

An Understated Dominance Chapter 1811 - 1820

Chapter 1811

“This...” Lu Chen frowned slightly, seeming to be hesitating.

“Your Highness!”

Wen Shun suddenly clasped his fists and saluted, and said loudly: “I am not talented, but I am willing to overcome all obstacles for Your Highness. If Your Highness can trust me, leave this matter to me. I will contact those loyal officers and soldiers secretly, quickly accumulate strength, and wait until the time is right. As long as His Highness raises his arms, we will definitely help His Highness achieve success!”

“Uncle Wen is really kind and righteous, and I admire him so much!” Lu Tianba said sincerely in admiration.

“If that’s the case, then there’s Uncle Lao Wen.” Lu Chen returned the gesture with fists raised.

“It’s an honor for me to work for His Highness,” Wen Shun said.

“Master Hou! It’s not good!”

At this time, a guard suddenly ran into the door and said with a panicked expression: “I just received news that the Xiliang Palace is surrounded by a large army. The situation is now in danger!”

“What? Being surrounded?”

As soon as these words came out, Lu Chen and Lu Tianba’s expressions changed instantly.

They had only been out for less than two days, and they didn’t expect the change to happen so quickly.

“What’s going on? Tell me carefully!” Lu Tianba asked eagerly.

The guard glanced at Wen Wen and after receiving a nod, he said: “The four northern princes led an elite team and sneaked into the Royal City last night. All the officers of the Royal City Guards above the school level were held hostage. The Royal City soldiers and horses, led by dragons, were paralyzed. , the four northern princes took the opportunity to besiege the palace in the name of King Qin, saying they wanted to kill Xiao Xiao and avenge the prince, but in fact they were sending troops to seize power!”

“boom!”

Lu Tianba was so angry that he slammed the table and said angrily: “Rebellion! These guys are really rebelling! They dare to send troops to besiege the palace. They are simply audacious!”

He thought that even if the four major princes wanted to be in turmoil, they would at most just come to the city and put pressure on them.

He really didn’t expect that these guys would be so crazy, completely torn apart, and immediately came to the bottom of the cauldron.

If the palace is destroyed and the military talisman falls into Lu Zhiyuan’s hands, then they are really doomed!

“It seems that Lu Zhiyuan has been prepared for a long time.” Lu Chen frowned and began to fall into deep thought.

This strange move really caught them off guard.

He also wanted to unite the four major princes in the south and persuade some loyal ministers and soldiers to jointly attack Lu Zhiyuan.

Unexpectedly, the other party had taken the lead and completely took control of the initiative.

Once the palace falls, the consequences will be disastrous!

“Brother, what should we do now?” Lu Tianba was a little anxious.

“There is no time to think about it. We must rush back as soon as possible to resolve the crisis in the palace.” Lu Chen said solemnly.

“But the troops and horses we have now are not enough to fight against Lu Zhiyuan. Even with Uncle Wen and the others’ help, it will take time to deploy troops and generals, and we may not be able to make it in time.” Lu Tianba frowned.

“There is no other way, now we can only give it a try!”

Lu Chen looked at Wen Shun and said seriously: “Uncle Wen, please immediately unite your father’s old troops, and together with the other three princes, support the palace. I will try my best to buy time for you and get reinforcements to arrive!”

“Your Highness! Is this too risky?” Wen Shun frowned.

“We have lost the opportunity and must take the risk.”

Lu Chen leaned over and bowed, and said solemnly: “Uncle Wen, I will leave everything to you in the future!”

“Old minister... I will never let down His Highness’ trust!” Wen Shun nodded heavily.

“Thank you, Uncle Wen.”

Lu Chen glanced at Lu Tianba and said in a deep voice: “Let’s go! Go back to the palace and meet Lu Zhiyuan for a while!”

Chapter 1812

Late at night, in the royal city, in front of the gate of the palace.

A large number of armed soldiers gathered into human walls, completely surrounding the huge palace.

Looking around, there was a huge black area with tens of thousands of people!

These are just the vanguard troops. In fact, there is an armed army stationed outside the royal city.

They were the soldiers and horses of the four major princes in the north, among which there was also a bodyguard of Lu Zhiyuan.

However, they are all disguised.

At this moment, in the palace.

Li Yishuang was wearing plain linen and a filial piety hat. He had a cold face and stood at the gate menacingly.

She also held a sharp sword in her hand, and she looked majestic and murderous.

