

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 241 You Know Lin Fan?

Liu Gonglu and Manager Zhao... practically jogged all the way into Feiyang Building.

Then, they quickly took the elevator and went straight to the main entrance of Flower Stem.

The beautiful woman sitting at the front desk smiled and said, "May I ask what you need?"

Manager Zhao said, "Hello, I'm Zhao Haibo from Qingkong Company. We have an appointment with your company's Director Qu today to discuss the matter of Flower Stem's channel."

The receptionist looked at the record on the computer and said, "Mr. Zhao, Director Qu has arranged for you to meet in Conference Room 2. This way, please."

After saying that, she walked in front and led Manager Zhao and Liu Gonglu inside.

"Sorry to trouble you," said Zhao Haibo.

Creak!

When he pushed open the door of the meeting room, there was already someone sitting inside.

"Mr. Zhao, please wait a moment. Director Qu will be here soon," the receptionist said.

"Alright," Zhao Haibo said.

After the receptionist left, the middle-aged man who was already sitting inside smiled and said, "Why, if it isn't Manager Zhao from Qingkong Company? I just finished talking to Director Qu and you came over? The timing is quite accurate."

Zhao Haibo's expression became a little ugly when he heard this. He said, "Did you talk to Director Qu?"

The middle-aged man was Chen Meng, the department manager of Runfeng Company.

Runfeng Company and Qingkong Company had always had a strong competitive relationship.

Chen Meng's purpose for coming to Flower Stem was self-evident.

"Of course, I have." Chen Meng smiled proudly. "Moreover, Director Qu is very satisfied with our Runfeng Company."

Instantly, Zhao Haibo's expression turned even uglier.

Creak!

At this moment, the door of Conference Room 2 was slowly pushed open. A middle-aged man of medium build strode in.

Zhao Haibo, Chen Meng, and Liu Gonglu's hearts suddenly tightened. They said in unison, "Hello, Director Qu."

If it was a year ago, no, three months ago...

When they saw Director Qu, they would at most treat him as an equal. How could they be so respectful like now?

On the contrary, it was Director Qu who should curry favor with them.

This was because Runfeng Company and Qingkong Company were even larger than Flower Stem back then.

In addition to the fact that Runfeng Company and Qingkong Company were handling the sales channels and promotions, Director Qu still had to work hard to build good relationships with Zhao Haibo, Chen Meng, and the others.

However...

In just three months, the status of Flower Stem had changed drastically.

Flower Stem's perfume and essence, especially the essence, were too popular. As long as their products entered the market, they would be sold out in an instant.

As a result, the scale of Flower Stem expanded rapidly, and the distribution companies scrambled to reach a partnership with Flower Stem.

That was because possessing Flower Stem meant possessing popularity and wealth.

"Hello, everyone." Director Qu nodded.

Then, Director Qu looked at his watch and said, "I have a meeting in about ten minutes. If it's possible, Manager Zhao, you'd better tell me the details of your company's cooperation in ten minutes."

"Alright," Zhao Haibo quickly said.

Then, Zhao Haibo took out a stack of information and quickly explained.

About ten minutes later...

Director Qu said, "Manager Zhao, I have to say something first... Before you came, I had already reached a verbal agreement with Runfeng Company.

"Your company's conditions are not bad. However, I'm not convinced that I should give up my initial plan and cooperate with you guys instead. Therefore, I can only apologize."

After Director Qu finished speaking, he stood up and walked out.

When Zhao Haibo heard this, his face turned slightly pale.

Flower Stem had chosen to go with Runfeng Company!

This... This was definitely the worst news for Qingkong Company.

Chen Meng, on the other hand, smiled casually and said, "Hehe, it seems that our Runfeng Company is quite lucky."

Then, he walked out.

Zhao Haibo was not willing to give up easily. He hurriedly chased after him and said, "Director Qu, Director Qu..."

However, Director Qu ignored him.

Liu Gonglu said carefully, "M-Manager Zhao...What should we do now?"

"What should we do? What do you think we should do? I've already told you that today's meeting is very important. You must be prepared!" Zhao Haibo shouted, "But what did you do? You were actually chatting in the car!"

Liu Gonglu knew that Manager Zhao was in a fit of anger. Moreover, he was indeed in the wrong.

Therefore, he could only lower his head and did not dare to speak at all.

At this moment, Chen Meng walked out of the office with a stack of documents and a smile on his face.

"Manager Zhao, I've already received the contract. Now, I'll bring it back to the company to get it stamped and signed. Then, our Runfeng will be able to obtain a large amount of Flower Stem's essence." Chen Meng smiled smugly.

"Manager Zhao, your business skills are not bad. What do you think? Would you like to consider coming to work at Runfeng?"

"We can't work with Flower Stem this year, but next year..." Zhao Haibo grunted. "Things might change!"

"Next year? Haha! Manager Zhao, do you think you can get the contract by then? Don't deceive yourself!" Chen Meng sneered.

In fact, Zhao Haibo himself did not believe his words.

It could only be considered something he said out of anger.

However, Zhao Haibo's words suddenly reminded Liu Gonglu...

At this moment...

Lin Fan's words suddenly echoed in Liu Gonglu's mind. 'If you struggle to reach a cooperation, just say that you know me.'

At the same time, Liu Gonglu thought about how he had learned from his classmates that Lin Fan was a well-hidden rich second generation.

Finally, Liu Gonglu mustered up his courage and said in a louder voice, "I know Lin Fan!"

When Zhao Haibo heard Liu Gonglu's words, he quickly thought of the young man who drove them here not long ago and the conversation between the two.

He immediately felt angry. 'In the past, I thought Liu Gonglu was smart and capable.

'Now, it seems that he's simply an idiot! Does he really think that just by mentioning Lin Fan, Flower Stem would choose to work with us? What a joke!

'What if the company thinks he's making a scene and chases us out?'

Thinking of this, Zhao Haibo was ready to scold Liu Gonglu.

However, before he could open his mouth, a series of brisk footsteps sounded in the distance, and a faint fragrance drifted over.

Then, a pleasant voice sounded from the side, "You know Lin Fan?"

Zhao Haibo, Liu Gonglu, and Chen Meng turned around to look.

In the next moment...

The three of them were stunned.

The person who said this was not someone else... It was Chu Yunyue, the president of Flower Stem!

242 Regional Agent; Treat Him to Dinner!

Even when Flower Stem was not as popular as it was now, Zhao Haibo, Chen Meng, Liu Gonglu, and the others had never come into close contact with Chu Yunyue like today.

Chu Yunyue was a famous beauty in the cosmetics industry.

Ever since Flower Stem became popular in Jiangbei, Jiang Province, and even the whole country, it was even harder for Zhao Haibo and the others to get in touch with Chu Yunyue.

They did not expect to get so close to her today.

Chu Yunyue looked at the three people who were in a daze. Finally, her gaze fell on Liu Gonglu and she asked again, "You know Lin Fan?"

At this moment, Liu Gonglu slowly came back to his senses and stammered, "Yes... Yes, he's my former classmate."

Chu Yunyue nodded and looked at Liu Gonglu with a gentler gaze. "Why did you come to our company today?"

Liu Gonglu hesitated and said, "I I'm Liu Gonglu from Qingkong Company. Our company wants to cooperate with Flower Stem..."

"Alright," Chu Yunyue opened her almond-shaped mouth and said.

This sudden word caused the atmosphere to turn heavy.

At the same time, Liu Gonglu was at a loss.

He stuttered, "C-CChairman Chu... You mean"

“Didn’t you just say that Qingkong Company wants to cooperate with our Flower Stem? I agree! If I remember correctly, other than Jiangbei, your Qingkong Company also mainly does business in the southern part of the country, right? How about this? Our Flower Stem and Qingkong will sign a contract stating that Qingkong will be our sole agent in the Southern Xia region. What do you think?”

Sole agent?

In other words

In the entire Southern Xia region, only Qingkong Company could get their perfume, essence, and other products of flower Stem and sell them through channels.

