The Divorced Billionaire Heiress chapter 2511-It was the end of the month.

Julie called Selena.

“Ms. Nelson, I would like to invite you to the movie premiere. After all, you participated in this film, and everyone must be looking forward to seeing you. But I respect your decision either way.”

Selena paused. She had never participated in such an event, so she was a little uneasy.

Just as she was about to reject Julie’s invitation, Julie happily added, “By the way, the male and female lead will also join. Don’t you like the male lead, Harvey Sage? I can arrange for you to take a photo with him. He’s an actor from Falcon Entertainment. If you don’t want to walk on the red carpet, you can attend the banquet after the screening. We hired a renowned chef, and his cooking is superb.”

Julie introduced the event excitedly, and Selena responded with a smile.

“Okay, I’ll go, just for Harvey.”

Anyway, Selena had nothing to do.

Moreover, with Julie and Nicole there, Selena felt that nothing out of the ordinary would happen.

Selena hung up the phone and excitedly prepared for the premiere.

She had to dress appropriately and could not be so casual.

Seeing her excitement, Chaz was speechless for a moment.

Selena had never been this excited even when Eric pursued her.

Did she like Harvey that much?

On the day of the premiere, Julie sent someone to pick Selena up.

Selena was wearing a simple dark purple dress that outlined her exquisite figure. She looked so charming that people could not take their eyes off her.

When Selena became popular, she wore a dark green dress, but today, she chose a dark purple dress, which was different from last time. However, the style of the dress was the same as her character’s.

It was an appropriate choice.

Julie praised her repeatedly when she saw Selena. "You're stunning! I've never seen anyone wear this style better than you can!"

Selena smiled and was elated to hear this.

"Thank you. I just want to leave a good impression on Harvey."

Julie was speechless.

After a pause, Selena suddenly remembered something.

"Is Ms. Stanton coming? I haven't thanked her in person for helping me the last time."

"She's not coming. She hates these kinds of events the most, so she went to an art exhibition with Clayton." 1

Julie looked at Selena meaningfully and smiled.

"Can I ask you a question? You can choose not to answer if you're uncomfortable."

Selena raised her eyebrows. "Do you want to ask about my relationship with Eric?"

Julie was a little surprised and smiled frankly.

Selena did not shy away from it. She had no reason to hide from those who helped her.

Besides, Selena also knew that Julie had no ill intentions.

Julie was simply curious.

Selena said bluntly, "We have an underground relationship. We don't want to make it public lest it gets too troublesome when we break up."

Julie patted her on the shoulder and gave her a thumbs up.

"I admire you for being so brave!" 2

Selena was speechless.

There was a press conference at the beginning of the premiere on the red carpet. However, only a few media were invited.

Julie led Selena inside from the back door and skipped the red carpet.

Julie brought Selena to her seat and went to other places to socialize.

Selena looked around. Her seat was in the middle of the third row, and there were famous big names in showbiz all around her.

Harvey was assigned the seat on Selena's right.

Selena was so close to Harvey.

She excitedly waited for everyone to take their seats.

A soft rustling gradually came from the back.

Selena guessed that the people coming from the red carpet were talking to each other as they passed by.

She subconsciously sat up straight.

As soon as the person next to her sat down, Selena looked over excitedly.

Sure enough, it was Harvey Sage, who was wearing a mask. He looked back at her, and they were both stunned.

Then, Harvey smiled and said politely, "Hi, you must be Selena. I saw your clip online and thought that you have great acting skills. You don't look like a newbie at all."

He proactively stretched out his hand, and Selena shook it excitedly.

"Thank you. You're my idol!"

Harvey laughed loudly.

"Thanks for being a fan."

He was so formal.

Harvey's original contract with Falcon Entertainment was about to expire, and he was still debating whether he should renew his contract.

His fans' opinions were also divided.

In the end, Harvey accepted the offer to act in Julie's movie. This implied that he had already made a decision.

Falcon Entertainment's boss was Kai, and Julie was Kai's wife.

This meant that Harvey intended to renew his contract with Falcon Entertainment.

Someone suddenly appeared on Selena's left side. Julie leaned over and said in a low voice, "How is it? Are you excited?"

"Hahahaha!"

The premiere started, and everyone gradually became quiet.

After that, they went up to take pictures one by one. When it was time for the group photo, Selena also went on stage.

She was also standing next to Harvey.

This small segment during the premiere was broadcasted live.

The netizens noticed Selena because of the gossip online, but what made her shine even more was her sexy dark purple dress.

Therefore, several hot topics online had photos of Selena and Harvey.

Julie kept an eye on the situation and made sure there were no malicious comments.

At that moment, Eric just got off the plane.

He could not get through to Selena and was feeling restless because the Yeagers were making a move, and they still had not given up yet.

Of course, Eric did not give them any respite.

Thus, as soon as he came back from abroad, he immediately kickstarted his plan to acquire Yeager Corporation.

However, Eric was worried that the Yeagers would target Selena, so he was a little distracted.

Mitchell, who was behind Eric, saw the unanswered calls on Eric's phone screen.

He coughed and handed over his phone to Eric.

"Ms. Nelson is attending a movie premiere. She's very excited to meet her idol up close..."

Eric took the phone and saw the two people in the photo. He narrowed his eyes and felt a little depressed. 2

Eric and his group left the airport.

Mitchell instructed the driver. "Go to the office."

This was their original plan.

Eric suddenly said, "Let's go to the premiere." 3

Mitchell was speechless.

He felt that Eric was a changed man.

Eric actually put off work for a woman.

"Mr. Ferguson, we don't have an invitation..."

Mitchell spoke awkwardly.

"Do you have to ask me about such a trivial matter?"

Eric's tone was indifferent.

Would Eric need an invitation to go anywhere?

Mitchell remained silent. He quickly contacted the organizer of the premiere.

When they arrived, the premiere was over, and the reception had already begun.

Selena met her idol, so she felt elated and excited.

No one would deliberately create trouble at the reception either.

Julie's event was well-managed, and the people she invited were carefully selected. Thus, everyone could talk to each other casually.

The media was not invited to this private reception, but many of them were waiting outside the venue.

Selena was cheerful, so she got to know almost everyone after a round of introductions.
