

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 311 - 311 Choice; Shock!

311 Choice; Shock!

Under the envious gazes of the students, Lin Fan and Ran Fei walked out together.

Soon, they arrived at Feng Weijian's office.

Ran Fei had also come into contact with many young geniuses.

However, no matter how talented these young people were, they would still be somewhat restrained in front of him.

Ran Fei believed that there were two reasons for this.

Firstly, there was a difference in wealth.

Secondly, it was the difference in social status.

From the moment he saw Lin Fan in the classroom, Ran Fei had been observing him secretly.

Ran Fei realized that Lin Fan's expression was extremely relaxed and calm.

He could not help but praise the genius who solved several math problems and invented the earthquake prediction device and super battery. He was indeed different.

In fact...

It was normal for Lin Fan to have such a reaction.

Speaking of wealth...

Lin Fan's wealth far surpassed Ran Fei's.

In terms of social status...

Lin Fan was the second largest shareholder of Penguin Group and Little Tanuki Group. He was also the largest shareholder of Imperial Hotel, Yinshan Group, Xiao Wu Wholesale City, and so on. He was also the captain of the Dragon Division.

In addition, Lin Fan was also on good terms with Qin Weiming, Zhou Guotao, and the other elders.

In terms of social status, Ran Fei did not hold a candle to him.

This was equivalent to a superior and a subordinate walking together. How could Lin Fan be nervous?

Ran Fei sat down and said, "Mr. Lin, you should know that our Dahua Phone Group is divided into two business segments. The first is communication equipment, and the second is smartphones."

Lin Fan saw that Ran Fei was about to say something and interrupted, "Chairman Ran, you just said that you want to cooperate with me on my super battery."

Ran Fei immediately understood that Lin Fan did not like to beat about the bush.

"I know about the super battery," he said. "You must have spent a lot of effort to invent it. So, we don't plan to buy the patent right away."

No, Ran Fei was thinking too much.

Lin Fan only spent about an hour watching the battery experiment and reading a few battery-related books.

Ran Fei continued, "I've prepared two ways of cooperation for the time being. Mr. Lin, take a listen to it first. Of course, you can also state your requirements.

"The first option is for Dahua Phone Group to spend 500 million yuan and obtain the right to use the super battery for ten years. You can continue to sign corresponding cooperation agreements with other companies.

"The second option is for our Dahua Phone Group to spend 1.5 billion yuan to obtain the exclusive rights to the super battery for ten years. Other companies who want to use the super battery will need to sign a contract with our Da Hua Phone Group."

Vice Chancellor Feng Weijian, who was sitting next to them and had been silent all this while, trembled slightly as he held the glass of water.

500 million!

1.5 billion!

Feng Weijian had seen a lot of the world.

However, he was still shocked by such a large number.

Lin Fan's face was still calm as he said, "I'll go for the second option."

This was not because Lin Fan felt that 1.5 billion was a lot of money and that was why he chose it.

One had to know...

1.5 billion was only the price of a high-end office building.

Lin Fan had a few such office buildings.

In addition, Lin Fan had several billion yuan in his own account.

The real reason was that Lin Fan felt that it was too troublesome to sign contracts with different companies.

Gulp!

Feng Weijian, who was sitting at the side, could not help but swallow his saliva.

1.5 billion!

Ran Fei took a deep breath and said, "Alright, I'll get someone to send the contract over now."

Although the technical director had already done several experiments to prove that there was no problem with the thesis data, the 1.5 billion patent fee was still a huge gamble for Ran Fei!

It would be fine if no one could invent a better battery in the next few years.

If someone invented a better battery soon, it would definitely be a blow to Dahua Phone Group.

After a series of crisp sounds from the fax machine, three warm copies of the contract appeared in Ran Fei's hands.

Ran Fei first spent about 20 minutes carefully checking the contract before handing a copy to Lin Fan. He said, "Mr. Lin, please take a look."

Compared to Ran Fei's meticulous manner, Lin Fan was much more casual.

Lin Fan quickly flipped through the contract. After a few seconds, he stopped and said, "Alright, there's no problem with the contract. Shall we sign it directly?"

Ran Fei was slightly stunned.

No problem?

Was he not going to take a look?

He did it so casually?

This was a 1.5 billion contract!

Ran Fei did not know that Lin Fan had a scanning ability.

Although Lin Fan only spent a short time reading it, his understanding of the contents of the contract far exceeded Ran Fei's.

Even if he wanted Lin Fan to recite the contents of the contract, it would not be a problem.

Seeing that Ran Fei did not reply, Lin Fan asked, "What else do we need to wait for?"

"No, no, no. There's no need. You can sign it now," Ran Fei replied.

Lin Fan nodded. He picked up the pen on the table and quickly signed his name.

Ran Fei also signed his name and stamped the official seal he carried with him.

Feng Zijian, who was sitting at the side, swallowed his saliva again.

A 1.5 billion sky-high contract was completed in front of him just like that?

He felt that it was so unreal.

"Mr. Lin, I've already asked the finance department to transfer the money to you. It should arrive soon," Ran Fei said.

Lin Fan nodded his head casually and did not really mind.

Sure enough, after a while, the phone in his pocket vibrated.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 1.5 billion yuan was deposited into your account.]

Lin Fan waved his phone and said, "It's in my account."

Ran Fei took the initiative to extend his hand and said, “Mr. Lin, it’s a pleasure to cooperate.”

At this moment, Lin Fan stretched out his hand and said, “To a happy cooperation.”

...

The news of Dahua Phone Group spending 1.5 billion yuan on the patent for the super battery quickly spread.

This time, it was not just the mobile electronics industry that was shaken. The entire internet was shaken as well.

On Weibo.

Love of a Lifetime: [1.5 billion? Heavens! Oh my god! How could a patent be so valuable?]

Fat Monkey King: [I finally understand why the elderly always said that education is important. From now on, I’ll study hard! When a beauty comes to chat with me, I’ll kick her away because I want to study hard! If the beauty invites me to drink milk tea, I’ll reject her directly because I want to study hard. If the beauty asks me to watch a movie with her, I’ll tear up the movie ticket because I want to study hard! Women will only affect my studies!]

You, Me, Him: [The commenter above... What are you thinking? Why would a beauty look for you?]

312 Heading to Li City; Delicious!

Shadowless: [1.5 billion! When can I earn a fraction of it?]

Happy Happy: [Did you notice who signed the super battery patent contract with Dahua Phone Group? It’s Lin Fan! The Lin Fan who solved Zhou’s Conjecture, the Twin Prime Number Conjecture, and Hail Conjecture!]

Golden Goldfish: [F*ck it!]

Likes Chuzheng: [F*ck!]

Loved for Life: [F*ck!]

Coming and Going: [He has solved several unsolved math problems, invented an earthquake prediction device, and now developed a super battery. He has also obtained a 1.5 billion patent license... Reality is constantly reminding me that I'm only here to make up the numbers!]

...

As for the discussions online, Lin Fan was completely ignorant.

After signing the contract with Ran Fei, the chairman of Dahua Phone Group, he drove his Mercedes-Benz to the airport.

Then, he boarded the latest flight to Li City.

It was because just now... Su Ningjing sent a message saying that some people from Magpie Coffee wanted to buy their coffee beans.

Magpie Coffee was the world's largest coffee company.

Generally speaking, they would not do anything like forcing people to buy or sell.

However, this was under normal circumstances.

Lin Fan knew that these coffee beans were obtained from the system.

Lin Fan would not be surprised by how good their taste was.

Spirit Tea... was the best example.

If Magpie Coffee discovered the magical properties of the coffee beans, it was hard to say what they would do.

Lin Fan was afraid that Su Ningjing would not be able to handle it and was even more afraid that she would get hurt.

That was why he came to Li City personally.

Lin Fan drove the Porsche that had been parked at the airport for nearly two months and sped along the winding mountain road.

About two hours later, a short house finally appeared in his sight.