If other companies also wanted to sell Flower Stem’s products, they would have to purchase from Qingkong Company and become their second-tier distribution company?

Chu Yunyue saw that Liu Gonglu did not reply, so she frowned and said, “You don’t agree?”

Before Liu Gonglu could reply, Zhao Haibo, who was beside him, quickly said, “Yes, our Qingkong Company is willing!”

They were willing!

Not only were they willing, but they were extremely willing!

This was simply like a pie falling from the sky.

In fact, Zhao Haibo came today only to get an ordinary sales channel.

As for being the sole agent of a certain area, he had never even thought about it.

Now, they had directly become the sole agent of the Southern Xia region!

The Southern Xia region was the headquarters of Qingkong Company. It had a vast territory and unlimited market potential!

At this moment, Chen Meng, who had been in a daze, said, “Uh... Uh... President Chu, Director Qu and I have already reached an agreement on the distribution channel between Runfeng Company and Flower Stem in the Southern Xia region.”

As Chen Meng spoke, he took out the contract that he had just obtained not long ago.

“Have both parties already sealed and signed the contract?” Chu Yunyue frowned slightly.

“When I bring the contract back, we’ll stamp and sign it,” Chen Meng said.

“That means you haven’t.” Chu Yunyue said, “You don’t have to sign the contract with us. In the future, if you want to sell through channels, you can just sign the contract with Qingkong Company.”

Sign a contract with Qingkong Company?

Would they not become a secondary channel for Qingkong Company, then?

Chen Meng’s eyes widened in disbelief. “This... Why?”

Chu Yunyue obviously did not intend to answer him. She turned to Director Qu, who had just walked out of the office, and said, “Director Qu, for the distribution contract agreement, you and Liu... Liu Gonglu should come to an agreement.”

Regarding the contract...

Both Qingkong Company and Flower Stem had their own template.

Now, they only needed to discuss the specific details.

After a while, the sole agent contract for the Southern Xia region was given to Qingkong Company.

After Zhao Haibo walked out of Feiyang Building, his face was full of smiles.

At this moment, he found Liu Gonglu very pleasing to the eye.

Zhao Haibo gently patted Liu Gonglu’s shoulder and said, “All along, I knew you were a smart and capable person! You really didn’t disappoint me!”

His tone was so resolute that it was as if he had completely forgotten that he had called Liu Gonglu an idiot.

It was the first time Liu Gonglu was praised like this. He scratched the back of his head in embarrassment.

“Oh right, who exactly is Lin Fan?” Zhao Haibo asked again.

After saying that, he looked at Liu Gonglu with anticipation.

Just the mention of the name had given Qingkong Company such a good contract.

It was hard to imagine.

“Lin Fan is my former classmate. In the past, he was considered relatively ordinary in our class... As for the specifics, I don’t know,” Liu Gonglu said.

Zhao Haibo thought for a moment and said, “No matter what, Lin Fan has helped us a lot. Give him a call to thank him first. It would be best if you can treat him to a meal.”

Liu Gonglu nodded repeatedly, took out his phone, and made a call.

...

After Lin Fan returned to the Santana, he did not continue to take orders. Instead, he focused on the mission system.

[Mission: Complete five special orders. Reward: Five golden packets.
Progress: 3/5]

...

Seeing this

The corners of Lin Fan’s lips curled up slightly as he smiled, “I didn’t expect that I would be able to get closer to getting golden packets after sending off an old classmate. I just have to complete two more orders and I can get golden packets!”

At this moment, Lin Fan’s phone rang.

“Lin Fan, are you free later? Can we have lunch together?”

As soon as the call was connected, Liu Gonglu’s voice came from the other end.

“Okay!” Lin Fan replied.

After all, they were both former classmates, so having a meal together was nothing.

Moreover, Liu Gonglu had helped him just now.

“How about we meet at the Imperial Hotel?” Liu Gonglu said.

When Lin Fan heard this, a weird look appeared on his face.

He had just gone to the Imperial Hotel for dinner yesterday.

Today, he was going over again?

Was he going to treat the Imperial Hotel as a canteen?

However, thinking back to the delicacies in the Imperial Hotel, Lin Fan said, “Sure, let’s meet at the Imperial Hotel.”

After hanging up the phone, Lin Fan turned the car around in front of him. Then, he continued to drive forward leisurely.

When Lin Fan arrived at the Imperial Hotel, Liu Gonglu and Zhao Haibo were already waiting in the lobby.

Zhao Haibo said in a very enthusiastic tone, "Hello, Mr. Lin."

Lin Fan casually said, "Hello."

"Mr. Lin, this way please. We've already booked a table." As Zhao Haibo spoke, he brought Lin Fan to the main hall on the first floor. It was a table by the window.

This seating arrangement was obviously not comparable to yesterday's VIP Room 8.

However, Lin Fan did not care about where he ate.

Therefore, he sat down as well.

243 Thank You; It's Good for the Company!

Thank you readers!

Zhao Haibo had already ordered the dishes. After Lin Fan sat down, fragrant dishes were served.

Although the dishes in front of him were not as sumptuous as yesterday, they still looked very exquisite. Lin Fan took a light whiff of the fragrance, and he started to drool.

"Liu Gonglu often mentioned you in front of me. Unfortunately, I never had the chance to meet you" Zhao Haibo said.

"In the morning, because I was in a hurry to go to Flower Stem for the discussion, I didn't have time to chat with you. It has made me feel a little regretful.

!!

"Now, we finally have a chance!"

Lin Fan glanced at Liu Gonglu, who had his head lowered. He knew that Zhao Haibo was saying some pretty words. Rather, he was trying to please him.

He had roughly guessed... the reason why the other party was like this.

However, Lin Fan did not point it out. He smiled and said, "Manager Zhao, you're too polite."

“This isn’t being polite. I’m speaking from the bottom of my heart!” As Zhao Haibo spoke, he raised his wine glass and said, “Here, let me toast to Mr. Lin first!”

Then, he directly drank the wine in his glass in one gulp.

Lin Fan and Liu Gonglu also drank a glass.

When Zhao Haibo saw this, he became even happier and said, “Speaking of the negotiation with Flower Stem, it’s all thanks to you! Originally, it might have been difficult for our Qingkong Company to obtain the distribution rights this time

“But, Mr. Lin, you let our Qingkong Company become the sole agent for the entire Southern Xia region! Thank you, thank you so much!”

When Zhao Haibo mentioned this matter, his entire face became rosy.

With the popularity of Flower Stem’s perfume and essence, he could already imagine the huge profits that Qingkong Company would earn after becoming the sole agent of the Southern Xia region. He could also imagine the scene of the company praising him and Liu Gonglu.

Thinking of this, Zhao Haibo raised his wine glass again and said, “Mr. Lin, let me toast you again!”

After saying that, he poured another glass of wine into his stomach.

Then, the three of them continued drinking, eating, and chatting. It was very relaxed.

At this moment, Liu Gonglu suddenly said, “Lin Fan, do you know the president of Flower Stem? Why did she make our company the sole agent of the Southern Xia region the moment I mentioned your name”

When Zhao Haibo heard this, his figure straightened slightly, and his ears could not help but perk up.

Obviously, he was also very curious about this question.

It was really This matter was too unbelievable.

“Yeah, I know her,” Lin Fan said casually.

“And the reason why she directly made your company the sole agent of the Southern Xia region is probably... because I’m the biggest shareholder of Flower Stem.”

As soon as he said this, Zhao Haibo and Liu Gonglu suddenly opened their mouths wide and were stunned on the spot.

Flower Stem The biggest shareholder?

If he was the major shareholder of the previous Flower Stem, it would be fine. However, being a shareholder of the current Flower Stem was too amazing!

The biggest shareholder?

How high was his net worth?

Lin Fan did not care about the two people who were shocked. He rubbed his round belly and said, "I'm full. I'll leave first."

After saying that, he stood up and walked out of the hall.

At this moment, Zhao Haibo and Liu Gonglu came back to their senses.