When the life of the palace was at stake, Li Yishuang, as the princess, stood up without hesitation, standing alone in the front.

Behind her, stood Shi Changning and a group of armored dragon guards.

There are not many people, but they are the most powerful force in the palace.

Behind Youlongwei, there was still a group of government soldiers and servants standing.

The soldiers of the government held swords and the servants held sticks. They were waiting in strict formation and regarded death as if they were home.

Further back, in the inner courtyard.

A group of old, weak, women and children in the palace were also wearing sackcloth and mourning, holding weapons and staring at the door in the distance.

Once the Youlong Guards are destroyed and all the soldiers and servants of the palace are killed, they will rush forward without hesitation, vowing to live and die with the palace.

“Dad...Mom...I’m afraid...”

In the crowd, there was a teenage boy, holding a knife in both hands, trembling, and his face was ashen.

Having been pampered since childhood, when had he ever experienced such a scene?

When he learned that the palace was surrounded and tens of thousands of troops were ambushed outside, he realized that the situation in the palace was over and he was likely to die tonight.

“waste!”

A middle-aged man turned around and glared, and shouted: “I, the man of the Lu family, have been on the battlefield, wrapped in horse leather, and none of them is a coward. If you dare to take a step back today, I will kill you first!”

“dad?”

The young man was trembling with fear, tears welling up in his eyes.

“You’re crying! A real man doesn’t shed tears when he bleeds. If his head falls off, there will be a scar no bigger than the mouth of a bowl. Wipe your tears for me!” the middle-aged man yelled.

The young man did not dare to say anything and quickly wiped away his tears.

A woman next to him turned to look at the boy and forced a smile: “Xiao Wu, there is nothing to be afraid of. No matter what happens, your parents will be with you.”

“Xiao Wu, the more scared we are, the stronger we must be and not let others look down upon us!” At this time, a fourteen-year-old girl said with firm eyes.

“Yeah!” The young man gritted his teeth and nodded heavily.

“Xiao Tao...”

The woman took out a bottle of medicine, handed it to the girl, and warned: “You must protect your brother in a while. If we can’t stop him, just drink this bottle of medicine, so that you can avoid some torture.”

“I understand!” The girl nodded and held the medicine bottle tightly.

She knew in her heart that this was a bottle of poison.

If the palace’s troops could not stop the invasion, she would have no choice but to commit suicide by taking poison.

Otherwise, her end may be more terrible than death.

A solemn atmosphere enveloped the entire palace.

Everyone knows that the palace is about to be in disaster.

However, even if they were afraid, even if they knew they would die, no one backed down.

“boom!”

“boom!”

“boom!!”

At this time, the soldiers outside the palace began to bang on the door.

Chapter 1813

The heavy palace door was banged and trembled.

The sound of each impact was like a giant hammer, hitting everyone's hearts hard.

“Open the door!!”

Li Yishuang gave a sweet shout and ordered someone to open the door.

This unexpected move made the soldiers who broke the door look confused and completely confused.

At this time, shouldn't we close the door tightly and guard against death?

What's going on if you open the door yourself?

Could it be that there is an ambush inside?

“Chen Chao! Lu Song! Kang Qiao! He Yuanhui! Come out and show yourself!”

Li Yishuang stood with his sword in hand and spoke loudly.

The powerful aura forced the soldiers outside the door not to come near for a while.

The four names she called corresponded to the four major princes in the north and were also the main forces in this rebellion.

“What? Do you dare to do it or not? Are the four great princes just hiding their heads and showing their tails?!”

Seeing no one responded, Li Yishuang spoke again, his words sonorous and powerful, sounding like a bell, resounding throughout the palace.

After a few seconds, the soldiers and horses directly in front of the palace suddenly dispersed, leaving a wide road.

Immediately afterwards, four middle-aged men of different shapes, wearing armor and hanging cloaks, walked over side by side.

Those who came were none other than the four great princes of the north.

“Chen Chao—I’ve met the princess!”

“Lu Song—I’ve met the princess!”

“Cambridge—I’ve met the princess!”

“He Yuanhui – I’ve met the princess!”

The four of them walked to the door and bowed at the same time.

“Hmph! Do you still have me as the princess in your eyes?!” Li Yishuang said coldly.

“Princess, what are you talking about? Once you are a princess, you will always be a princess.” Chen Chaopi said with a smile.

“If you treat me as a princess, why do you want to rebel?” Li Yishuang shouted.

