

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 557 After the people representing the two families finished their speeches, it was time for the two engaged youngsters to say a few words. It could be seen that Theodore Patton, the young man from the Patton family, was very happy with this marriage as he was smiling the entire time, However, Gina from the Winters party was not so willing since her face was blank throughout the ceremony.

David felt that these two were a good match. After all, Theodore was the first heir of the Patton family and he was excellent in all aspects.

However, Gina reminded David of someone Luna Shoron, his classmate from South River University.

Her situation was similar to Gina's.

The Shoron family also seemed to have forced her to marry the Quinn family's heir.

David still owed her a favor if he remembered correctly.

Luna might use him to get rid of her family's control over her so that she would not need to marry the people from the Quinn family anymore.

Although David had killed Zachary, the Quinn family seemed to have found an illegitimate son to replace Zachary to become the first heir of the family.

It did not matter who the other party was in this kind of marriage. It was enough as long as they had status and identity.

Even if Luna was cunning, she did save Celia once before, and this was a fact.

If Celia was kidnapped by Hanley back then and something bad had happened to her, who cares if David destroyed everyone in the Chasez family?

With Celia's character, she definitely would not want to continue living if that happened to her. Thus, no matter what, David owing Luna a favor was an undeniable fact.

All debts would be settled if he helped her.

David did not know what kind of hidden family the Shoron family was and how strong they were.

He also wondered if his current strength and identity was enough to deter them and make them change their minds.

However, they should not be as strong as the Winters family.

After all, their collaboration partner, the Patton family, was indeed stronger than the Quinn family.

While David was wondering how he should take care of the matter surrounding Luna.

Another person got on stage.

Right now, Elsa was alone on the stage.

"Hello, to celebrate this happy day with Gina, I invited some friends from the entertainment industry to perform and liven things up. Now, let's welcome.."

Soon, some of Elsa's good friends from the entertainment industry went on stage to perform.

David was not interested in this since he did not follow any celebrities anyway.

On the other hand, Celia was captivated.

The ones on stage were basically A listers or super A listers.

Even though there were not many people at the scene, the fee for this kind of performance was quite expensive.

It might be even more expensive than the fee paid to perform in front of tens of thousands of people
One hour later..

Finally, it was Elsa's turn as the climax of the show.

She first sang a song she had prepared.

After she finished singing, she said, "This last song is the one I am the most satisfied with after my ten year long career. At the same time, it's also my favorite; I wasted a lot of effort to get it from one of my friends. Furthermore, that friend is also among you, but I won't reveal who they are.

"This song is also the hit song from my tenth digital album. Moreover, this will also be my last album because I will leave the spotlight after it is published, and I will not appear in the entertainment industry anymore. Everyone here today should already know my identity. My family cultivated me and allowed me to be stubborn for ten years. Soon, I will go back to my family and contribute to their development.

"Without further ado, this Flower Woman is for all of you. I hope you will like it."

After Elsa finished talking, thunderous applause came from below the stage.

However, those celebrities and big shots who were invited to attend were shocked. 'Elsa is leaving the entertainment industry?' Luckily, none of her fans were here. If not, there would definitely be chaos.

There should be a lot of her fans who could not accept this. However, since Elsa had said it herself, this was surely not a joke.

Chapter 558 They believed that she would make an official announcement soon.

Elsa's background in the entertainment industry was widely recognized.

Since her debut ten years ago, she never been involved in any scandals and she did not need to hype anything up. Even so, she could still prosper and sit firmly on the seat as the empress.

No one even dared to report any negative news surrounding her.

Other artists would go to great lengths to ask people to write songs for them. Meanwhile, everyone would send her their lyrics and songs so she could choose from among them.

Who would believe her if she said she did not have a strong background?

However, the first time these people were seeing who the Winters family backing Elsa was, they were busy marrying into the Patton family in Capital City

They did not know the Winters family was, but the Patton family was well-known in Capital City.

This also allowed them to finally see how strong Elsa's background was.

It was completely understandable that they were being suppressed by someone like this.

At this time, the music started... Elsa's charming and rich voice sounded. "I have planted a flower in my heart,

"And it is budding slowly.