They looked at Lin Fan, who was already far away, and turned to walk toward the cashier.

"Hello, we're here to pay the bill," Zhao Haibo said.

"Sir, you don't have to pay for your meal with our boss," said the waiter with a smile.

"Your boss?" Zhao Haibo frowned slightly. In the next moment, his pupils suddenly constricted, and he said, "You mean... Mr. Lin?"

"Yes," the waiter said.

Instantly, Zhao Haibo and Liu Gonglu were stunned once again.

The biggest shareholder of Flower Stem!

The owner of the Imperial Hotel!

This...

Any one of these identities was enough to make people look up to them.

At this moment, they were focused on a young man in his 20s!

Simply...

It was simply unimaginable!

However, what they did not know was that this was only a small portion of Lin Fan's assets.

If they knew all of his assets, what would their expressions be like?

After a while, Zhao Haibo asked with difficulty, "M-Mr. Lin is..."

"I... I don't know either..." Liu Gonglu was stunned.

...

In reality, Lin Fan did not leave the Imperial Hotel.

Instead, he went to the presidential suite on the top floor of the Imperial Hotel, which was specially prepared for him.

After eating and drinking his fill, Lin Fan lay down on the soft bed, feeling extremely satisfied and enjoying himself.

At this moment, his phone vibrated slightly.

...

12:00 PM!

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received five yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 999 yuan.]

...

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 10,000 yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received three yuan.]

Lin Fan casually tapped on the screen and received a total of 40,211 yuan.

Just as he was about to put down his phone, a brisk ringtone rang.

It was Chu Yunyue.

"Are you free for lunch?" Chu Yunyue asked.

"You're late. I just finished eating with my former high school classmate, Liu Gonglu," Lin Fan said.

Chu Yunyue said, "Oh, okay. I've been quite busy recently. I might not be able to accompany you."

Lin Fan said, "It's okay. But don't tire yourself out. Your health is the most important."

He paused before continuing, "By the way, is it okay for you to hand over all the sales channels in the Southern Xia region to my former classmate's company?"

Lin Fan knew that Chu Yunyue was a very ambitious person.

She had always wanted to create world-class perfumes and cosmetics.

Lin Fan did not want Chu Yunyue's career to be affected because of him.

After all, compared to a former classmate, his lover was definitely more important.

Chu Yunyue smiled. "Don't worry. I was planning to get a few regional agents. It's too complicated and messy to sell through scattered channels.

"The influence and scale of Qingkong Company in the Southern Xia region are very good. It's beneficial for us to let them be the sole agent

"You know what? Our Flower Stem's products have already caused quite a stir in the country. If we continue to develop... becoming a top brand in the world is definitely not an extravagant hope"

Chu Yunyue started talking non-stop at the mention of the company. She sounded very excited.

When Lin Fan heard this, he broke out into a smile.

The two of them chatted for a while before hanging up.

...

When Lin Fan picked up his phone again, it was already four in the afternoon.

He slept very comfortably.

Lin Fan did not continue to drive on DiDi. Instead, he lay on the bed and played with his phone.

When he was hungry, he picked up the phone beside his bed and asked the waiter to send up a sumptuous meal.

Then, he rested for a while.

In the blink of an eye The sky turned completely dark.

Only then did Lin Fan go downstairs. He drove the Santana and walked leisurely through the streets. He would occasionally receive a DiDi order.

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 244 Looks Like They Should Be Grateful To Me?

In the past, when Lin Fan was still an ordinary employee in the company, he would lie on the bed as soon as he got off work. He did not want to move at all.

Even though he had been in Jiangbei for a few years, he had never visited Jiangbei properly.

However, when he drove through DiDi today, he felt a different kind of beauty in Jiangbei.

The spacious and clean road, the neon shops, and the pedestrians who were laughing...

Lin Fan's face was filled with ease and satisfaction.

At this moment, it would be more accurate to say that he was on a road trip in Jiangbei rather than driving through DiDi to complete a mission.

At this moment, Lin Fan's phone vibrated slightly and another order appeared.

He turned the steering wheel and went straight to the location.

Two young people who looked like students got in.

"Jiangbei University of Arts and Science. Thank you," the boy said.

Then, he whispered, "There are still ten minutes before the dormitory door closes. I'm afraid we won't be able to make it in time..."

The girl seemed to be a little flustered. "Then what should we do?"

"Did you bring your ID card?"

The girl nodded lightly.

The boy said, "Then... If it really doesn't work, we'll stay outside today."

The girl did not answer and just lowered her head silently.

At this moment, Lin Fan, who had been silent all this while, said, "Ten minutes? Don't worry, I'll definitely drop you off before then!"

He first looked at the map, then stepped on the accelerator and turned the steering wheel. He sped through the shortcuts.

In just seven minutes, Lin Fan arrived at the dorm entrance of Jiangbei University of Arts and Science.

Seeing this...

The boy and girl got out of the car with blank expressions.

"There are still three minutes." Lin Fan shouted, "Quickly go back to the dormitory!"

After saying this, he stepped on the accelerator and sped away.

Lin Fan held the steering wheel with one hand and rubbed his nose with the other. He smiled and said, "They made it back to the dorm in time.

They should be very grateful to me now, right?"

Then, he casually looked at the mission system.

[Mission: Complete five special orders. Reward: Five golden packets.

[Progress: 4/5]

Seeing this...

Lin Fan's face revealed a look of surprise, "Another special order? It seems like... they're really grateful to me!"

Lin Fan looked at the gradually empty street. He took a turn at the intersection in front of him. After a while, he arrived in front of a door.

After the doorbell rang, Hu Tian slowly opened the door.

This was the first time Lin Fan had seen her since the spring festival.

Compared to before the spring festival, Hu Tian looked fairer now. Her skin was fairer, and her figure was more voluptuous.

At this moment, Hu Tian seemed to have just taken a shower. Her hair was still a little wet, and she was wearing a V-neck thin shirt... Lin Fan was stunned.

Hu Tian seemed to have noticed Lin Fan's gaze as well. She smiled and said, "Why are you standing there like a fool? Why aren't you coming in?"

Lin Fan finally reacted and walked in.

Creak!

As soon as the door closed, the two of them were attracted to each other like magnets.

The next day.

When Lin Fan woke up, he could smell the fragrance from outside.

He slowly got up. After washing up, the dining table was already filled with noodles, dumplings, milk, eggs, and other rich breakfast items.

"You should be hungry, right?" Hu Tian smiled. "Hurry up and eat something."

Lin Fan said, "I am a little hungry."

After saying that, he picked up the noodles and stuffed them into his mouth.

"Yes! Delicious!" Lin Fan praised.

"If it's delicious, eat more," Hu Tian said happily. "By the way, did you take a few days off?"

"Yeah, I'm driving through the DiDi app to experience life," Lin Fan said.

"Huh?" Hu Tian was stunned.

She never expected... Lin Fan to take a leave of absence to drive through the DiDi app.

One had to know...

She knew Lin Fan quite well. He had several luxury cars, received tens of millions in bonuses, and was also the biggest shareholder of Flower Stem.

Did he still need to drive through the DiDi app?

Lin Fan smiled. "It's quite interesting to drive through DiDi. Teacher Tiantian, do you want to experience it?"

Seeing that Lin Fan was not joking, Hu Tian shook her head and said, "I've been studying the Hail Conjecture recently. I'm afraid I don't have the time."

Suddenly, a crisp voice rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Read 'Foundation of Modern Algebra', 'Abstract Algebra', 'Advanced Algebra', 'Algebra Equations', and 'Algebra and Geometry'. Reward: The proof process of Hail Conjecture.]

When Lin Fan heard this, his face turned weird.

This was... Did he trigger another mission?

The Hail Conjecture was an unsolved mathematical problem. He only needed to read five books to solve it?

Hu Tian seemed to have thought of something and said in an expectant tone, "Are you interested in the Hail Conjecture? Do you want to study it together?"