Lin Fan had just parked his car when a little girl with pigtails ran out and said happily, "Elder Brother, it's Elder Brother! Brother is here!"

As Ah Mei finished speaking, the woman with jet-black hair and beautiful eyes that sparkled like gems stuck her head out.

It was Su Ningjing.

Today, Su Ningjing was wearing a white shirt and a plaid apron around her waist. Her already voluptuous figure looked even curvier under the contrast of her clothes.

Su Ningjing had been living in the mountain village for the past two months.

However, her skin did not show any signs of aging or coarseness.

It was because Lin Fan had given her a lot of beauty essence.

In addition, because Su Ningjing had always lived in the mountain village, her body had a unique and pure aura.

“Lin Fan, you’re here?” Su Ningjing let out a sound like the sound of spring water.

Lin Fan smiled. “Yes, I’m here.”

Su Ningjing seemed to be attracted by him. She quickly walked toward Lin Fan and threw herself into his arms.

After a while, Su Ningjing seemed to realize that Ah Mei was still beside her.

Hence, she quickly broke free from Lin Fan’s embrace and said with a red face, “Uhh... I’ve already prepared my meal. Let’s go eat first.”

“Alright,” Lin Fan replied. At the same time, he grabbed Su Ningjing’s slender hand.

Su Ningjing looked at her younger sister who was watching her from the side. She was a little shy and wanted to break free.

However, Lin Fan increased the strength of his grip.

Instantly, Su Ningjing was completely enveloped in shyness and sweetness.

At this moment, there were green pepper scrambled eggs, mushroom egg soup, small fish, and other dishes on the table.

Lin Fan sniffed the fragrance of the dishes, and the familiar scent immediately surged into his heart. This was the smell of his grandmother’s cooking when he was young. His appetite was immediately whetted.

Back then, Lin Fan had asked Su Ningjing to stay in the Coiling Dragon Villa to clean the place...

The biggest attributing factor to why she was hired was that she could replicate the taste of Lin Fan’s grandmother’s cooking.

Lin Fan did not stand on ceremony. He sat down and picked up his chopsticks to eat.

However, he quickly noticed Su Ningjing, Ah Mei, and the old lady not moving. He immediately recalled that the custom here was for the men to eat first while the women ate the leftovers.

Lin Fan said, "Grandma, Ningjing, Sis... Didn't we already agree the last time? Times are different now. At least when you eat with me, you don't have to be like this."

The old lady hesitated for a moment before nodding. "Ningjing, Ah Mei... let's have the meal together."

When Lin Fan heard this, he could not help but let out a smile.

He was very happy and satisfied with the meal.

Lin Fan lay on the bamboo chair and looked at the sun that was setting in the distance. He was extremely satisfied.

Suddenly, Lin Fan seemed to have thought of something and asked, "By the way, how's the taste of the coffee beans?"

"It's delicious!" Su Ning said. "Grandma, Ah Mei, and the villagers all said it's delicious."

When Su Ningjing mentioned the coffee beans, a smile appeared on her pretty face.

The beans were something that Lin Fan had left behind in the village. In her eyes, they were like her own children.

The more people liked them, the happier she was.

After a pause, Su Ningjing said, "I'll brew you a cup right now."

After a while, Su Ningjing walked over with a porcelain cup.

Inside... was a cup of freshly brewed coffee.

Even though Lin Fan had not drunk it yet, he was already attracted by its rich fragrance.

Under Su Ningjing's expectant gaze, Lin Fan finally poured the coffee into his mouth.

As soon as the coffee entered his mouth, it felt like a soft ribbon had slid down his throat.

At the same time, Lin Fan seemed to hear the sound of flowing water and smell the fragrance of the grass in the forest...

Silky and sweet!

After a while, Su Ningjing could not help but ask, "How does it taste?"

Lin Fan nodded seriously. "It's good!"

Although it was only two words, it made Su Ningjing feel as if she had eaten a candied fruit. Her heart felt sweet.

As night fell, the elderly and child had already fallen asleep.

Su Ningjing came to Lin Fan's room and helped him lay out new sheets and blankets.

Just as Su Ningjing was about to turn around and leave, Lin Fan gently pulled her into his embrace.

...

After a short separation, the couple seemed like newlyweds.

...

The next day, at dawn, a rooster came to a high place with its head held high and let out a loud cry as if to prove its existence.

Lin Fan slowly opened his eyes and looked at his phone.

A text message appeared on the screen as usual.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 7,120,000 yuan was deposited into your account.]

Lin Fan muttered in his heart, 'This time, I'm at another place. Let's see what I can get when signing in.]

"Check in."

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 10% shares of Magpie Coffee.]

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 313 You're A Bad Person!

When Lin Fan heard the system notification, a weird look appeared on his face.

If he remembered correctly, it was Magpie Coffee that wanted to buy their coffee beans, right?

Now, he directly owned 10% shares of Magpie Coffee?

One had to know...

The first shareholder of Magpie Coffee had 23% of the shares, while the second shareholder only had 8% of the shares.

Thus, he had become the second shareholder?

In the past, he often heard others say that one could become a shareholder by speculating in stocks.

This time... had he been acquired and become a shareholder?

Lin Fan shook his head and tossed this small matter to the back of his mind.

He slowly got up and walked out.

At this moment, the sun was rising from the mountains in the distance. It gradually emitted a warm and gentle light. Coupled with the gentle breeze and sweet air, it made him feel extremely relaxed.

At this moment, Su Ningjing walked over.

When Lin Fan heard her voice, he raised his hand and hugged her slender waist.

There was beautiful nature in front of him and a beautiful woman hugging him.

Everything was so wonderful.

Time... It was as if the pause button had been pressed at this moment.

After an unknown period of time, a crisp voice sounded behind them.

"Sister, Brother, it's time for breakfast!"

In an instant, Su Ningjing's pretty face turned red. She reflexively tried to break free from Lin Fan's embrace.

Just like yesterday, Lin Fan held her hand tightly.

Strong and warm, it made her feel at ease and happy.

For breakfast, Su Ningjing made sweet potatoes, yam, and corn and cooked up a few eggs that were taken from the chicken coop.

The meal was simple and delicious.

Lin Fan, who ate a lot of bird's nest and lobsters, was suddenly eating some coarse grains from the countryside. It was a different taste.

Just as they finished breakfast, a car roared outside.

Then, three men in suits and leather shoes strode in.

The man at the front looked at Su Ningjing.

Although he had already seen Su Ningjing's beautiful face yesterday, when he saw it again, he was still stunned. His face was filled with fascination.

He had never thought that there would be such a beautiful woman in the mountain village.

"Ms. Su, have you thought about the one million yuan we offered to buy your coffee beans yesterday?" the man asked after a while.

One million? They wanted to buy the coffee beans from the system for one million?

This was a joke.

"Not really!" Lin Fan replied immediately.

The man frowned slightly. He seemed to have just realized that a man had appeared.

"Who are you?"

Lin Fan skillfully held Su Ningjing's slender waist and said, "Ningjing's boyfriend, Lin Fan."

Even though Su Ningjing had already given everything to Lin Fan, she was hugged by Lin Fan in front of everyone. He even said that he was her boyfriend.

It still made her extremely shy. Her pretty face was like a ripe red apple, and she wished she could bury her little head in a hole.

When the man saw this, his face darkened.

After seeing Su Ningjing yesterday, he had already been secretly thinking about how to woo her.

However, she actually had a boyfriend?!

The man took a few deep breaths to calm himself down.

He said, "Ms. Su, I know that you grew up in this mountain village and are very innocent. This is a rare quality.

"However, I hope you understand that some people are not as innocent as you."

As the man said this, his gaze landed on Lin Fan.

The meaning of this sentence was obvious.

"Mr. Lin, I don't seem to have seen you in the village before. Yesterday, Magpie Coffee wanted to buy Ms. Su's coffee beans at a high price of one million. Today, you immediately appeared..."

These words were clearly trying to sow discord and plant the seeds of distrust in Su Ningjing's heart.

