not good, so he didn’t want her Expenses.

“Yeah, go buy flowers! My brother and I won’t bother you.” Joanna smiled politely.

After leaving the address to the shop owner and confirming the delivery time, Joanna left with Finn.

After the two of them left, Robert walked up to the shop owner and took a photo of the address Joanna had left.

“Brother, why are you taking pictures of Miss Joanna’s address?” Hazel asked.

“What if something happens in the future?” Robert said, “I think sister Joanna is pretty nice. She’s not the kind of person who wants to get her and put on airs. I quite like her.”

Hazel: “I also think she’s good. She’s a very kind feeling.”

“It’s a pity that elder brother doesn’t like her.” Robert said regretfully, “otherwise it would be nice for her to be our sister-in-law.”

Hazel: “Okay, let’s not interfere with the elder brother’s affairs.”

The two ordered flowers at the flower shop, and then went to buy other New Year’s goods.

At 3 o’clock in the afternoon, the two returned home after having afternoon tea outside.

Avery came out with Dorian to see what they bought.

“Mom, we met Sister Joanna at the flower shop today. She and her younger brother were also looking at flowers at the flower shop.” Hazel took out the milk powder that Joanna gave and handed it to Avery, “Sister Joanna bought Milk powder for Dorian.”

Avery took the milk powder curiously and took a look.

“This is a trial pack.” Avery wondered, “Why did she suddenly think of buying milk powder for Dorian!”

“She said she wanted to buy everything she saw for Dorian. Because she knew that Dorian didn’t lack anything, she didn’t know what to buy.” Hazel replied.

“Well, that’s true. But Dorian drinks the current milk powder very well, and I’m afraid he will be allergic to changing the milk powder.” Avery replied.

“Then isn’t this milk powder a waste?” Hazel felt a little regretful.

This is sister Joanna’s whole heart!

“This is a trial pack, so it shouldn’t be free!” Avery remembered that when she was taking care of her children, she used to go to a mother and baby store to buy milk powder, and these small cans of trial packs were all given away for free.

After confirming that the child was not allergic to the food, the parents would go to buy the full size.

“Oh!” Hazel raised her knowledge, “What a waste! If sister Joanna comes over next time and sees that we didn’t give Dorian to drink, will she think it’s because we dislike the milk powder she bought? Or should I drink it?”

Based on the principle of not wasting, Hazel planned to drink it by herself.

Avery: “...”

Hazel was very thoughtful, but the taste of baby milk powder was different from that of adults.

“Baby milk powder is not good. There is no other smell except for the fishy smell.” Avery tried it before, so she advised Hazel not to drink it. “If you are really afraid of wasting it, give it to your brother!”

Robert: “???”

After hearing this, Hazel couldn’t help laughing.

“Second brother, do you want to try it? Why don’t we have a drink together?” Hazel took the milk powder and planned to drink it.

“Okay!” Robert wondered if it was really that bad, “Why is it so delicious every time for Dorian if it’s really that bad?”

~End of the Chapter 2953~

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2954

Novel Chapter 2954 -“The baby’s taste is different from ours.” Avery patiently explained to Robert, “You can understand that at this age, Dorian has never eaten anything else except milk power, and the taste is relatively light.”

“Oh. Mom, don’t you feel tired taking care of Dorian at home every day? In fact, you can hire more nannies and let them take care of the children. You can go play with dad!” Robert was relatively young now and couldn’t stay at home, so he said this.

“It’s so cold now, what’s there to do outside. And your dad will come to take care of the child every once in a while, and I don’t spend as much time with the child as your dad did!” Avery said with a smile, “Your dad isn’t tired either and I haven’t seen him complaining about being tired.”

“The main reason is that our Dorian is handsome.” Hazel looked at her little nephew more and more like him.

“I think Dorian looks quite like his mother. During the New Year, I have to send some gifts to his mother.” Avery was thinking, “If you said that if I gave her a house, would she accept it?”

Robert: “I think she really needs a house. She still rents a house now! When I was in the flower shop, I wanted to send her flowers. She said that her rented house is very small and there is no place to put it.”

Avery nodded: “I’m afraid she won’t accept it. I’m thinking of some reason to make it easier for her to accept it.”

“Should I let my brother tell her?” Robert suggested.

“Haha, your brother is capable at work, but he’s not good at interacting with girls. He’s too serious, and he doesn’t know how to be euphemistic. Let him go, and Joanna won’t accept it.” Avery said.

At this time, Hazel had already prepared two cups of milk powder.

She brought a cup and handed it to Robert.

Robert took the quilt and tasted it first.

“It doesn’t taste good?” Avery asked.

Robert nodded: “It’s really not good. Except for the fishy smell, there is no other smell at all.”

Hazel also took a sip.