"I wait day and night,

"For that person to come like a dream.

"The woman sways in the world like a flower,

"The woman sways gently in the wind like a flower, "Only hoping for a pair of gentle hands,

"To comfort the loneliness in my heart."

After Elsa finished her song, almost everyone was mesmerized.

Elsa sang of her helplessness. She was forced to bid farewell to the stage she loved and go back to her family to take over her family affairs.

She had no choice. She was the most talented one in her family. She would be the head of the family in the future, and she had been free-willed for ten years. If she did not go beyond the standard her family set every year in the test, she would not have even had those ten years to accomplish her dreams. David could feel Elsa's emotions. To be honest, he did not think about so many things when he wrote this song.

He only felt that this song would fit Elsa's temperament and voice.

Who would have expected this song to hit Elsa where it hurt?

Celia's eyes were filled with tears as she stood next to David.

She was also one of Elsa's fans.

Now that her idol was leaving the entertainment industry, she was very sad.

When David was about to comfort Celia...

Ring Ring!

His phone rang David picked it up and looked. 'Charles?'

He could be regarded as the first good friend David made after he obtained the system.

Furthermore, the Luther family helped him a lot when he had first started.

The reason he could join Falcon and the Special Task Force was because of Old Master Luther.

Chapter 559

David found a quiet corner in the hall to answer the phone.

"Charles," David said.

"Dave, it's me." However, a sobbing female voice said from the other end of the phone.

"Sandy?"

"Dave, my brother is injured! He won't let me call you for fear of bothering you, but I can't find anyone else to help except you," Sandy cried.

"Don't panic, don't panic. Speak slowly. What's going on? Where's Charles? Where's your grandpa?"

David asked.

Old Master Luther was still around, so there should be no problem troubling the Luther family. After all, he retired from the Special Task Force, and he could still rely on this official organization.

Even if hidden sects and families were frequently showing up, they would not dare to offend someone with an official Somerland background.

As long as the Luther family kept themselves safe, there should be no problem.

In the beginning, Old Master Luther also said that after his death, David would take care of the Luther family.

Could it be that someone had taken action against the Luther family even while Old Master Luther was still alive?

Who had such courage?

"I... I'm not sure! I only know that my brother was injured and was hospitalized a few days ago, and then my grandfather fell sick and was also hospitalized. I don't know your phone number, so I took my brother's phone in secret to call you."

"Alright, don't panic. I'll be over tomorrow morning. Don't worry, I am here and everything will be fine," David comforted.

"Thank you, Dave. I'll hang up first, my brother is calling me."

"Alright."

David hung up the phone and was a little anxious.

Charles was one of his few friends, and Old Master Luther had also helped him before.

Although Old Master Luther helped him with a certain purpose, David could distinguish between gratitude and grudges.

Since he had received someone else's gratitude, he should repay them as best as he 'could. Since he was busy upgrading his strength during this period, he did not have a chance to meet Charles the last time he went back to South River Province.

Now that the Luther family was in trouble, of course, he would not stand idly by.

He wanted to see...

Everyone thought Mason was going to die, so he wanted to see which one of those scumbags would dare to come out and go against Somerland.

At this moment, David's imposing aura was moving within him, and it slowly exuded from his body. However, he came back to his senses very quickly and immediately stopped it. There were a lot of martial artists here, so it would be bad if he scared the others.

The moment David exuded his strength, a few people including Elsa noticed this horrifying energy around them, and all of them felt a chill run down their spines.

However, while they were still in shock and had not come back to their senses, the strong energy vanished.

Even as they tried looking for it again, they could not find any trace of it anymore.

This confused them and they wondered if they were hallucinating.

The segment with the celebrity entertainment finally ended.

Next, all the circles would gather together and talk about their collaboration.

It was also the time for the children of the two families to get to know each other and establish connections.

When this party ended, it would mean that the Patton and Winters family had allied.

If it went well, they would prosper, but if it did not, they would crash and burn.

They might also go their own ways if there was a catastrophe.