"Magpie Coffee not only has good coffee, but we also uphold a culture of innocence and efficiency," the man continued.

"Ms. Su is the owner of this coffee plantation. We want to carry out the negotiation process efficiently. Magpie Coffee would like to talk to Ms. Su in private... We're willing to pay a price higher than yesterday's price... Ms. Smith, what do you think?"

First, he instigated discord and planted the seeds of distrust. Then, he let money do the talking...

If it were someone else, they would probably follow the man's words and choose to discuss with him alone.

Unfortunately, he met Su Ningjing today.

In fact...

When the man said the first sentence, Su Ningjing already wanted to retort.

However, Lin Fan gave her a look and told her not to say anything.

That was why the man continued speaking.

At this moment, Su Ningjing could no longer hold it in and said angrily, "Our family doesn't welcome you, nor will we do business with you. Please leave!"

The man stiffened slightly. He did not expect Su Ningjing to have such a big reaction and was at a loss for what to do.

Lin Fan gently patted Su Ningjing's waist and said, "I don't know if I'm innocent or not...However, you mentioned an efficient negotiation method just now, so there's no problem for you to negotiate with me.

"Because I planted all the coffee here."

The man looked at Lin Fan suspiciously.

Ah Mei, who was at the side, also felt the man's hostility toward Lin Fan. She said angrily, "Brother took two days to plant everything before he was done! He was so tired! You're a bad person!"

When the man heard that, he finally believed that Lin Fan had planted the coffee.

After all, children usually would not lie.

"Mr. Lin, right? Let me introduce myself first. I'm Zhu Yuanhui, the manager of the Southern Hua Nation region of Magpie Coffee."

When he spoke, he raised his head and faced Lin Fan. He was extremely arrogant.

Zhu Yuanhui continued, "Our Magpie Coffee is prepared to buy your coffee for one million yuan. What do you think?"

"I'm not interested," Lin Fan said calmly.

Zhu Yuanhui thought that Lin Fan was trying to raise the price. He laughed coldly. "Mr. Lin, this is the highest price we can offer you. Don't even think about raising the price.

"Perhaps you don't know much about Magpie Coffee, so let me give you a simple introduction.

"Magpie Coffee is the largest coffee company in the world, with a total market value of more than a trillion! It's inextricably linked to all the companies in the world!"

"If Magpie Coffee doesn't buy your coffee beans, then I can guarantee that your coffee beans won't be able to go out of this mountain!"

"Don't think that you can sell coffee beans online now that the internet is developed. That's also wishful thinking! That's because we, Magpie Coffee, have a deep partnership with Penguin Group, Little Tanuki Group, Alphabet Group, and other giant internet companies!"

314 Brother; You're Too Awesome!

After Zhu Yuanhui said these words, his expression became even more arrogant, and his nose was pointed so high up that it almost reached the sky.

He believed that this young man named Lin Fan knew what Little Tanuki Group, Penguin Group, and Alphabet Group represented.

At the same time, he would also understand the meaning of a market value of more than trillions!

He could almost see Lin Fan hunching over and begging him to buy his coffee beans.

Zhu Yuanhui was even considering whether he should lower the price later.

However, Zhu Yuanhui did not notice that Lin Fan's face was full of mockery after he said those words.

At this moment, Lin Fan's phone rang.

He looked at the caller ID, and a strange expression appeared on his face.

That was because the caller was the person Zhu Yuanhui had just mentioned, Chairman Zhang Daming.

In the eyes of outsiders, the internet was a very mysterious place.

However, in the eyes of professionals, there were no secrets.

Ever since Lin Fan obtained 5% of the shares of the Alphabet Group, Zhang Daming had been paying close attention to Lin Fan.

Soon, he found out that Lin Fan owned 5% of Penguin Group's and Little Tanuki Group's shares.

Gradually, Lin Fan's shares in Penguin Group and Little Tanuki Group became 10%.

Not long ago, that figure reached 20%!

Lin Fan kept increasing his shares in Penguin and Ah-Ri, but would he increase his shares in Alphabet?

Zhang Daming did not know, but he had a vague guess in his heart.

Therefore, he had been a little anxious these days.

Finally, Zhang Daming mustered up his courage and called Lin Fan, trying to get close to him.

"Mr. Lin, how have you been?"

As soon as the call was connected, Zhang Daming's hearty laughter rang out.

"I'm doing pretty well too. I'm doing just as well as the recent developments of our Alphabet! Mr. Lin, our Alphabet is preparing to launch a few more projects, but I wonder what the prospects are. I wonder if you're free to come to Alphabet's headquarters? It's also good for us to check in with you," Zhang Daming said.

Lin Fan was a smart person and naturally knew what Zhang Daming meant.

He waved his hand and said, "I won't do that. Besides, I don't know anything. I believe that you'll develop Alphabet well."

When Zhang Daming heard this, he was extremely happy.

However, he still said, "Mr. Lin, you're too humble."

At this moment, Lin Fan seemed to have thought of something and asked, "By the way, is Alphabet working with Magpie Coffee?"

Zhang Daming did not know why Lin Fan would ask this.

However, he still told the truth, "Yes, that's right."

Lin Fan said, "I planted a batch of good coffee beans. Zhu Yuanhui, the manager of the Southern Hua Nation region of Magpie Coffee, said that if I don't sell them, he'll make sure that my coffee beans won't leave the mountain..."

Zhang Daming's heart skipped a beat.

If Mr. Lin refused to sell the coffee, he would not be able to sell them outside the mountain?

Threatening Lin Fan? Someone actually threatened Lin Fan, who held 5% of Alphabet's shares and 20% each of Little Tanuki and Penguin's shares?!

Zhu Yuanhui... was really... bold!

How bold!

He had just said that Alphabet had a collaboration with Magpie Coffee. If Lin Fan misunderstood...

The consequences...

Zhang Daming's heart jumped again, and he quickly said, "Mr. Lin, don't worry. I'll definitely get Magpie Coffee to give you a satisfactory answer!"

"Alright," said Lin Fan.

Then, he hung up.

Zhu Yuanhui, who was standing at the side, sneered, "Alphabet? Could this be a call from the leader of Alphabet? Oh, no, no. According to your tone on the phone just now, you seem to be a senior executive of Alphabet."

Lin Fan said lightly, "I was on a call with the chairman of Alphabet, Zhang Daming. However, I'm not a senior executive of Alphabet Jump. I'm just a shareholder."

When Zhu Yuanhui heard Lin Fan's words, he laughed out loud. "Hahaha! Bro, you really know how to brag! Zhang Daming? You, a shareholder? Hahaha!"

Lin Fan's expression remained calm. He was about to say something when his phone rang again.

He looked at the caller ID and saw that it was President Ma from Penguin Group.

These days, Xiao Ma was always alone and worried.

Lin Fan had already raised his shares in Penguin to 20%.

With such a rapid increase in shares, Lin Fan would become the biggest shareholder of Penguin and the real boss! Xiao Ma also felt that it was possible.

As the chairman of the board, President Ma had only met Lin Fan twice and did not know his personality.

In President Ma's opinion, this was a very dangerous thing.

Therefore, these days... President Ma had been looking for an opportunity to contact Lin Fan.

Today, he finally had an opportunity!

"Hello, Mr. Lin!" President Ma said.

Lin Fan said, "Hello, President Ma."

He did not wait for the president to speak and said directly, "President Ma, does Penguin Group have a partnership with Magpie Coffee?"

When President Ma heard Lin Fan's question, he was very happy.

He was not afraid of Lin Fan having too many questions for him, but he was afraid of not being able to communicate with Lin Fan.

He typed quickly on the keyboard, and soon, the information about Penguin's cooperation with Magpie Coffee appeared clearly on the screen.

Hence, President Ma said, "Our Penguin Group owns 10% of Hua Nation's shares of Magpie Coffee. In addition, the advertising and publicity of Magpie Coffee are all handled by us."

President Ma briefly explained the situation in the form of a report.

