I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2138-Before Nas finished speaking, Beanie scolded him, "Shut up!"

"Uh..." Nas did not expect Aunt Beanie to say that to him, so he was stunned for awhile.

It took a few seconds for him to come back to his senses. He stared at David unhappily, but he could only close his mouth resentfully and stop talking.

He did not dare not to ignore Aunt Beanie's words.

At least for now.

When he became the head of the Nacht family, then he would have the right to ignore her.

"My friend, judging from your outfit, you don't look like an adventurer," Beanie continued to ask after scolding Nas.

"Is there anyone who stipulates that if you dress like this, you can't be an adventurer?" David asked the other party.

"I guess not."

"Exactly! I can wear whatever I want, and there are no rules saying what adventurers should wear."

"Then where are you from?"

"I entered The Spirit Cage from Leila."

Beanie was speechless.

'Which one of us didn't enter The Spirit Cage from Leila?

'Could it be that he was born and bred in The Spirit Cage?'

In The Spirit Cage, besides people, everything else was virtual, but these virtual things had some practical effects which could increase one's mind power.

This kid was just pretending to be confused.

Since David did not want to tell her, Beanie decided to stop asking.

She would not get anything even if she continued.

On one side, Nas stared at David fiercely.

If it were not for David, he would not have been scolded by Aunt Beanie.

“My friend, since you don’t want to tell me, forget it. You should stay and journey with us in this wilderness. It’ll be safer that way. I will keep what the Nacht family’s promise. Since you have passed the screening and become an escort, you will still get everything that you deserve.”

As soon as Beanie finished speaking, Nas next to her blew a gasket.

‘He didn’t do anything and yet he’s getting paid?’

“Aunt Beanie...”

However, Beanie interrupted him just as he was about to speak.

“Is what I said not clear enough?”

“No,” Nas replied, suppressing his anger.

“Then do as I say! Nas, you are the future head of the Nacht family, but why are you still so petty? How can the Nacht family be handed over to you in the future? A narrowminded head will be the sorrow of the family! If you keep acting like this, we will consider replacing you.”

Nivia, who was walking over, heard this and her eyes lit up.

However, they dimmed soon after.

It was a pity that she was a daughter, so she was not qualified to compete for the position of the head.

“I understand, Aunt Beanie.” Nas lowered his head.

He did not dare to continue talking for fear of angering Beanie.

With the other party’s status in the Nacht family, she was genuinely qualified to propose his replacement.

“Okay! Let’s go! Let’s go back to the family as soon as possible and tell the head what happened just now. Since the Chez family dared to treat us like that, they must pay the price.”

Beanie’s eyes turned cold as she left quickly.

Nas hurriedly followed.

Nivia, who came over, glanced at David and left without stopping.

David stood there and thought for a while.

Then, he turned around and got onto the carriage.

'Let's go together then!'
