Married at First Sight Chapter 2532-From now on, Leo will never step foot here again.

Although the glory and wealth of the Farrell family were very attractive, Leo could not enjoy them.

The daughters of the Farrell family were indeed fierce women!

Mr. Fraser saw Leo running out like he was running for his life and guessed what happened inside. He was a little worried, and just as he was about to call Kathryn, he saw Kathryn walking out slowly.

Mr. Fraser came to pick up Kathryn, but Kathryn did not drive by herself.

“Miss Farrell.”

The security guards on duty saw Kathryn coming out and greeted her respectfully.

Kathryn suddenly stopped and looked at the security guards on duty.

The security guards were a little puzzled when Kathryn looked at them like this. One of them asked boldly, “Miss Farrell, did we do anything wrong?”

Kathryn: “Did you see the man who ran out just now?”

The security guards looked at each other’s faces.

The security guard said, “Mr. Holden Jenkins brought Mr. Giguere into the company. He said Mr. Giguere was his friend and brought him to the company for a tour.”

But Mr. Jenkins said he wanted to go out to buy something and left the company first, and still he had not been returned yet.

Kathryn’s eyes were cold, and she said seriously, “From now on, you will not let that person’s surname Giguere in without my consent. No matter who brings him in, he will not be allowed to step into the company. Let me know who of you let him in; don’t blame me for being rude.”

Holden did indeed bring Leo into the company.

What a father to her!

He was cheating on his biological daughter!

It's biased enough.

Shiloh, the fake daughter, was deeply loved by her father, Holden. Holden also supported and encouraged Shiloh to pursue Hayden, hoping that Shiloh could marry into the Queen family and become the eldest mistress.

His biological daughter, Kathryn, was given a lecherous and rogue second-generation ancestor like Leo.

Several security guards looked at each other again. After careful consideration, they felt that Kathryn still had more weight than Holden's words, so they nodded in agreement.

Kathryn then walked out of the company.

Mr. Fraser greeted her and asked with concern, "Miss, what happened? The man just now looks like Leo to me."

Holden arranged for the man to be assigned to Kathryn, and Kathryn also asked him to investigate. Mr. Fraser naturally had the impression and could recognize Leo.

For someone like Leo to dare to touch the woman he wanted to protect for the rest of his life, he was simply seeking death.

Mr. Fraser decided to sneak into Leo's house in the dead of night, put a sack on Leo, and give Leo a severe meal.

If he dared to attack Kathryn, he was seeking death.

Did he think Kathryn was a vegetarian?

"Let's talk about it after we get in the car." Kathryn whispered.

Mr. Fraser welcomed Kathryn into the car.

He was Kathryn's assistant. He often appeared next to Kathryn. It was normal, and others didn't think much about it.

Because this was a form of management for the Farrell family.

Every head of the Farrell family would have a very capable, multi-functional assistant by their side who would be loyal to them for the rest of their life. When they were assigned to the head of the family or their successor, they would only be loyal to their boss for the rest of their lives.

No second thoughts!

After getting in the car, Mr. Fraser handed her the ice cream he bought and said warmly, "Which brand do you like?"

Kathryn took the cup of ice cream, thanked Mr. Fraser, fastened her seat belt, and started eating.

Mr. Fraser stopped asking further questions. When Kathryn started eating ice cream, he silently started the engine, drove the car, and drove Kathryn away from the Farrell Group.
