

The Mans Decree Chapter 2641 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2641-Kai wasn't scared to face those demon beasts because he had Golden Dragon's True Form. In other words, he had the aura of a phoenix and draconic essence in his body.

All of a sudden, the aura within Kai's body burst forth, and a golden dragon gradually manifested behind Kai.

In the next moment, the roar of a dragon echoed in the air.

The python that was dashing toward Kai saw the golden dragon and was stunned. Its eyes were even filled with terror.

After that, it immediately turned around and fled. The python disappeared in the blink of an eye, and the gemstone shining on Octo Ruler was also extinguished.

Silius froze on the spot as he was dumbfounded by the sudden turn of events. What on earth happened? Why did the python retreat?

At that moment, Ghaylen and the others, who were on the high platform, were just as astonished.

"Mr. Chance has a golden dragon behind him! That's not a real dragon, is it?" Zebediah was in utter disbelief.

Ghaylen kept mum and looked at Kai in stupefaction.

Seeing that Bilius was frozen to the spot, Ebenezer shouted anxiously, "Bilius, what are you doing? That golden dragon is nothing but an illusion! Are you scared of it?"

The rules of the challenge said that the individuals outside of the arena weren't allowed to give tips to the challengers or help the challengers in the arena.

Yet, Ebenezer had just blatantly broken the rules.

Upon hearing Ebenezer's reminder, Bilius came back to his senses. However, the latter didn't have time to react to a blinding white flash that zipped through the air.

Slap!

In the next second, Bilius felt his cheek burning, and shortly after, half of his face had swelled up.

As it turned out, Kai had used his Dragonslayer Sword to slap Bilius across the face.

If Kai had slashed Bilius' throat instead of slapping him, the latter would've died there and then.

Obviously, Kai had shown Bilius mercy. If Bilius were to surrender, the former would gladly let Bilius live.

However, Bilius' face was swollen upon receiving the slap. He was too prideful to admit defeat. After all, he was humiliated because there were so many people watching.

Ebenез was also embarrassed. Livid, he roared, "Bilius, what's the matter with you? You're utter rubbish!"

Bilius became even angrier when he heard that. Hence, three green gemstones on his Octo Ruler lit up instantly.

Within moments, a cloud of black mist rose in the air, and under the mist were three demon beasts. Just like that, those demon beasts appeared in the arena.

The demon beasts roared ferociously. Not only did they have sharp claws and fangs, but they also carried a metallic stench of blood on their bodies.

Those demon beasts appeared to have been caged up in the Octo Ruler for a long time. They were all glaring at Kai with their shiny green eyes when they were summoned.

"Kai, I'm going to tear you to shreds! Bite him! Kill him!" Bilius roared through his gritted teeth.

With that, Bilius ordered the demon beasts to dash toward Kai.

Kai flashed a faint smile when he saw the three ferocious demon beasts rushing toward him. Right then, a golden light began radiating from his body, and the aura of the Power of Dragons and Phoenixes was unleashed at once.

The aura soon enveloped the entire arena. When those ferocious demon beasts sensed the aura, they froze on the spot. Soon, their eyes were also filled with fear.

“Get down!” Kai shouted at the demon beasts.

Upon hearing that, the demon beasts trembled all over and lay flat on the ground. The aura Kai was exuding was of a celestial beast, so that was why the demon beasts were terrified.

Bilius’ jaw dropped wide open as he was dumbfounded again when he saw Kai controlling the demon beasts with ease.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2642 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2642-The crowd was also stupefied, and they were all staring in disbelief with their eyes widened. Those demon beasts looked bloodthirsty just moments ago! Why did they become so tamed all of a sudden? Why are they obeying Kai? This is unbelievable!

Even Ebenezer and Ghaylen were flabbergasted, and they couldn’t understand what was happening before their eyes. The demon beasts caged in Octo Ruler are all extremely strong and brutal. Heck, only demon beasts of that caliber are qualified to be caged in Octo Ruler! For that reason, Octo Ruler is considered a divine weapon! Now, these ruthless demon beasts are obeying Kai! What on earth is happening?

“Go! Bite that idiot!” Kai instructed the demon beasts while pointing at Bilius.

The three demon beasts nodded, turned around, and charged toward Bilius mercilessly.

At that moment, Bilius was still in a daze, and he only regained his senses when he caught a whiff of the metallic stench of blood approaching.

“Retreat!” Bilius immediately waved Octo Ruler in the air. The gemstone lit up, and those three demon beasts were again caged up in Octo Ruler.

Bilius was sweating bullets. I was almost eaten alive by those demon beasts!

