

ILLCIT RELATIONSHIP

Chapter 1 - New Life

Beijing, China.

"Father! You're driving too fast! I don't want to die, because I have a date with Mei Xing tonight!" Huang Chen, who was sitting in the passenger seat, said worriedly.

"What?! Mei Xing?" Huang Feng responded in surprise, "That cold beauty? Way to go, my son! If her husband knows about it, he'll cough up blood. He can marry her because of his family, and until now, that cold beauty is still a virgin, because she doesn't want to sleep in the same room as him."

Upon knowing his son would have a date with the famous cold beauty, Huang Feng was overwhelmed with happiness, so he drove the car faster.

'This stupid old man! I'm still twenty years old. I don't want to die young!'

Huang Chen was unhappy when his father drove the car faster, but he could do nothing about it.

"Son, let me tell you something. Your awesome father also has a date with Long Yi's wife tonight!" Huang Feng stated as he glanced at his son with a smug face.

"I don't care! Father, drive more slowly and stop looking at me! Look towards the road!" Huang Chen replied while pointing his index finger toward the road.

"Haha. Son, don't worry. Your father is good at driving cars." Huang Feng answered proudly.

Huang Chen, who suddenly saw a blue BMW speeding towards their car, instantly yelled, "Father! ... In front! ... In front! ... There's a car heading toward our car!"

Upon hearing his son's words, Huang Feng instantly tried to avoid a collision, but it was too late.

BOOM!

Their car rolled on the asphalt as far as ten meters.

After their car stopped rolling on the asphalt, Huang Chen, who was seriously injured, said weakly, "Father, are you alright?"

Huang Chen widened his eyes after seeing his father not moving anymore. At that moment, he thought his father had passed away.

Huang Chen tried to get out of the car, but due to his severe injuries, he was unable to move his body. At that moment, Huang Chen could only sigh and accept his fate.

This stupid old man! I've told you to drive slowly. Now, I can't go on a date with Mei Xing anymore. Sigh, my hard work is in vain. Ah, forget it. At least, I can be with this stupid old man again. Even though he always did whatever he wanted, he still cared about me, and I had a great time with him too. Huang Chen thought to himself.

Huang Chen's heart suddenly twitched, blood splashed out of his mouth, and his sight became blurry.

'Mother, your son is finally going to see you again. I miss you, mother. Father also misses you. Now we all can reunite again.'

With that last thought, Huang Chen passed away.

Shanghai, China.

"No! Please, let me go!" a woman spoke as she walked backward. Her legs were shivering, and her eyes were covered in tears.

"Hehe. Don't worry, beauty. We only want to give you pleasure." a red-haired thug replied while walking closer towards the lady.

"That's right, beauty. We'll make you feel like you're in cloud nine. I'm sure, you'll ask again after experiencing this pleasure." the blue-haired thug said with lustful eyes.

"Haha." The thugs laughed loudly.

Not far from the thugs, there was a young man, who was passed out, on the ground. The young man was about nineteen years old, and on his head, there was blood dripping down his cheeks. However, the young man suddenly opened his eyes.

"Damn it! My chest hurts!" the young man mused.

His eyes widened in disbelief after opening his eyes. "I'm still....alive?! Did someone help me? Wait, where is this? I don't know this place!"

"No, leave me alone! Stop! Please, someone help me!"

The young man, who had just regained consciousness, suddenly heard a woman's cry for help.

"What is that sound?" the young man instantly turned his head towards the source of the sound.

'Fuck!'

The young man cursed venomously and tried to stand up when he saw two thugs trying to rape a woman.

After he managed to stand up, the young man marched towards the blue-haired thug. The thugs had no idea that the young man was behind them because they were focused on the woman.

After giving a hint to the woman not to say a single word, the young man instantly kicked the blue-haired thug's head.

BANG!

The blue-haired thug crashed to the ground, and blood came out of his mouth.

"You're still not dead?!" the red-haired thug retorted as he glanced at the young man. He thought the young man was dead. That was why they never paid attention to the young man again.

What's he talking about? Ah, I don't care. The young man thought to himself.