However, one thing was for certain, a marriage-style alliance was much stronger than any other form of alliance.

Still, this had nothing to do with David. He only brought Celia here for the songs. After they finished with the song, he did not want to continue staying around anymore.

He still needed to send Celia back and prepare himself to head to South River Province tomorrow morning to see what had happened to the Luther family.

If the hidden sects and families dared to approach the Luther family, he would not mind killing one of them to set an example for the others.

This was so that the other hidden families and sects who were about to come out of hiding would realize that they needed to follow the rules of Somerland once they were here.

Besides, Old Master Stefani was still around!

Chapter 560 Even if Old Master Stefani was gone, David was still around.

Somerland could not fall into chaos.

Even if the world was in chaos in the future, Somerland could not!

David found Celia and said to her, "Celia, let's leave. I'll take you home first and say goodbye to your parents. I have something to do in South River Province tomorrow."

"Huh? Are you leaving tomorrow?" Celia asked reluctantly.

"Yeah, there are some things that need to be dealt with back in South River Province. Don't worry, I'll be back after I've dealt with it."

"Alright," Celia replied in a somewhat depressed tone.

She had been very happy today.

She heard her idol Elsa sing a song written by her boyfriend, and it was so good. However, when she heard that David was leaving tomorrow, she immediately became depressed. She knew that David was a great man so he must have a lot of work to do. Despite this, she was so sad that she could not control herself. Whenever David was gone, her world would begin to look dark. "Don't be sad, I'll be back when I'm done. Plus, I promise I'll take you wherever I go after graduation," David comforted.

"Alright, it's a deal." Celia finally felt better when she heard David say this. She was looking forward to this in her heart. 'I want to graduate soon, I want to graduate soon...'. That way, she could follow David wherever he went. David and Celia were about to leave. However, they were stopped by Elsa.

"David, do you have time? I want to talk to you about something," Elsa said, walking up to David. David looked at Celia next to him and said, "Miss Winters, is there anything you can't say to me right now?"

"Celia, could you lend me your boyfriend a few minutes? I have something to talk to him about," Elsa said to Celia.

"Go on, I'll take a look around," Celia said and let go of David's arm. Then, she went elsewhere. "After you," Elsa said after gesturing.

David also wanted to see what Elsa was doing. There was no way that she invited him to an important party where the two families were forming a union just because he wrote a song for her. After following Elsa for two or three minutes, they arrived at a quiet room. Elsa made David a cup of tea.

"You can tell me what you want to tell me now, right, Miss Winters?" David said, taking a sip of his tea.

"David, I, Elsa Winters, want to work with you on behalf of the Winters family," Elsa sat opposite David and said seriously.

"Work with me?" David asked with some doubts.

"Yes, with you," Elsa confirmed.

"I don't understand."

"My family is a powerful hidden family. Now that we're going to come out of hiding, we need to find a force in the world we can cooperate with. After all, we have been hidden for many years, and the world has been divided by various families and forces. If we want to join in now, we will definitely need a partner to work with," Elsa explained.

"Didn't you already have a partnership with the Patton family?" David asked.

"The Patton family is only one of the collaborative targets of the Winters family. A powerful hidden family can't only have one partner. Besides, the strength difference between the Patton family and the Winters family is too great."

"Why me then? I don't have a powerful family behind me, and I am only one person."

"My intuition! I know you're not a normal person. David, troubled times are coming and only a collaboration will result in a win-win situation. You will have limited power on your own after all," Elsa advised.

«I'm not interested, sorry. Miss Winters, I think you got the wrong person. I don't need any partners and I don't have the power to work with you. I'm just an ordinary fella »

– “David, don’t reject me yet. Not all collaborations are instant successes. You can understand my family first and then make your decision. I’ll give you some time.”

David pondered for a while and said, “Alright, I’ll learn more about your family, but let’s only talk about the collaboration after I finish doing so. If there’s nothing else, I’ll head out now.”

“Alright, I’ll wait for you. If you need to know anything about us, feel free to contact me anytime and I’ll cooperate with you fully.” Elsa stood up and extended her hand to say to David.

After that, David also stood up to shake Elsa’s hand before leaving the room.