Right after he wiped the cold sweat off his forehead, he saw a white ray of light flash across his eyes.

Slap!

Once again, Kai slapped Bilius with his sword. The latter's face was so swollen that one could hardly recognize him.

"Argh!" Bilius roared and wanted to attack Kai with his Octo Ruler.

Slap! Slap! Slap!

Before Bilius could launch his attack, he was slapped by Kai repeatedly.

Needless to say, that scene caught everyone off guard.

Prior to that, everyone had no doubt Bilius could defeat Kai. After all, Bilius' cultivation level was significantly higher than Kai's, and the former had Octo Ruler in his grip. Absolutely no one had expected to see Kai winning the fight that comfortably.

Soon, Bilius' face turned into a mess of bleeding flesh.

Ebenez's face fell when he saw that. This is humiliating!

"Master, I didn't expect Mr. Chance to be so strong. At first, I was really worried about him!" Zebediah exclaimed when he saw Kai dominating Bilius.

"This isn't what I had expected, either. Who would've thought that Mr. Chance could be this powerful?" Ghaylen was equally astonished.

Sigurd, on the other hand, was keeping mum because he had fought Kai before. When we fought, I almost died!

"Are you surrendering? If you kneel before me and surrender now, I'll let you live!" Kai shouted at Bilius.

"I'll never surrender!" Bilius was enraged after getting slapped by Kai repeatedly.

A second later, Bilius unleashed a wave of oppressive aura, and rays of light descended from the sky and shone on him.

"I want you dead! I want to kill you!" Bilius thundered. His eyes were filled with murderous intent when he glared at Kai.

Afterward, all eight gemstones on Bilius' Octo Ruler lit up at once.

Everyone at the scene was dumbstruck when that happened.

Naturally, they all knew what it meant when they saw all the gemstones lit up.

“Stop messing around, Bilius! Keep Octo Ruler aside!” Ebenezer panicked when he realized that Bilius was summoning the ultimate demon beast. No one has ever seen the ultimate demon beast, so we don't know how strong it really is! If things go south, Emerald Cauldron Sect could be wiped out!

At that moment, Bilius was no longer in his right mind because he was completely clouded by fury. I must kill Kai!

As Bilius' hair fluttered, an enormous black vortex appeared above the arena, devouring the cloud of black mist.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2643 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2643-The sky seemed as though it was about to get torn apart. A roar then rang out, and a figure soon appeared in the vortex.

There, a several-meters tall demon beast resembling a horse with golden horns gradually landed in the arena.

When the demon beast made its appearance, the atmosphere in the air turned incredibly tense.

In the next second, the demon beast howled and created shockwaves in the air. The people affected by the shockwaves quickly clenched their hearts as though they had suffered heavy injuries.

“Haha! T-This is the ultimate demon beast in Octo Ruler! It's so strong!” Bilius laughed out loud when he laid eyes on the unnamed demon beast.

As for the others, they were nervous and excited at the same time. That was also their first time seeing the demon beast.

On the high platform, Ebenezer, Ghaylen, and the rest glanced at the demon beast with grim expressions on their faces.

Although Ebanez and Ghaylen opposed each other, neither wanted to see Emerald Cauldron Sect get wiped out. However, the demon beast before their eyes had an exceptionally powerful aura. If the demon beast were to go berserk, they might be unable to control it.

Ebanez couldn't help letting out a sigh when he gazed at Bilius, who seemed to have lost his rationality.

At that moment, Kai, with Dragonslayer Sword in his grip, was frowning as he looked at the demon beast before his eyes. The auras the elders of Emerald Cauldron Sect exude is nothing compared to the aura this demon beast is exuding.

Bilius knew Kai was frightened when he saw the expression on the latter's face.

"Kai, you're not leaving this arena today!" Bilius guffawed.

With that, Bilius flipped his hand over to reveal an astrolabe for an arcane array. To everyone's surprise, he crushed it to pieces the next moment.

Boom!

Clouds of black mist were released from the astrolabe, and the mist soon enveloped the arena.

Next, pillars of light appeared around the arena and surrounded it.

Ghaylen rose to his feet immediately and furrowed his brows. "Is that the Slaughter Trap Formation?"

Initially, Ghaylen thought he could lend Kai a hand if needed. Yet, he could no longer do so because Bilius had surrounded the arena with Slaughter Trap Formation.

Everyone at the scene was also shocked. That astrolabe can cast an arcane array, so it must cost a fortune! Who would've thought that Bilius could bring himself to use it?