Lin Fan coughed lightly and said, "For the time being, I'm still more interested in driving through Di Di. In the future... Maybe I'll be interested in the Hail Conjecture."

"I'll remember what you said," Hu Tian said with a smile.

Hu Tian still had classes in the afternoon.

Therefore, after Lin Fan and Hu Tian had lunch, Hu Tian went to Jiangbei University.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan continued to rest for a while before continuing his DiDi Journey.

Today, he was not as lucky as yesterday. After a few consecutive orders, he either sent customers home or sent customers to a hotel... It was very dull.

Even at night, Lin Fan still could not receive any special orders.

"Could it be that today is not a suitable day to complete the mission?" Lin Fan muttered.

At this moment, his phone vibrated slightly, and another order appeared.

Lin Fan turned the steering wheel and quickly arrived at the location.

The customer was under a dimly lit tree.

A man with a buzz cut crossed his arms and quickly got into the car.

Not far away, an exquisite-looking female officer in plain clothes happened to see his appearance.

For some reason, the female police officer felt that the man with a buzz cut was somewhat familiar.

Relying on her professional sense, after the man with a buzz cut got into the car, the female officer quickly drove her own private car and quietly followed him.

"Ma Feng Forest Park." The man with a buzz cut said in a low voice after getting into the car.

Lin Fan did not mind. As usual, he stepped on the accelerator and sped forward.

Ma Feng Forest Park was located in the suburbs of Jiangbei...

As they neared their destination, the surroundings were very desolate. There were even some dark lights.

After turning a corner, the man with a buzz cut suddenly grinned and shouted, "Stop the car!"

Lin Fan stepped on the brakes.

"Tsk!"

At this moment, the man suddenly took out a knife and shouted sternly, "Hand over all your money!"

Seeing this...

Not only was Lin Fan not afraid, but he even smiled.

Did he encounter a robbery?

This... It should be considered a special order, right?

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 245 Saved; Mission Completed!

The buzz-cut man's appearance was already a little fierce. Under the dim light, he looked even more ferocious.

He held the knife in one hand and rummaged through the car with the other.

However, there was not even a piece of paper in the car, let alone money.

Could it be... Was he going to get nothing today?

Actually, this was normal.

After all, Lin Fan's Santana was a gift from Volkswagen Group.

Lin Fan did not store any money in it.

Then, the buzz-cut man's gaze fell on the car keys. His eyes moved slightly, and he raised the knife as he shouted, "Get out of the car!"

How could Lin Fan not see through his plans?

Lin Fan had been driving for quite some time and was feeling a little bored. As he wished, he opened the car door and got out.

When the man with the buzz cut walked out with the knife...

"Tsk!"

At this moment, a Volkswagen sped over from afar. The dazzling headlights made the buzz-cut man unable to open his eyes.

With lightning speed, a beautiful figure quickly ran out of the Volkswagen and grabbed the buzz-cut man, pressing him to the ground.

Then, the beautiful figure skillfully took out the handcuffs on her waist and cuffed the buzz-cut man's hands.

Her movements were like flowing water, smooth and agile.

This scene...

Lin Fan saw everything.

The woman was tall, plump, and strong. Her facial features were exquisite and delicate. Her long black hair was tied up high and fluttered in the wind.

She was not as gentle as an ordinary woman. On the contrary, she had a heroic sense of beauty.

The high beam lights beside her were all focused on her... It caused her entire body to faintly emit a dazzling light.

At this moment...

Lin Fan had a strange feeling in his heart. It was as if... she was not a mortal woman but a female war god who descended from the sky!

She was valiant and charming!

Lin Fan could not help but use his Eyes of Truth to observe this beautiful woman.

[Appearance: 96]

[Favorability: 35]

At this moment, the beauty turned her body slowly and looked at Lin Fan with a scrutinizing gaze. She asked, "I'm from Jiangbei City. Who are you? Why did you come here with him? And why would he point a knife at you?"

"I received an order through DiDi to send him here," Lin Fan said honestly. "Then, I was robbed by him."

The beautiful officer nodded noncommittally and said, "I understand. But now, I'll have to trouble you to come with me to the investigation team to give a statement. Please cooperate."

Obviously, she had made this arrangement for safety reasons.

The police would never believe a one-sided story. They had to go through a strict review to determine the truth.

Lin Fan understood their process and nodded. "Alright."

After a while, a police vehicle drove over from afar, and the man with a buzz cut was brought inside.

Lin Fan got into the beautiful officer's car while his Santana was driven away by another man.

After all, Lin Fan was a victim, and it was not suitable to treat him like a criminal.

If Lin Fan was a bad person, the beautiful officer believed that she could subdue him.

Of course, this was just the confidence of the beautiful officer.

Lin Fan sat in her car and looked around.

The interior of the car was spotless, very clean and tidy.

This... She was indeed a beautiful woman with a serious personality.

When Lin Fan's gaze landed on the car's armrest, he could not help but praise internally, 'She's indeed a beautiful woman with a score of 96. Her ID photo is so beautiful. Wang Ru? Her name is not bad either.'

At this time, Wang Ru said, "You didn't seem scared at all?"

Lin Fan said, "After all, he's just a robber with a knife."

Wang Ru looked at Lin Fan and did not say anything.

With the sound of brakes, Lin Fan, Wang Ru, the buzz-cut man, and the others walked toward the investigation team.

The buzz-cut man was panicking while Lin Fan was very relaxed.

At this moment, the burly captain of the investigation team, Deng Jihu, happened to walk out with his head held high.

Wang Ru and the other detectives became serious and shouted, "Greetings, Captain!"

Deng Jihu nodded and prepared to continue walking forward.

In the next moment...

His body suddenly froze, and his pupils constricted.

That was because he saw Lin Fan.

"Mr. Lin!" Deng Jihu said excitedly.

"Leader Deng," Lin Fan said.

"This... What happened?" Deng Jihu asked.

"It's nothing serious. I was bored and went out to play on DiDi. Then, I was robbed by this guy with a buzz cut..." Lin Fan replied.

His tone was very calm as if he was talking about a trivial matter.

However, in Deng Jihu's ears, it sounded like thunder.

Who was Lin Fan?

Old Master Qin Weiming was very fond of him!

Even the leaders of Jiang Province and Jiangbei City did not dare to show him any disrespect!

He was actually robbed with a knife?

How vile was this?

"Mr. Lin, are you hurt?" Deng Jihu asked in fear.

Lin Fan shook his head and said, "No. Wang Ru happened to pass by. She subdued the buzz-cut man."

When Deng Jihu heard this, he heaved a sigh of relief and said, "It's good that you're fine. It's good that you're fine."

Then, he said to Wang Ru, "Good job!"

In the end, he stared at the buzz-cut man and shouted, "Bring him in and interrogate him strictly. I want him to confess all the bad things he has done in his life!"

"Yes, Sir!" The few officers standing at the side became solemn and shouted in unison.

The buzz-cut man trembled in fear and almost fell to the ground.

Lin Fan asked, "Do I still have to go in and cooperate with the investigation?"

"There's no need, there's no need... It's already so late. Mr. Lin, just go home and have a good rest," Deng Jihu hurriedly said.

Lin Fan nodded his head and did not reject. He went back.

When he arrived at the Santana, a crisp notification sounded in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! You've completed the mission: Complete five special orders. You'll receive five golden packets. Progress 5/5.]

When Lin Fan heard this, his eyes lit up immediately. He could not help but smile.

The mission was finally completed!

Five golden packets... What would he get?

Lin Fan's heart was filled with a rare sense of excitement.

Therefore, he did not stop at the entrance of the police station. He stepped on the accelerator and sped forward.

Deng Jihu only retracted his gaze after Lin Fan's Santana had completely disappeared from sight.

He did not go home. With a cold expression, he strode into the station.

Today, he had to teach the person who robbed Lin Fan a lesson!

246 Open the Golden Packets!

Thank you readers!

Lin Fan had no idea what Deng Jihu was thinking.

