

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2285

Married at First Sight Chapter 2285-Kiera snorted.

She felt that the car was too new, as if it was newly bought.

But Julian said it was the car in his garage, so she didn't ask any further.

She thought it was because Julian rarely drove such a low-key car, so his car looked like a new one.

Did she think Julian would buy a new car just to bring gifts for her and the children?

Julian took Kiera and a group of children into the elegant room he had booked in advance. After everyone sat down, he signaled the waiter to pass the recipe to Kiera to order.

Kiera said, "Mr. Bucham, the children and I are not picky eaters. You should be more familiar with which dishes here are delicious. You should order."

Julian asked, "Ms. Caron, you usually eat at the hotel?"

Kiera said, "Yes, but we usually eat in the cafeteria on the first floor. I think there are more choices. Everyone can eat whatever they want, and the children like it too. I told them, take as much as you can eat, just don't waste food."

Julian said with a smile: "Ms. Caron, you're right, don't waste food, take as much as you can eat."

Kiera: "Then I'll order on my own."

In fact, Julian seldom spent money at Wiltspoon Hotel, and came here occasionally, either to treat his younger brother or Zachary to treat him to dinner.

Remembering that the dishes he had eaten in Wiltspoon Hotel were all delicious, Sonny was so small, and he never disliked them, so Julian ordered according to the dishes he had eaten.

After ordering and waiting for the dishes to be served, Julian chatted with Kiera naturally.

The children were chattering about their topics.

From time to time, they would secretly look at Julian.

“Ms. Caron, When are you going back?” Julian poured Kiera a cup of tea and asked her.

Every time he looked at Kiera’s pretty face, Julian felt his heart beat faster, and the look in her eyes suppressed tenderness.

Julian, who had never tasted love before, met a girl who could make him react, and the love came very fiercely. Fortunately, he was steady and able to hold back, so Kiera didn’t see it.

Kiera said honestly: “We have finished the competition, and the next step is to take the children to play for a few days, and then return to Yonsburg.”

Julian: “Ms. Caron where do you want to take the children? Can you drive?”

Kiera: “I can drive. I got my driver’s license at the age of 18, and now I have six years of driving experience. The zoo in Wiltspoon, famous parks, and some scenic spots, such as the seaside, I want to take my children to play.”

Julian said: “Ms. Caron, you can drive. I will lend you a car. Wherever you want to go, I will be your free tour guide. There are many interesting places in Wiltspoon, and you can go there. You can wait until the National Day holiday is over.”

Kiera said: “We went back on the third day of the holiday, in order to avoid too many people everywhere on the last day. Mr. Bucham, you’re busy with work, so I don’t dare to disturb you. I rented a bus, which is the bus that took us back. I have already negotiated the fare with the driver.”

Julian: “Have you paid?”

Kiera: “not yet.”

Julian said, “Ms. Caron, you don’t need to pay, I’ll lend you a car and drive a car, that’s enough. No matter how busy I am at work, it’s rare for you to come here. I'd like to be a landlord. You helped me, I might be robbed, kidnapped, tortured by gangsters, life would be worse than death."