

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2511

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2511-As soon as Egan entered Jumbo Court, he saw Arian, the captain of the Amber City law enforcement team, talking and laughing with a young man, while drinking.

A middle-aged man next to them kept pouring wine for the two.

He did not need to think to know that the young man was David who killed Perry and Miss Fabiola of the Marche family.

After staring at David for a second or two, Egan continued walking.

When the three noticed Egan, they all looked over.

When Egan got close, Arian stood up, clasped his fists, and said politely, "Greetings, Deputy Mayor Egan."

The Birch, Campbell, and Vidales families of Amber City would take turns serving as the mayor.

When one of them was the mayor, the other two would be deputy mayors.

According to logic, the captain of the law enforcement team must obey the command of the deputy mayor.

However, to highlight the authority of the mayor, the law enforcement team would only listen to the words of the mayor.

Therefore, although the deputy mayor had more authority than the captain of the law enforcement team, he still could not command the law enforcement team.

This was also implemented with the consent of the Birch, Campbell, and Vidales families.

"Captain Longer, why don't you introduce this young man to me?" Egan asked, looking at David.

"Deputy Mayor Egan, this is Master David Lidell.

“Master David, this is Egan Campbell, the head of the Campbell family, one of the three major families in Amber City, and also the deputy mayor of Amber City.”

Arian introduced the two to each other.

‘That’s it? What about his other identities? Do you only know his name?’ Egan looked at Arian suspiciously.

“Deputy Mayor, it’s not that I don’t want to introduce more, but I genuinely don’t know the specific identity of Master David, only his name.” Arian smiled bitterly.

He genuinely only knew David’s name.

He did not have any other information, so he could not give Egan a detailed introduction.

Naturally, Egan did not believe that.

He thought to himself, ‘You don’t even know who he is and yet you dare to confront the Campbell family in public for this kid?’

‘And now you’re eating and drinking with him as if nothing happened.’

‘Do you think I’m a fu*king fool?’

“Arian, I know I’m not the mayor yet, so I can’t command you, the captain of the law enforcement team, but Salem’s time as mayor is almost up! And the Campbell family will serve as the next mayor of Amber City so are you sure you want to go against me? Do you not want to be the captain of the law enforcement team anymore?” Egan said in a neutral tone.

“Deputy Mayor Egan, you misunderstood. If I know more about Master David’s identity that I did not say, I will immediately resign as the captain of the law enforcement team and not wait until the day you’re mayor.”

Arian was anxious.

He definitely did not dare to offend Egan as Egan was fundamentally different from Perry.

One was in charge of the Campbell family in The Spirit Cage and a senior in the Campbell family.

The other was a direct descendant of the Campbell family who was not taken very seriously.

There was absolutely no comparison between the two.

“Deputy Mayor Egan, if you have any questions, just ask me directly! Don’t make things hard for Captain Longer. He really doesn’t know who I am so it’s useless to ask him,” David interrupted suddenly.

Upon hearing this, Egan shifted his gaze to David and began to scrutinize this daring kid.

However, after he scanned David from head to toe, he did not see anything off with him. David was no different from an ordinary person.

However, no problem was often the biggest problem.

How could a boy who dared to kill the Campbell and Marche families’ direct descendants be an ordinary person?

He must be concealing himself by some special means.

Based on this, Egan concluded that David’s identity was not simple.

Those with hidden abilities were extremely rare, whether they were treasures or secret techniques.

At the same time, Egan was also searching for the powerhouse hiding beside David.

The result surprised him a lot because he found nothing no matter how he searched.

How could this person hide it from him?

This was very tricky indeed.

Egan did not dare to do anything recklessly until he found what was hidden.