#Chapter 4: Ding! Your cheat is online! - Read Sign In To Become a God Chapter 4: Ding! Your cheat is online!

Wang Yi's father, Wang Shun, was born before the era of Nirvana. The original home was destroyed by monster attacks. At that time, I don't know how many people were displaced. Wang Shun and the adults were also displaced together and suffered hardships. Later, after the war ended in Al Qaeda City. Established, Wang Yi's father can be considered settled down.

There were three people in Wang Yi's father's generation, his uncle, his father, and his aunt.

And his grandparents passed away ten years ago. Since then, the relationship between the three brothers and sisters who had been in a good relationship has gradually alienated.

Later, Wang Yi's mother, Li Lan, was admitted to the hospital because of illness and needed a lot of money. Wang Yi's family conditions were already difficult, and Wang Yi's siblings needed to support them, so they had to borrow a lot from their uncle and aunt. .

After Wang Yi and Xiaoyan separated, they walked into the residential building.

Wang Yi's home is on the 17th floor of a residential building.

He is very fast all the way, every step he takes is three or four steps, his breath is still stable, and his movements are as vigorous as a leopard.

The pedestrians he encountered along the way, he could also get out of the way in time, without even touching the sleeves.

That's it. It didn't take long before he flew to the 17th floor, in front of his house.

On the 17th floor, there are eight households in total, and Wang Yi's house is among them.

Wang Yi stopped and looked at the old door, across the door, with his keen hearing, he could still hear the dialogue inside.

Wang Yi has no expression on his face.

After a while, the door opened, and two middle-aged men and women came out. They were all startled when they saw Wang Yi, and then smiled.

"Xiao Yi, you are back from school."

Wang Yi's previous expression also disappeared, turning into an enthusiastic smile.

"Yes, uncle and auntie, why don't you come here today and don't say a word, if I find out, I will come back soon to chat with you."

Wang Yi's uncle's hand subconsciously placed his hand on his mouth and coughed slightly, "No, you're so busy with your studies, we just come and sit casually. Just finished talking with your parents, we're leaving, you can do it when you are free. Come and play with us."

"By the way, Xiaoyi, your cousin will get married next month, you remember to come over." Before leaving, the aunt turned her head and said intentionally or unconsciously.

Watching their shadows disappear in the corridor, the sound of footsteps faded away, and the smile on Wang Yi's face slowly faded.

Opening the door, Wang Yi walked into the house and saw his parents, who were less than 40 square meters in size, sitting in the living room silently. When Wang Yi came back, they stood up together.

"Son, I'm back, go eat." Wang Yi's mother Li Lan said with concern.

Wang Yi did not promise his mother, but looked at his father with a little gray hair, "Dad, uncle, did they come and ask for money again?"

Wang Shun and Li Lan's expressions were slightly stagnant, and then they sighed slightly.

"Your cousin will get married next month and needs a lot of money, so your uncle will come over and want us to help."

Wang Shun's tone is a bit vague.

"These things have nothing to do with you, you just need to concentrate on studying and prepare for the college entrance examination in two months."

Wang Yi didn't ask any more when he saw the expressions of his parents. He silently came to the only table in the hall, opened the lid, and looked at the still warm meal, but he felt a little sour in his heart.

It would be nice if I could stand up a little bit more.

Wang Yi thought silently in his heart.

After eating the food, he cleaned and put the dishes, chopsticks and dishes, then said to his parents, he went back to his room.

The whole house is a one-bedroom and one-living room structure, very narrow and simple, but Wang Yi lived in the living room with his father, and his mother and sister in the bedroom. Once opposed, but can't hold back the parents' opinions. In many parents' hearts, they want to keep the best for their children.

Wang Yi has no intention of studying tonight, lying on his bed, staring blankly at the ceiling above his head in a daze.

Time goes by little by little.

Into the night.

Wang Yi opened his eyes again, but there was no trace of sleepiness in his eyes. He looked at the dark room with piercing energy, as if waiting for something.

When the time is approaching midnight.

"Ding!"

A crisp sound appeared in his mind.

This voice is already very familiar to Wang Yi.

Almost three years ago, this mysterious voice rang in Wang Yi's ear, and it appeared on time every midnight.

