Everyone gathered around when they saw Belarus coming out but their expressions varied

Belarus locked at them with an ashen expression and said in a heavy voice. His Majesty didnt agree He’s very firm about his decision

Although they already guessed it, hearing the news still caused their expressions to charge sighty

However, most of the Crestfalls could not hice their ficden joy and happiness. There was even a hint of

schadenfreude

Andrus luck had finally run out!

That great calamity was finally saying goodbye to the Crestfalls

How satisfying

They were delighted

However, they did not dare to show it on their faces

Luna hesitated for a long time and finally stepped forward to say, "Grandbe, I want to divorce Andrus. His current situation is going to affect me too much. If I don't cut ties with him soon, I might not be able to join the Grand Medicinal Competition.

"Furthermore, I'll be labeled as the wife of a rpist"

She thought for a long time and decided that it was time to cut ties. Now was the perfect opportunity

"No!" Belarus' brows twitched, and his face was solemn. "Andrus is a good chap. Since he joined the Crestfalls, he has never backed down when faced with challenges. We can't leave him when he needs us

"Master Crestfall, you favor Andrus so much, but why can't you consider Luna? She's the future of the Crestfalls!"

"Grandpa, you don't want Luna to be labeled as the wife of a r'pist, do you?"

Everyone piped up, trying to persuade Belarus.

They hated Andrus. He was too arrogant, always causing trouble, and full of empty talk. There was nothing likable about him.

Furthermore, he had dragged the Crestfalls down several times. They lived in constant fear because of him!

It was difficult to go against everyone's wishes, so Belarus turned to Luna and said, "You can seek a divorce, but you must do your best to reduce his punishment. You must not let him be sentenced to death!

If Andrius was sentenced to death as the son-in-law of the Crestfalls, how would Belarus explain it to Old Hagstorm? 1

"Okay." Luna instantly felt relieved when Belarus agreed

It was as if...