At this moment, he was heading toward the Coiling Dragon Villa at his fastest speed.

When the security guards at the entrance saw Lin Fan, they stood straight like soldiers and greeted him respectfully, "Hello, Mr. Lin!"

Lin Fan nodded his head casually and walked into the villa.

Then, he focused all his attention on the system.

Lin Fan looked at the dazzling golden packets in the system and said excitedly, "Let me see what I can get from these five golden packets!

"Open!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a double shares coupon. You can double your shares. More shares, more assets, and more charming charm.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received ten Rolls-Royce Phantoms.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've obtained one bag of Spirit Tea Seeds.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received five million yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received five million yuan.]

Lin Fan ignored the two 5,000,000 yuan.

Ten Rolls-Royce Phantoms.

One had to know

Each Rolls-Royce Phantom cost more than ten million yuan, so ten of them would cost 100 million yuan!

Double shares coupon.

Lin Fan now owned 51% of the shares of the Yinshan Group, Qingkun Group, Xiao Wu Wholesale City, and other companies. The market value of these companies was more than ten billion.

Once he used the double shares coupon on one of the companies, Lin Fan would have 100% control over the company.

His assets would increase by tens, hundreds, or even tens of billions!

However, Lin Fan did not plan to use it on these companies because he still owned 5% of LV, Gucci, Volkswagen Group, Little Tanuki, Penguin, and other super companies.

The market value of these companies was close to a trillion or more.

Especially Little Tanuki and Penguin, which were super giants with a market value of five trillion!

If he used the double shares coupon on one of these companies, then Lin Fan would have 10% of the company's shares and his assets would instantly increase by hundreds of billions!

This was definitely a terrifying number.

Lin Fan first ruled out LV, Gucci, and the Volkswagen Group.

Firstly, it was because their market value was relatively low, and it was not worth it to use the double shares coupon.

Secondly, these three companies were related to clothes, bags, and cars Lin Fan did not lack these things at all, and he was not too interested in them either.

Thirdly, Lin Fan knew that Little Tanuki and Penguin belonged to a giant company in the country.

However, a large portion of their shares were in the hands of foreigners

Lin Fan had a vision. If he could get a few more double shares coupons...

Soon, these two giant companies would belong to him and return to the country.

Thinking of this

After pondering for a moment, Lin Fan had finally made a decision.

[Ding! Do you want to use the double shares coupon on Penguin Corporation?]

"Yes!]

Lin Fan's net worth had increased by another 250 billion!

Seeing this

Lin Fan's lips curled up.

Then, he turned his attention to the Spiritual Tea Seeds.

[Spirit Tea Seed: It can quickly grow fresh and natural tea leaves. The tea has the effects of expelling toxins from the body, rejuvenating the body, and prolonging life.]

Seeing this

Lin Fan's eyes lit up immediately.

Expel the toxins in the body, rejuvenate the spirit, and prolong life The name Spirit Tea was absolutely appropriate!

When Lin Fan raised his head, a bag of seeds had already appeared in front of him.

Obviously This was the bag of Spirit Tea Seeds.

Outside the window in the distance, a row of Rolls-Royce Phantoms appeared.

"Sign in!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received ten million yuan.]

...

Tonight, Lin Fan slept very comfortably.

The next day, after the sun rose, a rumbling sound came from outside.

A large group of construction workers arrived at the entrance of the Coiling Dragon villa complex.

...

Lin Fan heard the voice and opened his eyes slowly.

He first casually glanced at his phone. As usual, a text message appeared on the screen.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 3,650,000 yuan was deposited into your account.]

When he opened the door, two security guards happened to walk over.

“Mr. Lin, there’s a group of construction workers outside. They said that you asked them to come over?” the security guard said.

Lin Fan nodded and said, “Yes, let them in.”

“Alright.” The security guards did not dare to ask any more questions. They turned around and let more than a dozen construction workers in.

Among them

The person walking in front was the manager of Lin Fan’s Flying Dragon Security Company, Wang Shengli.

“Hello, Mr. Lin.” Wang Shengli said respectfully, “These people are all skilled construction workers. They can build walls, stick ceramic tiles, and make furniture. There’s nothing they don’t know how to do”

“Can they demolish houses?” Lin Fan asked.

“Yes!” Wang Shengli said without hesitation.

“Alright then. You guys can tear down the villa at the back.” Lin Fan pointed into the distance.

Wang Shengli, the construction workers, and the security guards standing not far away were all stunned.

Demolish the villa?

Tearing down a palace-like villa?

Seeing that Wang Shengli and the workers did not reply, Lin Fan frowned and asked, “What’s wrong? You don’t know how to demolish it?”

Wang Shengli was the first to react and said, “Of course not. Brothers, let’s go!”

“Remember to take away all the bricks, cement, marble, furniture, and other things. Leave only an empty space,” Lin Fan said.

“Mr. Lin, don’t worry. I’ll definitely do a clean job!” Wang Shengli patted his chest.

The security guards felt their throats go dry as they watched the large group of workers leave.

Finally, a security guard could not help but ask, “M-Mr. Lin, you’re demolishing that villa because...”

“Oh, I want to start a tea plantation there. It should be quite good to plant tea by the lake.” Lin Fan smiled.

When the security guards heard this, they were instantly stunned.

One had to know

This was the Coiling Dragon Villa by Tianhu Lake. Each villa was worth at least 200 to 300 million!

Demolishing a villa worth at least 200 to 300 million yuan to... plant tea?

This...

This...

Was this the world of the rich?

Naturally, Lin Fan did not pay attention to the stunned security guard. He got into one of the Rolls-Royce Phantoms that he had just obtained last night. He stepped on the accelerator and sped into the distance.

The Rolls-Royce Phantom was very wide and large, looking very heavy.

However, it had a 6.7L V12 engine that could produce 571 horsepower, so its acceleration and reaction speed were not slow at all.

Lin Fan went to a two-star Michelin Western restaurant a few kilometers away and ordered truffle egg tarts, shrimp pancakes, black pudding, and skimmed milk.

He spent a total of 2,780 yuan and ate a simple breakfast before continuing to drive the Rolls-Royce Phantom to Jiangbei University, which he had not been to for a few days.

Chapter 247: No Classes in the Morning; Mission Completed Again!

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation | Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation It was a weekday morning in Jiangbei, and the road was very congested.

Thank you readers!

However, Lin Fan managed to reach Jiangbei University in just half an hour. Wherever he passed, the surrounding cars tried their best to keep a distance from him, afraid that they would accidentally bump into him.

After Lin Fan parked the Rolls-Royce Phantom, he muttered to himself, "It feels more comfortable to sit in the back row... It's indeed more suitable to have a driver drive this car."

Then, Lin Fan strolled toward the classroom.

However, he found that the classroom was empty.

Lin Fan took out his phone and sent a message to the dorm group.

Lin Fan typed: [Why is there no one in the classroom?]

Song Yi: [Brother Fan, you're here? There are no classes this morning.]

Lin Fan was speechless.

Seeing this, Lin Fan's face was filled with helplessness.

It was rare for him to come to school after the spring festival, but there were no classes?

Lin Fan could only turn around and leave the classroom. When he looked up, he happened to see the library not far away. After hesitating for a moment, he strode over.

He remembered that he still had a mission to complete.

Anyway... There was nothing much to do now, so he would complete it.

The library of Jiangbei University was always packed with people.

Looking around, other than the rows of bookshelves, there were also the surging figures of the students.

Lin Fan walked past the engineering bookshelf, the chemistry bookshelf, and the electricity bookshelf... He went straight to the mathematics bookshelf.

Modern Algebra Foundation, Abstract Algebra, Advanced Algebra, Algebra Equations, Algebra and Geometry...

About five minutes later, Lin Fan found all the books he needed to read for the mission.

Then, he hugged five thick books and looked at the seat in the distance, but all he could see was a black mass of heads.

Almost all the seats were taken.

There were a few empty seats, but they were also filled with books and information like a bright flag declaring the territory.