“Princess, you have misunderstood. We are not rebelling, but King Qin.” Chen Chao said with a smile.

“That’s right!” Lu Song next to him nodded: “The prince’s death is very strange. We heard that someone deliberately murdered him, so we specially sent troops to catch the murderer!”

“Yes! We are loyal to the prince. Now that something happens to the prince, we naturally cannot stand by and watch.” Kang Qiao agreed.

“Me too.” He Yuanhui said briefly and simply.

“I am sending people to fully investigate the prince’s assassination. You don’t need to worry about it. If you still have some conscience, then withdraw your troops immediately!” Li Yishuang said solemnly.

“The palace has encountered a catastrophe. As princes, we have the responsibility to come to help. Princess, are you reacting so violently, are you afraid? Or are you guilty?” Chen Chao said meaningfully.

“How dare you doubt me?!” Li Yishuang glared.

“Of course we don’t doubt the princess, but it’s hard to tell about the people around the princess. In order to seek justice for the prince, we must search the palace and interrogate all suspicious persons!” Chen Chao said loudly.

“Outsiders are not allowed to carry weapons like those in the palace, this is the rule!” Li Yishuang shouted.

“In extraordinary times, do extraordinary things.”

Chen Chao made a gesture: “Come here, go in and search!”

“Let’s see who dares!”

Li Yishuang suddenly took two steps forward, raised his long sword, and pointed it directly at Chen Chao’s throat: “If any of you steps into the palace today, don’t blame me for being ruthless with my sword!”

Seeing this battle, a group of soldiers who had just approached were so frightened that they stood still.

After all, she is the Princess of Xiliang. She has been in a high position for a long time, and she has an invisible sense of oppression.

“Princess, we are all avenging the prince. If you insist on blocking it, don’t blame us for being disrespectful!”

Chen Chao narrowed his eyes, and a cold light flashed in his eyes.

Chapter 1814

“If you want to enter the palace, you must step over my body first!”

Li Yishuang stood with a sword and a strong aura, guarding the door alone.

Her strength is not strong and she can only be regarded as an innate warrior. However, the aura she displays at this moment is stronger than that of a martial arts master.

Not to mention ordinary soldiers, even Chen Chao was shocked. He frowned deeply for a while and did not dare to move.

He could only turn his attention to the other three princes.

Threats are threats, and forced palaces are forced to be forced into palaces, but at least they have to be famous as teachers, otherwise, they will only be reviled by the world and abandoned by all people.

They surrounded the palace in the name of tracking down the murderer. Even if their behavior was a bit excessive, they could evade it afterwards, feeling overly sad and losing control of their emotions.

However, if the princess was killed during the process of forcing the palace, no matter how they explain it or find reasons, they will not be able to wash away the crime.

By then, public outrage is bound to arouse.

And not only the forces in Xiliang are shaken, but Yanjing will definitely send troops to suppress it.

After all, Li Yishuang is not only the princess of Xiliang, but also the eldest princess of the Dragon Kingdom.

With such an identity, they naturally dare not act rashly.

To put it simply, everyone in the palace can be killed, except Li Yishuang.

So when Li Yishuang put on a posture of dying together, they were a little at a loss.

“Three people? What should we do now?”

Chen Chao looked at the three princes around him and asked in a low voice.

“The arrow is on the string and has to be fired. We have reached this point and there is no reason to retreat.” Lu Song said coldly.

“Yes, we are only one step away from success. We can’t just give up.” Kang Qiao agreed.

“Of course I understand. What I mean is, how should the princess handle it?” Chen Chao whispered.

“As long as the princess’s life is not hurt, there will be no big trouble.” He Yuanhui said suddenly.

“You mean... tied up?” Chen Chao raised his eyebrows slightly.

“Do you have any other ideas?” He Yuanhui asked.

Chen Chao said nothing and looked at Lu Song and Kang Qiao again, with doubts in his eyes.

“That’s all.” Lu Song nodded.

“Second.” Kang Qiao nodded.

“Okay, let’s do it!”

After receiving the approval, Chen Chao suddenly spoke loudly: “Listen to me, the princess was deceived by the traitor and lost her mind. Your mission is to protect the princess and send her to the hospital for treatment. Do you understand?”

“clear!”

All the soldiers shouted in unison.

“Now, follow my orders, enter the palace, and save the princess!”

Chen Chao waved his hand, and a large number of soldiers put down their weapons and swarmed forward.

