

The Mans Decree Chapter 2576 -

Chapter 2576 Unmatched

Upon striking down the leaves, Brutus swung his sword toward Kai's head. Kai turned to the side, and the sharp blade slid past Kai's ear.

The sword was so sharp that, as a result, Kai felt his skin burning. Brutus was angered and embarrassed because Kai had just dodged both of his moves.

It was important to note that Brutus saw Kai as a lowly peasant, so he thought the latter was no match for him.

Yet, the lowly peasant, despite being unarmed, had just dodged both of his attacks. Humiliated, Brutus fumed, "I'm going to kill you!"

As he roared, Brutus' sword lit up and generated shockwaves all over the area.

Kai let out a cold snort when he saw that Brutus was infuriated. In the next moment, Kai activated Golem Body, and glittering scales quickly shielded his entire body.

Seeing that Kai had activated his Golem Body, Brutus became even more pumped, and his sword consequently shone even brighter.

"Kai, use this as your weapon!"

All of a sudden, Percy shouted and tossed his weapon over to Kai. Kai is unarmed. If the fight goes on, he'll be at a disadvantage!

Kai reached out to grab Percy's weapon before using it to shield himself.

"Hmph! Do you seriously think that a lousy weapon like that can protect you?" Brutus sneered and swung his sword toward Kai.

"Even with a wooden stick, I can still beat you." Kai narrowed his eyes and infused the weapon with the Power of Dragons.

The initially ordinary blade shone brightly in the next second, and it was buzzing with energy.

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

Needless to say, Kai managed to block Brutus' attack rather easily.

When the blades collided, a deafening sound reverberated as a massive force spread outward, causing the trees in the surroundings to be uprooted.

If the fight were to happen in Rock Village, the impact would raze the village to the ground.

Clang!

After the collision, the sound of a piece of metal dropping on the ground rang out.

There and then, everyone saw that the sword Brutus was holding had broken, and all he was holding was the hilt of the sword.

“H-How is this possible?” Brutus stared at his broken sword in utter shock. I wasn’t using a magic sword, but it was supposed to be a thousand times stronger than Kai’s rusty billhook! Yet, he had broken my sword with that billhook!

Bewildered, Brutus sensed the vicious aura Kai’s billhook was emanating. Right away, the former was terrified.

At the same time, Brutus knew he had underestimated Kai’s capability. How did Kai unleash such a horrifying wave of power with that billhook? He’s surely a Compounder, at the very least! How did a peasant become a Compounder? He’s as strong as the other disciples in the sect! I don’t get it! What is an elite like Kai doing in Rock Village?

“It’s time for me to avenge the villagers in Rock Village...” Kai slowly raised his billhook into the air, and the billhook shone even brighter.

The golden glow soon enveloped the sky, shining on Brutus’ terror-filled face.

Frightened, Brutus revealed his sect, thinking he could scare Kai off. “No... You can’t kill me... I’m from Emerald Cauldron Sect. My master... He’s—” To his disappointment, Kai wasn’t interested in hearing him out. Kai swung his billhook toward Brutus before the latter could even finish his sentence.

Little did Brutus know that there was no point in mentioning his master’s identity. He couldn’t scare Kai off because even his master had to pay Kai respect.

When Brutus sensed the powerful energy Kai’s billhook was exuding, the former leaped and retreated as quickly as he could. I need to get out of here! I’m no match for Kai!

Chapter 2577 Nice Name

The villagers in Rock Village became anxious when they saw Brutus fleeing. They wanted nothing more than to skin him alive, so none of them wanted to see him escape.

“Kai, Brutus is running away!”

“We can’t let him get away! Kill him!”

Emily and Percy shouted at Kai.

“Don’t worry. He can’t run away from me.” With a calm look in his eyes, Kai stared at Brutus and slowly brought the billhook in his hand down on Brutus.

As Kai was doing that, the blade’s glint intensified and enveloped the entire Rock Village.

The blade’s glint was so majestic that it was crushing on Brutus like a mountain.

Brutus could run as quickly as he liked, but it was impossible for him to escape from the massive area the blade’s glint had covered.

Upon sensing the powerful glint, Brutus knew he couldn’t escape, so he halted in his tracks. With a ferocious look in his gaze, he uttered, “You’re rather cocky, aren’t you, brat? Did you think you could kill someone from Emerald Cauldron Sect that easily?”

