Chapter 1716

Her words reminded most of the people at the scene, especially the Sovereign Rankers.

They were all in a hurry to leave this place, so they never thought about that.

Why could they leave this place alive?

It was not because Archimedes was kind. Rather, it was because he was not strong enough.

Would Archimedes kill everyone here silently after he went back to his family and got enough power?

Dead men tell no tales.

It was not only possible that Archimedes would do that, but the chances of him doing so was very high. If everyone left without sharing their contact details, it would be easy for Archimedes to kill them in secret.

It would not be the same if they had each other's contacts.

Once Archimedes did something, they could contact each other and then let the word out.

If Archimedes knew about this, he would surely not dare to do anything for the sake of his and his family's reputation.

This was the best way to stop Archimedes. Angelica's words helped everyone here greatly. Of course, she was also helping herself. 'Sweetheart, what's your name? Where did you come from?' One of the old mid-Sovereign Rankers asked.

"Old Sir, my name is Angelica Dolce and I'm from the Heavenly Sect," Angelica answered.

"The Heavenly Sect? You mean the one from West Sand Galaxy?" The old man pondered and asked.

"Yes! Do you know about the Heavenly Sect?"

"Of course! I passed by that place and heard about you people."

"If you pass by West Sand next time, you have to go visit the Heavenly Sect," Angelica invited.

"Since you've invited me, I will surely go if I have time."

"It's a deal then!"

"It's a deal!"

"Miss Angelica, I will also go visit the Heavenly Sect if I have the chance. Will you welcome me?" A burly middle-aged beginner Sovereign Rank asked.

"Of course! Please drop by!" Angelica giggled and answered.

"Alright! It's a deal. I will surely go visit the Heavenly Sect. I want to see what family raised such a sweet little girl like you,” the burly man guffawed.

Aside from the people who argued with Louie just now, everyone else stated that they wanted to go visit the Heavenly Sect if they had the chance.

Angelica immediately became everyone’s favorite. What she said just now was too useful to everyone. It was no exaggeration to say that it might have saved everyone’s life.

This made everyone more fond of her.

The two old beginner Sovereign Rankers raised their thumbs at Angelica.

After exchanging some pleasantries and their contacts, everyone left.

As for why they did so, everyone was keenly aware. The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!