Li Yishuang has a distinguished status, so they naturally dare not use weapons. If someone is hurt, they will be in trouble.

“stop!!”

Seeing that the soldiers and horses of the four major princes were about to break into the palace, an angry shout suddenly exploded out of thin air.

At the same time, Lu Tianba, dressed in golden armor, fell directly from the sky and blocked the door.

When he landed, his feet splashed out a powerful energy wave, instantly knocking dozens of soldiers away and clearing an open area.

“Let’s see who dares to be bold!”

Lu Tianba pulled out the knife from his waist and blocked the door, his whole body erupting with a monstrous force.

Like a heavenly soldier coming to this world, it shocked the whole audience.

“Tianba?”

Chapter 1815

Seeing that her son had returned safely, Li Yishuang couldn’t help but look happy, but soon her expression turned serious again.

Because she discovered that her son left with only a few people and came with a few people, but he did not bring any soldiers or horses.

“Did it fail?”

Li Yishuang frowned slightly, feeling increasingly heavy in his heart.

Their only hope is to invite the four major princes in the south to take action, and then compete with the four major princes in the north.

Looking at it now, it seems that the situation is not optimistic.

“You are so brave! How dare you break into the palace without permission! Are you dying?!” Lu Tianba shouted loudly.

Its sound was like thunder, resounding throughout the whole place, deafening.

The tens of thousands of soldiers and horses from the four major princes did not dare to act rashly for a while.

“It turns out that the young prince is back.”

Chen Chao smiled faintly: “We, the four princes, have found out that there is a real murderer hidden in the prince’s palace. In order to avenge the prince, we have to go in and search, and we also ask the young prince to make way.”

“What a search!”

Lu Tianba shouted in a deep voice: “What kind of place is the palace? How can I allow you to search at your own convenience? Get away from me!”

“Young prince, we are sincere and serve the country and the people, but you are trying to stop us in every possible way. What is your intention?” Chen Chao said calmly.

“Hmph! Stop pretending in front of me! Everyone on the street knows your Sima Zhao’s intentions!” Lu Tianba said coldly.

“Young prince, we don’t understand what you are talking about.” Chen Chaodao.

“Chen Chao! I will give you a chance now. If you leave immediately, I can pretend that nothing has happened. You will still be the princes of Xiliang, and you can still live a wealthy life.”

At this point, Lu Tianba suddenly changed the subject: “But if you are stubborn and insist on rebelling, then I can guarantee that you will regret it!”

“Young prince, we are thinking of the overall situation, please give way!” Chen Chao was unmoved.

The other three people also had bright eyes and did not flinch at all.

At this point, they had no reason to retreat.

As long as they support Lu Zhiyuan to rise to power, they will be great contributors, and their power will be even greater in the future.

After all, in their view, after the death of Xiliang King Lu Wanjun, Lu Zhiyuan, as the general of the Hussars, was the most promising person to ascend to the throne.

As for Lu Tianba? He is just a young child, how can he have the right to sit on their heads?

“I’m leaving my words here today. If anyone dares to take a step forward, I will make their head fall to the ground!” Lu Tianba said murderously.

“Um?”

Chen Chao raised his eyebrows slightly, and then winked at the guards behind him.

The guards nodded and began to slowly move forward.

“court death!”

Lu Tianba’s face darkened, and without any nonsense, he directly raised the knife in his hand and waved it in the air.

“Whoosh!”

A sharp blade shot out, instantly piercing the necks of several guards with lightning speed.

Several guards froze and stood on the spot.

The next second, several heads fell to the ground and rolled around on the ground like rubber balls.

Chen Chao’s pupils shrank, he was not surprised but overjoyed, and said loudly: “Have you all seen it? The young prince has gone crazy and kills people on sight. As loyal ministers and soldiers, we should cure the young prince’s madness to prevent the young prince from getting mad. Your Majesty, you will hurt innocent people again!”

“Come here! Catch the young prince! Enter the house to search for the murderer!” Lu Song shouted.

“Seize the young prince! Enter the house to search for the murderer!” The four princes shouted one after another.

The next second, a large number of armed soldiers turned into a torrent of steel and surged towards Lu Tianba.

Both sides are completely at war!

Chapter 1816

“court death!”

Seeing the swarming armed soldiers, Lu Tianba instantly became furious.

No longer showing mercy, he directly raised his knife and charged into the crowd.