The arena was completely surrounded by murderous intent. If anyone were to approach it, they would be killed by the Slaughter Trap Formation instantly.

“Master, Mr. Chance is in danger, isn’t he? How did Bilius get his hands on that astrolabe?” Zebediah looked very concerned.

Upon hearing that, Ghaylen shifted his gaze toward Ebenezer right away. Only Ebenezer can locate and own that astrolabe. After all, he controls Emerald Cauldron Sect’s resources! He must’ve abused his position and bought that astrolabe with Emerald Cauldron Sect’s resources!

Ebenezer saw the look in Ghaylen’s eyes and explained, “Don’t look at me, Ghaylen. I have no idea what’s with the astrolabe! Bilius had been sent out for several years now, and I wouldn’t know what he had been doing out there!”

“With Slaughter Trap Formation outside the arena and the ultimate demon beast inside, I think Mr. Chance is in hot water.” Sigurd, who had been keeping mum all the while, couldn’t help frowning. If I get close to Slaughter Trap Formation, I’ll die!

Kai had Sigurd’s bodily spirit, so if the former were to die, Sigurd would follow suit. Although Sigurd couldn’t afford to let Kai die, the former was too weak to do anything to help.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2644 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2644-“With Slaughter Trap Formation around the arena, you won’t be getting any help from others. You’re dying today!” Bilius’ lips curved into a malicious grin, and he slowly floated into the air. The ultimate demon beast is in the arena, and Slaughter Trap Formation surrounds the arena. There’s no way Kai can survive!

Kai examined Slaughter Trap Formation. I can easily counter this arcane array. What worries me the most is the demon beast in front of me! The arena is so cramped. If I fight the demon beast head-on, I might end up losing. I need to be agile and mindful of my positioning! If the demon beast proves too hard to handle, I can still retreat to safety.

“Why are you so proud of your puny arcane array?” Kai sneered and shot a few rays of light out from his fingertips.

The rays of light struck the core of the arcane array.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Following the banging sounds, Slaughter Trap Formation trembled violently.

Kai then gently waved his hand, and a gust of wind blew past. In an instant, the arcane array vanished.

Everyone at the scene was utterly stunned by what they had just witnessed.

Bilius' triumphant expression from before had turned into a look of disbelief in an instant.

At the same time, Ebenezer and Ghaylen were also caught by surprise.

Evidently, Kai had left them stunned once again.

In truth, the Slaughter Trap Formation wasn't a strong arcane array. It was just that everyone in Emerald Cauldron Sect was an alchemist, and they didn't know a thing about arcane arrays.

Before that, they thought brute force was the only way to break an arcane array. Conversely, mages knew that an arcane array could be destroyed as long as they could locate and destroy the core.

Thus, the crowd at the scene couldn't believe their eyes when they saw Kai destroying Slaughter Trap Formation with ease. Kai has a resilient physique, incredible medical skills, and knowledge of magecrafts! He's such a well-rounded talent!

"Master, is there anything Mr. Chance isn't capable of?" Zebediah's eyes went wide in admiration.

Ghaylen didn't respond to that because he was just as baffled. Does Mr. Chance know everything?

Meanwhile, Bilius had used up all his tricks, and the ultimate demon beast in the arena was his only hope of defeating Kai.

"Kill him! Kill him!" Bilius demanded the demon beast charge toward Kai.

The demon beast roared in anger and shot a ray of golden light out of its golden horns.

The golden ray shot toward Kai like a bullet.

Seeing that, Kai waved his Dragonslayer Sword before himself to form a shield. Simultaneously, his Golem Body shone extremely brightly.

Kai maximized all his strengths and unleashed the full potential of the Power Of Three.

Boom!

The golden light crashed into Kai's body, creating a glow even brighter than the sun.

The others at the scene had to shut their eyes and exude their auras to shield themselves from the explosion's aftermath.

The glow then slowly dimmed to reveal a dismantled arena.

Bilius floated toward the demon beast and stood on it.

When the dust settled, Kai was nowhere to be seen.

"Haha! You were foolish to fight me!" Bilius burst out laughing. That strike reduced Kai to dust!

The others were staring blankly at the arena. Only Bilius is left in the arena! Kai has disappeared!

"Oh, no... Did Mr. Chance die?" Zebediah knitted his brows concernedly.

Ghaylen also had a solemn expression on his face because he was relying on Kai to heal Viola. If Kai were to die, Viola would never wake up again.

Moreover, Kai was Ghaylen's savior. The latter felt extremely guilty when he thought Kai had perished before his eyes. Be that as it may, there was nothing I could do to help him. I'll be killed before I can even get close!

