I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2279-“You mean we can't find this Black Fox anymore?”

Queen Isa's tone was still calm and there were no fluctuations, but anyone could feel the anger in her heart.

Her Royal Highness, the only princess of the Elves, was abducted by a bad guy and he has not been found. How could Queen Isa not respond?

If this happened in the real world, the Elves would definitely use the power of the whole clan to find the person.

Yet, this happened in The Spirit Cage, so it was not easy to handle.

The Spirit Cage was, after all, a place created by humans.

The Elves did not have an advantage in terms of soul power.

If they acted rashly, the seniors of the clan would not agree.

All this time, they kept putting pressure on Queen Isa to return and stop wasting time in The Spirit Cage.

The elders needed to consider the interests of the whole clan, rather than acting on their whims.

It was not easy for the Elves to exist on such a large scale today.

During their darkest moments, the Elf women would not even dare to come out of the Elven Forest at all.

Once they did, they would be caught and sold.

Many hedonists and spoiled spendthrifts would offer sky-high prices to buy Elf women.

It was much better now than it was then.

At least no one dared to publicly auction Elf women.

If there was an auction, it would be in the black market.

“Your Majesty, it may not be easy to find Black Fox now!

Maybe he has quit The Spirit Cage and won't come back again. This person cherishes his life and will never put himself in danger. Once he encounters a crisis, he will try his best to save himself as soon as possible,” Thor replied respectfully.

Queen Isa did not speak on hearing that. Instead, she turned to look at David.

Although she did not want to face this little genius, he saved Evie after all, and if she, a mother, pretended not to see him, then it would be very rude of the Elves.

Moreover, David's last burst of energy terrified her.

He possessed such a powerful soul power that this kid must not be too weak in the real world either.

It also showed that he had a sky-high background.

If Isa could get on good terms with David because of Evie, it would be beneficial for the Elves.

However, Elven Queen Isa did not want to accept and face the fact that she was so scared by the energy of a junior that she could not move.

“David, thank you for saving Evie. If it weren't for you, she would have suffered horribly. Not only would she not be able to go back, she would be locked up and treated like a slave too. Her life would be over,” Queen Isa suppressed the awkwardness in her heart and thanked David.

“It's just a trivial matter, Queen Isa, you don't have to be so modest.”

David smiled.

He was really angry when he was attacked by Queen Isa's arrow and broke the mountain.

Immediately, he wanted to exert his full strength and teach this woman a serious lesson.

Yet, after discovering Queen Isa's identity, David was relieved.

It was understandable for a mother to act irrationally when she was worried about her daughter's safety.
