I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2255-After Elven Queen Isa reached an agreement with Horatio, she left the Alten Residence.

She had to continue to expand the search to find Evie.

If she still could not find Evie, she could only go back.

As the Elven Queen, there were still a lot of things waiting for her to deal with.

So, she could not stay in The Spirit Cage forever.

She should also put re-cultivating a new Elven Princess on the agenda.

During this time, Queen Isa had not been idle.

She would wander the surrounding mountains every day, hoping to find Evie's whereabouts.

Yet, she still could not find anything.

Evie seemed to have evaporated from the world.

Both the Elves and the Alten family invested a lot of manpower, but they could not even find a clue.

Logically speaking, Evie would not have been in The Spirit Cage too long. Judging from how much she liked to travel and have fun, it was unlikely that she would go far.

Unless she got into trouble after escaping from Soleil and fell into the hands of others.

After this person captured Evie, he did not show off in a high-profile way like Soleil but quietly hid it.

That was how the current situation came to be.

Isa knew Evie was still alive, but she could not find her.

Both Elven Queen Isa and Horatio knew that, even if they found Evie, she probably would not be able to inherit the secret technique and become the Elven Queen.

Therefore, the Alten family was willing to pay a huge price to compensate the Elves for the loss.

Just like the four Elf women that Soleil caught. After he had fun with them that night, he tortured them severely after.

If Evie was caught, she would also suffer the same fate.

Even so, Elven Queen Isa still had to find whoever took Evie.

No one could touch the Elven Princess.

Even if the opponent was Star Kingdom's top power, they must have a reasonable explanation, i

Otherwise, the Elves would not let this matter rest.

The Elves started another search.

If they still could not find Evie this time, they could only temporarily send some of them back.

There were not a lot of Elves so they did not have that much energy to waste in The Spirit Cage.

During this time, Evie was dining in a third-tier city, located at least two and a half months from Wier.

She also had no idea that her mother, the Elven Queen, was doing everything to find her.

The main reason was that Queen Isa did not expect Evie to go so far, and with limited manpower, she could only search around Wier.

Moreover, Isa did not dare to attract too much attention.

If Evie was captured by someone, wouldn't it alert the enemy? If that were the case, it would be even more difficult to find Evie.

They might even find a remote place and kill Evie so that they would not offend the Elves.

So Queen Isa was afraid to make too much noise.

The reason Black Fox knew Evie's identity was also due to his network in Wier.

On this side, David and the others were eating.

At the stairway on the second floor, several young men stared intently at the faces of Evie and the Elf women.

Their faces were simply too delicate, too alluring, and too beautiful.

In their entire lives, they had never seen such beautiful women.

If only they could have one.

It would definitely be a huge blessing.

After looking for a while, the men came back to their senses and glanced at each other.

A sinister smile appeared on their faces.

They did not go up to the third floor anymore. Instead, they walked straight to David's table.

David and the others were in their territory, so why would they let them go?

Although David's back was to the stairs, with his ability, he could hear the men's conversation.
