

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2690 – 2691

Chapter 2690

Is indeed a leader in the industry.

He looked at Galia politely: "Miss Yan, this is the case. Although our company is your downstream company, it stands to reason that you are higher than us, but our company's strength should not be underestimated.

Why are we in We have always been the best in the industry, because some of your upstream companies are equipped with our downstream companies? For example, translation.

You directly translated the foreign language to us, so that we will save trouble when we take over the list.

But no To tell you the truth, our translation is not worse than yours at all.

We can take orders independently, and sometimes when facing upstream companies that are smaller than us, we can even take over the translation work for them.

Miss Yan, you Do you understand what I mean?"

At this point, Liao Jie's meaning was very clear.

The first thing he did was to embarrass Galia because of her lack of English.
Remembering the URL

Galia immediately understood what the other party meant.

If Galia's temper in the past and her English ability were put aside, she would directly confront Liao Jie.

However, after talking with Arron and Suzi, Galia has made it clear that she has to be strong in her heart.

What is true inner strength?

There is tolerance.

It's informal, it doesn't matter.

What's more, if Liao Jie could take over this aspect of the work, it would save her a lot of trouble.

She only needs to review it once, so why not do it?

Galia replied generously: "Okay." She smiled sweetly, naturally with the taste of the little sun.

Liao Jie was stunned for a second.

Then he sneered in his heart.

He deliberately brought a semi-professional translator today.

This translator can only translate some routines, not any complicated ones.
This time, Liao Jie said to the translator that he would bring her out to see the world.

In fact, it was aimed at Galia.

Since Galia is so greedy for this job and so fond of vanity, then don't blame him for Liao Jie's cruelty.

He has a way to make Galia look ugly.

Liao Jie said in a low voice: "Let's start accounting for raw materials and costs. By the way, the first large order we received today is an overseas medium-sized store that has always cooperated with your Fu Group.

The design concept they want is aimed at middle-class consumption, that is, the quality must not be poor, right?"

In terms of fashion, Liao Jie is already very professional.

Galia nodded: "Yes."

"I heard that the person in charge of the other party happens to be here too, Miss Yan, let's bring it over and sum up." Mr. Liao took the initiative to invite the person in charge from abroad.

Galia hesitated for a moment and looked at Liao Jie: "Mr. Liao, are you...are you sure you want the foreign person in charge to participate?"

Liao Jie sneered: "Isn't it possible?"

Galia shrugged: "It can be... but he... doesn't know Chinese, he only speaks English."

Liao Jie said lightly: "I, my assistant, and Miss Yan, who can't understand English? We can communicate in English throughout the whole process. No problem.

Miss Yan, you... There must be something to hide."

Galia stammered: "No, no..."

"Then hurry up!"

"Okay."

Galia made a phone call, and after a while the foreign The person in charge was brought into the conference room by the company's special receptionist: "Miss Yan, Mr. Liao, the guests are here."

Liao Jie immediately greeted him in English.

Then, to the convenience of a very fast English.

Liao Jie was stunned on the spot: "..."

He didn't understand a word of the English spoken by the other party.

why is that?

Looking back at his assistant, the assistant was even more confused.

On the other hand, Galia looked at Liao Jie in confusion: "Mr. Liao, didn't you say that you are fluent in English?"

Chapter 2691

Liao Jie's face suddenly turned red.

He faltered.

He has always been very confident in his English, but in any case he did not expect that he could not understand the English spoken by the other party.

Galia inadvertently smiled contemptuously, and then said to the receptionist who came with the foreign person in charge: "Take this gentleman to his hotel first, he needs to rest because he is tired by boat and car." The receptionist said: " Okay."

Then he led the foreign person in charge who spoke English that no one could understand and left.

Liao Jie looked at Galia puzzled: "Why did you tell him to go, shouldn't he be involved?"

Galia shrugged: "Do you understand his English?"

Liao Jie: "... .."

After a pause, he asked Galia angrily: "Do you understand?"

Galia didn't answer.

She didn't want to compete with Liao Jie at all, she just read the information seriously and handed the English marked place to Liao Jie's assistant.

Then he said calmly: "Mr. Liao, let's not talk about whether I can speak English or not. The gentleman from abroad can't understand Chinese, and neither you nor your assistant can understand the English he speaks. How are we going to communicate from now on? It's better that the three of us communicate first.

After everything is settled, let's communicate with him again, isn't it good?"

In fact, the real reason was that Galia didn't want the foreign person in charge to be there. It's not a matter of language inability to communicate.

The real reason is that Galia does not want a foreign person in charge to know too much about domestic raw material costs.

For Fourier, the lower the cost control, the better the quality control, and the higher the profit.

Galia couldn't make the cost of her accounting known to the person in charge abroad.

This is the real reason why she let the foreign person in charge leave.

But at this moment, she didn't want to tell Liao Jie the truth.

She found that since she talked to Arron and Suzi once, her heart was really opened.

A truly open-minded person usually doesn't care too much, doesn't care, and naturally doesn't want to explain anything. It's best to go with the flow and follow the flow.

Galia looked at Liao Jie's expression, and in Liao Jie's eyes, Liao Jie felt that Galia was very good at pretending.

He mocked Galia in his heart: "I want to see you, how long can you keep it up?" He sneered calmly on the surface: "Okay."

It all depends on Liao Jie and Galia.

In the process of checking each other, they both found that the other party has made great progress in the past few years.

Liao Jie's professional knowledge is very strong.

Not only that, his raw material supplier selection is also very rich.

Galia is also not inferior.

She is extremely strict in cost accounting. She can always shop around and choose the best one in the fastest time. Liao Jie also found that Galia can always control the cost to a minimum, and she can still be inadvertently. to help their downstream companies and save a little more cost.

Since then, the cost of upstream companies like Fu's Group has been reduced a lot.

And downstream companies like Liao Jie also squeezed out a lot in terms of profits.

But these need to be the same as living, careful planning, good planning, and then collocating with each other, so as to be able to increase income and reduce expenditure.

At that moment, Liao Jie suddenly felt a sense of admiration for the plain, gentle and generous girl in front of him.

He was in a trance, is this Galia?

Is it the Galia who was obedient to him and pestered him?

How ugly, how spineless and how disgusting was Galia back then?

At that time, she tried every means to cover up her shortcomings. In order to show her perfect side in front of him, she even combed her hair very well.

Now, she is wearing loose-fitting jeans, and the sleeves on both sides of the casual version of the slightly loose-fitting suit are naturally rolled up to the elbows.

Looks smart and natural.
