Impulsive Vow to an Enigmatic Husband ( Cornelia Stewart ) Chapter 151

Chapter 151

“Marc, don’t get excited. “Dr. Dawson signaled the other doctors to leave In here to tell you what’s going on

“Go ahead” His tone was icy, as if to warn Dr. Dawson that he wouldn’t be polite to her if she couldn’t give a reasonable explanation

Dr. Dawson said, “Haven’t you noticed that Cornelia has been acting weird since Skyler’s accident?”

Of course, Marcus had noticed. Cornelia didn’t know Skyler very well but she was overly concerned about him, even more so than Zavier

Seeing that his mood had stabilized. Dr. Dawson continued, “If I’m not mistaken, I think Skyler’s incident triggered some bad memories for Cornelia “Blood, so much blood, no no,” Cornelia suddenly cried out in fear from the hospital bed Her hands were flailing around unconsciously. “Don’t grab me, don’t grab me

Her reaction seemed to confirm Dr. Dawson’s words

Marcus grabbed her flailing hands and pulled her into his arms. “Don’t be afraid, Cornelia. I’m here Nothing is going to happen.”

Marcus concern for Cornelia was beyond Dr. Dawson’s understanding. She needed to pay more attention to Cornelia’s situation. “Cornelia’s father died in a car accident Maybe you can ask her grandma about the details. We need to find the root of her nightmares and solve the problem.”

Marcus gently patted Cornelia’s back, his voice as soft as if he were comforting a child. ‘Don’t be afraid, Cornelia I’m here. Nothing will happen.’

She was asleep and couldn’t hear what he said.

Marcus thought for a moment, took out his personal phone, and texted Cornelia as Jeremy, “Cornelia, don’t be afraid of anything from now on. I’ll be your strongest support”

After typing the message, Marcus checked it one letter at a time, making sure it was correct before sending it.

Dr. Dawson was right there, witnessing Marcus' actions. She wasn't sure if he had heard all she had said earlier. "Marc, why don't you tell Cornelia that you're Jeremy?" "Because she doesn't like Jeremy at all." Marcus answer was simple.

Dr. Dawson nodded, left the room, and almost bumped into Ayden, who was about to enter. His hair was wet, and he must have been out handling business. What have you been up to?"

Facing his biological mother, Ayden showed no emotion. "I went to look into Cornelia's situation."

Dr. Dawson had been by Marcus' side and didn't see him make any calls. When did Marc ask you to look into it?"

Ayden replied, "Before we left the mountain."

Dr. Dawson sighed, "So he noticed something was off with Cornelia and asked you to investigate early on. I guess I just wasted my breath."

Ayden didn't say anything more, went straight into the room, and handed Marcus some photos. 'President Hartley, I've found all the details you asked me to investigate.

Cornelia's father died in a car accident, and not only was she at the scene, but her father died protecting her. I think the problem you're worried about lies here."

Marcus took the photos, and each one was filled with blood.

In the pictures, the man lay in a pool of blood, his body almost crushed, but he still protected the little girl in his arms.

It was an ordinary father's last effort to protect his daughter.

Marcus felt very uncomfortable and returned the photos to Ayden. "Destroy the photos and never mention this again"
