I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2012-Once one's enemy was ready to fight without the fear of death, even if one was much stronger than the opponent, they would not be able to perform well.

David's main form also went to the front at this time, standing with Cedar and the other two.

There were four True Saints, which made the Palmore family feel that this was going to be a little tricky.

"David, I don't want to thank you too much. We will remember your kindness, so as long as my family survives this calamity, this will definitely be written into the genealogy of the family, so the family will always remember this," Cedar said to David solemnly.

"Cedar, you're too kind. I, David Lidell, am not an ungrateful person. Your family helped me before, and now that you're in trouble, there is no reason for me to stand idly by," David replied casually.

Cedar did not continue but turned to look at the Fellowes family.

"From today onwards, David will be the most honored guest of our family. Treat him like you would treat me. If I find anyone who dares to disrespect him even in private, they will be expelled from the family immediately as it will not be tolerated."

"Greetings, Master David!" All of the Fellowes family members shouted.

How would they dare to disrespect David?

Aside from David True Saint's strength and his Sacred Saint's master, he was the man who gave the Fellowes family hope.

Alba stood among the crowd.

At this moment, she felt extremely proud.

She was the first person to meet David and established a good relationship with him that lasted all the way to the present.

Without the help of David and his master, the Fellowes family would have been wiped out by now.

The two sides confronted each other.

The Palmore family clearly had the absolute upper hand.

However, the Fellowes family, who was weaker, was in high spirits, while the Palmore family was silent.

“Captain Macall, the grandmaster should have given you a task, right?” Draken suddenly asked loudly.

“Draken, don’t worry! We will naturally carry out the order of the head with everything we have,” a voice came from the fleet at the back.

After getting affirmation from the captain of the Saints Association’s law enforcement team, Draken also grew more confident.

‘That’s good! Everyone in the Palmore family, follow my orders and take down the Fellowes family. From now on, Star Kingdom will only respect the Palmore family.’

“Kill! Kill! Kill!”

“Everyone from the Fellowes family, those Palmore scoundrels want to trample on our homeland and make us their slaves. Tell me, what should we do to them?” Cedar asked loudly.

“Fight! Fight! Fight!”

The two families were about to go to war.

David was in a deep dilemma. 1

In reality, he should reveal his strength at this time to prevent this battle from happening.

If the fight broke out, both sides would surely suffer heavy losses.

The Palmore family already had four True Saints ready to fight. In addition to the members of the Saints Association’s law enforcement team, their strength far exceeded that of the Fellowes family.

However, even though the Fellowes family was relatively weak, but they had the determination to die with the enemy.

Once the battle started, there would be a lot of dead Saints, let alone everyone else.

If he only used the strength of a late True Saint, he would not be able to control the tides of the battle.

David did not care about the fate of the Palmore family.

However, if the Fellowes family suffered too many casualties, it would be difficult for him to explain himself if his secret was one day revealed.

The clone was fighting fiercely, while Zenon truly deserved to be called a peak Sacred Saint. The clone which was suppressing his strength could not gain the upper hand at all.

However, this was exactly what David wanted.

Since he needed to accumulate combat experience, of course, the longer the battle, the better.

David had only two options now.

Either he let the two families go to war and watch the Fellowes family suffer heavy casualties, or he could at least expose his strength as a Sacred Saint and prevent the battle from happening.

However, if he exposed himself, it would inevitably make others suspicious.

'Sigh, this is so difficult.'

Just when David was in a dilemma, the two families started to act.

The three True Saints from the Fellowes family beside David rushed out first.

In the meantime, four figures also rushed out of the Palmore family battleship.

At this moment, David finally made up his mind.

In the end, he still could not bring himself to watch the Fellowes family suffer heavy casualties.

The Fellowes family had been too kind to him.

'I can only expose myself,' David sighed helplessly in his heart.
