

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2525

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2525-Agatha and the powerhouses of the March family appeared at the descending point in Amber City of The Spirit Cage.

Then, the people from the Campbell family showed up too.

Now, the descending point of Amber City was very crowded.

The crowd was in a very long line.

As one of the eight main cities in The Spirit Cage, it had a very big descending point, so it could also hold a lot of people.

However, more people were living in Amber City.

Everyone wanted to run away so there would definitely be congestion for a while.

Of course, not everyone had to get in line.

There would be special privileges everywhere.

People like the Birch, Campbell, and Vidales families of Amber City could enter and leave The Spirit Cage at any time.

They had special passages that were separated from the normal passages, so they did not have to get in line.

The forces were below the three families also did not need to get in line.

They were all categorized according to strength.

The people who were in line were all ordinary folks at the bottom of society.

Once Egan learned that the people from the Marche family were here, he went to the descending point in advance to wait for them.

When he spotted Agatha walking out, he quickly went up to say, "Egan from the Campbell family greets you, Lady Agatha."

“Cough cough. Where is the murderer? Where is he?” Agatha coughed twice before asking.

“Lady Agatha, the murderer David is in the mayor’s residence now. He’s been in there for half a day and he still hasn’t come out. As for what he’s doing, we don’t know as our people can’t go in. However, Mayor Salem was the one who personally received him when he went in.”

“Are you saying that the murderer who killed the direct descendant of my family is colluding with the Birch family?”

“It’s not entirely impossible.” Egan did not forget to dig a hole for the Birch family at this moment.

“Hmph!”

Agatha was furious.

“Come, take me to the mayor’s residence now. I want to see who’s so bold as to kill someone from my family and who’s so bold as to protect the murderer.”

“Yes! After you, Lady Agatha,” Egan answered carefully.

The old woman in front of him was a partial Overlord.

Aside from the five Leila rulers, she was already at the top so Egan could never offend her.

Egan was taking the lead in front while Agatha and the Marche family’s powerhouses followed behind him. Meanwhile, the Campbell family was at the end of the team.

This team consisted of thousands of people. They marched quickly and mightily toward Amber City’s mayor’s residence.

At that moment, they caused a huge sensation in Amber City.

Everyone knew what this represented.

The battle was about to begin.

It would be too late if they did not leave now.

Soon, countless people swarmed to the descending point to scramble to be the first to leave The Spirit Cage.

Of course, some people were not afraid of death and were confident enough to stay. They wanted to see who would win or lose in this battle.

Amber City's descending point could not handle such huge traffic.

So, a lot of people impatiently ran to the forest surrounding Amber City.

The center of the city was almost empty.

The streets were as quiet as a ghost town.

At this moment, Salem also received the news in the mayor's residence.

When he heard that thousands of powerhouses from the Marche and Campbell families were coming, he had a bad feeling.

It had only been half a day since David went into seclusion, so according to the appointed time, there was still half a day left!