"I planted some coffee in the mountains of Li City," Lin Fan said. "Now, Zhu Yuanhui, the manager of the Southern Hua Nation region of Magpie Coffee, said that if I don't sell it to him, he'll immediately make sure that my coffee beans can't leave the mountain."

Penguin Group and Magpie Coffee had such deep cooperation.

However, Zhu Yuanhui, the South Hua Nation regional manager of Magpie Coffee, threatened Lin Fan?!

President Ma wanted to get closer to Lin Fan with this call!

Now... it was completely ruined!

Zhu Yuanhui was simply... a bastard!

President Ma stood up in anger and said seriously, "Mr. Lin, don't worry. I'll definitely get Magpie Coffee to give you a satisfactory reply."

"Alright," said Lin Fan.

After saying that, he hung up the phone.

Zhu Yuanhui could not help but laugh. "President Ma? Don't tell me that the person who just called you was President Ma of Penguin Group? You're not going to say that you're a shareholder of Penguin Group, are you?"

Lin Fan raised his eyes and said, "I am."

"Awesome, hahaha! Brother, you're really too awesome, hahaha!" After Zhu Yuanhui heard that, he laughed so hard that he bent over.

He thought that Lin Fan would use another way to brag, but he did not expect him to use the same old trick.

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 315 Not Strange; Nice To Meet You, President!

Amidst Zhu Yuanhui's maniacal laughter, Lin Fan's phone rang again.

This time, it was from President Ma of Little Tanuki Group.

President Da Ma's thoughts were similar to President Xiao Ma. He also wanted to communicate with his future boss as much as possible.

Lin Fan had already received calls from Zhang Daming and President Xiao Ma. It was not strange for him to receive a call from President Da Ma.

Hence, he pressed the answer button.

"Hello, Mr. Lin!" President Ma said happily.

Lin Fan did not bother to say anything more and just asked, "President Ma, is there a partnership between Little Tanuki Group and Magpie Coffee?"

President Ma instinctively felt that Lin Fan's tone was a little off.

He thought for a moment and said, "Magpie Coffee is the largest coffee dealer in the world. In order to open up the Hua Nation market, the chairman of Magpie Coffee personally came to our Little Tanuki Group and spent a lot of money to set up a flagship store and carry out a series of activities and promotions..."

His explanation was very simple. Magpie Coffee and Ah Li Group did have a partnership.

However, it was only a simple business cooperation.

Clearly, he was giving himself some leeway.

This was definitely a smart move.

Lin Fan understood the meaning behind his words and did not mind it. He said calmly, "I planted some coffee. Zhu Yuanhui, the regional manager of the Southern Hua Nation of Magpie Coffee, just told me that if I don't let him buy it, he'll make sure that my coffee beans will never leave the mountain."

President Ma's eyebrows twitched slightly as he thought, 'Fortunately, I was smart and didn't point out the deep cooperation between Magpie Coffee and Little Tanuki Group.'

Otherwise, would Lin Fan not vent his anger on him?

"How exactly is Magpie Coffee managing their employees? It's simply chaos! Zhu Yuanhui, the regional manager for the Southern Hua Nation?"

"Mr. Lin, please wait a moment. I'll get Magpie Coffee to give you an explanation!"

"Alright," said Lin Fan.

After hanging up the phone...

Zhu Yuanhui held back his laughter and said, "Was that a call from President Ma, the chairman of Little Tanuki Group? And you're also a shareholder of Little Tanuki Group?"

"Yes," Lin Fan said.

After Zhu Yuanhui heard Lin Fan's answer, he laughed until tears flowed out.

"Hahaha! Awesome! It's too awesome! The presidents of Little Tanuki, Penguin, and Alphabet are all looking for trouble with me... Hahaha!

"What should I do now? I'm so scared. Really, I'm so scared...Hahaha!"

Zhu Yuanhui could not help but laugh. "Bro, since you're already a shareholder of so many giant companies, you wouldn't mind becoming a shareholder of Magpie Coffee too, right? Let's have the president of Magpie Coffee give me a call. I've never spoken to the president before. Let me experience it... Hahaha!"

At this moment, Lin Fan's phone rang again.

This time, it was an unknown number from overseas.

Lin Fan casually pressed the answer button.

"Hello, Mr. Lin..."

There was a burst of words in broken Hua Nation language being said over the phone.

"Hello, Mr. Lin." A magnetic voice was heard. "The person who just spoke was Mr. George Davis, the president of Magpie Coffee. I'm his secretary and interpreter, Luo Fang."

Lin Fan glanced at Zhu Yuanhui and said, "This call came at the right time. Zhu Yuanhui, the manager of the Southern Hua Nation region, happens to be forcefully purchasing the coffee beans I planted myself."

Then, Lin Fan pressed the speaker button and said, "Didn't you want to experience talking to your president?"

"Really?" Zhu Yuanhui laughed again. "Did he already call? Hahaha! Good!"

At this moment, Luo Fang had already translated Lin Fan's words to George Davis.

How smart was George Davis to be able to make Magpie Coffee the number one coffee company in the world?

After thinking about it for a while, he knew the general situation.

At this moment, Zhu Yuanhui shouted into the phone, "Are you the president of our Magpie Coffee?"

"I'm the president's secretary and interpreter," Luo Fang said.

"Hahaha! There's also a secretary and an interpreter. Amazing, amazing! Hahaha!" Zhu Yuanhui roared with laughter.

"In this case... Tell that bullsh*t president that Lin Fan's coffee beans will either be bought for one million or they'll never leave the mountain!

"It's useless even if Jesus comes!"

After saying that, Zhu Yuanhui overstepped his authority and directly pressed the button to end the call.

Then, he laughed even harder and almost fell to the ground.

If the first phone call was really from the president of Alphabet, Zhang Daming, Zhu Yuanhui would still believe it a little.

However, the second call was from President Xiao Ma of Penguin Group, the third call was from President Da Ma of Little Tanuki Group, and the fourth call was from the secretary and interpreter of the president of Magpie Coffee... His little bit of faith was completely shattered.

One had to know...

Alphabet, Penguin, and Little Tanuki were the three giants of Hua Nation's internet industry.

It would still be believable if someone knew people from those companies.

However, if someone said that they were a shareholder of the three companies, that would definitely be a joke.

In the end, Lin Fan even said that the secretary and interpreter of the president of Magpie Coffee called.

The president of Magpie Coffee did not need an interpreter. He was from Hua Nation!

All of this meant that Lin Fan had been bragging from the start! How awesome!

However...

Zhu Yuanhui did not know that the president he was thinking of was only the president of the Hua Nation region of Magpie Coffee. Naturally, this person did not have an interpreter.

Lin Fan received a call from the president of the main company of Magpie Coffee. It was normal for him to have an interpreter.

Just as Zhu Yuanhui was about to fall to the ground laughing, the phone in his pocket rang.

Zhu Yuanhui slowly took out his phone. When he saw the caller ID, his expression turned solemn.

It was because the caller was actually the president of the Hua Nation region, Wang Heping!

Zhu Yuanhui had once seen the contact information of the higher-ups of Magpie Coffee on the internal network.

Without any hesitation, he added all of them to his contact list in case it would be useful in the future.

Now, it really came in handy!

Moreover, it was the high and mighty president who called personally!

What kind of honor was this?

Could it be that the president was going to promote him?

Thinking of this, Zhu Yuanhui's heart was filled with excitement.

He quickly straightened his clothes, cleared his throat, walked to the side, and said in a tone that was full of worship, "Hello, President. I'm Zhu Yuanhui, the regional manager of the Southern Hua Nation for Magpie Coffee."

First, he took the initiative to greet him, and then, he introduced himself.

Zhu Yuanhui was already imagining the president's compliments.

However...

A deafening roar immediately sounded from the other end of the phone.

"Zhu Yuanhui, f*ck you!"

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 316 Apologize; Beg For Mercy!

This sentence... Zhu Yuanhui was stunned. He stood rooted to the ground and did not know what to do.

After a while, he stuttered, "P-President, what's wrong?"