Lin Fan muttered in his heart, 'Seems like... I can only stand and read.' At this moment, an extremely magnetic voice suddenly sounded from the side. "Uhh... Do you need a seat?"

When Lin Fan heard that, he turned around slowly.

A 167cm tall girl with long black hair and a pair of black-rimmed glasses was standing behind Lin Fan with a book on number theory.

For some reason, Lin Fan felt that she looked familiar. He could not help but use his Eyes of Truth to observe her.

[Appearance: 94]

[Favorability: 65]

When Lin Fan first laid eyes on her, he guessed that her looks were above 90 points.

Therefore, he was not surprised that she scored 94 points.

His favorability had reached 65, which was far above the passing line.

Obviously, this woman had a good impression of him.

Could it be... Did he really know her?

Lin Fan nodded his head slightly with a hint of doubt in his heart, "I need a seat."

"I... There's an available seat beside me," the girl said.

After saying that, she took the lead and walked forward.

After a while, the two of them came to an empty space with two stacks of documents.

Lin Fan did not stand on ceremony and sat down. He opened Modern Algebra Foundation and started flipping through it.

[Skill: Scanning]

One page, two pages, three pages, four pages...

Immediately, the sound of books being flipped could be heard.

In about two minutes, he was done reading the hundred-page Modern Algebra Foundation.

Then, there was Abstract Algebra, Advanced Algebra, Algebra Equations, as well as Algebra and Geometry.

He finished reading all five thick and obscure books in less than ten minutes. At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! You've completed the mission-Read Modern Algebra Foundation, Abstract Algebra, Advanced Algebra, Algebra Equations, Algebra and Geometry. You've obtained the proof process of the Hail Conjecture.]

All of a sudden, many complicated calculations and formulas flooded through Lin Fan's mind like a tidal wave.

After a long while, his face revealed a hint of enlightenment.

He muttered in his heart, 'So this is how the Hail Conjecture is proven.' When Lin Fan turned his head, he realized that the girl with black-rimmed glasses was thinking about a math question with her head lowered.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan finally remembered why he felt that she was familiar and why she had a good impression of him.

That was because...

Back then, Lin Fan had gone to the library to read ten books on earthquakes and physics in order to obtain the earthquake prediction device and its manufacturing principles.

At that time, this woman... He happened to be sitting beside her.

Before he left, Lin Fan was in a good mood.

Therefore, he even helped her answer a question.

Thinking back to what had happened, Lin Fan rubbed his nose and muttered in his heart, 'I helped her solve the problem, and she gave me a seat. Is this karma for good people?' Then, Lin Fan's gaze landed on the question again.

Almost instantly, he knew how to answer the question.

However, Lin Fan did not write down the answer directly. Instead, he reminded her, "If you want to answer this question, you can first think about the basic structure of number theory."

After all, it was better to teach people to fish than to give them fish.

The woman slowly raised her head and asked in confusion, "Basic structure?"

Lin Fan picked up a pen and paper and quickly wrote down a formula.

When the girl saw this, her beautiful eyes immediately lit up. She said in realization, "Thank you, I understand now."

Lin Fan smiled and nodded. You should know my name, right?"

It was no wonder he thought so.

That was because Lin Fan had met her twice. Each time... she was solving math questions.

Lin Fan solved Zhou's Conjecture and the Twin Prime Number Conjecture. He solved two mathematical problems.

He believed that if one was a mathematics major, one would be able to recognize him.

This was not Lin Fan boasting; it was the truth.

However...

The woman shook her head and said, "I don't..."

This sentence almost made Lin Fan choke.

"I'm a physics major," the woman said. "My name is Lu Ling."

Only then did Lin Fan recover. Physics major...No wonder.

He cleared his throat and said, "My name is Lin Fan."

After saying each other's names, the two of them seemed to be more familiar with each other.

"I see that you often flip through a lot of books. Are you looking for something?" Lu Lin asked.

"I guess so," Lin Fan said.

What could he say?

That he was just reading normally?

Lu Lin would probably ask again, "Then how do you read so fast?"

Would Lin Fan then say that not only did he finish reading everything but he could even memorize everything without missing a single word?

It would be a little troublesome to explain.

Lin Fan hated trouble, so he did not bother explaining..

248 No One Believes the Truth; Head to the Office!

Lin Fan chatted with Lu Lin for a while before strolling back to the dormitory.

Thank you readers!

"Brother Lin Fan, you're finally here! I missed you so much!" Song Yi was the first to shout excitedly.

After saying that, he opened his arms and looked like he wanted to hug Lin Fan.

Lin Fan waved his hands. "Forget about hugging. I only hug beautiful women."

Zheng Jinbao, who was sitting in front of the computer, heard the word 'beautiful', and his eyes lit up. He chuckled and said, "Brother Lin Fan, which pretty girl did you go out with these past few days?"

Lin Fan laughed bitterly and said, "I went to earn money from DiDi. I have no choice. Life isn't easy!"

Zheng Jinbao directly filtered out the words 'life is not easy.'

He widened his eyes and asked excitedly, "F*ck, awesome!" Brother Lin Fan, tell me. How many pretty girls did you meet?"

Obviously, he felt that Lin Fan had driven his supercar.

How could ordinary beauties resist the temptation of a supercar?

Lin Fan saw through Zheng Jinbao's thoughts at a glance and said, "What are you thinking about? I didn't use a supercar."

"What?" Zheng Jinbao was confused.

At this moment, the sound of brisk footsteps could be heard from outside.

Ma Zhong carried a stack of books and slowly walked in.

"Brother Lin Fan, you're back!" Ma Zhong said happily.

Lin Fan nodded. "Yeah."

Then, Ma Zhong took out his phone and said, "Oh right, when I passed by the parking lot just now, I saw a Rolls-Royce parked in our school!"

Almost all men loved cars.

The Rolls-Royce was the king of cars.

When Song Yi and Zheng Jinbao heard this, they leaned their heads over.

"It's a Rolls-Royce Phantom!" Song Yi shouted.

Lin Fan smiled casually, "If you want to see, you can go over and take a look."

As he spoke, he placed the Rolls-Royce Phantom keys in his pocket on the table.

Silence.

He was most afraid of a sudden silence.

After a while, Song Yi stuttered, "B-Brother Lin Fan, is the Rolls-Royce Phantom yours too?"

"Yes, it is," Lin Fan said.

Lin Fan already owned several supercars, yet he had a Rolls-Royce Phantom now?

Zheng Jinbao, Song Yi, and Ma Zhong shouted in unison, “Brother Lin Fan, you’re awesome!”

At this moment, Zheng Jinbao seemed to have thought of something and asked, “Brother Lin Fan, don’t tell me you drove the Phantom when you were driving through DiDi?”

As he spoke, he could not help but think of the scene when the passengers sat in the Rolls-Royce Phantom and were dumbfounded.

“I drove the Santana... However, I earned this Rolls-Royce Phantom by driving through DiDi,” Lin Fan said.

“Brother Lin Fan, do you think I’m stupid?” Zheng Jinbao said.

Was that not so?

A Rolls-Royce Phantom cost ten million.

DiDi?

Even if he drove to his death, he would definitely not be able to earn that kind of money.

Lin Fan smiled and shook his head.

In fact...

Lin Fan did not just earn a Rolls-Royce Phantom from DiDi. He had earned ten cars from it!

In addition, there was ten million in cash and 5% of Penguin Group’s shares!

Sometimes, the truth was hard to believe.

When a group of young people were together, time seemed to slip away like sand in their palms.

Soon, the bell rang.

Lin Fan, Zheng Jinbao, Ma Zhong, Song Yi, and the others had already arrived at the classroom.

They were not the only ones. There were many others who had similar actions.

There was no empty seat in the classroom.

It was because this was Teacher Tiantian’s class.

Following the sound of crisp footsteps, Teacher Tiantian, who was wearing a pure white short skirt and a light gray windbreaker, walked to the podium.

