

The secret 14

Chapter 14

Roxanne had no idea about the incident in the kindergarten.

After leaving kindergarten, she went directly to the research institute established in the country by her teacher.

The moment she entered the building, she saw a charming man dressed in a suit approaching her.

"Welcome back, Roxanne. I'm excited to be her colleague again."

Colby Galloway stopped in front of her and held out her hand.

Roxanne nodded and shook her hand, pulling it away quickly.

Previously, Colby was abroad. He was also on Harvey's team and was involved in many types of research and development.

During that time, Colby had been his assistant. After all, he graduated from a famous school and Roxanne and Harvey recognized his abilities.

Although Roxanne's demeanor was impassive, Colby didn't care. He smiled and offered, "Come on. I'll take you to the office."

With that, he turned around and led the way, introducing the structure of the research institute and key personnel along the way.

Arriving at the office, Colby smiled at Roxanne and said, "I've given someone special instructions to decorate this place. It is based on his preferences in the past. Linda's workplace is right outside."

Roxanne studied the area and responded with a satisfied nod. "That is very considerate of you. Thank you so much."

Colby was momentarily stunned. He then put on a kind smile. Even his voice was warm. "It's not much. You don't have to be so polite with me."

As he said that, he couldn't hide the liking for her that he spilled from her gaze.

Despite knowing that she was the mother of two children, he did not lessen her adoration for her.

After all, Roxanne was an excellent woman in every way. In fact, she was so excellent that her qualities could cover her flaws.

However, Roxanne didn't notice the look she was giving her.

After briefly scanning the office, she told Colby, "My purpose for coming here today is to understand the operations of the research institute. Could you take me around the facility?"

Colby was still smiling brightly. "Okay."

Roxanne nodded slightly and gestured for him to lead the way.

When Colby returned to her position in front of her, her smile turned sour.

It was true that he liked Roxanne. Unfortunately, she only saw him as an ordinary subordinate.

This is so... frustrating!