Chapter 561 After David left, an old man walked out of a partitioned-off area in the room.

“Grandpa Sven, what do you think?” Elsa asked.

“Nothing. He’s just an ordinary person, Elsa, I don’t think there’s any need to waste time on him. The moment the family says something, there will be a large number of families lining up to cooperate with us,” the old man said.

“No way!” Elsa denied it immediately.

“Elsa! Don’t you believe in my ability? As long as he is a martial artist, I’ll be able to sense it, even if he’s only a third-class martial artist.”

“I trust my intuition more.”

After Elsa finished speaking, she took out a walkie-talkie and said into it, “Do it.”

Someone in the walkie-talkie immediately replied, “Roger that, Miss.”

Then, Elsa walked to the other room to stare at the big screen, with the old man following her.

This old man was Elsa’s grandpa, Sven.

Not only was he powerful, but he also had a unique sensing ability.

His status was very high in the Winters family. Except for Elsa, the future head of the Winters family, no one dared to talk to him like this.

Of course, this was also the reason why he had been fond of Elsa ever since she was a child.

Everyone in the Winters family spoiled Elsa as she was the most talented person in the Winters family in hundreds of years,

She carried the hope of leading the Winters family into reclaiming their former glory in the coming troubled times.

Therefore, in the Winters family, many of Elsa’s unreasonable demands were allowed.

She even disrupted the family’s plan and came out ten years ahead of schedule to chase her dream, which the family allowed.

Besides her, none of the younger generation in the Winters family enjoyed such treatment.

This made all the family members of the Winters family envious.

However, even if they were envious, they could not do anything because despite her roaming about in the outside world, Elsa’s strength and realm were indeed much better than theirs.

This was why Elsa received special treatment.

The moment David got into the hall.

He scanned the room and saw some men flirting with Celia about ten meters away. Meanwhile, Celia was responding to them, looking bored.

When David was about to walk over, he suddenly saw a server with a tray slip not far away from Celia.

The tray in the server’s hand was instantly sent flying toward Celia.

More importantly, there were four to five glasses filled with red wine on the tray.

If it hit Celia, not only would she be slightly injured, but it would also embarrass her.

The few glasses of red wine would definitely soak through Celia’s white dress.

If her white dress was dyed the color of red wine, one could only imagine what would happen.

Furthermore, there were so many people at the scene.

David did not have time to think, and he instantly exerted strength on his feet. Before the tray touched Celia, he rushed to her side, hugged her, turned around, and dodged the tray and red wine that had been flying toward Celia.

Celia was his girlfriend, and she was the woman he was going to love all his life. Hence, in his heart, he could not tolerate any damage to Celia.

Crash crash crash crash crash!

The tray and glasses fell to the ground, making a series of noises.

The server quickly got up from the ground and repeatedly apologized to the two of them. He kept bowing and he had a terrified expression on his face.

"I'm sorry, I'm so sorry!"

David ignored the server.

Instead, he spoke softly to Celia in his arms, "Are you alright?"

"I'm alright," Celia said, hugging David tightly and burying her head in his chest.

Although she said that she was alright, she was truly startled just now.

Only the smell of something familiar could make her feel at ease.

At this time, David looked at the server who had been bowing and apologizing. At the same time, he also saw some of the watermarks he stepped on when he slipped.

It did not look like it was intentional.

Hence, he did not want to split hairs over this.

"It's fine, just be more careful next time," David said to the server.

"Thank you! Thank you!"

The server continued bowing.

David left the hall with Celia, feeling curious.

Inside the room.

Elsa and Sven were staring at the big screen blankly. They could not come back to their senses even after a long while.

"G-Grandpa Sven! Did you see his actions?" Elsa broke the silence and asked.

Her voice was dripping with surprise.

"I-I didn't!" Sven stammered his reply.

At this moment, his face was also filled with shock.

The scene on the big screen just now was still replaying in his head.

Obviously, David was still at the edge of the hall a moment ago.

However, in the blink of an eye, he actually crossed a distance of dozens of meters and arrived at the other side of the hall.