When the president heard Zhu Yuanhui's voice, he was annoyed and roared. "What's wrong? Zhu Yuanhui, you bastard, you still have the face to ask what's wrong?! You're supposed to be the manager of the Southern Hua Nation region, and this is how you do your job?!"

"I'm asking you now, are you forcefully purchasing coffee beans in Li City?"

Zhu Yuanhui's heart tightened slightly. He did not understand why such a small matter would alert the president.

"P-President, there might be some misunderstanding..."

Obviously, at this moment, Zhu Yuanhui thought that someone had snitched on him.

As for Lin Fan's conversation with Zhang Daming, President Xiao Ma, and President Da Ma, he did not take it to heart.

"Misunderstanding, your *ss!" the president shouted angrily.

"President Zhang from Alphabet, President Ma from Penguin, President Ma from Little Tanuki, and Mr. George Davis, the president of our head office, all called me!"

Buzz!

After hearing this, Zhu Yuanhui seemed to have been electrocuted, and his entire person completely froze.

At this moment, the scene of Lin Fan answering those calls was like a movie that played in his mind.

It was true... Lin Fan was really on the phone with Zhang Daming, President Xiao Ma, President Da Ma, and the president of Magpie Coffee.

He was really the shareholder of Alphabet, Penguin, Little Tanuki, and Magpie Coffee...

Yet, he was still mocking him...

It was over...

He was completely done for!

At this moment, the president's angry voice came from the phone again. "Zhu Yuanhui, I'm telling you, you'd better have an explanation for this! Otherwise, I can guarantee that you won't just lose your job!"

Then, the phone rang with a busy tone.

The busy tone seemed to drain all of Zhu Yuanhui's strength. He could not even hold his phone and dropped it to the ground.

It was not as simple as losing his job...

Zhu Yuanhui knew that the president was not joking.

If he looked into company records to find trouble with him, he could find out that he had accepted bribes over the years, used public tools for private use, sold company assets, and so on.

In the past, the company had been lax in its management, and he had been very secretive, so no one had found out.

However, these things definitely could not withstand close inspection...

In addition, the president also had a powerful network. Even if his deeds went undiscovered, his life would definitely not be easy after he left...

As Zhu Yuanhui thought about it, his entire face gradually turned pale. His body went limp, and he fell to the ground.

He happened to land at Lin Fan's feet.

Zhu Yuanhui suddenly thought of something and quickly prostrated on the ground, kowtowing and begging, "Sorry, Mr. Lin... I was blinded just now. I actually... I actually disrespected you..."

"I'm sorry... I'm sorry..."

"Mr. Lin, if you're angry, you can hit me or kick me..."

As he spoke, he hugged Lin Fan's leg and kept kicking his own face.

Zhu Yuanhui had given up all his dignity to beg for Lin Fan's forgiveness.

It was because he knew that only Lin Fan could save him.

Moreover, Zhu Yuanhui knew that Lin Fan was a super big shot who had hidden very well. It was not too much to apologize to a big shot.

Ah Mei, who was aside, looked at Zhu Yuanhui's pitiful appearance and could not bear it anymore. She said, "Uh... Brother..."

Lin Fan patted Ah Mei's little head. Then, he looked at Zhu Yuanhui with cold eyes and said, "Hurry up and get lost!"

Zhu Yuanhui's heart trembled, and he said in a panic, "M-Mr. Lin..."

"Get lost! Otherwise, I can guarantee that your ending will be even more miserable than you can imagine!" Lin Fan shouted.

Lin Fan would never show any mercy to someone who had designs on his woman and threatened him!

If he did not have such a powerful force, what would have happened today?

Zhu Yuanhui knew that he was really done for...

He did not dare to say anything more. He walked out like a corpse.

The two men in suits who had been following behind him understood that Lin Fan's identity was extraordinary.

They bowed to Lin Fan before walking out of the house with nervous hearts.

As the cars outside roared and sped away into the distance, the village finally regained its peace.

Lin Fan smiled. "I spoke so much just now. My mouth is a little dry... Ningjing, let's go to the mountain and get some fruit to quench our thirst."

"Alright!" Su Ningjing said happily.

"I want to go too!" Ah Mei said excitedly.

Grandma stopped her. "Ah Mei, I still have something for you to do. Don't go with them."

"Alright..." Ah Mei said.

Lin Fan smiled and held Su Ningjing's hand as they walked out.

The two of them walked together on the winding path, waded through the clear stream, climbed trees to pick fruits, picked flowers, and caught butterflies...

Then, they sat together on the green field, leaning against each other.

Looking at the mountains in the distance, breathing in the sweet air around them, feeling the unique warmth of his lover... Everything was so beautiful.

At this moment, an old man carrying firewood slowly walked past the mountain road in the distance.

His skin was tanned, and his back was bent... As the firewood on his shoulder was too heavy, he could not help but stop to catch his breath and rest for a long time.

This scene seemed to have touched a certain chord in Lin Fan's heart.

He could not help but say, "Ningjing, let's bring Grandma and Ah Mei to live in the city."

Su Ningjing was a little silent. For a moment, she did not know how to answer.

Lin Fan continued, "The air in the mountains is good. There's no fighting, and the people here are very simple. But what if Grandma falls sick again? Also, Ah Mei is still young. She shouldn't be trapped in the mountains. She should experience life in the city and enjoy a better life and education..."

Su Ningjing was silent for a while before saying, "Lin Fan, you have a point."

Lin Fan smiled and nodded.

12:00 PM!

The red packets were here!

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received five yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 19 yuan.]

...

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 9,999 yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 18,888 yuan.]

Lin Fan tapped the screen a few times and received a total of 57,832 yuan.

Lin Fan did not even look at the money and threw the phone back into his pocket.

"Sister, Brother! Come back home for dinner!"

Ah Mei's loud voice sounded from afar.

Lin Fan replied, "Alright, we're coming!"

317 Return; Choose a Car!

Today's lunch was made by Grandma.

It had to be said that Su Ningjing's and Grandma's cooking skills were passed down from generation to generation.

Chili fried meat, tomato egg soup, hot and sour shredded potatoes, cucumber ham, leek scrambled eggs...

The dishes were very simple, but they were all very delicious.

Lin Fan ate two big bowls of rice during this meal and was extremely satisfied.

He took advantage of the fact that Grandma and Ah Mei were here and repeated his previous thoughts.

"Grandma, Sis, are you willing to live in the city?"

Ah Mei looked at the old lady in confusion, then at Su Ningjing.

Su Ningjing bit her red lip and said, "Grandma, Sis, I want to bring you to the city... This way, it'll be easier to take care of Grandma's health. Ah Mei can also learn more and be able to study well in university in the future."

Grandma first looked up at the mountains outside the window, then at the fields on the hillside.

After a while, she said, "You're right..."

When Lin Fan and Su Ningjing heard this, their faces revealed a hint of joy.

Since they had already made their decision, they did not hesitate and quickly packed their luggage.

In fact, they did not have much to pack.

Grandma, Su Ningjing, and Ah Mei only packed some important things.

Then, they took a few sets of clothes.

The house was already very clean and tidy. Not long after, everything that needed to be taken away was packed up.

"Brother, if we leave, what about the coffee beans?"

Lin Fan patted her head and said, "After this, I'll get people to come over and help with the management and planting. In addition, I'll also get the villagers to help plant coffee plants.

"In the future, they can all eat a lot of delicious food."

As the world's largest coffee company, Magpie Coffee had the most experience in coffee cultivation. They could definitely use coffee to completely change the face of this place.

Ah Mei sat in the Porsche, looking at the old house and the flowing river. Her face was full of reluctance, and her whole person seemed listless.

A child's mood seemed to be like rain. There could be many changes in a short time.

If it was not for the fact that no one else in the plane was speaking, Ah Mei would probably be jumping up and down in joy.

After arriving in Jiangbei...

