

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2531

Married at First Sight Chapter 2531—“Kathryn, don’t be like this. I fell in love with you at first sight. I fell in love with you again. We can have a good chat.”

Leo’s eyes finally fell on the collar of Kathryn’s suit.

This woman grew up in the countryside. Although she was healthy, it did not prevent her from growing into a beauty. She had a good temperament. She was worthy of being the biological daughter of the Farrell family. Her nobility was innate and would not disappear because of the environment in which she grew up.

Kathryn also had a great body that made men want to be with her.

Leo just looked at it like this: his heart was itching and his mouth was drooling. He wanted to throw Kathryn down immediately and get on the bed with her a few times. Kathryn would probably fall in love with him to death.

With this thought in mind, Leo became rude and reached out to touch Kathryn’s face.

Kathryn grabbed his hand and pulled hard.

Leo was unsteady and threw himself forward. He opened his arms and wanted to wrap Kathryn’s arms around him.

Kathryn threw him over the shoulder.

Yes, it was an over-the-shoulder throw.

Kathryn, who looked weak, actually gave him a throw over the shoulder for a grown man.

When Leo was thrown to the ground hard, he felt that his waist was about to break, his arms and legs were dizzy, and he couldn’t realize what happened.

Even if he was slapped and thrown over his shoulder, Kathryn raised her foot and kicked him. She was wearing high heels, and the heels were pointy. When she kicked him, oh my god, it hurt him to death!

Leo wanted to resist, but unfortunately, he lost the opportunity and was kicked hard by Kathryn before he could react. Kathryn kicked him so hard that he could only howl in pain.

Kathryn kicked her face, mouth, hands, feet, and body. She even stepped hard on the back of his hand, causing him to scream like a slaughtered pig.

“Don’t fight, don’t fight... Miss Farrell, I know I was wrong; please don’t fight.” Leo kept begging for mercy.

Holden cheated, Leo!

It was said that Kathryn was weak and could be bullied. Leo could just show up as a bully and eat up Kathryn completely with his bow. If Kathryn lost her virginity to him, she would have no choice but to marry him.

How is this woman weak now? Where can she be bullied?

She was hotter than chili!

Kathryn stopped and saw that his face was bruised, his nose was swollen after being kicked, and the corners of his mouth were bleeding.

She knelt down and asked him with a smile, “Mr. Giguere, do you still want to talk to me?”

Leo: “No. Let’s stop talking.”

He couldn’t handle such a fierce woman.

“Then... why are you still lying here? Waiting for me to help you? Do you want to call x___x for emergency help? Do you want me to pay your medical expenses?”

Leo: “No, no, no need. I’ll leave right away.”

“Get out!”

Kathryn stood up and shouted condescendingly, “Get away as far as you can; if you dare to bother me again, I’ll beat you every time I see you!”

Leo endured it. Feeling the pain all over his body. He hurriedly got up, ran to the elevator door as if running for his life, opened the elevator door, and rushed inside.

Leo rushed in and ran out again.

Kathryn thought Leo didn't want to give up and was going to take action again.

But Leo ran out like a gust of wind, picked up the bouquet of flowers, and ran back to the elevator with the bouquet in his arms.

Even if he had to run for his life, he couldn't leave the bouquet of flowers. How much did a bouquet of flowers cost?

Leo was stingy!

Was Holden really kind to her?

Such a man wanted to blame her. Did he really think she was a paper tiger?

Leo escaped from the Farrell Group's office building as if running for his life.

When he rushed out, he almost bumped into Mr. Fraser, who was waiting for Kathryn to get off work at the door.

Leo didn't stop, got in the car in a hurry, and drove away from the Farrell Group.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2532-From now on, Leo will never step foot here again.

Although the glory and wealth of the Farrell family were very attractive, Leo could not enjoy them.

The daughters of the Farrell family were indeed fierce women!

Mr. Fraser saw Leo running out like he was running for his life and guessed what happened inside. He was a little worried, and just as he was about to call Kathryn, he saw Kathryn walking out slowly.

Mr. Fraser came to pick up Kathryn, but Kathryn did not drive by herself.

"Miss Farrell."

The security guards on duty saw Kathryn coming out and greeted her respectfully.

Kathryn suddenly stopped and looked at the security guards on duty.

The security guards were a little puzzled when Kathryn looked at them like this. One of them asked boldly, "Miss Farrell, did we do anything wrong?"

Kathryn: "Did you see the man who ran out just now?"

The security guards looked at each other's faces.

The security guard said, "Mr. Holden Jenkins brought Mr. Giguere into the company. He said Mr. Giguere was his friend and brought him to the company for a tour."

But Mr. Jenkins said he wanted to go out to buy something and left the company first, and still he had not been returned yet.

Kathryn's eyes were cold, and she said seriously, "From now on, you will not let that person's surname Giguere in without my consent. No matter who brings him in, he will not be allowed to step into the company. Let me know who of you let him in; don't blame me for being rude."

Holden did indeed bring Leo into the company.

What a father to her!

He was cheating on his biological daughter!

It's biased enough.

Shiloh, the fake daughter, was deeply loved by her father, Holden. Holden also supported and encouraged Shiloh to pursue Hayden, hoping that Shiloh could marry into the Queen family and become the eldest mistress.

His biological daughter, Kathryn, was given a lecherous and rogue second-generation ancestor like Leo.

Several security guards looked at each other again. After careful consideration, they felt that Kathryn still had more weight than Holden's words, so they nodded in agreement.

Kathryn then walked out of the company.

Mr. Fraser greeted her and asked with concern, "Miss, what happened? The man just now looks like Leo to me."

Holden arranged for the man to be assigned to Kathryn, and Kathryn also asked him to investigate. Mr. Fraser naturally had the impression and could recognize Leo.

For someone like Leo to dare to touch the woman he wanted to protect for the rest of his life, he was simply seeking death.

Mr. Fraser decided to sneak into Leo's house in the dead of night, put a sack on Leo, and give Leo a severe meal.

If he dared to attack Kathryn, he was seeking death.

Did he think Kathryn was a vegetarian?

"Let's talk about it after we get in the car." Kathryn whispered.

Mr. Fraser welcomed Kathryn into the car.

He was Kathryn's assistant. He often appeared next to Kathryn. It was normal, and others didn't think much about it.

Because this was a form of management for the Farrell family.

Every head of the Farrell family would have a very capable, multi-functional assistant by their side who would be loyal to them for the rest of their life. When they were assigned to the head of the family or their successor, they would only be loyal to their boss for the rest of their lives.

No second thoughts!

After getting in the car, Mr. Fraser handed her the ice cream he bought and said warmly, "Which brand do you like?"

Kathryn took the cup of ice cream, thanked Mr. Fraser, fastened her seat belt, and started eating.

Mr. Fraser stopped asking further questions. When Kathryn started eating ice cream, he silently started the engine, drove the car, and drove Kathryn away from the Farrell Group.