

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2370-In the morning, David continued his journey in The Spirit Cage. At night, he went back to the real world to make more clones.

Half a month passed and David had made 30 small wooden boxes to seal his clones.

Celia, Selena, Celeste, Sandy, Pearl, Julia, Amelia, Mia, Astrid, Ava, Goldie, and Lorraine would have two each. In total, there would be 24.

Moreover, he also had to give two each to Nova, Sid, and Alba.

He distributed all 30 just like that.

If these people encountered danger and were not together, they would not be able to summon the tenth clone unless David upgraded his Cloning to level 5 to increase the number of clones.

However, this possibility was so small that it was negligible.

Moreover, Celia and the women would not be apart from each other for long.

If they wanted to get to Eternal Realm and live to one epoch, they had to stay together and learn from Celeste.

To be honest, David did not want to give Lorraine his clones.

After all, they were not that close.

However, if he did not give any to Lorraine, it did not seem appropriate as the rest had them.

They lived together anyway.

It could be seen that after a near-death experience, Lorraine was not as arrogant as she was when she first left the Milky Way.

She had humbled herself a lot and integrated into the big family.

Today, David was resting in the carriage.

Then, he heard Beanie's voice outside.

"Master David, we will be passing by a second-tier city.

Should we go in and rest for the night?"

David opened his eyes slowly.

Right now, his face was pale and he looked sickly.

He had not rested properly for more than a month.

Furthermore, he had wasted a lot of effort researching and making clones that could fight on their own.

Even David could not handle living like this.

"Let's go stay for a night," David agreed.

"Master David, can I come in?"

"You may come in any time you want during the day, but don't come in at night," David joked.

"I got it, Master David."

Beanie jumped into the carriage.

The moment she entered the carriage, she saw David's pale face. He looked listless and washed out.

After following him for so long, this was the first time that Beanie have seen David in this state.

She was astonished and asked quickly, "M-Master David, a- are you okay? Are you sick?"

"I'm fine. I just didn't sleep well. Don't worry, I'll be fine after two days of rest," David said indifferently.

He knew himself.

He had to tear out his soul every night and brand them carefully so that his clones could move on their own.

After a whole month of doing this, even his Overlord Realm soul power could not handle it.

However, this did not hurt him too badly.

Luckily, he finished creating his clones so he only needed to rest well for the next two days.

"Master David, why don't we rest a few days here? We can leave once you're feeling better. It'll be bad if you continue like this." Beanie looked worried.

"I'm fine! If you don't believe me, just wait and see. I'll be able to recover to my usual self tomorrow," David chuckled.

However, his smile looked forced to Beanie. She could feel her heart breaking for him
