

Sign In To Become a God

#Chapter 1: Wang Yi! - Read Sign In To Become a God Chapter 1: Wang Yi!

Jiangnan Base City, Jiujiang City, Guqing District No. 1 High School.

In a classroom where the curtains are all drawn up and it looks a bit gloomy.

The multimedia equipment in the classroom is running, playing a scene of a fierce and cruel war between monsters and humans.

The young and green faces change their expressions in the uncertain light, and their emotions constantly fluctuate with the playback of the video.

At the same time, a deep and thick male voice sounded along with the image on the screen.

"At the beginning of the 21st century, there have been several viral influenzas in the world..."

At the second-to-last table in the classroom near the back door window, there is a boy lying on his stomach.

As if not affected by the explanation sound, he was sleeping sweetly.

A long, rhythmic, slight snoring sounded from him.

The student next to turned a blind eye to this scene.

Only the long hair next to the boy was waist-length, with neat bangs on his forehead, and the girl wearing thick black-rimmed glasses looked at him with some concern.

And the deep voice echoed in the classroom with excitement.

"...In September 2015, beginning with the attacks of endless creatures in the ocean, the 'monsters' transformed into countless birds and beasts began to attack human settlements!"

"During the war, many powerful warriors have emerged among humans! There have been a lot of evocative stories!"

"The large-scale war between monsters and humans began in September 2015 and ended in March 2021."

"From 2013 to 2021, these eight years are the period of Nirvana in human history!"

"Ring Ling Ling..."

With the sound of the final explanation of the film falling slowly, the school bell rang just right.

"Wow!"

The curtains were suddenly pulled open, and bright and dazzling sunlight came in from outside.

The boy who originally sat at the back of the classroom reacted like an instinctive reaction. Huo Di stood up straight and kept silent, tidying up the books and sundries in front of him very quickly and naturally.

A puddle of suspicious liquid appeared on the table. The boy wanted to wipe it with a tissue and dig out his pocket, only to find it was empty.

At this moment, a small white hand held a pack of tissues and handed it over.

The boy looked down and saw that he was his always taciturn tablemate.

Not ashamed, the boy grinned, showing his white teeth. "thanks."

"Yeah." The girl hummed slightly, but her hand that quickly retracted and placed under the table trembled slightly.

took the tissue and wiped it quickly.

The boy returned the remaining tissues to his table again, clapped his hands, and walked out from the back door of the classroom. Before leaving, he didn't forget to politely talk to his tablemate who had been with him for almost two years. "Lin Youyu, goodbye."

The girl with long hair and waist just opened her mouth, as if she wanted to say something, but the boy had disappeared at the door.

Her delicate lips moved, and then she lowered her head somewhat sullenly.

After a while, the girl glanced over the boy's seat inadvertently, and landed on his table with traces of wet residue. She didn't know what to think of, and her white and tender face suddenly became ruddy.

On the other side, after finishing the last film time for the students to relax, take this class to take a good rest, and after recovering from the fatigue of the excessive exercise last night, the energetic Wang Yi has walked out of the teaching building where he is in the third grade. Walked to the school gate.

Wearing a gray tracksuit, he was well-proportioned among the crowds of students and seemed not so conspicuous.

Only occasionally, a girl passing by saw his face, her eyes lit up slightly.

Some students who knew Wang Yi also turned sideways slightly when they saw him, showing an expression of respect and admiration.

Regarding these, Wang Yi is already quite familiar.

After all, who made him one of the only five senior martial arts students in this high school.

Wang Yi is a traverser.

And this world is the world of 'Eat the Starry Sky' that Wang Yi is very familiar with.

Wang Yi traveled to an ordinary family living in a tube building in the base city. The living conditions were not very good. He had a sister who was two years older than him. But after graduating from high school, he was looking for a job and married. He is currently the only one. Live with my parents in a cramped and distressed low-rent house with only dozens of square meters.

And this house has lived in Wang Yi's memory for 18 years.

When Wang Yi crossed over, his soul merged into the embryo being conceived by his mother, and finally grew into the current Wang Yi.

may be the reason why the soul has crossed over. From a young age, Wang Yi appeared to be mature and smarter than his peers, very sensible and obedient, and his academic performance was also very good.

In addition to studying, he has been exercising since he was a child. Sometimes he was able to listen to those video-silent training sessions all day without screaming tired, which shocked his family.

Relying on such efforts, after joining the Xtreme Martial Arts Gym in the community at the age of 16, Wang Yi was awarded the title of 'Senior Student' in less than a year and became the only family among the more than 4,000 students of the No. 1 High School in Guqing District. Ordinary, but a student who has been awarded the title of 'Senior Martial Arts Student'!

Because of this, Wang Yi has a great reputation in the school, and many students admire Wang Yi very much!

But no one knows Wang Yi's inner suffering.

"It's been eighteen years. If you want talent but no talent, if you want cheats but no cheats, what will I do next!"

Wang Yi walked out of the school gate and walked on the crowded street. Although he wore plain and ordinary clothes, his straight waist and outstanding appearance still stood out among the crowd.

Some passing women looked slightly.

Wang Yi didn't squint, thinking about his own thoughts.

It is now April 2056, and one month has passed since the second semester of high school.

is to enter the official plot time!

The protagonist "Luo Feng" in the original work will awaken his innate spiritual power, and then walk on the path of people blocking murder, and * blocking the killing of God!

Wang Yi is just an ordinary college student. Although he is a 'senior martial arts student' and a genius in the eyes of many people, Wang Yi knows how much water this 'genius' is.

It took him more than ten years to work hard to come out!

is nothing compared to that freak Luo Feng!

Looking at the entire swallowing sky, in a word, it is a history of struggle on the wall!

If you don't hang up, you are embarrassed to say that you are a genius!

Although Wang Yi has tried his best to go to Yangzhou City and get acquainted with Luo Feng over the years, his relationship is just like an ordinary friend, and his best friend Wei Wen, who grew up with him in open crotch pants, is absolutely incomparable.

As for whether he can hug the golden thighs of the future City Lord Luo and become an immortal god, Wang Yi is also very guilty.

Although thinking, Wang Yi's walking speed is not slow. After ten minutes, he has already arrived at a very famous and wealthy neighborhood nearby.

Looking at the beautiful environment and tree-lined villa complex, Wang Yi took a deep breath, full of wild hope.

One day, I will live in such a spacious and comfortable house with my family!

But, before this...

"Miss Gao? Xiao Wang is here already."