Lin Fan drove the Mercedes-Benz G parked at the airport and drove Su Ningjing, Ah Mei, and Grandma to a Michelin two-star restaurant. They spent 37,800 yuan and had a sumptuous and exquisite dinner. Then, he brought Grandma, Ah Mei, and Su Ningjing to Washington Mansion. It was a 156-square-meter luxurious house.

This was the first property that Lin Fan obtained from the system.

At the same time, it was also the best school district in Jiangbei. There were lakes and parks around. Be it shopping, transportation, or medical care, everything was convenient here.

Staying here would allow Ah Mei to get the best educational resources and give Grandma a better living environment.

In addition, it could also give Lin Fan and Su Ningjing more space to be alone.

This was definitely a choice that killed two birds with one stone.

That night, Lin Fan did not stay in Washington Mansion. He drove his Mercedes-Benz to Coiling Dragon Villa alone.

The next day...

When a warm ray of sunlight shone onto the balcony, Lin Fan slowly opened his eyes.

He first looked at his phone. There was a text message on the screen as usual.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 7,919,000 yuan was deposited into your account.]

It was a few hundred thousand more than usual. Obviously, this was the result of picking fruits and walking in the mountains yesterday.

Regarding this...

Lin Fan did not pay too much attention to it. He placed his attention on the check-in system.

“Sign in!”

[Ding! Congratulations, you’ve received 1,000,000 yuan.]

Lin Fan yawned and walked out slowly.

As soon as he opened the door, a fragrance that whetted one’s appetite filled the air.

Lin Fan focused his gaze and saw that there were already lean meat noodles, eggs, milk, and other food on the dining table.

At this moment, Su Ningjing walked over from the kitchen with a plate of fried dumplings.

Lin Fan looked at her peaceful and gentle face and smiled, “When did you arrive? What about Grandma and Ah Mei?”

“They’re shopping. I thought you probably haven’t had breakfast yet, so I came over to make some for you.”

Lin Fan nodded. “It smells so good! Have you eaten? Eat with me.”

“Alright,” Su Ningjing said.

This breakfast might not be as luxurious as the food served in the Michelin restaurant, but the taste was just as good.

Lin Fan finished all the food and was extremely satisfied.

He wiped his mouth and said, “I’m full. It’s time to exercise.

“Last time in my hometown, we couldn’t make too much of a commotion. It doesn’t matter today.”

As he spoke, he pulled Su Ningjing into his arms.

Su Ningjing blushed and said softly, “No, no, no. We can’t take too long... Grandma and Sis are still waiting for us...”

...

It was noon when they were done, and sweat dripped down their bodies.

Who knew it was such hard work?

....

About two hours later, Lin Fan and Su Ningjing slowly walked out of the villa.

“Oh right, Ningjing, do you have a driver’s license?” Lin Fan asked.

“Yes, I do,” Su Ningjing said.

“Then go ahead and pick a car.” Lin Fan pulled Su Ningjing’s slender hand and walked toward a long row of cars parked in the distance.

These were the cars that the chairman had sent over after Lin Fan obtained 5% of Volkswagen Group’s shares.

Volkswagen Group had more than ten brands, including Volkswagen, Audi, Skoda, Bentley, Bugatti, Lamborghini, Porsche, Ducati, and so on.

At that time, the chairman of Volkswagen sent one car from each brand.

However, Lin Fan had only driven the Santana when he was doing a mission. He had never used any of the other cars.

“You can drive whichever car you like,” Lin Fan said.

Su Ningjing looked at the long row of cars and was a little stunned.

She knew that Lin Fan was rich, but she did not expect him to have so many cars. There must be dozens of them, right?

There were so many cars. Could he drive all of them?

When Lin Fan saw that Su Ningjing had not chosen, he thought that she was a little embarrassed.

He pointed at the Lamborghini Urus in front of him and said, “This car has good horsepower and is spacious... It’ll be easier for you to drive it, and it’ll be more comfortable for Grandma and Sis to sit in. The trunk space is good, and you can store things in the future.”

Many people felt that women should drive small cars. Whether it was driving or parking, it would be safer and simpler.

However, Lin Fan did not think that way.

As long as Su Ningjing drove a Lamborghini Urus, would anyone dare to hit her?

The other cars on the street would deliberately keep a distance from it.

As for the trouble of parking?

One had to know...

The entire building of Washington Mansion belonged to Lin Fan. There were hundreds of parking spaces. There were horizontal, vertical, and slanted ones. She could park however she wanted. Would it be troublesome?

Chapter 318 Shopping; Asking For Help!

Su Ningjing was very kind and had a good relationship with her former colleagues.

At that time, she had just finished her driver's license examination. Her colleagues wanted to prevent her from forgetting how to drive, so they brought her along to familiarize herself with driving on the road for a period of time.

Today, under Lin Fan's guidance and after circling the Coiling Dragon Villa a few times, it was no longer a problem for her to drive alone.

Hence, Lin Fan drove the Mercedes-Benz G-Class while Su Ningjing drove the Lamborghini Urus. They headed toward Washington Palace at an equal speed.

When they opened the door, the familiar smell of food wafted out from inside.

Ah Mei jumped up and down. "Brother and Sis are back! We can eat now!"

Lin Fan and Su Ningjing had just exercised for two hours. They were really hungry. They picked up a bowl and chopsticks and started eating.

After lunch.

Lin Fan said, "Grandma, Sis, you just moved in. You still lack some clothes and daily necessities, right? Ningjing and I will bring you guys to buy some now, okay?"

"I already have daily necessities," the old lady said. "As for clothes, Ningjing knows my and Ah Mei's size, so we won't follow you guys."

Ah Mei seemed eager to go, but she looked at the tired old lady.

"We can just stay at home."

Regarding this...

Lin Fan did not force them. He wanted to take this opportunity to let Su Ningjing drive more alone.

After all, Su Ningjing had just started driving.

It was inevitable that she would be nervous if she were to directly drive Grandma and Ah Mei.

Thus, Lin Fan and Su Ningjing drove separately and arrived at KM Mall at a steady speed.

Although the clothes here were expensive, there were many styles suitable for men and women of all ages.

In addition, KM Mall belonged to Lin Fan. By visiting his own mall, it could be said that he was giving his tenants some benefits.

Since there was no need to try the clothes, he only needed to get them in the right sizes.

Therefore, it was very convenient to purchase them.

Before long, they had bought nearly 20 pieces of clothing and six pairs of shoes, spending a total of 889,000 yuan. On average, each piece of clothing was less than 30,000 yuan. It was very affordable.

At the same time, 88 red packets appeared on Lin Fan's phone.

Luckily, KM Mall provided delivery services. Otherwise, Lin Fan really would not have been able to carry so many things.

When Lin Fan and Su Ningjing arrived at the underground carpark, Lin Fan suddenly remembered... His phone seemed to be in one of the shopping bags.

If it was something else, Lin Fan could choose not to take it now.

However, his phone was where he collected the daily red packets.

He naturally could not abandon it.

Wait for me in the car," he said to Su Ningjing. "I put my phone in one of the shopping bags."

"Alright," Su Ningjing said.

Then, Lin Fan took the elevator again.

Su Ningjing slowly walked toward the parking lot.

After a while, she saw her car...

At this moment, a gentle voice suddenly sounded from behind.

"Beautiful lady, I'm sorry to disturb you."

When Su Ningjing heard the voice, she could not help but turn around to look.

The man in Eddie Bauer clothes was immediately attracted by Su Ningjing's side profile.

At this moment, when he saw Su Ningjing's face, his heart started to beat wildly.

Beautiful!

She was too beautiful!

Pure and beautiful!

This feeling... She was like a fairy who had descended from the sky.

"Excuse me, what's the matter?" Su Ningjing asked curiously.

She sounded good!

Even her voice was so pleasant!

He had to get her!

The man tried his best to suppress the excitement in his heart. Then, he said in an embarrassed tone, "Uhh... I just spent one million yuan to buy a BMW X5. The technology is not very good. The front is a little narrow, and there are cars on both sides. Can you help me drive it out?"

As he spoke, he took out his car keys and pressed them gently.