Instantly, the entire classroom fell silent.

Teacher Tiantian first looked at the students in the classroom. When she saw Lin Fan, her pretty face could not help but reveal a faint smile.

This smile...

Like the rising sun in the winter, everyone's hearts almost melted.

Then, Teacher Tiantian began today's class.

Usually, when a teacher gave a lecture, most of the students would fall asleep and wish that the class would end in a second.

However, Teacher Tiantian's class was the complete opposite.

After the bell rang, many students began to complain.

"Why is class over so soon?"

"Yeah!"

However, no matter how much they complained...

There would be no change in the time of the end of class.

When Teacher Tiantian was about to leave the classroom, she suddenly stopped and said, "Lin Fan, come to my office after school."

After saying that, she continued to walk out.

Instantly, all the students in the classroom looked at Lin Fan with envy.

Teacher Tiantian's invitation!

Moreover, this was not the first time!

Song Yi, Ma Zhong, and Zheng Jinbao shouted in unison, "Brother Fan, I'll kneel before you!"

After saying that, they really did bend their knees slightly as if they were about to kneel.

Lin Fan looked at their funny faces and wanted to laugh.

...

Lin Fan had been to Teacher Tiantian's office several times and was now very familiar with it.

At this moment, Teacher Tiantian was the only one in the office.

The quiet office and Teacher Tiantian, who was writing at her desk, formed a beautiful picture.

When Teacher Tiantian heard the footsteps, she slowly raised her head. When she saw that it was Lin Fan, she could not help but smile. "Do you want something to drink?"

"I'm a little thirsty," Lin Fan said.

After saying that, he did not treat himself as an outsider. He directly picked up the cup that Teacher Tiantian had just drunk from and started drinking it.

After all, with their relationship, there was no need for formalities.

After Lin Fan drank the water, he looked at the calculations on Teacher Tiantian's desk and said, "Are you still studying the Hail Conjecture? Hmm? There seems to be a problem here."

"Where?" Teacher Tiantian asked.

Lin Fan pointed at a formula. Then, he picked up a pen and paper and started writing.

$2^m - 3^{(n+1)} > 1, m > n, 2^m > 3^{(m+)} \dots$

"Forget it. I'll just write down the entire process," Lin Fan said.

Teacher Tiantian, who was sitting next to her, was stunned.

Write down the entire process?

Lin Fan picked up a new stack of draft paper.

$X_1 = 3, X_2 = (3 \times 1 + 1) 2^2 = 1 \dots$

Lin Fan's writing speed was very fast. He did not think at all. The tip of the pen collided with the draft paper, making light and hurried sounds.

At first, Teacher Tiantian was still looking down at Lin Fan's handwriting seriously.

However, as time passed...

Gradually, Teacher Tiantian could not keep up even if she just watched.

Then, Teacher Tiantian could not help but shift her gaze from the draft book to Lin Fan.

She looked at Lin Fan's quick writing of the formula and his focused expression...

At this moment...

In Teacher Tiantian's eyes, Lin Fan did not seem to be writing down formulas. Instead, he was sitting on a gorgeous stage, gathering dazzling stage lights on himself while playing a beautiful piece of music.

Teacher Tiantian's heart beat faster and faster as the rhythm of the movement rose and fell...

249 Conjecture Answered; Invitation!

One by one, Lin Fan flipped through the draft papers filled with complicated equations and calculations.

Thank you readers!

The speed at which Lin Fan wrote was getting faster and faster.

In Teacher Tiantian's eyes, it was so charming and pleasant.

It was as if this piano piece was full of ups and downs with endless climaxes.

Teacher Tiantian's breathing even began to become a little hurried, and her beautiful cheeks were flushed.

After writing on nearly 20 pages of draft paper, Lin Fan's fingers suddenly stopped.

Then, he switched to the ballpoint pen in Teacher Tiantian's hand and wrote down the last line of calculations:  $Xs1 + 1 = (3Xs + 1)/2^n$ , so  $3n + 1$  is true!

Lin Fan smiled, "Hail Conjecture, solved."

As soon as he finished speaking, Teacher Tiantian, who was sitting beside him, leaned her head over.

$o(\varepsilon^*)$

$()^3(\varepsilon^)$

$(\rightarrow?)$

...

Teacher Tiantian was using her own way to express the excitement in her heart.

When love was deep, it was difficult to control it.

After more than an hour, the two of them slowly separated.

Teacher Tiantian tidied up her clothes.

Then, she turned her gaze back to the draft book filled with calculations and exclaimed, "Lin Fan, you actually proved the Hail Conjecture!"

After saying that, Teacher Tiantian could not help but look at Lin Fan with an extremely passionate gaze.

"Lin Fan, when did you start researching the Hail Conjecture?"

"The last time we met," Lin Fan said.

"Yesterday... Yesterday?" Teacher Tiantian said.

"Yeah." Lin Fan nodded.

Yesterday morning, Lin Fan said that he was more interested in driving through DiDi.

In the future, he might be interested in the Hail Conjecture.

Then...

After a day, he directly proved the Hail Conjecture?

One had to know...

The Hail Conjecture was a super difficult problem that had stumped the entire world for nearly a hundred years!

In the end, Lin Fan only used one day to solve it?

What kind of genius was he?

At this moment, in Teacher Tiantian's eyes, Lin Fan seemed to be emitting an incomparably dazzling light. He was so mesmerizing.

"Lin Fan," Teacher Tiantian called out softly.

"What's wrong?" Lin Fan asked curiously.

Teacher Tiantian did not say anything. She just moved her head closer.

$o(\overline{\varepsilon}^{-*})$

$(\overline{}^{-3})(\overline{\varepsilon}^{-})$

? ( $\overline{-}^{-\rightarrow}^{-}$ ?)

...

This time, the two of them slowly separated when a patrolling security guard appeared outside the corridor.

However, their separation was only temporary.

Lin Fan went to Teacher Tiantian's house.

...

The next day.

Since it was the weekend, neither of them had to go to school.

Lin Fan and Hu Tian sat together and ate their breakfast leisurely.

"Lin Fan, which magazine do you want to publish the solution to Hail Conjecture on?" Hu Tian asked.

Lin Fan took a mouthful of noodles and said, "Publish it? It's too troublesome. I only proved it out of interest. If you want to publish it, just publish it."

When Hu Tian heard this, she felt both helpless and touched.

If it was someone else who solved such a world-class problem, they would definitely be ecstatic.

After that, they would analyze it again and again to see which magazine they should submit to.

However, Lin Fan was so calm. He even handed over the solution to her and asked her to submit it.

If she had any ill intentions, this huge achievement would completely belong to her.

"Alright, I'll submit it to Annual Mathematics for you," Hu Tian said.

Lin Fan nodded his head nonchalantly and finished the last mouthful of broth. He praised, "Your food is getting more and more delicious!"

"If you like it, eat more," Hu Tian said happily.

After chatting for a while, Lin Fan drove the Rolls-Royce Phantom toward the Coiling Dragon Villa.

In the past, the Coiling Dragon Villa Complex was located closest to the lake. It was a villa that occupied a huge area.

Now, it was empty.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan smiled and said in satisfaction, “Wang Shengli is quite efficient. He took away all the bricks and stones. This is very suitable for planting tea leaves.”

After saying that, he took the hoe and shovel that he had bought earlier and scattered the Spiritual Tea Seeds that he had obtained from the golden packet. He also watered them with the appropriate amount of water.

Just like that, Lin Fan continued to sow and water the seeds in the Coiling Dragon Villa. Two days passed very leisurely and comfortably.

After ordinary tea leaves were planted, even if they were carefully taken care of, given the best fertilizer, and had sufficient water...

There would definitely not be any changes in two days.

However, the Spiritual Tea Seeds had sprouted.

At this moment, standing in the Coiling Dragon Villa Complex and looking at the sky lake, Lin Fan could see a green scene full of vitality.

At this moment, the phone in Lin Fan’s pocket rang.