The Mans Decree Chapter 2645 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2645-"Ghaylen, it's over. There's no way he could have survived that. Who could have imagined that the Octo Ruler was this powerful? It could summon the ultimate demon beast and crush us with such ease!" Ebenez exclaimed triumphantly.

Ghaylen remained still. He refused to believe that Kai could be vanquished so effortlessly. Yet, Kai's silhouette had vanished without a trace. How was that possible if he hadn't been obliterated into ashes?

"Mr. Chance is not dead." Sigurd spoke, at last, his voice slow and deliberate.

He knew Kai was alive, for his bodily spirit resided in Kai's hands. If he was truly dead, Sigurd knew he would now be a mere corpse. The fact that he remained unscathed was undeniable proof that Kai still lived.

"He's not dead? Then where is he?" Ghaylen urgently asked.

Just then, a sudden cry rang out. "Look. What is that?"

All eyes turned to see what seemed like a glistening golden meteor streaking toward them from the edge of the sky, moving at a speed beyond comprehension.

As the golden light drew closer, the crowd gasped, realizing that it was a man.

"Mr. Chance! That's Mr. Chance!" Zebediah exclaimed, excitement overtaking him.

Kai, adorned in golden armor and hovering in mid-air, appeared before them. His face was pallid, and blood stained his lips. Clearly, he was injured.

However, the fact that he had survived the horrific attack stunned all present.

Silence fell upon the crowd, their mouths agape in shock.

After all, even Ghaylen and Ebenezer might not have withstood such a blow, yet, Kai, a mere Manifestor cultivator, had survived it!

Bilius' smug satisfaction was replaced by astonishment as he widened his eyes at Kai.

He could hardly believe that not only Kai was alive, but the latter also seemed barely wounded.

"You... you haven't been obliterated into ashes?" Bilius asked incredulously.

"A puny demon beast, and yet you think it would reduce me to ashes? How amusing!" Kai sneered, disdain in his eyes.

“Enough with your pretense,” Bilius growled. “You’re wounded. I don’t believe you can withstand another attack.”

With that, he commanded the ultimate demon beast to strike again.

This time, Kai surely can’t withstand the blow!

Kai put away his Dragonslayer Sword and Golem Body, knowing they would be useless against the ultimate demon beast.

Slowly, he closed his eyes, and the draconic essence on his chest began to flicker ominously.

Ghaylen paled at the sight. He knew that the injured Kai wouldn’t be able to withstand another hit, so he leaped up to rescue him.

Ebenez, as if anticipating this, grabbed Ghaylen’s wrist and demanded, “What do you think you’re doing, Ghaylen? Aren’t you going to stay here and watch the good show unfold with me?”

“Since there is already a clear winner, surely, there is no need to go such lengths as to kill him? I wish to call for a stop,” Ghaylen implored.

“Stop?” Ebenez smirked. “Too late to back out now. How could we stop now? It was you guys who suggested that we have a death duel.”

“Ebenez, we are of the same sect. Is there a need for a death duel? I hope—”

“Enough of your d*mn prattle. Sit down, or don’t blame me for being rude,” Ebenez cut him off, his face turning cold.

Desperation filled Ghaylen’s eyes as he looked at Kai, unmoving and defenseless in the air. He knew that Kai must have given up on any notion of defending himself. Hence, he hurriedly said, “Ebenez, in that case, I’ll have no choice...”

To save Kai, Ghaylen had to act.

He aimed a palm at Ebenez, hoping to force him back.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2646 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2646-However, Ebenezer did not yield and struck out a punch to counter Ghaylen.

“How dare you raise a hand against me, your senior, for the sake of a mere whelp. I will report your insubordination, and you will be duly punished!”

Ebenezer’s and Ghaylen’s palms clashed violently.

Ghaylen was sent spiraling backward, his body propelled by the visible superiority of Ebenezer’s might.

After all, Ebenezer controlled the resources of Emerald Cauldron Sect, and those closest to the well would get the water first. His resources for cultivation far surpassed Ghaylen’s, making their disparity in power an expected occurrence.

Ghaylen’s defeat sent him reeling, leaving him helpless as he turned his eyes toward Kai, unable to aid him any longer.

However, Kai was seemingly unafraid of the impending calamity that would befall him. As he looked at the ultimate demon beast that was charging toward him, the draconic essence on his chest emitted a pulsating turquoise light.

Soon, from the midst of this mystical glow, there emerged a serpentine azure dragon, its length spanning dozens of feet, its eyes aflame, emitting roars that resonated like distant thunder.

