I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2412-Now, it did not seem so.

After all, the mayor was already the highest combat power of a city.

As David was sizing up the mayor of Amber City, Salem was also doing the same.

'This young man doesn't look too bad.

'I can't tell anything about his strength.

'Perhaps he has some special means to hide his power.

'Anyone that can hide from me is not ordinary!'

"David, my friend, please sit," Salem gestured.

He had found out David's name from Arian's report.

He was also trying to remember which top force in Leila had an heir with the last name of Lidell.

However, he could not think of any.

There could be a lot of reasons for this.

Firstly, he did not pay much attention to the younger generation. Moreover, he had stayed in The Spirit Cage for so long that he did not know much about Leila anymore.

Secondly, David might be the direct descendant that a force was cultivating in secret. Perhaps he never showed himself in public and that was why no one knew him.

Another reason might be that David lied about his name purposely to hide who he was.

"Are you the mayor of Amber City?" David asked.

“Yes! I am the current mayor of Amber City, Salem Birch. May I know where you are from?”

“You don’t need to know where I’m from for now. I have a question for you right now. I hope you can answer me honestly, Mayor Salem,” David said rudely.

“What is it?” Salem looked curious.

He was not bothered by David’s rudeness.

He was young!

So it was normal for him to be like this when he had the strength.

Who was not young before?

Salem was the same when he was young. He thought he was second only to God and would look down on everyone. He was sure that he could become the sixth Overlord of Leila to create history and gain everlasting fame.

However, he was not the only one with this thought.

He would give up that thought as time went on and sanded down his edges.

“Is there anyone stronger than you in Amber City?”

The reason David asked this question was to check if the mysterious person he met halfway was from Amber City.

This was very important to David.

After all, that was the only person in The Spirit Cage that made him feel helpless.

When he was being targeted by the mysterious person, David did not dare to show his strength at all and he could only use the system to hide himself.

It was because he knew the other party was much stronger than him. His Supreme level 1 soul power was definitely no match for the mysterious person.

David did not want to expose his secret before knowing if the mysterious person was a friend or foe.

‘Why are you asking this?’

“You don’t have to worry about this. You just have to answer ‘yes’ or ‘no’,” David urged.

Salem chuckled and said, “Since you’re asking, I’ll just tell you. This is not a secret anyway. There are three forces controlling Amber City, and we take turns becoming mayor. Currently, I am the strongest here and the people in charge of the two forces are slightly weaker than me. However, if we have to fight, there will be a lot of variables. Even if I am slightly stronger, it’s not enough for me to dictate the result of the battle.”

He sounded pretty arrogant when he said that.

However, David frowned when he heard that.

Old Man Birch is the mayor of Amber City, so it was clear how strong he was. There was no need for him to lie.

Then, who was that mysterious person David encountered halfway who was spying on him?

David could not understand.

When the mysterious person appeared, they were not far away from Amber City.

Now, Salem said he was the strongest in the city and the other two were about the same as him.

However, his strength was much lower than David’s, let alone that mysterious person.