Moreover, people were moving all around the hall, but he did not crash into a single person, which was a bit scary.

"How far was that?" Elsa asked again.

"It should be about thirty or forty meters," Sven replied.

"How long did he take?"

"In the blink of an eye, less than a second I think!"

"Grandpa Sven, can you do that?" Elsa asked, turning to look at Sven.

There was an inexplicable look in his eyes.

"I can do it if there are no obstacles, but in this case, I can't! At least a dozen people are walking back and forth in the middle, and it'd be so hard to not crash into anyone while 'crossing such a long distance in such a short period."

"So his strength might surpass yours?" Elsa asked in disbelief.

"This is impossible! How old is he? He's in his twenties, so even if he started practicing martial arts when he was still in his mother's womb and he has invincible talent, he would not be able to reach my level."

"Then how can you explain this?"

"Some sects and families that specialize in body movements and weightless technique can do it."

"Really?"

"Of course!"

"For example?"

"For example, Oden Clan's Heavenly Stairs. This is the weightless technique that's well-known around the world. If you can practice it to perfection, you will be able to do it," Sven said with certainty.

To be frank, he had never seen Oden Clan's Heavenly Stairs and he had only heard about it.

As for whether a person could do it if they practiced it to perfection, he had no idea.

However, he could only explain it in this way.

'He's just a young man in his early twenties. Could he be stronger than me?

'Impossible!

This kind of monster would not exist in this world.

Even in Somerland's thousands of years of history, no such person had ever been recorded.

He would rather believe that David had practiced this one kind of peerless weightless technique to perfection.

Even that was shocking enough, but it was easier to accept than David's strength surpassing his.

Chapter 562 Elsa did not pursue this matter further.

Instead, she walked in front of the big screen.

Then, she started to search for the scene of David at that exact moment.

She also did not believe that David was stronger than her Grandpa Sven.

One had to know that her Grandpa Sven was halfway to God Rank.

If David surpassed her Grandpa Sven, wouldn't it mean that he was a God Rank guardian?

David was only in his early twenties.

Like Grandpa Sven said, even if he started practicing martial arts in the womb, he would not have reached this level.

So, she chose to believe what Grandpa Sven said.

David must have learned some kind of top-notch weightless technique and body movement,

Furthermore, he had also practiced it to the state of perfection which was how he managed to achieve the effect earlier.

This was enough to shock her. She knew how difficult it was to practice a top-notch martial art to the state of perfection.

Even now, she had not practiced any of the Winters family's family martial arts to perfection.

Furthermore, she was nearly ten years older than David.

She wanted to slow down the video and rewatch it a few times to see how David could do something that even Grandpa Sven, someone who was halfway to the God Rank, could not.

'What kind of weightless technique and body movement is so powerful?'

The scene reversed to when David appeared at the entrance of the hall, then it slowed down and started playing.

On the screen, one could see David instantly turned into a shadow traveling among the crowd...

Apparently, slowing the footage down was not enough.

Elsa continued to slow it down further.

Finally, they could see him clearly.

After David saw what was going to happen to Celia, he rushed straight through the crowd. Whenever he turned the corner or turned his body sideways, he would perfectly avoid everyone. Finally, he approached Celia, grabbed her, and turned to avoid the tray and glasses.

The entire process was completed in just one breath.

There were no pauses in between.

It was as if he could predict everyone's movements and managed to avoid everyone perfectly, not even touching the corners of their clothes.

It was just incredible!

Sven admitted that he could never do that.

He could avoid these people quickly, but he would certainly be several times slower than David.

In reality, they did not know that what David used was not a weightless technique or any special body movement at all, but he was just simply exerting his strength to the extremes, coupled with his strong mind power to achieve such an effect.

Without the help of his strong mind power, David could still reach Celia's side in a flash, but the crowd between them would be thrown into the air in the process.

Moreover, the consequence of being thrown into the air at high speeds by a humanoid tyrannosaurus like him would either be death or injury.

So, of course, David could not do that.

"Grandpa Sven, can you figure out what kind of weightless technique this is?" Elsa asked curiously.

