

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2504

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2504-David's name resounded throughout Amber City.

Anyone who dared kill a Campbell family member, even a direct descendant not worth much attention, would end up with serious consequences. Not everyone could bear it.

Amber City, the Campbell family.

The moment he learned of Perry's death, the Campbell family's person in charge of The Spirit Cage immediately slammed his hand on the table.

"What? Say that again! What happened to Perry?" Egan asked loudly.

"Lord Egan, Master Perry is dead. He was killed by a man named David Lidell. Miss Fabiola of the Marche family was also killed along with Master Perry." the kneeling servant carefully reported what just happened.

Everyone knew this was a big deal.

The two main characters of the Campbell and Marche families, who were about to marry, had died together in The Spirit Cage.

Wasn't this a slap to the faces of the two major families?

One could foresee that the man named David Lidell would surely bear the wrath of the Campbell and Marche families.

Unless David's support was on the same level as the

Campbell and Marche families, he would have a miserable ending.

Even with the same level of strength, it might not be easy facing the joint pressure of the two major families.

Only the five Leila rulers would dare to ignore the two major families in Leila.

"Are you sure what you said is true? Not only Perry died but even Miss Fabiola of the Marche family died too?" Egan asked in shock.

“Yes! Lord Egan, this is the news from Master Perry and Miss Fabiola Marche’s guards. So it’s definitely real.”

After Egan confirmed the deaths of Perry and Fabiola, he stood there speechlessly for a long time.

After a minute or so, he suddenly cursed angrily, “Perry, you little bastard! The Campbell family and the Marche family have just confirmed the marriage, and now the bride and groom are dead? Moreover, they died in The Spirit Cage! How should I, the person in charge, explain to the head and the Marche family? They are bloody framing me! They should just die in Leila, why did they die here?”

The moment Egan learned of the deaths of Perry and Fabiola, his immediate thought was not how to avenge Perry, but how to explain to the Campbell and Marche families.

Egan was not too interested in a hedonist like Perry.

That kid could not survive in Leila so he came to The Spirit

Cage to cause trouble to Egan.

Now, he not only lost his life but even Miss Fabiola of the Marche family also.

As the head of the Campbell family in The Spirit Cage, Egan must be responsible.

For him, this was a complete disaster.

If Perry was the only one who died, at worst, the Campbell family would avenge him and find another direct descendant of the Campbell family to marry the young mistress of the Marche family. i

Yet, even the young mistress of the Marche family was dead.

There would be no marriage now!

If this matter was not handled well, Egan was afraid that it would offend the Marche family.

Egan felt tormented.

He was minding his business and now he had to take care of this huge kerfuffle.

Who would think that someone in Amber City would dare to kill the direct descendant of the Campbell family and the young mistress of the Marche family?

The person who came to report was still kneeling on the ground. He did not dare to say anything. Of course, he too knew this was very troublesome.

“Were there a lot of people at the scene?” Egan asked.

“Yes! Now, almost everyone in Amber City knows.”

“What about the Marche family’s guards?” Egan continued asking.

“After Master Perry and Miss Fabiola died, David did not kill them. He even asked the guards to go back to report to their families. He said he’ll be waiting at Jumbo Court and if anyone wants revenge, they should go find him. After that, the Marche family’s guards all went back to Leila from the descending point. I think they should have gone back to deliver the news.”

“What about our people are at the scene?”

“They’re outside.”

“Get one of them inside. I want to know everything that happened.”

‘Yes, Lord Egan!’