Those who witnessed this spectacle drew in sharp breaths, the sight chilling them to their very core.

If Kai’s previously summoned golden dragon had appeared mighty and awe-inspiring, it still seemed but an illusion to the onlookers.

This azure dragon was something entirely different. With scales and wings as tangible as reality, it seemed not a mere conjuration but a true embodiment of a mighty beast.

Above Kai, the dragon circled, its roars bursting forth like waves, causing both Bilius and the ultimate demon beast to momentarily falter.

The ultimate demon beast hesitated, its eyes flashing with emotion too complex to name.

“Kill it! Kill it!” Bilius yelled, frustrated at the ultimate demon beast’s hesitation.

At Bilius’ urging, the demon beast let out a growl and charged without fear.

The azure dragon reacted, its mouth spewing a ghostly blue flame that instantly engulfed the attacking demon beast.

The demon beast howled within the fire, its golden horn radiating a blinding light that extinguished the flames with a magical pulse.

Bilius’ face was aglow with triumph while Kai’s brow furrowed.

He hadn’t anticipated such ferocity from the demon beast.

As the demon beast reached Kai, the azure dragon roared, dragging Kai in a flash, narrowly escaping the attack.

“Do you think you can flee so easily? Not that easy! Go after him!” Bilius ordered the demon beast to charge in Kai’s direction.

The demon beast’s golden horn released beams of light that struck the dragon, causing it to scream in agony. Yet still, the dragon soared into the heavens, pulling Kai with it.

Kai’s face tightened with worry. He knew that he would be killed by the demon beast eventually if he stayed put.

Left with no other choice, Kai drew Dragon Bell from Storage Ring, revealing his abilities and magical items sooner than he had wished.

However, the gravity of the situation had warranted him to do so.

“This time, Kai will not escape. I didn’t expect him to be able to summon a real dragon. Then again, the dragon is too weak...”

Ebenez’s lips curled into a smug smile.

Ghaylen paid no heed to him. He lifted his head apprehensively to look at the sky, only to realize that Kai and the demon beast were gone.

Just as confusion settled over the crowd, a dark shadow plummeted from the sky.

Growing larger and larger, it finally revealed itself as an object as massive as a battle arena, crashing down with a thunderous impact.

Boom!

The shadow struck the ground, causing a violent tremor. Many structures of Emerald Cauldron Sect were toppled, and many people were thrown off balance while the shadow itself was embedded deep within the earth.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2647 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2647-At that moment, everyone finally saw what the black shadow was—it turned out to be a colossal bell with exquisitely carved dragons that were incredibly lifelike on its surface!

The sight left everyone utterly astonished. How on earth did such a massive bell suddenly drop from the sky?

Right then, the roars of a demon beast echoed from within the Dragon Bell's depths.

It dawned on the crowd then. The ultimate demon beast was trapped inside!

Brandishing his Octo Ruler, Bilius quickly rushed toward the Dragon Bell and threw his weapon at it. He wanted to smash it open and release the captive demon beast.

Nevertheless, as Bilius swung his weapon at the Dragon Bell, a tremendous force sent him flying backward all of a sudden.

The demon beast within the Dragon Bell thrashed about, but it couldn't break free from its confines.

Meanwhile, Kai descended slowly with a bell hammer in hand. The green dragon had vanished without a trace.

"You piece of shit! I'll show you what true power looks like today!"

Flushed with rage, Kai was infuriated by what the demon beast had done to him.

He grasped the bell hammer firmly and slammed it against the surface of the Dragon Bell.

Bong...

The bell tolled at the impact, prompting everyone to cover their ears. Some of the weaker disciples winced in pain as they clutched their chests.

It was already difficult for many of them to withstand that single toll. However, Kai showed no sign of stopping; he struck the Dragon Bell once more!

He delivered seven consecutive blows to the Dragon Bell, and soon, no more sound came from within.

Several disciples from Emerald Cauldron Sect who were not strong enough had coughed up blood and passed out from the impact the bell tolls had on them.

Seeing that there were no more sounds coming from the Dragon Bell, Kai casually shrunk it down and stored it in his Storage Ring.

Meanwhile, the horse-like demon beast lay dying on the ground, and its golden horn had lost its luster.

The green dragon was clinging desperately to the demon beast, but it, too, was severely injured and coughing up blood.

It was only with the green dragon's frenzied effort that the Dragon Bell could capture the demon beast—it had to sacrifice itself in exchange for the demon beast's life.

Otherwise, with the demon beast's immense strength, it would have been challenging for Kai to trap it inside the Dragon Bell.

