

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1932

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1932-However, Sid still did not quite understand how this guy would dare to say such things in front of him.

Was it because it had been too long since Sid had done anything, so everyone thought they could bully him?

Not only did some people dare to violate the ban and kill a Saint, causing heaven and earth to mourn, but there was also someone who dared to tell Sid to give up his position as the head of the Saints Association.

“Zenon! Are you serious about what you just said?” Sid narrowed his eyes and asked with a hint of coldness.

He was furious now.

Not everyone could take the wrath of Star Kingdom’s number one.

“Of course! Sid, you have violated the law of survival of the fittest, causing Star Kingdom to become such a mess and resulting in some useless people exhausting the limited resources of Star Kingdom. Therefore, several of the deputy heads are united in removing you as the head. However, given your contribution to Star Kingdom, you can still enjoy the treatment of being a deputy head of the Saints Association after you retire to the second line,” Zenon said seriously.

Sid looked at Zenon.

He suddenly sneered and said, “Everyone, come out! Since you are here, why hide in the dark?”

After he said that, several space cracks appeared behind Zenon.

Several figures came out of it one by one and stood with Zenon.

There were three old men and one old woman.

Including Zenon, there were five of them in total.

They were the five deputy heads of the Saints Association.

Now, the six known Sacred Saints of Star Kingdom were all gathered in one place.

Except for Zenon, the other five looked very old, especially the old woman with a cane. She seemed like she was on the verge of death.

However, these people were the most powerful in Star Kingdom.

Those five people seemed old, but one must know that Saints were immortal, and they would not need to go through an Eternal Catastrophe.

Therefore, the organs and cells of their bodies would not age like ordinary people. They could always maintain their peak.

They looked old because they had been living for too long and their mental age was old, resulting in them looking like this.

Sid looked at the five people in front of him and knew this would be troublesome.

Zenon asked the other five Sacred Saints to gather together to pressure him.

Even if Sid was very strong, he could not fight five people at once.

What puzzled Sid was that the Ginger family and the Palmore family were always at odds with each other, and they were always in conflict, so how did Zenon convince York Ginger?

Moreover, that old hag Primrose Cristobal was also here.

Back then, she made a promise to Sid, but now she was siding with Zenon.

The five Sacred Saint deputy heads of the Saints Association were gathered together. It seemed that they were about to force Sid to abdicate.

Recommended Novels

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1931

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1931-“Zenon, I won’t pass your proposal.” Sid did not delay this time but refused directly.

“Why?” Zenon did not seem surprised and asked calmly.

He probably also knew that Sid had been stalling before.

“Do you know how much damage this proposal will cause Star Kingdom if it is passed? How much internal friction will there be? How many Saints will die? This will be a disaster for Star Kingdom,” Sid said aggressively.

“Lord Sid, I know that the mission of your family is to protect Star Kingdom, and I have always respected you, but I want to tell you you’re doing the wrong thing.” Zenon shook his head, still looking calm.

“Oh? I’m wrong? How am I wrong? Tell me.”

“You want to protect everyone’s safety, and there’s nothing wrong about that, but don’t you know that it will make everyone in Star Kingdom become flowers in the greenhouse? The powerful people grow step by step through battles. Without battles, where will we get powerful people? Don’t you realize that ever since you made the rules, there are fewer and fewer new Saints appearing? Even if they become Saints, they are also the kind of weaklings with no combat experience, which is worse than how they were before. If this continues, Star Kingdom will come to an end sooner or later, and...” Zenon said a lot in one breath.

Sid started frowning gradually as he listened to Zenon.

This guy was acting differently from before, it seemed that he came prepared.

“Zenon, I understand what you’re saying, but I still don’t agree with your proposal because once it is passed, it will inevitably cause chaos in Star Kingdom. There will be countless casualties. Such a result is something that the entire Star Kingdom does not want to see.”

“Lord Sid, isn’t it just right to cause chaos in Star Kingdom? Survival of the fittest is the rule and also the law of nature. Why do you want to forcefully interfere with it of your own will? Just like a chrysalis breaks out of a cocoon and becomes a butterfly. The process of breaking free may seem dangerous, but every chrysalis has to go through it. If you can’t bear to see it and decide to help it, you will harm it instead,” Zenon continued to persuade him earnestly.

“Zenon, what you said is too one-sided. If Star Kingdom is in chaos, the strong will only get stronger and the weak will have no chance to stand out. As long as I am the head of the Saints Association, I will not pass your proposal, so stop talking nonsense. I still have something to do. You can go.” Sid began to get impatient.

He knew what Zenon meant.

As long as this proposal was passed, the Palmore family would be the first to start a war.

Then, Star Kingdom would be in chaos and get reshuffled.

After the integration of resources, most of them would fall into the hands of major forces, and ordinary people would never have the chance to stand out.

The Saints Association would also exist only in name.

Survival of the fittest was indeed a law of nature.

However, as the head of the Saints Association, Sid would not stand aside and watch Star Kingdom become a breeding ground for evil where only the strong could survive.

He wanted to guard this place.

He wanted to let ordinary people live and work in peace and contentment, and also have the opportunity to grow.

This was the mission of the Griswold family.

It was also the direction that Sid had been working hard for.

At the very least, Star Kingdom had been quiet for a long time after he made the rules.

“Gosh, you’re so stubborn. Why can’t I get through to you?” Zenon sighed helplessly.

“Since you know you can’t get through to me, why bother coming here to say all these useless things? Get out of here, I don’t have time to waste with you.” Sid did not show Zenon respect and started to chase him away.

“Since you said that you won’t pass this proposal as long as you are still the head of the Saints Association, then, Sid, you shouldn’t be the head of the Saints Association anymore. You should retire to the second line to enjoy the rest of your life.”

As soon as Zenon said that, the scene immediately fell into an eerie silence.

The atmosphere was also getting more and more solemn.

Even the surrounding void became distorted with tiny cracks appearing.

The two Sacred Saints were confronting each other.

Any leakage of their energy would be horrific.

Even True Saint would need to stay out of the way for a while.

Sid finally started to pay attention as he stared carefully at Zenon in front of him.

‘Resign from the head of the Saints Association and retire to the second line to enjoy the rest of my life?’

‘Who the hell gave him the courage to say that?’

‘It seems that I was right.’

'Zenon really came prepared this time.'

Recommended Novels