He looked at the caller ID and saw that it was a call from President Ma of Penguin.

Lin Fan did not hesitate and answered the call.

“Mr. Lin, how was your weekend?” As soon as he picked up the phone, President Ma’s gentle voice came from the other end.

Lin Fan said, “I planted tea seeds and watered them. It was relaxing.”

“I didn’t expect you to be someone who likes the rural life...” President Ma was a little surprised.

Lin Fan smiled, “What kind of person did you think I was?”

President Ma thought for a moment and said, “Generally speaking, young people like you are interested in lively parties and exciting sports. Or a challenging career...”

Lin Fan smiled. “Compared to these, I would rather lie down.”

After the two of them exchanged pleasantries, President Ma finally revealed the purpose of the call.

“By the way, Mr. Lin, Penguin Group has opened a new company in Jiangbei City. I wonder if you’re free to go with me tomorrow?”

Lin Fan remembered that he was the second largest shareholder of Penguin Group, but he had never been to the headquarters of Penguin Group.

Of course, Lin Fan did not want to go to Yang City to see Penguin Group's headquarters.

If he did not go to the headquarters, then the branch in Jiangbei... Taking a look around seemed possible.

Lin Fan replied, "Okay, I'll go with you tomorrow."

"That's great!" President Ma said happily. "To be honest, I've been missing the food in Jiangbei ever since I left. Mr. Lin, you must bring me out to eat again tomorrow!"

Lin Fan smiled. "Of course!"

The two of them chatted for a while before hanging up.

Then, Lin Fan sent a request for leave to Sun Yaodong.

Regarding this...

Sun Yaodong did not hesitate at all, nor did he ask for any reason. He directly chose to approve it.

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 250 Arriving At Penguin's Branch; Hello, Mr. Lin!

The next morning.

A breeze blew the branches gently.

A ray of sunlight shone through the gap in the curtains and onto the balcony.

Lin Fan finally opened his eyes.

He first casually glanced at his phone and saw a text message appear on the screen.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 3,670,000 yuan was deposited into your account.]

"Sign in!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you've obtained Jiuzhou Bar.]

Lin Fan muttered, "A bar? What's the use of giving it to me?"

"Forget it. It's better than ten million yuan."

Then, Lin Fan slowly got up.

After washing up, he picked up the bread that had already been baked automatically and put it into his mouth. He then chewed on Wagyu beef, Australian lobster, crab, eggs, lettuce, and other food.

Although the ingredients were relatively simple, the taste was not bad.

Lin Fan was satisfied with the food.

After breakfast, Lin Fan went to the lake and watered all the sprouts. Then, he drove the Mercedes-Benz G-Class toward the Jiangbei branch of Penguin Group.

Compared to the short sports car and the Rolls-Royce Phantom driven by a driver... Lin Fan liked the sturdy and tall SUV Mercedes-Benz G-Class even more.

As it was Monday, there were many cars on the road, and many sections were congested... Lin Fan was not in a hurry and continued to move forward at a constant speed.

He arrived at his destination at around 10:30 in the morning.

Lin Fan parked the car and walked in.

At this moment, a man in a checkered shirt slowly walked out of the beverage room beside the door with a cup of coffee.

When he saw Lin Fan, he exclaimed, "Lin Fan?"

"Shen Liang!" Lin Fan said in surprise.

That was right!

This man was Lin Fan's high school classmate, Shen Liang.

After graduation, this was the third time Lin Fan had seen him.

The first time was at a class reunion in Jiangbei.

At that time, Shen Liang was considered one of the friendliest people to Lin Fan.

After that, when their homeroom teacher was hospitalized, Shen Liang was one of the few people who specially rushed back to Qing City.

In addition, Lin Fan and Shen Liang had a good relationship in high school.

Overall, Lin Fan had a good impression of Shen Liang.

"Lin Fan, why did you come to our company?" Shen Liang asked.

The last time they met, Shen Liang had also mentioned that he was working in IT.

Lin Fan did not expect him to be working in IT at Penguin.

Did that not mean that Shen Liang was his employee?

"Isn't this Penguin Group?" Lin Fan asked. "I'm here for a stroll."

Regarding this...

Shen Liang was not too surprised.

This was because Penguin Group was a giant company in Hua Nation that had established its own online empire.

In the past, many people could not help but run in to take a look when they passed by.

"Since you're already in our company, I'll be your guide!" Shen Liang said with a smile.

"Alright!" Lin Fan agreed immediately.

Even though he had already agreed to meet with President Ma...

He had not seen President Ma just yet.

He would just take a stroll first... It was nothing.

"By the way, do you want a cup of coffee?" Shen Liang asked again. "I think it tastes similar to Starbucks."

After he finished speaking, he did not wait for Lin Fan's reply and walked into the beverage room.

As soon as they walked into the beverage room, they were greeted by the rich aroma of coffee.

Shen Liang skillfully poured a cup of coffee from the coffee machine and handed it to Lin Fan.

Then, he pointed at the various snacks piled up on the wall cabinet in the distance and said, "Is there anything you want to eat? You can take whatever you want. It's all free."

"Then give me a packet of QQ candy," said Lin Fan.

"I didn't expect you to like this!" Shen Liang said with a smile.

Then, Shen Liang brought Lin Fan inside and said, "This is the design department. Many of the news photos come from here."

"This is the news department. There are many editors here.

"This is the gaming department... The people in this department have the highest salary."

When Shen Liang said this, his face revealed a thick look of envy.

"That's our marketing department."

...

Shen Liang introduced as he walked. Lin Fan nodded his head.

The two of them were chatting and laughing. When they reached the corner, Shen Liang accidentally bumped into someone.

When he raised his head, his entire body seemed to have been frozen.

The person he hit... He was wearing a black suit and had short hair. He was the IT director of the Jiangbei branch of Penguin Group!

Beside the IT director stood the general manager, deputy chief supervisor, and many other top figures... The chairman of Penguin Group, Mr. Ma, was surrounded by them!

These people... They were actually together!

He had actually bumped into them?

Moreover... it was during working hours!

Shen Liang only felt his head buzzing, and his entire face began to turn slightly pale.

Penguin Group was the largest company in Hua Nation's internet industry. At the same time, it was also one of the few companies with the best treatment...

Countless people fought to enter Penguin.

Back then, Shen Liang also spent a lot of effort to obtain this opportunity.

Now... he was afraid there would not be anything left.

At this moment, President Ma, who was surrounded by people, smiled and said, "Mr. Lin, when did you arrive? Why didn't you tell me? I could've picked you up at the door!"

As he spoke, President Ma took the initiative to extend his right hand toward Lin Fan.

Lin Fan reached out his hand and shook it gently.

This scene not only stunned Shen Liang but also the general manager, director, and department head.

The general manager, director, and the others had learned from President Ma not long ago that a very important guest would be coming over later.

In their opinion, the guest who was called a very important guest by President Xiao Ma must be at least 30 to 40 years old.

Some people even started to guess if it was President Li.

In the end, it turned out to be a young man who looked to be in his 20s?

After meeting Lin Fan for the second time, Shen Liang knew that Lin Fan was a godly tycoon with a lot of connections.

However...

He had never thought that Lin Fan would know President Ma!

After all, there were too many tycoons in Hua Nation.

However, how many people were there who could really interact with Xiao Ma?

What was the situation now?

Not only did President Ma know Lin Fan, but he even took the initiative to greet him and shake his hand. He was even willing to go out and welcome him personally?

This...

This...

Who exactly was Lin Fan?

Lin Fan smiled. "I just met a friend. He brought me around, so I didn't tell you."

"Oh?" President Ma said. "Your friend?"

Then, he extended his right hand toward Shen Liang and said, "Hello, I'm Xiao Ma. How should I address you?"

President Ma took the initiative to greet him, shake his hand, and ask for his name?

Shen Liang felt his heart almost jump out of his chest. He said excitedly, "Shen Liang, my name is Shen Liang!"

Then, he stretched out his hands and held onto President Ma's right hand tightly.
