Married at First Sight Chapter 2412-Speaking, Elisa used her mobile phone to take pictures of the spectacular scene of a hundred wedding caravans slowly approaching.

Other bridesmaids also came to the window to take a video.

After Elisa finished filming the video, she went back to the bed and showed it to Serenity. Serenity smiled and said, "You forward it to my WhatsApp, and I'll save it. I'll check it out later when I have time."

Recalling today would be sweet in the future.

He walked the talk.

He gave her a big wedding.

He made her the envy of all women in the city.

In fact, after Serenity married him, she became the envy of all the women in the city.

In her previous life, she must have saved the banking department. In this life, she was able to marry him as his wife, and she was treated sincerely by him.

He said, let her live happily and peacefully forever!

It was the sweetest love story she had ever heard. And the sweetest promise.

Elisa forwarded it to her WhatsApp, and said: "The photographer followed the whole process, you can watch it slowly."

Serenity hummed, "I'll watch it when I'm free."

"Seren." Elisa Sitting down. She hugged her, and said emotionally: "You will be very happy, and you must be happy. I believe that you and Zachary can grow old together and have a son, oh, a daughter."

Serenity was also emotional and authentic, "Elisa, I will be happy, thank you."

Elisa let go of her, and said with a smile: “Thank you for what I did? It’s not the red line I gave you and Zachary. This is the fate of the two of you.”

Serenity: “Thank you for your blessing.”

Elisa smiled, “We are sisters and friends, so you don’t need to be as polite as me.

I’m going to see if Zachary has entered the door. We have to be prepared to block the door. We won’t let him in unless we take out all the red envelopes he brought.”

Someone suggested, “Why don’t you ask Young master York to write a poem for us?”

Serenity smiled and said, “You decide for yourself, I will listen to you later.”

Everyone looked at Elisa.

Sensing that everyone was looking at her, Elisa smiled and said: “You guys are proposing, why are you looking at me? You want to make things difficult for Zachary, but you don’t dare, let me take the lead?”

“Miss Stone, you are Serenity’s cousin and a good friend, Young Master York will give you face, if you ask Young Master York to compose poems, he promises to compose poems obediently.”

Elisa smiled: “I don’t think it’s difficult to compose poems Zachary, why not ask Zachary when he fell in love with Seren, I am more interested in this, haha. The main reason is that I have made things difficult for Zachary now, and when I marry Remy, will Zachary make things difficult for him?”

Serenity and Elisa were cousins, and when Elisa got married, Serenity would go to the wedding as a relative of her natal family.

Zachary naturally became a relative of her mother’s family.

The narrow-minded Zachary might seize the opportunity to make things difficult for Remy.

Everyone: “...”

“Besides, today is a great day for Zachary and Seren. Zachary is definitely the most tempered person today, full of tolerance. No matter how you make things difficult for him, he will not get angry, and won't argue with you.”

“With Zachary's IQ, I think he can easily break through.”

Everyone thought it was right.

Today's Zachary was absolutely tolerant, they thought about how to block the door for a longer time.