Even though he was injured, the young man had learned a few martial arts. He was sure that he could defeat the red-haired thug even in that condition.

The red-haired thug was unhappy by this and gritted his teeth, "This time, I, Dong Cu, will beat you until you can't stand up again!"

"No! Xiao Tian, run!" The woman screamed.

Xiao Tian was already injured from fighting with the thugs earlier, so the woman didn't want Xiao Tian to fight the red-haired thug again.

"DIE!" Dong Cu roared.

"Xiao Tian, be careful!" the woman shrieked.

Dong Cu instantly threw out his fist at Xiao Tian's head. As he was throwing his fist, his lips curled into a grin. Dong Cu believed that Xiao Tian wouldn't be able to avoid his fist with his injured body.

But he was wrong because Xiao Tian was able to avoid Dong Cu's fist easily by moving to the left side.

After avoiding Dong Cu's fist, Xiao Tian instantly kicked Dong Cu's head.

BANG!

Dong Cu coughed up blood and fell to the ground.

"What? Didn't you say that you wanted to beat me up earlier? Why are you lying down on the ground?" Xiao Tian said coldly as he stepped on Dong Cu's Chest with his right foot.

"Die!" Blue-haired thug, who was behind Xiao Tian, roared angrily. He threw out his fist at Xiao Tian's head.

Upon hearing that, Xiao Tian turned around and stated, "Stupid!"

Xiao Tian dodged his fist by moving to the left side before finally throwing out his fist at the blue-haired thug's chin.

BANG!

The blue-haired thug fell to the ground and fainted.

"Dong Wu!" Dong Cu shouted.

"Your brother is foolish! Why did he have to shout before attacking me?" Xiao Tian shook his head and sighed, "What a stupid person!"

"You....." Dong Cu gritted his teeth.

"Why are you angry? It's the truth!" Xiao Tian spoke and paused for a second before he continued, "Now it's your turn!"

"Wha-what do you want to do?" Dong Cu said with terror in his eyes

"Nothing," Xiao Tian responded as he raised his left arm and punched Dong Cu's head.

HUAAAKKK!

After receiving a punch from Xiao Tian, Dong Cu could no longer move his body.

"You deserve it!" Xiao Tian stated as he glanced at the thugs.

"Xiao Tian, are you alright?" the woman rushed towards Xiao Tian worriedly, and when she noticed blood on Xiao Tian's head, she was panicked. "Xiao Tian, your head! Let's go to my house. Let me take care of your wound first."

"Don't worry. It's nothing." Xiao Tian replied as he smiled beautifully

"But.... " The woman still wanted to treat his wound.

When he saw her expression, Xiao Tian could only sigh, "Alright."

Now that he thought about it, the woman always called him Xiao Tian. He remembered that his name was not Xiao Tian but Huang Chen.

Why did she call me Xiao Tian? He thought to himself.

Upon seeing his body, his eyes widened in disbelief.

'This is not my body! What's going on?'

A flash of memory suddenly emerged in his mind. After that, he knew what had happened to him.

'What is this? I... I'm taking over someone else's body?'

"What's wrong?" the woman questioned when she noticed him in deep thought.

"Nothing." Xiao Tian answered as he smiled.

Xiao Tian touched his chin and stared at the woman.

'Hmm. From my predecessor's memory, this woman's name is Lin Xing Xue, and she is my predecessor's neighbor.

She is a single mother with a daughter, but her ex-husband took her daughter from her, saying that he could raise their daughter better because he is rich.

She was saddened by it. That's why she is trying hard to make a lot of money so that she can bring her daughter back someday.

What's this?'

He didn't want to admit that he was taking over someone else's body.

However, he had no choice but to accept it.

Did I do something good in my previous life? But what was it? Why did GOD give me a second chance to live again? He thought to himself.

After thinking for a few minutes, he knew the answer. He immediately nodded his head and smiled.

'Un... un... I'm sure about it. It must be because I helped many lonely wives with their needs when their husbands couldn't satisfy them.

Ahhh.

It looks like I have to continue my good deeds in this life to make GOD happy.'