Now, he has entered the realm of martial arts master, and after several years of training on the battlefield, he has extremely rich combat experience.

One person rushes into the killing formation, unstoppable and very brave.

“Protect the young prince! Kill!”

Li Yishuang raised his long sword into the air.

The Youlong Guards behind him all drew their weapons.

“kill!”

Shi Changning waved his sword and led hundreds of dragon guards to charge into the army.

Although the number of Wandering Dragon Guards is small, all of them are unique masters and well-trained.

Under the leadership of martial arts master Shi Changning, they charged forward and were invincible.

The team of more than a hundred people was like a sharp long knife, cutting a long hole in the tens of thousands of troops and hitting the heart directly.

Under the protection of the personal guards, the four princes immediately stayed away from the battlefield to avoid assassination.

“I didn’t expect that there would be such an elite force hidden in the palace.”

Looking at the Youlongwei who was killing everyone, Chen Chao couldn’t help but squint his eyes slightly, looking a little surprised.

“Fortunately, there are only about a hundred people, not a large number, otherwise it would be enough for us to drink a pot.” Lu Song was a little lucky.

“If I guess correctly, this should be the legendary Dragon Guard, a master carefully selected by Lu Wanjun from the elite of the Black Dragon Army. Each one is one in a million,” Kang Qiao said.

“I see, no wonder it’s so powerful.” He Yuanhui nodded.

“It’s useless to be powerful. The number is too small and they cannot pose a threat to us. No matter how brave they are now, once their physical strength is exhausted, they will only be waiting to be killed.” Chen Chao took over the topic.

“Do you think there will be any changes?” Lu Song suddenly asked.

“What could happen? The palace is under siege, and it will only fall sooner or later. Our army is still stationed outside the royal city. If there is any trouble, we will know it immediately. Just relax!” Kang Qiao consoled him. road.

“You’re right! Now that the overall situation has been decided, it’s impossible for Li Yishuang, mother and son, and Lu Tianba to overturn the situation. Besides, we still have the generals sitting behind the scenes. Even if the four major princes from the south come in person, they can’t overturn anything. Big wave!” Chen Chao was full of confidence.

After Lu Wanjun left, how could the royal palace, led by dragons and relying on a group of old, weak women and children, fight against the powerful Lu Zhiyuan?

So what if Lu Tianba persuaded the four major princes in the south?

The soldiers and horses of those people could not enter the royal city at all, let alone rescue the palace.

In this current situation, no one can change fate.

Time is passing little by little.

The battle between the two sides became more and more intense.

On the palace side, Lu Tianba and Shi Changning led the charge, with more than a hundred dragon guards rushing around.

At the beginning, the team's momentum was very strong, and the soldiers and horses of the four major princes could not stop it at all.

But as the fighting continued, and with the exhaustion of physical strength, the gap between the two sides gradually became apparent.

Although the Youlong Guards were fierce, their numbers were still too small. On the other hand, the vanguard troops of the four major princes numbered tens of thousands.

No matter how many Youlongwei kill, more people will follow.

After several waves of attacks, the Dragon Guards began to show signs of fatigue and suffered casualties.

Seeing this scene, the four princes couldn't help but feel refreshed.

“Hahaha... Did you see that? The elites in the royal palace are on their last legs and will soon be surrounded and killed.” Chen Chao smiled proudly.

“Pit an egg against a stone, don’t underestimate your own capabilities.” Kang Qiao shook his head.

“What a pity for such an elite team. It would be great if they were my subordinates.” Lu Song sighed.

Chapter 1817

When He Yuanhui next to him was about to speak, his pupils suddenly shrank, he pointed at something and exclaimed: “Look! What is that?!”

Several people looked along his line of sight and saw a black stream of light pouring straight down from the sky, finally crashing into the army.

“boom!!”

There was a loud noise, the ground shook, and smoke and dust flew everywhere.

A powerful shock wave, like a tsunami, centered on the impact point and swept away in all directions.

Wherever he passed, people fell on their backs and wailed.

Just such a collision directly caused hundreds of casualties.

“Fuck! What the hell?” Chen Chao narrowed his eyes.

Because the smoke and dust were so thick, it was impossible to see what had just fallen.

“It can’t be some meteorite fragments, right?” Lu Song was a little confused.

“Meteors falling from the sky? How could such a coincidence happen!” Kang Qiao didn’t believe it at all.

“I can see it clearly! That’s a person!”