Kai approached the barely-conscious green dragon and gently stroked its head as the draconic essence around his chest emitted a radiant glow once again.

As the green light enveloped the dying dragon's body, it was suddenly rejuvenated and became full of vigor. Getting up from the ground, it let out a roar and soared into the sky!

After the green dragon left, Kai held the Dragonslayer Sword while coldly eyeing the demon beast.

The demon beast no longer appeared as ferocious as it was before. Fear filled its eyes, and it looked as if it was begging Kai to spare its life!

Holding the sword in his hand, Kai paused for a moment. Then, instead of stabbing the demon beast, he swiftly turned around and fired a beam of light at Bilius from his sword.

Caught off guard, Bilius was struck squarely in the chest by the beam of light, which carved a profound gash in his flesh. Instantly, he plummeted to the ground from midair while his Octo Ruler dropped at Kai's feet.

Kai bent down and picked up the Octo Ruler.

"Give it back! Give it back! That's my divine weapon..."

Seeing this, Bilius tried to rush forward to snatch it, but he found himself unable to get up.

As Kai grasped the Octo Ruler, his spiritual sense instantly enveloped it. Soon, the eight gemstones came to life and began to glow, while the severely injured demon beast became veiled in a dark mist. Gradually, it disappeared from sight as it returned to the Octo Ruler.

"This is quite impressive. Maybe Josephine can find some use for it..."

Muttering to himself, Kai threw the Octo Ruler into his Storage Ring.

Seeing Kai take away his weapon, Bilius screamed in anger but was utterly powerless to do anything.

Kai gazed at him before taking a step forward and stomping on his head.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2648 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2648-“I told you you’re no match for me. You didn’t believe me then. Do you believe me now?”

Kai looked down at Bilius with a mocking expression.

“I don’t believe it... I don’t believe it...”

Bilius struggled with all his might. Even in this situation, he still refused to admit defeat.

Nevertheless, no matter how hard he struggled, his head was held firmly under Kai’s foot, and he appeared extremely miserable in that state.

“I don’t care if you believe me or not, but you’ve already lost. Now it’s time for you to go to hell!”

While speaking, Kai pressed the tip of his Dragonslayer Sword against Bilius’ neck.

Feeling the chilling sensation on his neck, Bilius finally grew afraid.

“Don’t! Don’t kill me! I surrender! I surrender! I’ll do anything you ask of me!”

Bilius felt the aura of death surrounding him, causing him to tremble uncontrollably.

I have a bright future ahead of me, and I don’t want to die...

At that moment, Bilius finally regretted provoking Kai. I should have waited for the activation of the medicinal pool and increased my strength before venturing outside. What did Kai’s situation in Emerald Cauldron Sect have to do with me anyway?

Now Bilius understood that nothing else mattered more than staying alive!

“Surrender?” Kai sneered coldly. “I gave you a chance to do that, but unfortunately, you didn’t take it!”

After saying this, Kai swung his Dragonslayer Sword at Bilius’ head.

“Stop! Hold on!” Ebenezer yelled out and charged toward Kai when he saw that.

His smug expression from before had turned grim in an instant.

“What are you doing, Ebenezer? They’re engaged in a life-and-death battle. As long as both of them are still alive, the battle isn’t over. If you charge in like that, won’t it violate the rules of Emerald Cauldron Sect?”

Ghaylen quickly intervened, trying to stop Ebenezer.

“Get out of my way!”

With a furious roar, Ebenezer launched an attack on Ghaylen.

He didn’t care about rules at the moment; right now, he simply couldn’t bear to watch his disciple die at Kai’s hands!

Ghaylen also unleashed a powerful strike back at Ebenezer, and their palms met in the air.

“Master, save me! Please save me!” Bilius screamed.

He could feel the murderous intent emanating from Kai, and he knew that Kai was set on killing him.

When Ebenezer saw Bilius’s desperate state, his heart burned with anxiety. With a sudden burst of energy from his feet, he soared into the air.

Confronted by the charging Ebenezer, Kai merely offered him a faint smile. Then, he lifted the Dragonslayer Sword and swung it toward Bilius.

Splat!

Blood spurted upward as Bilius’ head flew up into the air before falling and landing firmly in Ebenezer’s hands.

Staring in shock at the severed head in his hands, Ebenezer stood motionless in place.

“Bilius... My disciple...” Ebenezer howled in anger, “Kai, I’ll kill you! I’ll kill you...”

Unleashing a spine-chilling aura all around him, Ebenezer brought upon Kai a thunderous strike.

“Mr. Erdell, this is a fair challenge. Are you openly going against the rules?”