Chapter 563 "I can't tell. We have been hidden for hundreds of years. The Winters family was already hidden when I was born so how can I tell?" Sven shook his head with a wry smile and said.

"It's okay if you can't. This is not important'. The important thing is that since David can use such a wonderful technique, it means that he is definitely not weak. Why can't you sense his strength, Grandpa Sven?"

"That is what I am very puzzled about. Judging from the way he performed just now, his strength is definitely not bad, and at such a young age, his talent is unique. But I can't feel it at all, which shows that he should have a way to conceal his true strength."

"Grandpa Sven, you just said that David was just a normal guy and told me that I don't need to waste time on him," Elsa said with a smile.

"I'm getting old, the world belongs to the young people now. Troubled times are coming, and your generation is indeed a generation of heroes. Indeed, there are always people who are better than you," Sven had no choice but to sigh ruefully.

The kid he regarded as an ordinary person suddenly displayed such speed.

It was enough to shock him.

Elsa looked at David's figure on the big screen and smiled without saying a word.

She had to get David on the Winters family's side.

This was the first man she had ever fancied.

Her status destined her to never marry out of her family during her lifetime, so she could only find a more pleasing man to marry into the Winters family.

That was fine.

As the future head of the Winters family, she could choose her future husband.

Unlike other women who did not even have the right to choose their own partner.

This was also the source of motivation for her efforts.

If she did not work hard and lost her status as the first heir, she would be used by the family as a tool for cooperation and marriage, just like her cousin, Gina.

As for David's current girlfriend and his young age, in her opinion, they did not matter at all.

She believed that although she was nearly ten years older than David, she was well maintained enough, so she was no worse than other women in their twenties. Moreover, she was less youthful and more mature than them, so she should be pretty attractive to any man.

In the impending troubled times, it was important to have a strong background, and she believed that David would be the right choice for this.

Now, Elsa's only concern was David's background.

If the power behind David was equal to her family and David was the first heir, the possibility of recruiting David would be almost zero.

However, as long as one of the two conditions was not met, she still had a chance. She just had to pay a price.

"Elsa, do you fancy this David person?" Sven asked suddenly.

"So what if I do? Grandpa Sven, don't I have the right to choose my own partner?" Elsa did not refute but admitted magnanimously.

"Let's not talk about the fact that this kid already has a girlfriend, Elsa, you have to know that the power behind someone like David may not be as simple as you think since they could cultivate a talent like David. Although you have the right to arrange your own marriage, you can only recruit a live-in son-in-law into the Winters family. If David has a deep background, he might not be suitable. No entity will send its outstanding children to other people's homes," Sven said.

"Grandpa Sven, don't worry. I'll handle it well. Plus, we still don't know what background David has. What if he's an orphan and has a very powerful master? Who can be sure?" Elsa said.

This was also a problem that she was worried about,

However, she would not give up. David was the first man that she had ever fancied and not felt disgusted with in so many years.

"It's good that you understand. I'm just reminding you. You need to be well-prepared for certain things in case you're caught off guard."

"I got it, Grandpa Sven."

"I like this kid too. If we can get him to join the family then, of course, it'd be great.

Plus, heroes come from troubled times. They don't just come from big forces, they can also come from small forces."

"Thank you, Grandpa Sven! I'll work hard!" Elsa said seriously as she looked at David's figure on the big screen.

Chapter 564 David took Celia home, greeted Mindy and Jon, then left.

He was not going to live at Celia's house today because he was heading back to South River Province early the next morning.

While he was leaving, David remembered that when he was talking to Elsa alone today, he sensed some vague energy with his strong mind power.

Although the other party was well hidden, he still could not escape the detection of David's powerful mind power.

He should be a master that was halfway to the God Rank, and there was only a wall between them.

It was reasonable for a master who was halfway to the God Rank to be at this kind of joint party.

However, why did Elsa go so far as to bring him into that room?

Maybe she wanted that master that was halfway to the God Rank to probe him?

However, even Mason could not discover the hidden features of the system.

That person was just halfway to the God Rank, so how would he discover David's true strength?

Wait.

David suddenly recalled...