With that, Brutus whipped out a token and dripped a drop of blood essence onto it. Suddenly, the token began to glow and formed a shield above Brutus’ head.

All the disciples in Emerald Cauldron Sect had a life-saving token that they could use in the face of imminent danger. After all, as a sect that focused primarily on alchemy, Emerald Cauldron Sect was the best at it. Hence, it was no surprise every disciple in the sect was given such a token.

Boom!

The blade's glint struck the shield, and a cracking sound rang out. A second later, the shield shattered, and the blade's glint vanished.

Be that as it may, the shockwave of the blade's glint had formed ravines and cut down the trees in the area around Brutus. One could only imagine how strong the attack was.

After Kai pulled off that move, the billhook in his grip gave way and turned to dust. Evidently, an ordinary weapon like that could never withstand the mightiness of the Power of Dragons.

Brutus guffawed when he saw that Kai's billhook had turned to dust. "Haha! I have a life-saving token! There's nothing you can do to me! You can't kill me!"

The villagers in Rock Village were livid when they heard Brutus laughing out loud.

Kai, with his icy expression, stared at Brutus and approached him. "I said it before, but I'm going to say it again. I can kill you with a wooden stick." With that, Kai casually picked up a tree branch.

Brutus was enraged when he saw Kai picking up a tree branch as his weapon.

"Brat, I know I'm no match for you, but I'm still an alchemist!" Brutus shouted and threw a handful of red powder toward Kai. The red powder spread in the air and surrounded Kai.

"This is Erosion Powder! Once it touches your skin, your skin will decay instantly! If you inhale it, your organs will rot!" A smug expression spread across Brutus' face. Emerald Cauldron Sect is undoubtedly the best at utilizing drugs!

The villagers in Rock Village grew worried when they saw Brutus using poisonous powder to fight Kai.

At the same time, Emily and Percy were so nervous that they both held their breaths. Is Kai in danger?

"Erosion Powder? What a nice name!" Kai held the tree branch and slowly walked out from the cloud of red powder.

Brutus was in disbelief. He gazed at Kai and asked, "How? How are you not poisoned?"

“Well, I’ve forgotten to tell you that I’m also an alchemist. As a matter of fact, I think I’m way better than you bunch in the field of alchemy!”

After Kai finished speaking, he suddenly swung the tree branch in his grip.

Slap!

The crisp slap echoed in the air, and a deep line appeared on Brutus’ right cheek, causing it to swell immediately.

Brutus held his right cheek and glared at Kai. Afterward, the former took out all sorts of poisons and threw them toward Kai.

Chapter 2578 Die

Brutus ended up throwing all the poisons he had at Kai. I’m sure one of these is going to kill Kai!

However, Kai didn’t bother dodging. Instead, he was casually beating Brutus up with the tree branch in his hand.

A few minutes later, Brutus had used up all the poisons he had, and Kai was still standing upright and unharmed.

On the other hand, Brutus’ clothes were in rags, and his body was filled with injuries inflicted by Kai.

“It’s time to kill you...” Kai glanced at the heavily wounded Brutus and lifted the tree branch into the air once again.

At that moment, Brutus knew Kai could easily kill him with the tree branch.

Right when Kai was about to end Brutus for good, Percy called out, “Kai!”

Kai turned toward Percy, and the latter asked, “Kai, could you please leave him to me? I would like to kill him myself and avenge the villagers!”

Kai nodded, lifted Brutus up by the collar, and jumped into the square in Rock Village.

After that, Kai kicked and broke both Brutus’ legs to prevent the latter from escaping.

In the square, Brutus was on his knees with his head lowered. Obviously, he was no longer as haughty as before.

“Kill him! Kill him!” the villagers in Rock Village shouted angrily because the corpses of the villagers Brutus had murdered a few days prior were placed beside the square.

Percy took an axe from a fellow villager and walked up to Brutus.

All of a sudden, Antonio blocked Percy’s path and warned, “You can’t kill him, Percy. If Brutus is murdered by a villager from Rock Village, Emerald Cauldron Sect will definitely come after Rock Village. Even if Kai were to kill Brutus today, Rock Village would still be in danger.”

As soon as those words fell, Percy was stumped, and the rest of the villagers fell silent and lowered their heads at once. Mr. Antonio is right. We can take revenge and kill Brutus, but he’s backed by Emerald Cauldron Sect. Rock Village doesn’t stand a chance against Emerald Cauldron Sect.