Sure enough, the headlights of a brand-new BMW X5 flashed slightly.

He first pointed out that he had a million-dollar luxury car.

Then, he used a good attitude to ask Su Ningjing for help.

It was really easy to get help in this way.

The man had already made a plan in his heart.

He would use this as an excuse to add Su Ningjing on WeChat and treat her to a meal later...

In the man's heart, he had already begun to fantasize about holding hands with Su Ningjing and their future life together. An invisible smile appeared on his face.

However, before Su Ningjing could respond, footsteps could be heard from afar.

It was Lin Fan.

He grabbed Su Ningjing's slender waist with one hand.

Seeing this...

The man's pupils constricted slightly. Jealousy, hatred, and other complicated expressions flashed across his face.

It was not easy for him to meet a beauty. Why?!

However, immediately after...

His eyes shifted slightly again.

If they were just a couple, perhaps he still had a chance.

After all, he had a million-dollar luxury car!

Therefore, the man tried his best to put on a calm tone and asked, "And this is?"

"I'm her boyfriend," Lin Fan said.

Sure enough, it was just a casual relationship between a man and a woman. The man was slightly happy.

"You know my girlfriend?" Lin Fan asked again.

"We just met," Su Ningjing said.

Then, Su Ningjing roughly recounted their conversation.

How smart was Lin Fan? He instantly understood the other party's thoughts.

He pointed at the BMW X5 in front of him and said, "Is that the car?"

The man raised his head slightly and said, "Yes."

He looked extremely smug.

It was as if he was saying, 'That's my million-dollar luxury car!'

Lin Fan said, "Ningjing, he said that your car is making it difficult for him to drive out. In that case, drive your car out first."

"Alright," Su Ningjing replied.

As soon as she finished speaking, she took out the car keys to the Lamborghini Urus and pressed them gently.

Then, she opened the car door, got in, and drove out.

Seeing this...

The man was slightly stunned. "L-Lamborghini Urus..."

Obviously, he had some understanding of cars.

Lin Fan saw that the man was standing there without any intention of moving and said, "You still can't drive your car out?"

Hence, he opened the door of the Mercedes-Benz G beside his car and drove the car out.

"M-Mercedes-Benz G..." The man could not help but say again.

Lin Fan rolled down the window and asked, "How is it? Do you have enough space now? Do you want me to help drive your car out?"

The man's face instantly turned red.

He had bragged for a long time that he had a million-dollar luxury car, but what was the result?

In the end, this person owned a top-notch Mercedes-Benz G worth more than two million.

There was also the Lamborghini Urus which was worth more than three million.

The man only felt that he was a fool.

At this moment, he only wanted to leave this place as soon as possible.

Therefore, the man did not answer Lin Fan. He lowered his head and walked into the BMW X5, stepping on the accelerator.

However, he accidentally knocked into a pillar in front of him.

After the man got out of the car, he looked at the broken headlights and the bent hood, his heart bleeding.

"I just bought this!"

RICHEST MAN: GETTING 7 BILLION RED POCKETS TO START WITH

Chapter 319 Celebration; I'm Straight!

Seeing this...

Lin Fan only said, "Ningjing, did you see that? Don't panic when driving, or you'll crash."

"Alright." Su Ningjing nodded seriously.

Then, the two of them stepped on the accelerator and sped into the distance.

The man was left alone in the same spot, choking on the exhaust and coughing non-stop.

Not long after Lin Fan and Su Ningjing arrived at Washington Palace, the clothes and shoes that they had bought earlier were all sent over.

Lin Fan saw that the sky was gradually darkening. He did not stay in Washington Palace for long and returned to the Coiling Dragon Villa alone.

He sat on the soft sofa, took out his phone, and focused on the red packet.

"105 red packets? Let's see what I can get."

Obviously, these were the red packets he had received from buying clothes, shoes, and some expenses for the past few days.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received eight yuan.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 1,999 yuan.]

...

[Ding! Congratulations, you've obtained a one yuan critical hit card.]

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received 8,888 yuan.]

...

From the 102 red packets, Lin Fan received a total of 98,103 yuan and a one yuan critical hit card.

One had to know that a one yuan critical hit card could be used to obtain 100 million yuan immediately after spending one yuan.

In other words...

Lin Fan spent the past two days buying clothes, eating, flying, and so on. Not only did he not spend any money, but he even earned 100 million yuan.

Not bad.

At this moment, Lin Fan's phone rang.

It was his sister, Lin Xiaoyao.

Hence, Lin Fan pressed the answer button.

"Brother, did you invent that super battery?" Lin Xiaoyao's anxious voice came from the phone.

Lin Fan thought to himself, 'So the news has already reached Lil Yao.'

"Yes," he replied.

"Then... Dahua Phone Group signed a 1.5 billion contract with you?" Lin Xiaoyao asked again.

"That's right," Lin Fan said.

"F*ck!" Lin Xiaoyao shouted excitedly,

...

Meanwhile, at Jiangbei University.

Zhao Ni walked briskly back to the dormitory.

When she saw Xia Bing and Xia Xue sitting at the table and reading seriously, she could not help but smile and greet them. "It's so late. Why are you still studying?"

As she spoke, she casually glanced at Xia Bing and Xia Xue's book.

Soon, Zhao Ni's face revealed a hint of doubt.

" $4Li-4e=4Li+$? Is this a chemical reaction equation? Why are you guys reading a chemistry book?" Zhao Ni asked.

One had to know...

Xia Bing and Xia Xue were geniuses in the computer science department. They even won the Higher Education Cup last year.

Although many people said that a large part of the reason why they were able to win the Higher Education Cup was because of Lin Fan, this did not deny their superb computer skills.

Xia Bing and Xia Xue stuttered, "We're j-just l-l-looking."

Zhao Ni shrugged her shoulders and said, "Alright, this is probably the difference between the top students and us losers."

Then, she walked toward the bathroom.

Xia Bing and Xia Xue looked down at the title on the cover of the Science journal... Principles and Applications of Super Batteries.

Then, the two of them started to read it more attentively.

...

Last night, Lin Fan had reminded Su Ningjing not to come over to prepare breakfast.

Firstly, Lin Fan felt that it was too tiring for her to rush over so early in the morning.

Secondly, Lin Fan wanted to go to school today.

The leaders of Jiangbei University had already said that they would give him the greatest freedom.

However, no matter what, he was still a student. It was not good for him to not go to school for a long time.

Hence, Lin Fan drove the Mercedes-Benz G-Class and ate breakfast at a high-end restaurant nearby. When he walked out of the restaurant, he bought a bottle of mineral water from a small supermarket nearby.

[Ding! You spent one yuan. Do you want to use the one yuan critical hit card?]

"Yes!"

[Ding! You've successfully used it. Congratulations on obtaining 100 million yuan.]

Instantly, Lin Fan's phone vibrated.

[Notice from Merchant Bank: 100,000,000 yuan was deposited into your account.]

Then, Lin Fan drove the Mercedes-Benz G-Class toward Jiangbei University.

He had not been to school for a few days, but there was not much change.

However, there was another banner in front of the gate congratulating him on his invention of the super battery.

When Lin Fan parked his car and walked toward the classroom, a deep voice suddenly sounded behind him.

"Lin Fan, good morning!"

Lin Fan slowly turned around and said, "Good morning, Counselor Sun."

Sun Yaodong quickened his pace and hugged Lin Fan's arm, smiling, "Why are you being so polite to me?"

Lin Fan's lips twitched.

Polite?

'Did you not greet me first?

'I was just responding politely.'

Sun Yaodong praised, "Not bad, Lin Fan. You're really not bad!"

"I told you that your ability was outstanding and that you'd definitely bring glory to our class. Unexpectedly, you even invented the super battery!"

Lin Fan's lips twitched once more.

He had outstanding ability and brought glory to the class...

'Counselor Sun, do you really only know how to praise people with these same words?'

"You invented the super battery and signed such a big contract. Do you want to celebrate?"

Celebrate?

