I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2532-It was Salem's last resort: to fight while being injured so that he could damage Egan's heart and reduce his combat effectiveness.

The Spirit Cage was nothing compared to the real world.

The means and secret techniques that a physical body could use were basically useless to the soul.

The soul only had one attack and its power was limited.

That was why Elora had to restore her body in the first place.

The same person would have very different strengths with or without a body.

Egan was hit by Salem's point, but it was not very powerful.

However, he got a good location as the heart was one of the most vulnerable places in the human body.

If the heart was damaged, one's combat effectiveness would also drop sharply.

Salem's point at least caused Egan to lose more than 50% of his combat power.

However, this was not the end.

Just when Egan steadied himself.

A figure approached him quickly.

It was too late for him to react, so he could only make a hasty move.

"Boom!"

After a loud bang, Egan retreated a dozen steps again.

Originally, his heart was injured, and now, he was caught offguard. So, it must have taken a toll on him. A trace of blood flowed from the corner of his mouth.

The attacker also staggered backward from the shockwave.

It was none other than Arian who was watching the battle from the sidelines.

He knew that he could not intervene in the battle, so he had been accumulating energy and finding opportunities.

He was waiting for the critical moment to give Egan a fatal blow.

However, he underestimated Egan too much.

Even if Egan was injured, he would not be so easy to deal with.

Usually Arian would never dare to sneak attack Egan.

After all, there was a clear difference in strength.

However, the situation was different today.

First, Egan had been injured by Salem, so his strength had been greatly reduced and the gap in strength between them had narrowed.

Secondly, since the other party wanted to kill him, he could not just do nothing and obediently wait for death, right?

That was not Arian's character.

No matter how powerful the enemy was, they had to be prepared for retaliation if they wanted to take Arian's life.

Even if he could not beat Egan, he still had to make them pay a little.

Maybe Egan never thought that Arian would dare to attack him, so in the end, Arian gave him a huge surprise.

Not only did Arian take action, he even sneak attacked him at the most critical moment which caught Egan off guard and worsened his injuries.

"Arian Longer, very good!" Egan stared at Arian, gnashing his teeth.

His angry expression made him look as if he wished to tear the other party alive.

“Ari, you... Gosh...” Salem saw that it was Arian who was attacking Egan and wanted to say something, but in the end, he could not say anything and only sighed.

He understood what Arian had in his mind now, and he also understood what the other party was doing.

If he took action, he would die. If he did not, he would also die.

Anyway, the result was the same, so it would be better to take action. At least, it would hurt the enemy a little.

“Mayor, I know you’ve done your best. I am very grateful for you. Even if I die today, it just means that my life should end here.”

Arian knew Salem had used all of his energy. After he said that, he turned to face Egan and cursed directly, “Egan, you don’t need to look at me like that or utter that nonsense. You wanted to fu*king kill me so do you expect me to crane my neck for you to chop down? I don’t care how strong and how powerful your background is. Even if I die, I will make things hard for you too!”

He had gone all out.

If Salem had not made a move just now, he would have been killed by Egan.

Of course, Arian would not be kind to someone who wanted to kill him even if the other party was stronger.
