I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2219-David soon noticed movement outside, and a sneer appeared on the corner of his mouth.

It seems that these people won't be convinced until they face the harsh reality. David had already shown mercy, yet they still refused to let it go.

If that was the case, they should not blame David for being merciless.

David had already given the Macee family a chance, but it was a pity that they did not cherish it.

Just when he thought that people from the Macee family would rush in and was about to take action, the movement outside slowly disappeared.

This puzzled David.

'What happened?

'They are already here anyway, so why not rush in like Conway?

'Are they only trying to monitor me and not let me flee?'

After thinking for a moment, David felt that this was very possible.

Perhaps it was because they could not see well at night, so it would not be suitable to take action. So, it would be time to act in the daytime after the night passed.

Since the Macee family did not act, David did not bother to chase them. He too would like to take action during the day.

This was not the real world. Without his mind power, he could not fully control the situation.

He only had a lot of strength, so it would be fine for him to kill.

However, it would be a little troublesome for him to protect others.

He could kill everyone around him with one move, but if he did that, he could not distinguish between friend and foe.

David did not show up and the Nacht family's elite guards were frightened.

After disposing of the corpse, they took over the night duty, and this time, everyone was very alert.

It did not take long before they could hear a lot of movement outside again.

It must be the Macee family who had come to avenge Conway.

However, things did not develop as they imagined.

The Macee family did come and surrounded the mansion but they did not break in.

The night passed like this.

Early the next morning, Lord Basil of the Macee family brought the seniors of his family to the luxurious mansion David was staying in.

The powerhouse who was standing guard here called out respectfully, "Lord Basil!"

"Is he still in there?" Basil asked.

"Yes, Lord Basil."

"Fantastic. Go in with me to see who this presumptuous person is."

After he said that, Basil pushed the door open and walked in.

After a night of investigation, he still could not find out who David was.

However, he knew that David came to Sole from Nightingale City not long ago. Not only was he powerful, but he was also wealthy.

Now, he was hanging around the Nacht family of Nightingale City.

Basil was not bothered by the Nacht family at all.

They were just a small family from a third-tier city, so he did not need to be scared of them. Moreover, he could wipe them out whenever he wanted.

As for where David came from before he went to Nightingale City, they still had no idea as they only had a little time to check.

Basil came here himself to find out who David was.

As soon as they knew David's identity, they could decide what to do next.

Once he entered the premises, he saw a young man sitting in the front yard. He had a little girl in his arms and behind him were five Elf women and a beautiful middle-aged woman.

According to the information he got, that person was David Lidell, the person who killed Conway.