Dorian opened his eyes wide, staring at his aunt Hazel and uncle Robert without blinking.

The little guy seemed to smell the aroma of milk, and he was probably thinking, ‘why are they drinking my milk? Why don’t you give me a drink?’

“Second brother, look at Dorian has been staring at us, hahaha!” Hazel laughed when she saw Dorian’s aggrieved eyes and expression.

Robert couldn’t laugh or cry: “It’s so bad to drink, it’s a pity I can’t give it to him.”

Hazel: “Second brother, don’t keep thinking that it’s bad to drink, just drink it in one gulp.”

Hazel demonstrated it to Robert.

When Dorian saw that Hazel drank a glass of milk in one go, Dorian started to cry.

“Hahahaha!” Robert laughed until tears flowed, “The little guy is crying! Is he hungry?”

Avery was also amused by Dorian’s expression.

“When did Dorian eat the milk?” Avery asked the maid.

“An hour and a half ago.” The maid replied, “It’s a little early to eat now, but if he wants to eat, he can also eat.”

Avery looked at the tearful look of the grandson’s grievance, and felt stressed: “Then make him milk!”

The maid went to make milk for Dorian, and ran into Elliot who was striding towards him.

Hearing his grandson’s cry, Elliot immediately put down his work and rushed over.

In the past, when he was working in the study, he would always close the door of the study. Now, in order to listen to his grandson, he always opened the door of the study.

This way, when the grandson cried, he could hear it immediately.

As soon as he heard the cry, he rushed over immediately.

“Elliot, do you still work efficiently like this?” Avery teased, “It’s normal for a child to cry, you look like you’ve lost your soul.”

Elliot: “Didn’t you say that our grandson doesn’t like to cry and is very good? Why did he cry just now?”

“Dad, I just drank a glass of milk in front of him, and he started crying.” Hazel showed the empty glass to Elliot.

~End of the Chapter 2954~

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2955

Novel Chapter 2955 -“That’s it!” Elliot breathed a sigh of relief, “my grandson must be hungry.”

The maid came over with the prepared milk. When Dorian saw the milk coming, he immediately stretched out his chubby hand.

At this time, Hayden came back.

When Hayden was standing at the door changing his shoes, he frowned when he saw his son eating milk.

“Why do I see him drinking milk every time I return home?” Hayden remembered that when he came back yesterday, his son was also drinking milk, and the day before yesterday.

Avery didn’t know how to answer this question.

“Why don’t you come back at a different time tomorrow?” Avery tried to change the subject with a smile on her face, “Robert and Hazel went out shopping today and met the child’s mother.”

Hayden: “Mom, I came back at a different time today than yesterday. Did you feed him too much? I feel like he has gained a lot of weight.”

Avery: "Babies are like this. They will reach the peak of obesity when they are about one year old. How about I show you the birthday photos of you, Layla and Robert? When Dorian starts to eat food will lose weight."

Elliot: "Your mother has brought up so many children, are you still worried that she can't take care of your son? Just rest assured."

Hayden was speechless by Elliot's words.

Elliot said that there seemed to be nothing wrong with it.

"How is your new company going?" Elliot asked.

Hayden: "Start working after the year."

"Well, not bad. Although this speed is a bit slow, you are more secure in doing things." Elliot commented.

Hayden felt that his efficiency was high enough, but his father said that he was slow.

"Although I have returned to Aryadelle, you should not interfere with anything related to our company in the future." Hayden greeted his father in advance.

"You're thinking too much. I have that spare time, and I also play with my grandson." Elliot's tone showed obvious dislike for him.

Hayden was truly speechless now.

In a blink of an eye, it's New Year's Eve.

Avery woke up very early today.

Because this year was special.

This year, there was an extra baby in the family. She and Elliot had become grandparents.

This journey was vivid, like a dream.

After getting up, she went to the maid's room to take a look at Dorian.

"He went to bed after eating milk at 6 o'clock. I guess he can sleep a little longer." The nanny who brought Dorian to sleep said to Avery.

"This is a New Year's red envelope for you. Go home to celebrate the New Year! I'll ask the driver to take you back." Avery said.

In fact, she wanted to give the sleeping nanny a holiday two days ago, but the nanny was willing to do it today.

After the nanny thanked her, she began a short Spring Festival holiday.

After the nanny left, Avery saw that Dorian was sleeping soundly, so she left the room.

After leaving the room, she called Joanna.

The call was quickly connected.

“Joanna, Happy New Year.”

“Auntie, happy new year.”

“Joanna, I have prepared some gifts for you. They are all food. My driver will deliver them to you later. Is your address the one you left at the flower shop last time?” Avery thought Give Joanna some food first, and then talk about giving her a house after she gets used to giving gifts.

~End of the Chapter 2955~

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-