He Yuanhui pointed at the impact point with sharp eyes and shouted: “He is rushing over here!”

As soon as he finished speaking, a black figure shot out from the smoke and went directly towards the four princes.

The figure is holding a black sword, and its speed is extremely fast. Wherever it passes, it is unstoppable, and there is no enemy at all.

Those armed soldiers were like tofu in front of the figures, breaking into pieces at the first touch.

For a time, there were countless casualties.

“There is an assassin! Hurry! Stop him!”

He Yuanhui was the first to react and hurriedly gathered his team to surround and kill the figure.

“Hmph! Strike an egg against a stone! We have tens of thousands of troops to protect us. Even if this man has the ability to reach the sky, there is no way he can take our heads among thousands of troops!” Chen Chao said with a cold face and some disdain.

Although it is said that to capture the thief, capture the king first, and to kill the enemy, kill the general first.

But it is extremely difficult to implement it. Most of the so-called beheadings are assassinations.

To assassinate the general in front of everyone is simply asking for death.

You know, each of them is protected by a powerful personal guard.

If there was any danger, they would be able to escape easily under the escort of the personal guards, without any fear of assassination.

“Old Chen! Something seems wrong. That assassin is so fierce that ordinary soldiers can’t stop him!” He Yuanhui frowned.

He had excellent eyesight and could clearly see that figure was killing everyone in the crowd.

“Why are you panicking? He’s just an assassin, I don’t believe he can make any big waves!” Chen Chao was still disdainful.

A noble prince cannot be so frightened by an assassin that he flees, right?

“Old Chen! No way! The man is getting closer and closer, less than a hundred meters away from us. For safety, we must retreat!” He Yuanhui shouted in a deep voice.

“This...” Chen Chao frowned, his face a little ugly.

He initially thought that the assassin couldn’t charge very far, but he didn’t expect that now, he had almost pierced the entire army camp.

This strength is simply terrifying!

The problem is, he has just stopped talking. If he retreats now, wouldn’t he be slapping himself in the face?

If it were spread, it would really undermine the dignity.

“Damn it! I don’t care, just retreat first!”

Seeing that Chen Chao had not made up his mind for a long time, He Yuanhui was too lazy to talk nonsense and directly gave the order and began to retreat with his personal guards.

We are only one step away from success. If we fall into the hands of assassins tonight, we will be the real laughingstock of the world!

Chapter 1818

He Yuanhui was very smart. When he saw that the assassin was unstoppable, he decisively ordered the guards to retreat.

As the saying goes, there is no need to worry about leaving green hills without firewood. As long as you temporarily avoid the assassin's sharp edge, and then use the army to surround and kill the assassin when his energy is exhausted, this is the most prudent choice.

“Old Chen! I think Lao He is right. Safety is the most important thing. I'll go to the back first to avoid the limelight.”

Seeing He Yuanhui retreating, Lu Song did not dare to stay for a long time. Under the protection of the personal guards, he began to retreat slowly.

“Hmph! As timid as a mouse!”

Chen Chao frowned slightly, a little dissatisfied, then looked at Kang Qiao, and said meaningfully: “Old Kang, you have always been brave, so you shouldn't give in like those two people, right?”

“of course not!”

Kang Qiao stretched his muscles and sneered: “It's just an assassin, I haven't taken it seriously yet!”

For him to become a prince can be said to have climbed out of a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood.

What big scene haven't you seen?

The little assassin certainly couldn't scare him.

“Okay! Then let us see how capable this assassin is!”

Chen Chao nodded with satisfaction and waved his hand: “Set up the formation! Capture the assassin!”

“yes!”

Afterwards, hundreds of personal guards immediately drew their swords and surrounded and killed the assassin.

“Capture the assassin!”

Not to be outdone, Kang Qiao suddenly drew his sword, commanded his own bodyguards, and killed them from the other direction.

Their personal guards are all carefully selected elites. Each one of them can equal one to a hundred, and are much stronger than ordinary soldiers.

Although that assassin was very powerful, he was able to rush in and kill thousands of soldiers because he didn't meet any real elites.

Once their personal guards enter the scene, it is obviously impossible to continue the rampage of cutting melons and vegetables.

Sure enough, as soon as the personal guards of the two princes appeared, the charging speed of the assassins in front immediately slowed down.

The Guards are far stronger than ordinary soldiers in terms of strength, equipment, and combat experience.

Although it cannot compete with those top experts, it can also play a great limiting role.

