

LET ME SEE THE REAL YOU

Chapter 16

Mu Yangyang did not think that a man with such a high social standing would be so pleasant.

She was stunned for a moment before she answered, “I— I'm Mu Yangyang.”

This time, it was not a show; she was indeed surprised.

“Make yourself at home. You've married into the Mo family, so you're a part of the Mo family, and you're my daughter-in-law now.”

Mo Qingfeng said as he poured a cup of water for her.

During her time with the Mu family, Mu Liyan had never bothered looking at her, and Xiao Chuhe's attention was on her two other children.

She had never been treated kindly by any of her elders before. For once, she actually felt pampered.

Mu Yangyang took the cup of water and said,

“Thank you.”

“You can call me 'father' as Chenhao does.” Mo Qingfeng said as he watched her.

Although she did look quite ugly and her reactions were slow, she was polite. She was a simple and kind girl.

“...Father.” Mu Yangyang hesitated as she called him.

A smile appeared on Mo Qingfeng's face, and his tone held a hint of apology, “It's been hard for you to not have a wedding with Chenhao despite marrying him. Today was supposed to be the day you return to the family house with Chenhao, but Chenhao isn't too willing to return here because of his mother. I hope you can talk him into it.”

The Mo family heritage had been there for centuries, and their tradition was that all three generations tend to live under the same roof.

It was said that the Mo family mansion was priceless. Once, someone tried to buy the mansion with hundreds of billions, but they ended up being a joke in the upper-class society.

And as for Mo Chenhao's mother, Mu Yangyang had indeed heard something about her.

Ten years ago, both Mo Chenhao and his mother were kidnapped.

However, they had only managed to save Mo Chenhao.

There were many sayings about what happened to Mo Chenhao's mother.

Some said that she had died, some said that she hadn't, and some even said that she had been defiled by the kidnappers...

Mu Yangyang looked up at Mo Qingfeng and hesitated before saying, "But... I haven't seen him... until now."

Her voice trailed off slightly at the end of the sentence.

At that moment, she realized that Mo Qingfeng's expression had changed when he heard her words.

After that, Mo Qingfeng stopped asking about Mo Chenhao and asked her about her daily life instead.

Mu Yangyang had answered all of it honestly. She spoke slowly but seemed very sincere.

When she left, Mo Qingfeng instructed Leng Xu to send her back to Mo Chenhao's villa.

After some time, Leng Xu dropped her off at the entrance of the villa. He departed only when he saw her entered the house.

Suddenly, Mu Yangyang realized that Mo Qingfeng seemed to be testing her waters.

When she thought further about it, she felt that it did not seem right.

It felt more like he was testing Mo Chenhao.

Although she had not seen Mo Chenhao, she could sense that the father and son did not seem to have a good relationship.

Mo Qingfeng had said that Mo Chenhao felt uncomfortable with him because of his mother, but his mother was no longer around due to the kidnapping over ten years ago. Was it because of the kidnapping that Mo Chenhao and Mo Qingfeng no longer had a good relationship?

“Ma’am.”

The bodyguard's voice made Mu Yangyang return to her senses, and she looked over at him.

This bodyguard looked very familiar. He was the one who had picked her up at the Mu family's estate.

The bodyguard lowered his head slightly and said, “Young Master wants to see you.”

Mu Yangyang thought that she had misheard. She was stunned for a second before she said, “Young Master? Mo Chenhao?”

“Yes, Young Master is waiting for you in the study room.”