“Haha! I’m a disciple of Emerald Cauldron Sect, and they’re backing me! If you kill me, Emerald Cauldron Sect will kill everyone in Rock Village!” Brutus’ confidence grew when he heard Antonio’s words. They don’t have the guts to kill me because they fear Emerald Cauldron Sect!

Although the villagers of Rock Village were enraged when they heard Brutus’ overbearing words, they didn’t dare to utter a single word.

Percy’s face flushed bright red, and his hands were trembling. Feeling helpless, he cast Kai a glance.

Kai then suddenly whipped the corners of Brutus’ mouth with the tree branch, breaking the latter’s jaw in the process. Just like that, Brutus lost the ability to make a sound.

“Mr. Antonio, do you trust me?” Kai glanced at Antonio.

“Well, of course! I trust you!” Antonio replied.

“If you trust me, let Percy kill that man. After that, I can guarantee that Emerald Cauldron Sect will never seek revenge on Rock Village,” Kai assured.

“Why is that?” Antonio asked in puzzlement.

“That’s because Emerald Cauldron Sect’s days in Ethereal Realm are numbered...” Kai said with his eyes full of determination.

Antonio was surprised to hear that. However, he trembled slightly when he noticed the determined look in Kai’s eyes. “Wait... Are you going to...” Antonio didn’t finish his sentence, but he knew exactly what Kai meant.

Therefore, Antonio stepped aside and uttered, "Go on, Percy!" Percy was over the moon when he heard that. With the axe in his hand, he dashed toward Brutus.

Brutus' eyes were filled with fear as he stared at Percy's axe. The former then struggled for his life, but he could neither move an inch nor make a sound.

"Die! You animal!" Percy gritted his teeth and widened his eyes as he mercilessly swung his axe toward Brutus' head.

In the next moment, Brutus' head was broken in half, and blood and brain matter instantly splattered all over the ground.

"We've taken revenge! We've taken revenge!" Percy yelled and waved his axe in the air.

The villagers in Rock Village cheered out loud, and some of them even vented their anger on Brutus' corpse.

Chapter 2579 Lies

Meanwhile, in Emerald Cauldron Sect, Francois was standing before his master, Hosen Holt. The former was feeling guilty, so his legs were trembling slightly.

"Are you saying that Brutus has Grus Divina, and he'll come back with it in two days' time?" Hosen asked.

"Yes, Master. You asked to see me urgently, so I didn't get to meet up with Brutus. However, Brutus told me he was coming back with Grus Divina within the next three days!" Francois told a lie because he didn't dare to tell his master that someone else had gotten Grus Divina. If I tell Master the truth, he'll punish me!

While looking at his disciple, Hosen suddenly laughed out loud. A sense of foreboding rose within Francois when he saw Hosen laughing.

Slap!

The smile on Hosen's face vanished in the next second, and it was replaced by a grim look when he delivered a tight slap across Francois' face.

"How dare you lie to me? Isn't it true that someone else has taken Grus Divina?" Hosen thundered.

Francois froze momentarily and asked in bewilderment, “Master, h-how did you know?”

“How? I saw it with my own eyes! In fact, Grus Divina was made into a pill before my eyes! The two of you are utter idiots! You couldn’t even get your hands on Grus Divina! What a bunch of trash! You’re worthless to me!” Hosen fumed, and he wanted to kill Francois there and then. I wouldn’t have lost the bet if Kai hadn’t harvested Grus Divina. I even had to kneel before him!

“Master... I-It was my fault... I-I’m sorry...” Francois knelt before Hosen and assured, “Don’t worry, Master. We’ve already located the man who harvested the mystical herb. Once he returns to the village, Brutus will capture him. He shouldn’t have snatched with Emerald Cauldron Sect! Death awaits that man!”

Francois thought Brutus was more than capable of defeating Kai.

However, Francois was slapped once again as soon as he finished talking.

“Capture? Brutus is dead!” Hosen tossed a shattered token onto the ground and continued, “Brutus had already used his life-saving token. That means he’s dead! I believe Kai, who harvested Grus Divina, is an important man. I’m sure there’s a reason why King Yuven respects him that much.”

Hosen knew that Yuven would never respect a young man for no reason. Kai’s cultivation level isn’t high, but he has King Yuven’s respect. Surely, Kai has a strong background.