But every time it was over after a ding sound, nothing happened, which disappointed Wang Yi who had been waiting for a long time.

The original surprise, expectation, gradually turned into loss and disappointment.

Even Wang Yi wondered if he had a mental hallucination because he was too expectant under tremendous pressure.

I went to the hospital but everything is normal, there is no problem at all.

But that voice sounded on time every night.

It's like a beauty who is scratching her head every day and teasing you but never let you touch her.

made Wang Yi's heart itch with hatred.

"The 1000th time..."

Wang Yi thought to his heart after listening to this voice.

Originally, he thought that this time would be the same as before, and it would end after the sound was over, there was no follow-up.

But what I didn't expect was.

[1000th reconnection...]

【Search for the existence of the host. 】

【Officially bind the host, start to detect the current location... has been confirmed. 】

【Ding, congratulations to the host for signing in successfully, signing in for the first time, and obtaining special rewards, rewarding the first karma of the Nine Tribulations Secret Code. 】

【The Secret of Nine Tribulations is the highest level reward for the current location. 】

[Your genetic level has been raised three times. ]

Wang Yi abruptly sat up from the bed.

there was an unbelievable color on his face.

At this time, a mysterious energy quietly flooded Wang Yi's body, instantly changing the internal structure of his genes. In just a short moment, Wang Yi's body genes changed drastically.

The genes of the body have tripled in an instant, which means that Wang Yi's physical strength has tripled in this instant.

It happened that everything came naturally during this process, and Wang Yi didn't feel anything yet.

But he can clearly feel the changes in his body.

clenched his fists, I could feel the powerful force.

He has an instinct. He punches him now, I'm afraid he can hit a force far surpassing advanced students.

I am afraid that the fighters who have just passed the actual combat assessment of the fighters are not as good as they are now.

Wang Yi was extremely excited.

I transferred my consciousness to the extra golden panel in my mind, and at the same time received the above information, I quickly understood the purpose of this golden finger.

The only purpose of this cheat is to sign in.

can sign in once a day, if the host does not arrange it, it will automatically sign in according to the host's location.

Rewards are automatically and randomly given according to the location of the host.

is all luck.

And the same place, you can only sign in once at most.

And the reward level is also different, generally from a low level to a high level.

For example, when Wang Yi signs in at a martial arts gym, what may appear is the sword technique, UU reading www.uukanshu.com exercise technique, body technique, weapons, medicine... etc.

If the highest reward appears in the location, it represents the location with the largest possible sign-in range.

Once        appears, all locations within that location will no longer be able to sign in for rewards.

For example, normally, Wang Yigang won the first kalpa of "The Secret Book of Nine Tribulations", which represents the highest reward on the earth, so he can no longer draw prizes within the range of the earth.

But it is the first time he draws a lottery, which is a special reward, so he can ignore this condition and continue to sign in other places on the earth.

"The Secret Code of the Nine Tribulations... actually is the Secret Code of the Nine Tribulations!" Wang Yi was very excited at the moment.

The Secret Book of Nine Tribulations, but in the original book, the protagonist becomes stronger, it is extremely against the sky. It is claimed to be restricted by the laws of the universe, and only one person in the entire universe can practice.

The reason for this is that the "Secret Code of Nine Tribulations" is to be passed on and depends on the Heavenly Soul Crystal.

And the heavenly soul crystal has incredible power, is a real treasure in the universe, even with the ability of the reincarnation of the mountain guest **** king, only one can be made! Very precious!

And this exercise was created by the strongest person in the universe, the "Zaoshanke" who was born from the reincarnation of the mysterious king of the "origin continent" outside of the primitive universe, based on the core inheritance of Jinzhi World. It can change a life. The most fundamental gene is constantly improving!

is like an ordinary human whose gene level is 1, and Wang Yi has now received the first calamity of the Secret Book of Nine Tribulations, and his gene level has become 3!

is also a warrior, and his body has the same level of evolution, but Wang Yi is three times stronger than the opponent!

This is the gap. No matter how you evolve, as long as the most fundamental genetic level does not change, Wang Yi will always be three times stronger than the opponent!

Wang Yi couldn't help clenching his fists, his chance to change his destiny finally came!
