

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2273

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2273-“Likewise! I didn’t expect you to hide your strength as well, but that’s all. If you want to use your current strength to cripple me, I’m afraid it will be a bit difficult,” David replied with a smile.

“David, I admit that you are very strong, but strength does not mean everything, especially when the difference is not too big. The result of the battle also depends on many other aspects,” Queen Isa said.

“It seems that you still don’t want to give up! To be honest, I don’t want to fight you. This kind of fight is meaningless in my opinion, but since you won’t leave me alone, then let’s do it.”

How would David not know that the outcome of battle would also depend on other aspects?

Unless one party had the strength to absolutely crush the other one, otherwise, anything was possible.

For example, hidden weapons, traps, ultimate moves, and secret techniques, all of which might determine the outcome of the battle.

David also believed that the woman opposite him must have many backers.

Yet, so what?

He has not given his all yet.

This time, David attacked first.

He could not always be so passive, right?

Seeing David move, Queen Isa followed suit.

The two figures, one gold, and one green, disappeared almost at the same time.

They were both charging at the opponent at a speed that was difficult to distinguish with the naked eye.

When they reappeared, they collided once again.

Boom!

A shock wave visible to the naked eye spread out from the place where the two collided.

The forest that was desolated within a radius of more than ten kilometers was turned over again.

The powerful impact once again made Beanie, Evie, and others realize what a battle between powerhouses was like.

As long as Evie was close to David and Queen Isa's circle of battle, she could stop them.

However, with Evie's strength, she couldn't do so.

Forcibly approaching would just be asking for death.

Evie had no choice but to wait quietly for the battle to end and for her mother to come to get her so that she would have a chance to tell her the truth.

Meanwhile, the Elven Guards following Queen Isa were also intercepted by the shock wave.

They were much stronger than Beanie and the others, and yet, they dared not approach either.

Going in would not help Queen Isa but it would also cost them their lives.

The Elven Guards were also surprised that Her Majesty the Queen had met such a powerful opponent.

Yet like Evie, they all had absolute confidence in Her Majesty the Queen.

They never thought Her Majesty would lose.

After the violent collision, neither David nor Queen Isa intended to stop.

The two sides fought each other countless times.

The center of their battle, the originally dense forest, became desolate and full of big holes.

Fortunately, most of the beasts living here felt the energy released by Queen Isa and had run away. Otherwise, many souls would die in the aftermath of the battle.

The fighting strength shown by the two was almost the same.

According to the current battle situation, it would be difficult to tell the winner if they continued to fight.

Queen Isa looked at David, who was able to dodge her attacks easily.

She knew in her heart that she could not defeat this little punk without using some of her trump cards.

Things had developed to this point and the arrow was already on the string, so she had no choice but to do it.

Therefore, Isa gritted her teeth and met David's attack with her full strength,

Boom!

David and Queen Isa each backed away.

In the process of retreating, a green bow suddenly appeared in Queen Isa's left hand.

She put her right hand on the string and pulled it back to form a semicircle.

A translucent arrow appeared on the bow.

Finally, she let go of her right hand.

Woosh!

A sharp sound could be heard.

The translucent arrow broke away from the bow in Queen Isa's left hand and sped through the air.

It was so fast that it almost reached the point of teleportation.

Before the sound of the arrow breaking the air could be heard, the translucent arrow had already arrived in front of David. However, it was aiming at David's left shoulder, not his head or heart.

Queen Isa did not want to kill David either.

It did not matter which force David was the secret successor to.

Judging by his performance just now, his status was already self-evident.