Sigurd quickly stepped forward to block Ebenezer from attacking Kai.

“Get out of my way, or I’ll kill you too!”

Ebenez waved his hand, and a massive force sent Sigurd flying.

Seeing Ebenez going berserk, everyone quickly backed away. After all, even Sigurd was not spared of his wrath!

“Ebenez, you need to think this through. With our senior absent, Sigurd is the acting sect leader. How dare you lay hands on him? It seems like you’ve been eyeing the position of the sect leader for a long time and are now trying to seize it, huh?” Ghaylen shouted loudly at Ebenez.

“I’m only seeking revenge for my disciple, and I won’t let anyone stop me. I won’t go easy on anyone who tries to do so!”

Like a madman, Ebenez yelled back at Ghaylen, his eyes bloodshot with rage. He paid no heed to Ghaylen’s warning and attacked Kai without reservation.

Seeing this, Ghaylen had no choice but to put himself between Ebenez and Kai. Gritting his teeth, he began engaging in a fierce battle with Ebenez.

However, his strength was no match for Ebenez’s. After just a few moves, he was nearly crushed to death by a single strike from Ebenez!

The Mans Decree Chapter 2649 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2649-“No one can stop me today! Listen up, my disciples! Kill them all to avenge the death of your senior!”

At this time, Ebenez had gone mad. He even resorted to ordering his own disciples to attack Ghaylen’s disciples!

Bilius’ demise had sent shockwaves through Ebenez, igniting an uncontrollable rage within him.

As Kai witnessed this, his aura surged forth, and the Power of Three gradually began to spread toward his surroundings.

Kai didn’t want to see the disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect fighting each other. Such infighting would only lead to mutual destruction, and that would delay the activation of the medicinal pool.

That was not what he wanted. Moreover, he had plans to take over Emerald Cauldron Sect for his own benefit. If the sect ended up ruined, it wouldn't serve his interests at all.

Thus, he decided to intervene and join Ghaylen in dealing with Ebenezer. As long as they subdued the latter, the fighting would cease.

However, just as Kai was about to act against Ebenezer, a terrifyingly intense aura enveloped them all. Everyone froze and looked up at the sky in astonishment.

“You ungrateful disciples! You dare to cause strife within Emerald Cauldron Sect instead of taking it to greater heights?”

A loud and enraged voice rang out in the air. Following that, a series of brilliant lights shot through the sky from the back of the sect before an elderly figure emerged from the radiance.

The old man wore a gray robe and exuded a formidable aura.

In mid-air, he gazed down at everyone standing below him with anger in his eyes.

With a wave of his hand, a shocking pressure descended upon all of them, and everyone fell to their knees instantly.

Kai tried hard to resist the terrifying force that was pressuring him to submit, but he still ended up falling to one knee on the ground.

“Eighth Level Body Fusion Realm...”

Kai felt the strength of the elderly man's cultivation level. Even though he wanted to resist, he was powerless to do so.

In fact, even if he broke through to the Body Fusion Realm, he wouldn't stand a chance against an Eighth Level expert.

“H-Helius...”

Ebenezer saw the old man and trembled in fear while kneeling on the ground.

Among all the people present, only Ebenezer had met Helius before, so he recognized the latter immediately.

Helius?

All the people from the Emerald Cauldron Sect were in disbelief as they stared at the figure before them with equal measures of awe and fear.

Before this moment, they had only heard rumors of Helius Taidell, the most revered elder in Emerald Cauldron Sect. He was a legendary figure who was the bedrock of the sect. However, very few had actually seen him in the flesh.

Now that Helius had appeared in person, the disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect were both excited and terrified.

Ebenez and Ghaylen found their hearts racing with terror as they could sense that Helius' wrath was aimed at them.

"As elders of Emerald Cauldron Sect, how dare you engage in internal conflict? Are you trying to rebel against the sect's rules?"

Eyes ablaze with fury, Helius interrogated Ebenez and Ghaylen in a voice as cold as ice.

"Helius, please calm down. It was Ebenez who broke the rules and attacked others first. I was forced to defend the sect and myself!" Ghaylen hurriedly spoke up.

Hearing this, Ebenez quickly explained, "Helius, that's not the case at all. It was Ghaylen's disciple who killed my eldest disciple and cut off his head, so I had to take action."

"That was a duel to the death. It was clearly stated before they stepped onto the arena that one of them must die. You—"

Ghaylen wanted to retort, but before he could finish his words, Helius casually waved his hand. Both Ghaylen and Ebenez were sent flying into the air before they crashed heavily to the ground.

