

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2421

Married at First Sight Chapter 2421-Hugh muttered: "Sister, are you preparing for your future marriage? Even if you are married, you can still take care of Queen Enterprise. we are only two children of our parents, and the family property must be divided equally. Sister, half of the company also belongs to you, I think it's better not to change the positions of the two of us."

Hayden said amusedly: "I've been tired for so many years, why don't I want to retreat to the second line to rest? You are a man, you have to stand upright, and you should bear the responsibilities that should be borne by you."

"I don't believe it is my duty to take over the business. You too, sister, are eligible to inherit. We both have responsibilities. Sister, when are you going to get married? I can take the lead when you get married and during your honeymoon. I can also take the lead if you get pregnant and have a child. No, Kevin should be the leader. He married you away, so he should be the leader."

After the sound fell, Hugh was slapped by Hayden again.

"I don't owe you anything, don't make excuses for me, go back to your parents, don't want to make friends with big businessmen, it's okay to have a look at each other, see if there is any girl you like, but You're not young now, it's time to get married."

Under his sister's stare, Hugh didn't dare to say any more, and smiled happily.

Either Hugh fell in love with Kiera at first sight, or he met a different beauty. His nature was to appreciate, want to make friends, and treat them as confidante.

"You have a lot of confidantes; Ms. Caron is not the only one. Of course, if you can bear the bombardment of Mr. Julian, go to Ms. Caron. If something happens, don't ask me for help. I won't help you clean up the mess; as long as Mr. Julian doesn't maim you, I won't show up."

Hugh said: "Sister, you are so cruel! For the sake of my life, I will stay away from Ms. Caron."

Hugh had a lot of confidence, there was no need to make friends with Kiera.

That was Julian's dish. In order to survive, it was best not to compete with the tiger for meat, as it would easily become the tiger's meal.

Hugh: "I'm leaving, sister don't miss me."

Hayden couldn't help laughing and said, "I don't think anyone will miss you, so get the h-e-l-l out of here."

Hugh made a gesture to roll on the ground, but when he saw his sister kicking him, he ran away quickly.

"Br*t!" Hayden cursed with a low smile.

The difference between the siblings was only ten minutes, and it felt like Hugh was ten years younger than Hayden.

After Hugh left, Hayden didn't go too far, and sat down in a nearby gazebo.

Before long, the weather changed.

From sunny to cloudy to rainy.

Didn't expect it to rain, Hayden didn't bring an umbrella, so she could only stay under the gazebo to avoid the rain.

Fortunately, the rain came and went quickly.

In less than half an hour, the rain stopped, the clouds parted, and the sun came out again.

"Hayden."

Hayden heard a familiar shout.

It belonged to Kevin.

Kevin was holding a bouquet of flowers from far to near.

Seeing him, Hayden stood up, walked to the entrance of the gazebo, and waited for him to approach.

"Hayden."

Kevin walked into the gazebo holding the flower bouquet. He went with Zachary to pick up the bride from the Hunt family. He looked even better in that same black suit. Hayden was used to him looking good, and she thought Kevin looked fantastic today.

Hayden: "Young Master York came back to pick up the bride?"