I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1881-“Guys, please stop!” Moby loudly stopped.

“Who are you? You’re just a measly Pre-Saint. How dare you participate in the affairs between us? Do you want to die?” Cosmo asked aggressively.

He did not know Moby.

As a True Saint, Cosmo had been living in seclusion all year round and rarely came out. Even if he did, he would only get to know the powerhouses at the same level and would not care about Pre-Saints.

“Sir, I am Moby North, the direct affiliate of the Saints Association. This time, I came to mediate the grievances between the Lightfoot and Fellowes families under the order of the head.”

“A direct affiliate under the Saints Association, huh? It’s no wonder that you’re so nosey.” Cosmo sneered.

Moby did not talk back either.

It would be very foolish to argue with a True Saint.

“Sir, TSA has always been committed to maintaining the peace of Star Kingdom and we have made great efforts toward this. We are all members of Star Kingdom, so please think twice before doing anything!”

“Don’t tell me that. My family is now the victim with two dead heirs. Talk to him. If you can persuade the Fellowes family to hand over the murderer, I will naturally not pursue this anymore,” Cosmo pointed to Cedar in the distance with his eyes.

Moby met David so he knew some details about him.

It was also clear that the Fellowes family could not hand David over.

Even if the Fellowes family was willing to hand him over, the Lightfoot family needed to have the power to take him.

‘Do you think you can handle the direct disciple of a Sacred Saint?’

‘When the time comes, the Lightfoot family might be dying to throw this trouble as far away as possible.’

“If you want to fight, please move to the void. There are too many people here and a lot of them are the young outstanding talents of Star Kingdom. You will cause a lot of casualties if you’re not careful, and this will be a huge loss for Star Kingdom. No one wants to see this happen.”

Moby changed the subject when he saw that he could not change Cosmo’s mind.

He did not have much hope anyway.

He was just a Pre-Saint, and it would be unrealistic for him to ask two True Saints to shake hands and make peace with just a few words.

Moby only came up here because he had no choice.

If he did not come up here to say something, someone would surely call the Saints Association incompetent if word got out. The head would also be humiliated.

Cosmo was stunned.

He did not expect Moby to not talk to Cedar before asking them to fight in the void.

‘Does he think I am weak so he can bully me?’

“Cosmo, there are a lot of people here. So let’s go to the void if you want to fight,” Cedar said.

When the two were about to make a move, Tai took a step forward.

“Did you guys forget about me?”

Everyone looked at Tai.

Everyone almost forgot that this True Saint from the Palmore family was the one with the highest status here.

“Tai, what do you want?” Cedar asked with a frown.

He had a bad feeling in his heart.

‘Are these two joining hands?’

Even though he had a bit of conflict with Tai just now, he did not think much about this.

The Palmore and Ginger families were not enemies, but they were hostile toward each other either.

The Ginger family was also the Lightfoot family's backer, so in Cedar's opinion, Tai and Cosmo would never work together to attack him.

However, judging from the situation now, Tai suddenly stood forward, which made it apparent that he was about to take action.

He would never help Cedar, so there was a chance he would work with Cosmo.

"Nothing. I just want you to know that no matter how strong the Fellowes family is, you will never escape us," Tai said with a cold smirk.

"Are you joining hands with Cosmo?" Cedar had an unpleasant look on his face.

"No, you're wrong. We just want to test how powerful you are. We're not planning to join hands," Tai shook his head and said seriously.

"Hahah! Cedar, did you hear that? Even your family's backer is helping me to attack you. It shows that your family is at the end of your era. Give up!" Cosmo chortled.

"Grandmaster!" Roald yelled nervously from one side.

Valerio and Alba were looking over with nervous gazes as well.

"Tai, is this from you or the entire Palmore family?" Cedar asked in a deep voice.

"Is there a difference?"

"Of course! If it's from you, then this will be between us. If it's from your family, then it's between two families."

"Just think of it as from me. I just want to exchange techniques with you today. I want to see if you've improved after so many years," Tai thought about it and said.

Before getting the approval of the grandmaster, he did not dare to represent the entire family to have a fallout with the Fellowes family.

If not, he would not be able to explain himself.

Tai and Cedar were on the same level. They were both True Saints, but they had different statuses in their families.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1882-Cedar was one of the three strongest True Saints in the Fellowes family, and he was the only one who was not injured. Therefore, it was clear that he had a very high status. His words and actions could represent the entire Fellowes family.

However, Tai was different.

The Palmore family also had a Sacred Saint grandmaster who was in charge, so Tai could only listen to the grandmaster when it came to matters involving the entire family.

“Understood, then come on! I want to see what you two can do together!” Cedar said proudly.

“How ignorant!”

“How arrogant!”

Tai and Cosmo scolded loudly at the same time.

“Guys, please...”

Moby also wanted to continue to persuade them to move into the void.

Unexpectedly, Tai interrupted him.

“How presumptuous! You’re just a Pre-Saint, so who are you to speak here? Is there no one else in the Saints Association?”

Moby’s face turned dark and then pale when Tai retorted him, but there was nothing he could do.

It was not his fault that the other party was a True Saint!

He was even the True Saint of the Palmore family.

As the first deputy head of the Saints Association, the grandmaster of the Palmore family had a high status and was second only to the head, so who would dare to offend him?

Moby took a deep breath, calmed himself down, and said again respectfully, “Sir...”

“Get lost!”

With a wave of Tai’s hand, True Saint’s energy erupted, sending Moby flying.

His actions also shocked everyone present.

'He even dares to attack a member of TSA!

'The Palmore family is too arrogant!'

Moby did not suffer any harm, but he was shocked. He looked at Tai angrily, but he did not dare to say anything.

Tai was indifferent.

Moby was just a Pre-Saint, so what if he was a direct affiliate of the Saints Association?

With the grandmaster's status in the Saints Association, a Pre-Saint nobody like Moby was nothing to the Palmore family.

Without Moby standing in the middle, Tai and Cosmo started to focus on Cedar.

Cedar knew the two were about to take action.

He would have no chance of winning against two True Saints.

Therefore, he could only brace himself and take it.

"Cosmo, I'll handle Cedar. You should capture the Fellowes family member," Tai said.

He could not embarrass himself when he was joining hands with Cosmo.

"Alright," Cosmo chuckled.

He would be more than happy to have someone pave the way for him.

The two's energy exploded and spread across the scene with powerful destruction.

They even intentionally avoided the crowd down below.

"Tai, Cosmo, you scoundrels! You shameless scumbags! How dare you take action against the younger generation!" Cedar roared.

At the same time, he also showed his power as a True Saint.

However, it seemed like nothing under the bursts of energy from the two True Saints.

Aside from protecting Alba and Valerio, there was nothing Roald could do. They were too weak, so they could only watch as danger approached them.

Alba prayed in her heart, hoping that David could get his master as soon as possible. If not, her family would not be able to escape the calamity.

The crowd below stared straight into the sky.

Not everyone had the chance to watch the battle of True Saints. This would undoubtedly be beneficial to their cultivation.

When the two were about to collide, another burst of True Saint energy shot from the ground and went straight into the clouds. 4

Rumble!

Then, it separated the three bursts of True Saint energy.

This sudden change caused everyone's jaws to drop.

Even Tai and Cosmo stopped in their tracks.

'Is there another True Saint hiding in Treasure Trove?

'Is the entire Fellowes family coming out to battle?'
