

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Chapter 603

Chapter 603

Jane observed the changes in Luna's expression and knew that the latter was wavering. She continued, " You must quickly settle things with Andrius and sever all ties to him for the sake of safety!"

†

For some reason, Luna's mind suddenly recalled all the good things about Andrius.

When he stood up for others, when he went against the crowd, and the passionate confession during the concert...

All those scenes flashed in her mind like a movie.

Luna was at a loss.

"I Grandma, let me think about this a little longer." Luna did not know what was wrong with her either. She just felt like her thoughts were too chaotic.

"Hurry up and decide, Luna""

"Luna, you can't delay this matter You need to act quickly..."

"Luna, I estimate that the resolution to this matter will come in a day or two at most. Don't delay any further"

The Conerys kept offering her their opinions.

Luna went back to her room alone. She decided to ask Halle for her opinion.

Before she could dial the number, Halle called her.

"Luna, I saw in the news that Andrius assaulted Princess Yule. Is this true?"

Halle also immediately doubted the news when she saw it

Given Andrius status, what kind of woman would be out of his reach? Why would he need to use force?

Thus, she immediately called Luna to ask about the authenticity of the news.

Luna said weakly. "It's true. I went to the police station earlier. The captain personally told me that it was true."

It was true?

Halle could not believe it. Then, she asked, "Luna, what do you plan to do now?"

"I..." Luna took a deep breath and seemed to make up her mind. She said solemnly, "I want to divorce Andrius and sever all ties with him.

"Firstly, I don't want this matter to affect my participation in the Grand Medicinal Competition and disappoint the expectations the Wolf King had for me.

"Secondly, I don't want to sacrifice my youth for this. After all, I don't want to be the wife of someone who assaulted a princess."

As for hiring a defense lawyer...

Luna did not really consider it.

As Roger said, Andrius forced himself on a princess. The punishment would undoubtedly be severe. Furthermore, the truth was right in front of them, and the case was almost sealed. Even if the best lawyer in the world was hired, it would not change the outcome.

"What do you think, Halle?"

Halle fell silent.

She remembered what Andrius had said to her on several occasions.

He was caught in a vortex of conspiracy, and such incidents were likely to increase, which might result in harm to those close to him.

Of course, she still wanted to be his woman.

However, Luna...

"You figure it out for yourself." Halle sighed and hung up the phone.

This time, she did not need to persuade Luna to get a divorce.

Luna fell silent.

After a while, she opened the news portal again.

In a short while, news of Andrius assaulting the princess of Bardan, Anna Faulkner, had climbed to the top of the trending list.

Even the second to sixth spots were all related to that topic. The whole internet was discussing the incident.

As for what they were discussing...

"Andrius Moonshade is really amazing! He even dared to r*pe a foreign princess. He must be the ballsiest person on earth!"

"Holy sh*t, I can't believe someone like that is from Florence. What an embarrassment. He's brought shame upon Florence and its people!"

The whole internet was unanimous. No one was on Andrius' side.

At most, there were some lecherous comments saying that Andrius had lived his life to the fullest. Luna's mood became extremely complex upon seeing these comments.
