Married at First Sight Chapter 2414-When Sonny came in, Elisa decided to let Sonny take the lead, she said to Sonny: "Your uncle will come upstairs soon, you go and sit at the door, don't let your uncle come in too soon to pick up your aunt, ok?"

Sonny didn't understand.

He raised his handsome face and asked Elisa: "My uncle is here to pick up my aunt, why can't my uncle pick up my aunt? He's going to have a wedding with her."

Sonny wouldn't be able to drink the wedding wine if Zachary isn't allowed to pick up Serenity, right?

Elisa explained: "It's not to prevent your uncle from picking up your aunt, but to make your uncle not easy to pick up your aunt. Let's make things difficult for him and let him know that it is not easy to marry your aunt, and she will be special in the future. Cherish your aunt and treat your aunt well."

Sonny: "But my uncle is very kind to my aunt, why do you make things difficult for my uncle?"

Elisa: "..."

She patted her forehead, and said to Serenity: "Seren, come here, we don't need Sonny to do anything, just let him sit at the door and block the red envelopes."

"Accept the red envelope, then I can do it."

Without waiting for Serenity to speak, as soon as Sonny heard that Elisa just let him sit at the door of Serenity's room and wait for the red envelopes to be collected, he would do it.

His favorite thing to do was to collect red envelopes.

Zachary was very kind to him, and the red envelope must be very big.

Everyone laughed.

Elisa pinched Sonny's little face lightly, and said with a smile: "Little money fan, in order to collect more red envelopes, you go outside and wait for your uncle, and you also want your uncle to compose three love poems aloud. We'll hear it in the room, and when you think that your uncle's love poems are well written, then you open the door and let him in."

Sonny didn't know what love poems were, he only knew that his mission was to collect red envelopes.

No matter what Elisa said, he remembered, but didn't understand, then kept nodding, and asked Elisa: "Auntie Elisa, can I go out to collect red envelopes now?"

Elisa: "Okay, let's go."

Sonny turned around and ran to the door, then sat down and waited for Zachary to come upstairs. He was good at work and received red envelopes.

Not long after, Zachary went up to the second floor surrounded by his best man group.

When going upstairs, everyone was still cautious, worried that the woman's relatives and friends would set up "organs" on the stairs to embarrass their team of picking up the bride.

Fortunately, unimpeded.

Julian, one of the best men, said with a smile: "It seems that our young master York has such a great reputation that no one dares to set up 'organs' for young master York."

Zachary smiled: "It's Seren and my oldest sister, Liberty."

He didn't want people to torment him.

When a group of people came to the door of the room and saw Sonny sitting in front of the door, they stopped immediately.

Everyone looked at Sonny.

The woman sent a three-year-old doll to guard the door?

“Sonny.” Zachary smiled and waved to his nephew, “Come on, give me a hug from uncle.”

Sonny sat still, he said loudly: “I don’t want to hug, I want to receive red envelopes, Auntie Elisa asked me to sit here to receive red envelopes.”

Zachary immediately took out a stack of red envelopes, and Julian quickly reminded him: “Don’t give it all to Sonny at once, those bridesmaids in the room won’t open the door to let you in if they don’t get the red envelopes.”

Zachary only gave Sonny a red envelope.

After Sonny got a red envelope, he turned his head and shouted loudly: “Auntie Elisa, my uncle gave me a red envelope, can I let my uncle in?”

The door opened a crack, several bridesmaids gathered together to look at the situation outside, Elisa smiled and told Sonny: “It’s not enough.”

maids could make things difficult for him.

Of course, Elisa didn’t want to be that early bird.

“Zachary just got off the car, it wasn’t Zachary who knocked on the door.” A bridesmaid said, and then she went to open the door and saw that it was Sonny.

As soon as the door opened, Sonny blew into Serenity’s boudoir like a gust of wind.

“Auntie, auntie, my uncle is here, and my uncle drove many, many cars to pick you up.” Sonny ran in front of Serenity, climbed onto Serenity’s bed like a monkey, and said excitedly to Serenity.

Serenity smiled and said, “Auntie knows.”

“Auntie, look quickly, do I look good now?” Sonny asked Serenity the same question again. He stood up from the bed and let Serenity examine him to see if he looked good.

Sonny’s innocent words made everyone in the room laugh.

“Sonny, you’re the prettiest.” Serenity boasted.

Elisa carried Sonny off the bed, and said with a smile, "Sonny, you will become the most handsome flower girl in Wiltspoon, and when I get married, you will also be a flower girl for me."

"Okay." Sonny responded childishly, "I'll be a flower girl for you."

Sonny looked at the unfamiliar beautiful girls, and Liberty said that this was a bridesmaid group specially arranged for Serenity in order to make Serenity's group of bridesmaids grow stronger.

Sonny still didn't know what a daughter of a famous family was. He only knew that these women looked very kind and loved to laugh, just like him, and he liked them.

Sonny: "When beautiful aunties get married, I will also be your flower girl."

The bridesmaids laughed and said, "Okay, when we get married in the future, we must invite Sonny to be the flower girl."

They're afraid that when they got married, Sonny would grow into a young man, so he couldn't be a flower girl for them.

No defense; Serenity was pregnant and would have a baby next year. In a few years, the baby would be almost Sonny's age now. The favor debt owed by his cousin could be repaid by his cousin, and it could make Zachery's son and Zachery's son even better to be a flower girl for them.

Anyway, now Zachary owed them favors.

Although they were very low-key in the circle of high society in Wiltspoon, they were real ladies. They were not invited to attend any grand banquets. Zachary invited them to be bridesmaids for Serenity.

Zachary owed them a favor.

"Sonny."