Just like ordinary soldiers, they only wear ordinary steel armor, but elite guards can wear black iron armor.

In terms of defense, the two sides are not on the same level.

It takes more effort for a martial arts master to kill ten personal guards than to kill a hundred ordinary soldiers.

“Hmph! I thought he was so powerful, but as soon as our personal guards appeared, he was already dead.”

Looking at the surrounded assassins in front of him, Kang Qiao couldn't help but sneered, thinking that he had a chance to win.

“That's natural! They are all elites trained with a lot of money. How can they be the same as ordinary soldiers?” Chen Chao smiled lightly.

“Who can kill this thief! I will reward you with a reward of ten thousand taels!” Kang Qiao raised his sword to the sky and shouted at the same time.

As soon as these words came out, tens of thousands of soldiers were shocked.

They rushed towards the center of the battlefield, and the fear they had before turned into desire.

The bounty is ten thousand taels, which is enough to drive people crazy.

“Kill, kill, kill! Kill him!”

The soldiers roared angrily and charged forward fearlessly.

Invisibly, a gap appeared in the defensive formation that had been maintained before.

The black figure seized the opportunity, immediately increased his speed, and before the gap was closed, he rushed directly towards Chen Chao and the two men.

“Don't be chaotic! Hold your ground!”

Chen Chao frowned and quickly gave instructions, but it was already too late.

The black figure was too fast. After finding a flaw, he became even more invincible. The sword in his hand was like a meat grinder.

Wherever he passed, there were stumps of limbs and broken arms all over the ground, making it impossible to stop him.

The personal guards of the two princes tried to stop him, but to no avail.

The black figure was like a tiger entering a flock of sheep and started killing everyone.

“It’s broken! This person just hid his strength and we fell into a trap!”

Kang Qiao’s expression changed, and he quickly noticed something unusual.

When fighting against the bodyguards, the assassin deliberately showed weakness and assumed a posture of being surrounded.

Chapter 1819

However, when the guards were completely gathered, the assassin suddenly burst out with amazing strength.

The reason for this is very simple. The other party wants to draw out their personal guards, so that the defense around them is weak and they can better assassinate.

“Fuck! It’s so treacherous and cunning! Get out of here!”

Seeing that his guards could not return to defense in time, Chen Chao finally panicked and quickly started to retreat with the generals around him.

But at this moment, they had lost the best opportunity to retreat.

The black figure’s charging speed was much faster than their retreat speed.

In just two minutes, the distance between the two sides was less than twenty meters.

“Master Hou! We will stop the assassins for you! You retreat first!”

Seeing that they couldn’t run away, several generals decisively drew their swords and rushed towards the black figure.

As a result, several people were defeated after less than ten seconds.

“Damn it! I’ll fight you!”

Kang Qiao roared angrily, advanced instead of retreating, and drew his sword to kill.

“Old Kang! Don’t be impulsive!”

Chen Chao’s expression changed drastically and he quickly stopped. Unfortunately, it was too late.

Kang Qiao rushed forward and slashed at the black figure’s neck with a knife, but the black figure grabbed the blade and then stabbed Kang Qiao’s shoulder with a backhand sword.

“who are you?!”

Kang Qiao gritted his teeth and tried not to scream.

The black figure said nothing, suddenly grabbed Kang Qiao’s collar, and then threw it into the sky.

“Whoosh!”

Kang Qiao was thrown hundreds of meters away like a cannonball, crossing the gate of the palace, and finally hit the courtyard heavily.

“Boom!”

There was a loud bang.

Kang Qiao’s body directly smashed a human-shaped hole into the ground. His whole body vomited blood and wailed endlessly.

I don’t know how many bones in my body were broken.

“Cambridge!”

Li Yishuang, who was guarding the door, suddenly turned around, put his long sword at Kang Qiao’s throat, and shouted: “Let your soldiers surrender immediately, otherwise – die!”

...

Outside the palace.

Seeing Kang Qiao being thrown away, Chen Chao couldn’t help but froze for a moment and ran after Sayazi.

At this moment, he finally regretted it.

If he had known that this assassin was so powerful, he should have retreated in time like Lu Song and He Yuanhui, so as not to put himself in danger.

“Can you run?”

The black figure snorted coldly, stepped forward, grabbed Chen Chao’s back collar, and lifted him up.

“Don’t... don’t kill me! I’ll give you whatever you want!” Chen Chao panicked and quickly said something nice.

