

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2254

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2254-After all, he was still a normal man.

As long as he was a normal man, no one could resist the temptation of Queen Isa.

Anyone who could take down Queen Isa would be famous in Leila.

“Queen Isa, I admit that the disappearance of the Elven Princess has a lot to do with my family, but it’s not entirely our responsibility! It’s not like you don’t know how popular the Elf women are in Leila, let alone The Spirit Cage. Soleil is a hedonist from our family who is ignorant and inexperienced. Thus, it is normal for him to have evil intentions when he meets a few beautiful Elf women in the wild. He had already paid for his actions, so please stop holding onto this, Queen Isa,” Horatio said bravely.

“What? From what you’re saying, are you implying that it’s our fault? We shouldn’t be out there, is that what you’re saying? You awful men can’t control yourselves and you’re blaming us Elves. What a joke.” Queen Isa sneered.

“If I’m not wrong, the Elven Princess should have entered The Spirit Cage secretly and without your consent.

Otherwise, she would not bring only a few servants. Even if the Alten family didn’t run into her, she’ll have the same ending if other forces saw her. She might not even have a chance to escape.”

“Horatio, are you trying to shirk responsibility now?” There was a cold gleam in Queen Isa’s beautiful eyes that would make all men fall for her.

“Queen Isa, don’t get me wrong! I didn’t mean to shirk responsibility. I was just explaining possibilities. The Elven Princess has been missing for such a long time. Even if she is found, she is unlikely to become the next Elven Queen, so you should put forward any conditions! My family will try their best to meet them.”

Horatio openly told Isa what was on his mind.

He also felt that the possibility of the Elven Princess staying a virgin was very small.

So, he directly told Isa the truth.

‘The Alten family will give the Elves anything they want as long as it’s within our power. It doesn’t matter as long as we can solve this perfectly and have no future troubles.’

Logically, The Spirit Cage was just fantasy. Even if one lost their virginity here, they would still be a virgin back in the real world. There would be no changes.

The problem was that if Evie wanted to become the next Elven Queen, she had to inherit a secret technique from the previous Elven Queen. However, after an Elf woman slept with a man, they would never be able to inherit this technique.

Even if she was still a virgin in the real world, she still could not and she would never be the Elven Queen.

was also not her biological daughter.

When the Elves needed to cultivate an Elven Princess, they would look for a baby in the clan that passed all tests. Then, the baby would call the Elven Queen her mother and be raised by her so she could inherit the queen's place in the future.

There were not a lot of Elves but they were very united.

Almost all of the Elves would be willing to sacrifice everything for their clan.

When Queen Isa heard that, the expression on her face gradually calmed down.

This had already happened so she had to make up for the losses.

This was also why she went to the Alten Residence so many times.

Since Horatio had said that, she did not need to hide anymore.

"Alright, Horatio, as you say, Evie snuck into The Spirit Cage herself so she's also responsible for this. I won't make things hard for you. After this, I'll give you a list and you will collect everything on that list. This matter will be over once you send the things to us and then we will not look into this anymore."

"Deal!" Horatio agreed immediately.

As the Elven Queen, Queen Isa was still a virgin and Evie was also not her biological daughter.

When the Elves needed to cultivate an Elven Princess, they would look for a baby in the clan that passed all tests. Then, the baby would call the Elven Queen her mother and be raised by her so she could inherit the queen's place in the future.

There were not a lot of Elves but they were very united.

Almost all of the Elves would be willing to sacrifice everything for their clan.

When Queen Isa heard that, the expression on her face gradually calmed down.

This had already happened so she had to make up for the losses.

This was also why she went to the Alten Residence so many times.

Since Horatio had said that, she did not need to hide anymore.

“Alright, Horatio, as you say, Evie snuck into The Spirit Cage herself so she’s also responsible for this. I won’t make things hard for you. After this, I’ll give you a list and you will collect everything on that list. This matter will be over once you send the things to us and then we will not look into this anymore.”

“Deal!” Horatio agreed immediately.

Since things had escalated to this point, this was how it should end.

The Alten family suffered a huge loss and they would compensate for their mistake.

It would not be good for both parties if things escalated and they had a fallout.

The Elves were always the good guys in Leila and they had sent out so many Elf women to please all of the forces.

So, everyone would underestimate how strong the Elves were.

Anyone who dared to look down on the Elves would suffer a huge loss.

Others aside, the Elven Queen's secret technique, passed down for generations, was said to be able to destroy heaven and earth.

Anyone who dared to provoke them would suffer immensely.