

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2225

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2225-Beanie was still in shock.

Before the battle started, she had thought that David would win.

However, she did not expect him to win so quickly and so thoroughly.

Sole was not far from Nightingale City, so Beanie knew the status of the Macee family.

They were definitely in the top three and David wiped out such a powerful family just like that?

For a long time, Beanie thought that David had a strong bodyguard hiding in secret to protect him.

He looked too young after all.

He looked like a direct descendant of a powerful force who just came out to practice.

This time was no exception. When David took action, a hurricane swept up the dust in the front yard, causing everyone's vision to be blocked.

So, Beanie still assumed that it was done by the bodyguard who secretly protected David.

Even that was shocking enough.

With such a powerful bodyguard secretly protecting him, it was enough to prove how terrifying the forces behind David were.

If she got approved by David after following him, she would surely get endless benefits.

"Ms. Nacht, I will leave the rest to you. Dispose of the corpses of the Macee family." David walked up to the women and said to Beanie.

"Ah! Oh! Don't worry, Master David, I will tidy up the yard soon." Beanie responded quickly, coming back to her senses.

‘Thank you for the trouble!’

“It’s no trouble! No trouble at all! This is what I should do.”

Pebbles reached out to David for a hug.

David smiled and shook his head. Then, he knelt, stroked the little girl’s head, and asked, ‘ Davey has killed so many people this time. Are you scared?’”

“I’m not scared! You’re only killing the bad guys. Even if Davey doesn’t kill them, I will also kill them to avenge you when I grow up. Those who bully Davey are all bad guys,” the little girl said seriously.

David held the little girl in his arms and stood up.

“Pebbles, you are still young, so you can’t keep thinking about violence. Although we don’t cause trouble and are not afraid of trouble, girls should behave like girls. It’s not good to be violent or you won’t be able to marry when you grow up. Just let me handle all the violent things in the future, okay?”

“No! I want to help Davey too. I won’t marry!”

The little girl pouted with an unhappy expression on her face.

Then, she thought for a while and added, “If I have to get married, I will only marry Davey.”

“Okay! You will only marry me and I will wait for you to grow up,” David said jokingly.

In his opinion, a seven or eight-year-old girl was childish and would not understand what marriage meant.

Perhaps she heard it somewhere and was now copying them.

She would soon forget about this.

Hearing what David said, the little girl had a happy smile on her face again.

‘Then it’s settled! You have to wait for me to grow up!’

“Sure. It’s a deal, it’s a deal!”

David did not know that his so-called childishness had already planted a seed in the little girl's heart. Then, it took root and sprouted.

It is not known how she would face David when she grew up and remember.

Holding Pebbles in his arms, David entered the mansion, followed by Princess Evie and four Elf women.

Beanie began to direct the Nacht family guards to clean up the bodies in the yard.

The major forces also quickly left.

What they saw today had been enough for them to digest for a long time.

The Macee family's forces in The Spirit Cage had been completely annihilated. So, it was hard to say whether they would dare to send more people in.

If that was the case, Sole was bound to have a huge reshuffle. The Macee family left such a large family property unmanaged, who would not want to take the opportunity to reap some benefits?

Plus, no one was mayor now.

Since Basil was dead, the mayor's position was vacant.

Sole's major forces would work together to compete for the position of mayor.

Sole would be in chaos.