I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2154-Even if one was walking inside in the daytime, it would still be very dim, making it particularly eerie.

Therefore, this section of the road was named the Demon Ridge.

The people from some third-tier cities around Nightingale City, as well as small towns like Crow City, had to pass through the Demon Ridge if they wanted to reach the second-tier city, Sole.

Hence, the merchants would often pass by this place.

Due to the peculiarity and uniqueness of the Demon Ridge, many people chose to entrench here to form gangs and become robbers just so they could wait for passing merchants and charge a little toll.

At the same time, they could also hunt and kill wild animals to eat and exchange for money.

Under normal circumstances, they would let the people go as long as they collected the money and would not kill anyone.

Otherwise, it would be bad for them if things got serious.

Someone once broke the rules and targeted a mother and daughter passing by. They then killed all the servants and abused the mother and daughter to death.

However, they did not expect the mother and daughter to be direct descendants of one of the rich families in Sole.

In the end, this big family encircled and suppressed the Demon Ridge with all their strength, causing countless deaths and injuries.

Of course, the group of people who broke the rules was naturally caught and executed in Sole by a thousand cuts. The scene was extremely bloody and cruel.

After this, the people active in the Demon Ridge fell to the lowest point in history as nine out of ten people died under that siege.

Furthermore, the remaining ones would also be more careful when choosing their targets as they were afraid of offending people who they could not afford to offend.

Beanie asked the team to put a big flag with the word Nacht on every carriage.

The Nacht family was big in Nightingale City. Although it was much inferior to Sole's big families, they were not that weak either.

Under normal circumstances, no one would attack such a force.

So, Beanie did not care much about the Demon Ridge either.

If some ignorant people confronted her, she would not mind teaching them a profound lesson.

Even if she could not, she had a bigwig here.

According to Beanie's guess, there should be an unfathomable guard beside David, and he was the one who saved her from Linus and the masked man in black.

However, until now, she never saw this person.

Since this person could hide in the dark all this while without being discovered, it showed just how strong he was.

At least with Beanie's strength, that person's strength was unimaginable.

The Nacht family's team entered the Demon Ridge and the light dimmed instantly.

It was as if they had gone from daytime to nighttime.

David lifted the curtain of the carriage window and looked outside curiously, only to see them walking in a spooky forest.

After one glance, he lost interest and continued to close his eyes and meditate.

In another carriage, Nivia looked excitedly at the scene outside.

'Is this the legendary Demon Ridge?'

'It is said that there used to be many robbers entrenched here.'

'After a siege, most of them died and they haven't recovered since.'

'I have only heard of the Demon Ridge before, but I've never seen it.'

The Nacht family did not go to Sole a lot, and she and Nas had not been in The Spirit Cage for a long time, so they had definitely never gone through the Demon Ridge before.

“Aunt Beanie, do you think there will be robbers stopping us and charging us tolls?” Nivia asked curiously.

“Why? Do you want to deal with them?” Beanie asked with a smile.

“I’m just curious!”

“According to logic, they would not dare to approach us. After the siege many years ago, almost 90% of the robbers died and their blood flowed like a river! After these trees absorbed the blood, the leaves were even covered with a trace of blood. That battle has scared these guys out of their wits.”

“Aunt Beanie, is the Beam family from Sole so powerful? They made the robbers who lived on the edge daily nearly vanish overnight.”

“It wasn’t just the Beam family. Almost all Sole’s forces participated in the war. If these robbers were not put under control, they would have become bigger and more arrogant. The death of the direct descendants of the Beam family was just a fuse,” Beanie explained.

“I see!” Nivia was stunned.

She just heard that Sole’s Beam family tried their best to besiege and kill the robbers in the Demon Ridge.

She never expected there to also be this kind of insider information.