“Master, Kai is living in Rock Village. We’ve investigated him, but it seems like the villagers in Rock Village don’t know much about his background. I’ll pay Rock Village a visit. If I bump into that fellow, I’ll kill him and avenge Brutus!” Francois wanted to redeem himself, so he was determined to find out more about Kai’s identity.

Hosen mulled over it and nodded. “Bring Sigurd along. If you guys bump into Kai, bring him back to me instead of killing him. He has something we need!”

“Rest assured, Master. I’ll drag Kai back to see you.” Francois nodded and left.

After Francois left, Hosen looked out the window and fell into deep thought.

“That fellow is backed by King Yuven. If I want to attack him, I’m going to need backup,” Hosen muttered to himself and furrowed his brows.

A while later, his facial expression eased up, and he called out, “Guards!”

“How may I help you, Mr. Holt?” A disciple of the Emerald Cauldron Sect entered the room.

“Get the carriage ready. I’m going to Norwal City!” Hosen ordered.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2580 -

Chapter 2580 I Can Heal You

Back in Rock Village, Brutus had met his demise. The community had come together to lay the villagers killed by Brutus to rest.

Peace had been restored in Rock Village. And in the hearts of the villagers, Kai had risen as their new leader.

The residents of Rock Village recognized their vulnerability in the face of formidable individuals like Brutus.

However, with Kai around, things would be different. Not only could Kai protect them, but he could also stop the villagers of Cyan Village from bullying them.

“Grandma, you should have seen how capable Kai was. He gave Brutus a real thrashing! If I had even half of Kai’s skill, I would be able to keep everyone in Rock Village safe,” Emily recounted the tale of Kai battling Brutus to Ira. As she spoke, she suddenly realized she might have misspoken and hastily said, “I’m sorry, Grandma. I didn’t mean to upset you. I’ll find a way to cure your eyes. Even though Brutus is gone, Kai told me he has a way to treat you!”

Ira flashed a gentle smile as she patted Emily’s head affectionately. “Silly child, I’m used to it. There’s no one in this world who can restore my eyesight.”

“Says who? I can heal you,” Kai said as he walked into the house with Percy.

“Emily, Kai and I went up the mountains to gather herbs. He shared a wealth of knowledge with me. Look at this. It’s an herb called Eyebright Herb. According to Kai, a pill made from this herb can restore your grandma’s eyesight,” Percy exclaimed enthusiastically.

He was carrying a basket on his back, appearing a bit disheveled and dirty. “Really?” Emily approached him excitedly and took the Eyebright Herb from him.

Ira knew that she lost her eyesight as someone had poisoned her, so it was impossible for her to get cured. “It’s useless. My eyes—”

Before she could conclude, Kai swiftly interjected, “Ms. Ira, there’s no need to worry. I have the means to restore your eyesight no matter how it was lost.”

“Kai, are you serious? If you can heal Grandma’s eyes, I’ll do anything for you. I can even...” Emily trailed off, a hint of blush coloring her cheeks.

Kai patted her head affectionately. “Silly girl, you’re still young, so don’t think too much. I will cure Ms. Ira’s eyes.”

Emily lowered her head, her cheeks flushing with embarrassment. Percy looked at her in confusion. “Emily, why are you blushing? What was that thing you said you can do for Kai?”

“Percy! Shut up!”

Emily glared at Percy before running out of the house, baffling him even more.

Kai flashed a smile and produced the Divine Cauldron. He instructed Percy to add the Eyebright Herb and other medicinal herbs inside.

With a deft flick of his fingers, he ignited a spiritual fire and commenced the pill-making process. All the while, he made sure to provide explanations to Percy.

Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day; teach a man to fish and you feed him for a lifetime. Kai could treat the villagers of Rock Village and produce pills for them, but he wouldn’t be here forever.

With Percy’s newfound interest in alchemy, Kai was determined to guide him through the process. Once Percy became an accomplished alchemist, Rock Village’s reputation would soar among the neighboring villages.

Two hours later, a delightful aroma wafted from the Divine Cauldron, and several pristine, crystal-clear pills appeared inside.

Percy stared at the pills in astonishment, his aspiration to become an alchemist intensifying within him.

“Ms. Ira, you’ll be able to see after taking this pill,” Kai said as he handed one pill to Ira.

Ira accepted the pill and swallowed it without hesitation. She had complete trust in Kai.
