I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2055-Lorraine was slowly being pushed back in the sky.

Eira and her sister had thrown caution to the wind, so Lorraine had no chance of fighting back against them.

From afar, Nova and the others could see something was wrong.

Both sides of the battle did not seem to exude the oppressive feeling of True Saints.

Although Nova was only a peak Sovereign Ranker, as the current head of the Iridescent Sect, she had come into contact with a lot of Pre-Saints and True Saints.

Hence, she could tell that the four reputable elders and Lorraine only had the strength of Pre-Saints, not True Saints.

'What's happening?'

She did not know what happened that weakened the strength of the four reputable elders so much to make them fall from True Saint Rank to Pre-Saint Rank.

Logically speaking, as far as Lorraine's Pre-Saint strength was concerned, any one of the four reputable elders could easily defeat her.

Even so, the four of them teamed up and could not gain victory despite fighting for so long.

Regardless, if the current situation continued, Lorraine would soon be seriously injured.

In this regard, Nova could not do anything either.

Even if it was a battle between Pre-Saints, it is not something a peak Sovereign Ranker like her could participate in.

Although she really wanted to know the secret of the forbidden place from Lorraine, she could not save Lorraine from the four reputable elders.

Therefore, she could only wait for David's arrival.

With David's Sacred Saint strength, Nova believed that the forbidden area's secrets would be exposed in no time.

"Pfft!"

Lorraine was careless and suffered a hit on her back. Then, she vomited a mouthful of blood that dyed half of the green gauze dress on her body red.

She had just become a Saint not long ago.

Therefore, she had insufficient combat experience despite all her strength.

As a result, Lorraine had no power to fight back when facing the four mad sisters.

If it were not for the extremely strong defense and recovery power of her Saint's body, she would have been unable to hold on.

After that, she suffered several blows in a row.

"Pfft!"

Another mouthful of blood spurted out.

The green gauze dress on Lorraine's body had been stained red with blood and had now turned completely crimson.

She looked mournful and it seemed that she had no chance of winning.

Even so, she still did not choose to give up.

Because once she gave up, it would mean death.

Therefore, she had better fight to the end.

In the karst cave under the forbidden area.

When Lorraine was hit in the battle just now, she sprayed a mouthful of blood right into the cold pool.

Then, it disappeared after being absorbed by the smoke floating above the cold pool.

No one noticed this detail.

After all, it was a battle of life and death, so who had the energy to pay attention to these things?

The blood flowed into the depths of the cold pool along the smoke and was absorbed.

Lorraine's alluring body was the last condition for the awakening of the master according to Eira and her sisters.

However, this mouthful of blood was enough.

Thump!

A seemingly inaudible heartbeat appeared in the cold pool.

It was as if something had been awakened.

Then...

Ba-thump!

There was the first heartbeat, which was soon followed by a set of continuous heartbeats.

However, a mouthful of blood was too little.

It could only restore the slight beating of the heart, but not activate the other organs.

The heartbeat in the cold pool was very small, and it could even be said to be faint.

It would be very difficult to hear it even in the karst cave when one was not paying attention.

It would be even more impossible to perceive anything in the outside world.

The battle over the forbidden area was still raging.

Under the constant attacks of the four sisters, Lorraine's resistance became weaker and weaker.

The battle seemed to be reaching its finale.

The four were happy as this matter was finally coming to an end.

As long as they took Lorraine and threw her into the cold pool, their master would wake up after absorbing her.

After that, their task would be also completed.

After the master recovered, they could return to their hometown.

They had been away for so many epochs, and now they could finally return.