“Killing you? It would be too easy on you!”

The black figure swung one hand and threw Chen Chao into the air, then jumped up and kicked Chen Chao in the abdomen.

“Boom!”

A muffled sound.

Chen Chao's whole body was like a football, flying two to three hundred meters away, flying over the heads of many soldiers, and finally accurately shooting into the palace gate.

His nose was bruised and his face was swollen from the fall, he vomited blood and screamed repeatedly.

“Catch him!”

Li Yishuang, who had been waiting for him for a long time, gave an order to have Chen Chao tied up.

Two of the four major princes have been captured.

As long as the last two people are dealt with, the crisis in the palace will be resolved naturally.

“It's your turn!”

Outside the palace, Lu Chen suddenly raised his head, glanced at Lu Song and He Yuanhui in front of him with a sharp gaze, and finally raised his sword to kill him.

Chapter 1820

Lu Chen's plan is very simple, capture the thief first and capture the king first.

When the two sides start fighting, let Lu Tianba and Youlongwei attract most of the firepower first.

Then, he took the opportunity to break into the army and capture the four princes alive.

With his strength, although he cannot kill tens of thousands of troops, there is no big problem in taking the heads of enemy generals from thousands of troops.

In order to prevent the four major princes from being scared away, he retained most of his strength when he first charged into the battle, just to show weakness. It was not until the guards around Chen Chao Kangqiao were lured away that he suddenly broke out and captured the two of them in one fell swoop.

Now that Chen Chao Kangqiao has been captured, only Lu Song and He Yuanhui are left.

As long as the last two princes are dealt with, the army outside the palace will naturally retreat without a fight.

“It’s your turn!”

Lu Chen’s eyes narrowed, and after finding the location of the two of them, he rushed forward with his sword.

“Quick! Stop him!”

“Come on! Come on! Don’t let him get close!”

Lu Song and He Yuanhui roared again and again, looking panicked.

It’s not like they haven’t seen thousands of enemies on the battlefield, but no matter how powerful the warrior is, as long as they are surrounded, they will only die.

However, this assassin is completely different. Not only is he invincible, but he also becomes more courageous as he fights without feeling any fatigue at all.

It is simply unbelievable that an army of tens of thousands could not stop such a person!

This is probably not much more than the Xiliang Sword Immortal Bai Ye back then.

When did the palace have such a master?

“Protect the Marquis!”

Seeing Lu Chen charging straight towards him, no one could stop him. The guards of the two princes immediately formed a defensive formation to try to prevent Lu Chen from approaching.

They didn't have any confidence in killing the assassin, they just hoped to delay it for a little longer so that their prince could escape safely.

“Master Hou! Stop looking! Get in the car quickly!”

Several trusted generals, without any explanation, directly pushed Lu Song and He Yuanhui into the car.

During the siege of the palace, all nearby streets had been blocked.

The vehicle was moving smoothly. As long as the guards persisted for a few minutes, Chen Chao and He Yuanhui could retreat to a safe area and hide.

It would not be too late for the assassin to show up again after he was surrounded and killed by the army.

“Where to go!”

Seeing that the two princes were about to take the opportunity to escape, Lu Chen swung his long sword and immediately turned into a black light and crashed straight into the vehicle.

“Xuanwu Formation!”

Hundreds of guards directly abandoned their swords, took out the shields from their backs, and placed them on their chests, forming a strong human wall.

They knew they couldn't kill the enemy, so they chose to defend with all their strength.

“Get away!”

Lu Chen did not dodge and ran into the wall of people.

He saw his long sword swinging, blood splashing everywhere, and wherever the sword light passed, whether it was a person or a shield, it was directly cut into two.

Although it is still unstoppable, the resistance is obviously greater and the charging efficiency is much lower.

“Hold on! Don't retreat!”

Several guards captains roared and ordered their subordinates to use their lives to delay time.

It's just that the gap in strength is there. Even if they try their best, they can't stop Lu Chen's attack. At most, they can only slow down their pace.

“Drive! Drive quickly!”

In the car, Lu Song and He Yuanhui kept urging.

A general got into the driver's seat, started the engine, and stepped on the accelerator. The vehicle sprang out like a cheetah and quickly moved away from the battlefield.

Seeing Lu Chen getting further and further away, the two people in the car couldn't help but let out a long sigh of relief.

“Damn! It was so dangerous! I almost got caught!”