Lin Fan really had not thought about it before.

In his eyes, 1.5 billion was nothing.

After all, his daily income was close to 20 million. After using the one yuan critical hit card today, he had an additional 100 million.

He also often obtained office buildings worth billions and company shares worth tens of billions.

If he had to celebrate every time, he would probably be constantly celebrating.

However, no one else knew about this.

Everyone knew about the contract worth 1.5 billion, though.

Lin Fan thought for a moment and said, "We do have to celebrate. I don't think we have any classes this afternoon. After the morning class ends, I'll celebrate with the students. Counselor Sun, are you joining?"

"Is it appropriate for me to join?" Sun Yaodong asked hesitantly."

Lin Fan opened his mouth and was about to say that it was fine if he did not want to go.

However, Sun Yaodong immediately smiled and said, "Okay!" I'll come to the class after I arrange my work for the afternoon!"

Then, he patted Lin Fan's shoulder and walked into the office with his head held high.

Lin Fan could not help but reveal a strange look.

Why did it feel like... the counselor seemed to have specially come over to freeload?

Lin Fan shook his head and threw this small matter to the back of his mind. He went straight to class.

"Brother Lin Fan, you're finally here!" Song Yi said excitedly. "We thought that after you took 1.5 billion, you would drop out of school and go home to enjoy your life!"

When the surrounding students heard the figure of 1.5 billion, they all cast envious gazes.

Lin Fan smiled. "I originally wanted to drop out of school and go home to enjoy my life. But when I thought about how all of you cute classmates were still in school, I came back."

"Brother Lin Fan..."

Song Yi called out softly. He was so touched that he opened his arms as if he wanted to give Lin Fan a bear hug.

Lin Fan immediately said, "Stop! I'm straight!"

320 Suggestion; Go!

"Oh right, there are no classes in the afternoon, right? I want to bring the whole class out to celebrate my invention of the super battery and the signing of the 1.5 billion contract."

"What do you guys think?"

Originally, Song Yi was disappointed that he could not give Lin Fan a bear hug.

However, after hearing Lin Fan's words, he became excited again.

"Alright!"

Lin Fan asked, "Do you have any recommendations?"

"Barbecue skewers and beer!" Song Yi said.

Lin Fan then looked at Ma Zhong.

Ma Zhong understood that he was asking for his opinion. He said, "...Hot pot?"

Sitting next to him, a round-faced man said, "I know a good barbecue restaurant!"

"Let's eat seafood!"

"Let's eat Sichuan cuisine and drink!"

Initially, it was only the students around Lin Fan who gave suggestions.

Soon, the other students in the class knew that Lin Fan was organizing a celebration in the afternoon.

Therefore, they all made suggestions.

Gradually, the entire classroom became extremely noisy.

At this moment, Zheng Jinbao, who had been silent all this while, said, "If you ask me, revisiting AC Clubhouse is the best idea! We can eat barbecue, hotpot, Sichuan cuisine, and drink alcohol there... We can even get a massage!"

As soon as he said this, the entire classroom suddenly fell silent.

Although the students did not voice out their agreement, Lin Fan understood that this silence was a tacit agreement.

"Alright, then we'll go to AC Clubhouse later!"

Ma Zhong shook his buttocks and said, "We... We're going to AC Clubhouse... Isn't that a bad idea?"

At this moment, a melodious bell rang throughout the campus.

The old professor slowly walked in and began his lullaby-like lecture again.

Today was even more difficult.

Many of the students looked listless. From time to time, they would pull out their phones and secretly check the time, silently calculating how long it was until class ended.

As the bell rang again, all the students seemed to have been revived and were in high spirits.

All the students surrounded Lin Fan and said, "Brother Lin Fan, are we leaving now?"

Lin Fan, who had been woken up by the ringing, nodded his head in a daze.

At this moment, Counselor Sun Yaodong walked in. He smiled and said, "Students, you're all still here. Have you planned where to celebrate?"

"AC Clubhouse," Lin Fan replied honestly.

Sun Yaodong's eyes lit up, but he said calmly, "AC Clubhouse? Alright, let's go, then."

All the students in the class were stunned.

Counselor Sun was joining them?

Although Sun Yaodong and the students usually shared a very harmonious relationship...

A teacher was a teacher...

Now, they were going to celebrate together?

Sun Yaodong saw that the students were not moving, so he asked, "Everyone, let's go. Why are you all standing there?"

Then, he said, "Oh right, Lin Fan, how should we go later?"

"The bus should have arrived at the school by now," Lin Fan said.

"Alright, then let's hurry over."

After saying that, Sun Yaodong took the lead.

The students looked at each other and followed behind.

Just as Lin Fan had said, a Mercedes-Benz bus had arrived at the parking lot.

Wang Shengli, the general manager of Flying Dragon Security Company, saw Lin Fan from afar and quickly came over to welcome him. He said respectfully, "Mr. Lin, this way, please."

After getting onto the bus, Sun Yaodong praised, "This is my first time riding a Mercedes-Benz bus. The configuration is indeed different!"

"Oh right, Lin Fan, when did you start researching chemistry?"

"I haven't studied it for long," Lin Fan said.

In fact, it was not just that he had not studied it for a long time.

He had only studied it for an hour.

Of course, Lin Fan could not say that.

Otherwise, would he not be treated as a monster?

“You invented the super battery after a short period of research and got 1.5 billion? You’re too talented.”

Wang Shengli, who was sitting at the front, felt his heart skip a beat.

Recently, he had been reading news about Lin Fan’s invention of the super battery.

When Wang Shengli first saw the name ‘Lin Fan’, he immediately thought of his boss.

However, he did not dare to put the two together.

After all, in his impression, his boss was a godly tycoon who had a deep relationship with the supergiants such as Little Tanuki, Penguin, and Alphabet.

He probably did not have the energy to study batteries.

The result?

He was the one who invented it!

Not only was his boss rich, but he was also a scientist?

1.5 billion?

Sun Yaodong naturally did not pay attention to Wang Shengli’s inner thoughts. He continued, “Lin Fan, are you going to join the Chemistry Department?”

When the students on the bus heard this, they all pricked up their ears.

They had always been proud of being classmates with Lin Fan.

If Lin Fan suddenly went to another department, it would be a pity.

Lin Fan said, “The Mathematics Department is good enough. Why would I go to the Chemistry Department?”

Sun Yaodong heaved a sigh of relief and smiled. “That’s right! Our Mathematics Department has always been very good!”

Jiangbei University was not far from AC Clubhouse.

After chatting for a while, they soon arrived at their destination.

When the two long-legged beauties saw such a large group of people, they said in a very sweet voice, “Welcome to AC Clubhouse.”

Sun Yaodong looked at the thin clothes of the long-legged beauties and their snow-white long legs. He could not help but swallow his saliva and said, "Lin Fan, this place isn't shady, right?"

Lin Fan said, "Don't worry. This is a place for proper meals and massages. We've all been here before."

"Oh, that's good," Sun Yaodong said.

However, Lin Fan could vaguely hear a hint of regret in his tone.

Was it an illusion?

Under the guidance of the beautiful attendants, everyone came to the banquet hall and sat down.

Not long after, abalone, king crab, Australian lobster, roasted suckling pig, top-grade steak, charred beef, small hot pot, bullfrog, sea urchin egg, spicy bullfrog... were all served.

Just as Zheng Jinbao said, there was seafood, barbecue, hotpot, Sichuan cuisine, and wine.

Everyone looked at the table full of delicious food and could not help but swallow their saliva.

At this time, Song Jiaxin picked up a bottle of wine and poured a glass. "Congratulations to Lin Fan for his invention of the super battery. Let us give you a toast!"

When Sun Yaodong and the other students heard this, they all raised their wine glasses.

"Lin Fan, congratulations on your invention of the super battery."

"Congratulations!"

Lin Fan also picked up his wine glass and said, "Thank you, everyone."

Then, everyone downed the wine in their glasses.

After a glass of wine, the atmosphere in the private room became even more heated.