"I don't want to hear your nonsense. As elders, if you can't set an example to others, what use are you to me?" Helius said coldly.

At these words, Ebenez and Ghaylen turned pale. They hurriedly fell to their knees again and desperately apologized to Helius.

“Heliuss, please calm down. We were wrong, and we won’t dare to do it again. Please give us another chance...” Ebenezz and Ghaylen pleaded desperately.

“In consideration of this being your first offense, I won’t punish you too harshly. Each of you will receive fifty slaps to the face,” Heliuss ordered.

Ebenezz and Ghaylen were overjoyed at this somewhat lenient punishment. They willingly began to hit themselves in the face. After all, this was much better than losing their lives.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2650 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2650-The other disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect cowered in fear, keeping their heads down and avoiding Heliuss’ gaze.

Only Kai lifted his head and observed Heliuss closely, undeterred.

Heliuss turned to glance at Kai too, and when their eyes locked, Kai showed no fear.

After a brief moment of confrontation, Heliuss turned his attention away from Kai.

Soon, the two elders were done with dealing the punishment to themselves. Heliuss then asked them, “Even from the mountain at the back, I sensed an incredibly powerful aura rampaging in Emerald Cauldron Sect. What on earth is going on?”

Ebenezz and Ghaylen exchanged anxious glances before Ebenezz struggled to speak with his swollen mouth. “Heliuss, a rebellious disciple summoned the ultimate demon beast from the Octo Ruler just now. The powerful aura you felt came from that demon beast!”

Furrowing his brows, Heliuss responded, “He dared to summon the ultimate demon beast? If it were to get out of control, Emerald Cauldron Sect would be in grave peril! Who was the one who summoned the demon beast? Step forward and reveal yourself!”

“Heliuss, that disciple is already dead. He was beheaded in the arena...” Ebenezz hurriedly explained.

Ebenez's forehead dripped with cold sweat. He hadn't anticipated that summoning the ultimate demon beast would attract Helius' attention.

Luckily, Bilius had died. Otherwise, Ebenez himself wouldn't be spared from Helius' wrath.

Thinking of that, Ebenez suddenly felt relieved at the convenient turn of events.

"He was beheaded? Even after he summoned the ultimate demon beast, someone managed to kill him? Where is the ultimate demon beast now, and where is the Octo Ruler?" Helius inquired.

"It was Kai Chance. He wounded the ultimate demon beast and returned it back to the Octo Ruler. He has the Octo Ruler now," Ebenez clarified.

"He wounded the ultimate demon beast?" Helius seemed surprised. Scanning the crowd, he asked, "Which one of you is Kai Chance?"

"Me." Kai stood up among the disciples.

He was well aware that keeping quiet wouldn't make much difference. Ebenez would still point him out for Helius!

Helius found it somewhat unexpected that Kai took the initiative to stand up. After a cursory glance, he said to Kai, "Hand over the Octo Ruler right now. Such a thing in your hands can only bring calamity!"

Kai remained silent, neither handing over the Octo Ruler nor speaking.

Noticing Kai's reluctance to comply, Helius frowned as his expression grew colder.

"Mr. Chance, hand over the Octo Ruler. Don't provoke Helius..." Still kneeling on the ground, Sigurd quickly advised Kai in a low voice.

"Yes, Mr. Chance. Please give him the Octo Ruler!" Zebediah also chimed in from the other side, attempting to persuade Kai.

Nevertheless, Kai remained indifferent to their words. Drenched in cold sweat, Ghaylen couldn't stop shivering in fear. However, he couldn't speak up to convince Kai; all he could do was pray silently that Kai would hand over the Octo Ruler quickly.

On the other hand, Ebenezer rejoiced to see Kai standing up to Helius. If Helius became angry, Kai would definitely be dead meat!

“Don’t you understand what I just said?” Helius’ anger flared when he saw that Kai remained stubborn.

“The Octo Ruler is my prize from the duel just now. Why should I hand it over? I competed with Bilius in a duel to the death in the arena. Since he lost his life trying to beat me, anything he possessed rightfully belongs to me. I’m sure you wouldn’t use your status and strength to oppress a younger disciple like me, right?” Kai calmly challenged Helius.

Kai’s audacity left everyone stunned. They had never seen anyone speak to Helius in such disrespect before.

Is he seeking death?

Ghaylen turned pale and slumped to the ground in complete shock.

“Kai, you’re really bold! How dare you speak like that to Helius? You’re asking for trouble!”

Attempting to show his reverence for Helius, Ebenezer admonished Kai loudly.
