

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1427

Chapter 1427

Not long after David and Amadi entered the building, the enormous tortoise entered the space crack and disappeared.

Benito and the Ruler Ranked galaxy beasts of the Beast Galaxy collectively breathed a sigh of relief when they watched the enormous tortoise disappear.

Finally, they could be at ease.

They would constantly be on tenterhooks if the Universe Enforcer did not leave.

That 'get lost' from Celeste traumatized them too much.

Her voice directly injured nearly 30 Ruler Rankers, making them unable to maintain their Eternal Golden Bodies.

This kind of strength was simply shocking.

In reality, even if Amadi came out again and wanted to kill Benito to vent his anger, no galaxy beasts would come forward to help Benito as long as he watched his mouth and did not make these galaxy beasts think that he wanted to destroy the entire Beast Galaxy.

Even the Tyrant Rex Clan would personally deliver Benito to Amadi in order to save their race.

Such was the deterrent power of the Universe Enforcer.

It was also due to the power displayed by Celeste's voice.

"They finally left!"

Benito changed from his original form to human form and wiped the sweat from his forehead with his hand.

At this moment, his face was pale.

He was obviously frightened.

He was afraid that Amadi would continue to cause trouble.

He even said that he was going to kill Amadi and take away his Soulbound Gloves.

Who knew that Amadi would suddenly become the representative of a Universe Enforcer?

Wasn't he bearding the lion in its den?

What Benito did not know was that Amadi was also a Universe Enforcer, but he had only just obtained this status and was still doing his internship.

Hence, he could only come out with Celeste by his side.

With his current strength, it would not be enough to carry out tasks alone as a Universe Enforcer.

He could only carry out tasks on his own after he broke through Ruler Rank and reached Immortal Rank.

“Yes! They finally left. This is the first time I ever saw a Universe Enforcer. How powerful! She's even more powerful than the legends. We can't fight back against a Universe Enforcer. We're just like ants to them,” one of the galaxy beasts lamented at one side.

After Celeste the Universe Enforcer left, everyone felt relieved and changed back to human form.

Since humans were the most efficacious beings in the world, countless races in the universe would want to imitate them.

Not only was it more convenient to be in human form, but it could also help them appreciate the world more.

“Of course! The prestige of a Universe Enforcer is not just empty words, they proved it with their fists! It is said that there used to be many powerful forces that did not abide by the Universe Convention and the rule of the Universe Enforcer, but now, they're all gone along with the dust of history.”

When everyone was lamenting the power of the Universe Enforcer, a voice suddenly said, “Judging from the voice of the Universe Enforcer just now, she should be a woman! Even her voice is super alluring Judging from my years of experience, I am confident that she must be a peerless beauty, but it is a pity that I was not able to witness her beauty with my own eyes. If I could...”

Before he could finish his sentence, he was immediately interrupted.

“Shut up! Don’t continue talking. If the Universe Enforcer hears you, we’re all going to die. If you want to die, don’t drag everyone down with you,” some galaxy beasts shouted in horror.

“What are you afraid of? The Universe Enforcer is not a god. How could she know what we are talking about and what we are doing at all times? Besides, with the speed of that enormous tortoise in the space crack, I estimated that they have already left the Beast Galaxy,” the voice said indifferently.

The owner of the voice was a small, stooped, scruffy old man with unkempt hair and an ungroomed beard. He also had a scrappy look on his face.

One could never tell that he was a Ruler Ranker, let alone a peak Ruler Ranker.

Chapter 1428

It was hard to comprehend how such a guy could reach peak Ruler Rank.

The origin of this sloppy old man was not simple.

He came from the second-ranked Silver Snake Clan in the Beast Galaxy. His name was Darvi. Those at the same rank and similar strength as him would call him Horndog.

In the entire Beast Galaxy, Silver Snake Clan was second only to the Tyrant Rex Clan, occupying the second position.

This was also a very special race.

As for how special it was, one could vaguely tell from his words.

The Universe Enforcer had just left not long ago. Who would dare to talk about her like this behind her back?

“Stop! Stop! You pervert, you are so daring. How dare you fantasize about the Universe Enforcer? Do you have a death wish? How can we figure out what the Universe Enforcer has in her mind? She might be listening right now and is just not showing herself.”

“You’re making a fuss out of nothing! If she could hear me, why didn’t she come out and slap me to death? If I could see her real face, I would die without regret. I really want to see if she matches my imagination. If so, I will be happy even if she crushes me to death after I get intimate with her.”

Darvi said with a look of intoxication on his face..

“Damn! Horndog, you are a complete pervert! I can’t understand you. Forget it, forget it! I can’t afford to offend her, so I’ll just leave. Everyone, for the sake of my own safety, I’ll leave first.”

After a middle-aged man finished speaking, he tore apart the space, stepped in, and added something before leaving.

“Universe Enforcer, what this old horndog said has nothing to do with me. I have always respected you from the beginning to the end.”

The moment the middle-aged man left, the other galaxy beasts also followed, all whilst providing different excuses.

They did not want to die after mingling with the Silver Snake Clan.

They even dared to fantasize about the Universe Enforcer.

What a... peculiar race.

When the galaxy beasts recalled the power of Celeste’s voice, they shook in fright.

In the end, Darvi was the only one left.

He was not in a hurry to leave.

Instead, he went to the area where the enormous tortoise had been. Where he was right now was where the luxurious building was.

Darvi took a few deep breaths.

He smelled something unusual.

Suddenly, his eyes widened, and a look of shock appeared on his face.

‘Hmm? What is this smell?’

At that moment, goosebumps appeared all over Darvi. His pores opened and he looked mesmerized. Then, he swallowed the lingering scent greedily with his mouth open.

It was as if he had smelled some peerless delicacy. Whenever he inhaled, he would feel as amazing as if he had taken some tonic.

The hint of desire that was emitted after Celeste’s alluring body was triggered was lethally attractive to the Silver Snake Clan.

This came from the soul and was not something the Silver Snake Clan could control.

If Celeste was in the Silver Snake Clan's territory and she released the desire from her body, the entire clan would swarm up to her.

They would not hesitate even if they knew Celeste was a Universe enforcer.

They would be like moths to a flame.
