

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2205

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2205-In a small living room, David sat on a chair with Pebbles in his arms.

The little girl was looking in front of her curiously.

Meanwhile, Beanie sat next to David.

There was a table between the two.

Opposite them were the five Elf women who had been bought for 250 billion L Dollars.

After getting 2500 lavish points, David was pretty fond of the Elf women.

It was a pity he was not bolder at that time.

He should just increase the price to 500 billion.

The five Elf women were still huddling together after getting out of the cage. They were all looking at David in fear.

David took out five pills, handed them to Beanie, and said, "Ms. Nacht, please give them these pills and ask them to take them."

Black Fox gave him those pills.

The reason why the Elf women had not made a sound until now was because Black Fox had drugged them. He fed them drugs that made them lose their voices.

These five pills were the antidote.

Beanie took the pill and replied respectfully, "Yes, Master David."

After speaking, she got up and went to the five Elf women.

Then, she passed the pills in her hand to the women.

The five Elf women shook their heads again and again, expressing that they would not eat.

Just when Beanie was about to force them, David spoke.

“This is the antidote. You will be able to talk after taking it. Don’t worry, I have no malicious intentions.”

Upon hearing David’s words, four of the Elf women looked at the Elven Princess whom they were protecting.

The Elven Princess nodded slightly.

One of the Elf women took the five pills from Beanie’s hand, took one, but did not distribute the remaining four.

After taking the pill, she soon discovered that she could make sounds.

There was also no discomfort in her body.

Only then did she distribute the rest of the pills.

David watched all of this happening.

Then, he was even more sure that the Elf in the middle had a special status.

Before long, all five of the Elf women were able to speak again.

They finally had smiles on their faces.

They were also no longer looking at David with fear in their eyes.

Yet, there was still a trace of curiosity in them.

In David’s eyes, they could not see the desire and greed of other human men.

Instead, there was only calmness.

It seems that the human man in front who bought them genuinely had no malice.

“Thank you, Master!” the Elven Princess said.

Her voice was melodious like a lark.

It was by far the finest voice David had ever heard.

They were indeed a race sought after by all major forces.

The Elves did have the ability to mesmerize others.

Just saying a few words in that voice could make people feel at ease, so it would be even more pleasant if she was singing.

Coupled with their exquisite figure, they would definitely cause a huge sensation when placed on the earth.

Those A-listers would be nothing in front of the Elves.

“You’re welcome! By the way, how did you fall into Black Fox’s hands?” David asked curiously.

The Elven Princess briefly narrated what happened.

Yet, she did not say that she was the Elven Princess.

After David heard, he was silent for a moment before asking, “So there are nine of you, and four of them were captured by another group of people to cover your escape. Then, you were deceived by Black Fox and were brought to Sole, right?”