What if Elsa was trying to test him, and after the master who was halfway to the God Rank of the Winters family did not find anything, she asked the server to slip on purpose and pour the red wine in his hand onto Celia. Coincidentally, he saw it and they were testing his reaction...

If he really could not save Celia at that time, then there should be someone next to Celia who would help her block the flying tray and red wine glasses.

No wonder there was a first-class master beside her when he rescued Celia.

That was someone who would rescue Celia if he was really too late to help her.

Hence, it meant that the scene of him saving Celia had been filmed by the surveillance camera.

Elsa would definitely slow down and study the footage after he left. Therefore, his strength should have been exposed by now.

Back then, the speed that he could achieve with his full strength and the assistance of his powerful mind power was absolutely impossible for someone who was halfway to the God Rank.

Thus, if they compared it, they would find that his strength was beyond a master who was halfway to the God Rank.

Furthermore, the only rank that was above that was that of a God Rank guardian.

David did not expect the first person to know that he had become a God Rank guardian to be Elsa.

Even Mason did not realize that he had broken through, and now, Elsa found out after some probing Elsa was truly something else.

As expected of a woman who could become the first heir of the Winters family.

Her means, temperament, and strength were all excellent.

Plus, she already had a backup plan. Even if David found out now, he would not do anything to her.

After all, she did not do anything to hurt Celia.

Even if he could not rescue Celia in time, someone would have blocked the red wine and saved Celia.

David suddenly felt that he was still too inexperienced.

His strength upgraded too quickly during this period, and this made him feel that if he was strong enough, he could unveil all kinds of crafty plots and machinations.

All crafty plots and machinations were nothing in the face of absolute strength.

However, he forgot that he had not reached this point yet, and he could not suppress others with just his power alone.

If he thought about it carefully, he should have been able to predict Elsa's plan.

However, he was too careless and he did not think about it at all. That was why he only realized after it had happened.

It seemed that he had to pay more attention in the future from here on out.

Before he had absolute power, he should use his brain more. He would regard this incident as Elsa teaching him a lesson.

'Whatever, just expose my strength!'

Chapter 565

Elsa would not spread this information, and she will definitely increase her efforts to urge him to cooperate with the Winters family.

However, David did not really want to cooperate with the Winters family.

David did not like a woman who was as cunning as Elsa.

It would be very tiring to deal with her.

He still preferred a girl like Celia who was simple, cute, and not cunning.

The next day...

David left Capital City by plane early in the morning and returned to River City in South River Province.

After getting off the plane, David went straight to River City Hospital.

Although Sandy did not have a chance to tell David on the phone where Charles and Old Master Luther were hospitalized the day before, David suspected that it was probably River City Hospital.

At River City Hospital, David went directly to Director Tom's office.

David did not bother to knock on the door, instead, he just pushed the door open and went in.

With the improvement of his status, David had been slowly adapting to this change.

Tom was just the director of the hospital, so he was not worthy of David's politeness.

With his current status as a member of the Somerland Parliament, David could even completely ignore Cade, the cabinet minister of South River Province.

When David pushed open the door and went in, Tom, the director of the hospital, was burying his head in a book.

After hearing the sound of the door opening, Tom did not look up, but instead, he said in a majestic voice, "Who told you to come in without knocking? Go out and knock first!"

He was always a man whose words carried enormous weight in the hospital.

No one had ever entered his office without knocking.

Of course, it was not that there were no big shots who came to the hospital, but he would be notified of the big shots in advance and he would often go out to meet them.

"Dr. Lake, long time no see," David said.

Tom raised his head to look at David.

"M-Mr. Lidell?" Tom asked with uncertainty.

"Yes, it's me. I didn't expect you to still remember me, Dr. Lake."

Tom got up from his seat at once. Then, he walked out quickly, speaking as he walked, "Why didn't you notify me in advance, Mr. Lidell? Please take a seat! Please take a seat!"

David was someone he could not afford to offend as he had a close relationship with the Luther family.

Although he heard that the Luther family had been a little shaky recently, they were still not someone he could offend as a hospital director.

