

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2389

Married at First Sight Chapter 2389-Kiera took Julian to the house.

The Caron family martial arts gym was not far from the Caron family, but walking back along the way, they met many acquaintances.

Everyone saw Kiera walking side by side with a handsome guy, and the handsome guy was carrying a big bag in his hand, they mistakenly thought it was Kiera's boyfriend.

Neighbor's aunt: "Is this your boyfriend, Kiera? He is such a good-looking guy. Your parents always worry that you won't get married, but I tell them not to worry. You're pretty, so how could you not get married? Now that you have brought your boyfriend back, your parents will be very happy, and you don't have to worry about you not being able to get married in the future."

The parents of the students and the neighbors of the Caron family greeted Kiera, and then asked about the relationship between Julian and Kiera.

Kiera hurriedly explained to the neighbor's aunt: "Aunt Shah, He's Mr. Bucham, and he came to see my father and wanted to worship my father as a teacher and learn martial arts for self-defense."

Aunt Shah said, "I thought he's your boyfriend."

After glancing at Julian, I know how many apprentices your father has, just count this man. He's the best, and he looks extraordinary, you have to seize the opportunity."

Aunt Shah winked at Kiera, Kiera couldn't laugh or cry.

She smiled and said, "Aunt Shah, you really think too much."

"I know I think too much. Aren't you guys and girls in a relationship now? You can just do it in the future. In short, if you meet a good man, hurry up and grab him. Don't be snatched away by others. I don't have a daughter, you were raised by our neighbors, and I'm on your side, so you have to hurry up."

Kiera smiled and said, "Okay, okay, I'll hurry up. Aunt Shah, I'll take Mr. Bucham back to see my father first."

Aunt Shah: "Okay, Go."

Kiera returned to Julian's side, took Julian, and continued to walk towards her home.

While walking, he said to Julian: "That aunt is an old neighbor of our family. She watched me grow up. When I was young, I was lazy in martial arts and was beaten by my father. My mother couldn't save me. My family had to come over to help. Only then can I be rescued from my father's whip.

They treat me very well, and when they see me with a man, they will think it is my boyfriend, Mr. Bucham, please don't be offended."

Julian understood: "It's normal, so do I. As long as I look at a girl more, my parents think I like that girl, and then try their best to match me with that girl, making me dumbfounded."

Kiera turned her head and asked Julian: "Mr. Bucham, what is your age?"

Julian: "35 years old."

Kiera smiled and said, "It's no wonder your parents reacted like that. If I'm 35 years old and haven't married yet, my parents must be very anxious. It's okay now, I'm only in my early twenties, and my parents just remind me that I can fall in love when I meet someone I like. Mr. Bucham, I don't have time to fall in love."

Julian didn't dare to say that he was sick, Kiera was the only one who could cure him.

If Kiera was concerned that the two were not a good match after spending a lot of time together and developing feelings for him, he would confess his illness to her.