"You're too kind, Dr. Lake. I just came to ask if Charles and Old Master Luther are here," David said.

"Mr. Luther and Old Master Luther are staying in our hospital."

"How are they doing now?"

"Mr. Luther just suffered some internal injuries, but it's not serious. He should be able to be discharged in two days. It's just that Old Master Luther's old injury has recurred. In addition to his old age, he may not have much time left. We did our best as well.”

“Take me to see them,”

“Of course, Mr. Lidell, please come with me.”

After that, Tom led the way as David followed him.

When they arrived at Charles’ high-end ward, David could hear Sandy’s chattering voice inside.

“Mr. Lidell, Mr. Luther is here. I won’t disturb you anymore,” Tom said respectfully.

“Thank you, Dr. Lake,” David replied politely.

“You’re welcome, it’s no trouble at all. I’ll get going then.” After Tom said that, he left.

David pushed open the door of Charles’ ward gently.

Then, he saw Sandy busying herself next to Charles’ bed like a girl next door.

She did not look like the previous delinquent anymore.

After being criticized by David, Sandy completely changed herself. She changed from a mischievous and willful problematic girl to a sensible and obedient girl next door.

Chapter 566 David’s arrival immediately caught the attention of Charles, who was on the hospital bed.

“Dave!” Charles exclaimed in surprise.

“Charles, long time no see!” David also said with a smile.

At this time, Sandy turned to look at David, and suddenly called out in surprise, “ Dave?”

“Sandy, long time no see. You finally grew up,” David said with emotion.

He really did not expect Sandy to change so much. She was like a different person now.

This change was not only in her outfit but also her personality.

David had a whole new level of respect for her.

“Dave, you are finally here!”

Sandy immediately put down the apple she was peeling and ran over to hug David.

At this moment, Sandy finally could not hold back her emotions, and tears fell from her eyes.

A seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl like her could hardly bear what she had gone through in the past few days.

Her brother was injured and had been hospitalized, while her grandpa was in the intensive care unit.

Her relatives, including her irresponsible parents, did not come to the hospital to visit them immediately, but instead, they were planning how to divide the family property after the death of the old man.

She knew that she could not cry. She had to be strong and could not let her brother and grandpa see her cry as it would only cause them trouble.

However, the moment she saw David, she could not control herself any longer.

Besides her brother and grandpa, David was the person she trusted the most in this world.

David patted Sandy’s back lightly, letting the girl hug him and cry.

He knew that Sandy was under a lot of pressure these days.

He also knew of Sandy’s admiration for him.

However, this was destined to not end well because he already had Celia.

To be honest, Sandy was just like Celia.

He came forward and saved both of them during the most critical moment. Then, he left a deep impression on both girls.

He thought it would fade with time.

However, he could tell that even time could not get rid of something that was so deeply rooted in the deepest part of someone’s heart. He saw this firsthand with Celia.

He could not avoid it this time either.

He felt that he should find a time and explain this to Sandy. However, he could not do it right now.

'Sigh, I'll think about this in the future.'

David did not know how to explain this to the obedient little girl.

He needed to find a day to bring Celia over to meet Sandy.

When the time came, she should understand.

Perhaps she would back off after finding out.

Charles did not disturb Sandy.

After a few minutes...

Sandy stopped crying and let go of David with a blush on her face.

At this moment, Charles said, "Dave, sorry for that. This girl has been under a lot of stress these two days. It's all my fault as her brother."

"It's fine. I know. Just let her vent, if not, it'll be bad for her health," David said.

"Dave, Sandy told you, right?"

"Charles, we're friends. Plus, Old Master Luther helped me so much back then. So what happened? Why can't you tell me?" David said accusingly.

"Dave, it's nothing. I can handle it."

"Charlie, you're lying. Those people said Grandpa is going to die soon and they're going to divide the family property. They even said the Luther family offended some big shots and they want to flee after dividing everything," Sandy immediately retorted.

"Charles, what happened?" David asked.

"It's fine, really. My grandpa's health is getting worse, so they think our family is going to collapse. That's why they're getting ready to come and get the benefits," Charles said.
