

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2635

Married at First Sight Chapter 2635-Matriarch Farrell slapped Holden ten times in succession, causing Holden's face to be bruised and his nose to be swollen. Not only were the corners of his mouth bleeding, but his nose was also bleeding.

Holden didn't dare to fight back.

He was bearing the wrath of his wife.

When Matriarch Farrell stopped, Holden grabbed Matriarch Farrell's hand and asked with a distressed look on his face, "Honey, does it hurt your hand? Are you tired? Let me blow it for you."

However, Matriarch Farrell kicked him, causing him to fall to the ground.

"Take them both away."

Matriarch Farrell coldly ordered the two bodyguards to take the couple back and continue the punishment.

She would never forgive anyone who dared to betray her.

Two bodyguards immediately entered the room, picked up the girl, and followed Matriarch Farrell.

Holden didn't need the help of the bodyguards. After he got up from the ground, he followed Matriarch Farrell obediently. He had been to the hotel with that girl countless times.

Matriarch Farrell seemed not to have heard what he said and was still walking in front.

At the same time, she called the butler and asked him to notify her children to send them home to her immediately.

Holden dared to betray her because he had money.

Only when he had money could he coax those young shameless b*tches.

On the surface, Holden had a lot of pocket money every month, but Matriarch Farrell had always controlled Holden's pocket money and did not let him have more than $500. Now Holden could go to a high-end hotel like the Fortress Hotel, and the hotel expenses must be her children's filial piety money.

She wanted to know which filial son or daughter was so filial to Holden.

After hearing that Matriarch Farrell asked the butler to notify the children to return, Holden's expression changed again. He was filled with hatred, but he did not dare say a bad word on his face.

The girl who was being held up by two bodyguards was honest at first and let the two bodyguards hold her up. When she got down to the first floor, she took the opportunity to kick one of the bodyguards and took advantage of the pain. She let go and vigorously shook off the other bodyguard's hand.

Then she ran out as quickly as possible, yelling, "Hit someone; the old w*tch is beating someone."

The Farrell family bodyguards immediately chased her.

Matriarch Farrell still had bodyguards guarding the door of the hotel. The girl couldn't run away at all. She was stopped at the door of the hotel. Seeing that she couldn't escape for a moment, she turned around and rushed towards Holden. She grabbed Holden and beat him while beating him and cursing him. Holden molested her, causing Matriarch Farrell to misunderstand her as a mistress and beat her violently.

Holden naturally denied it strongly and struggled with the girl rudely.

Matriarch Farrell did not stop the two of them, and she allowed them to struggle into a ball.

Who would have thought that when the girl and Holden were fighting with each other and reached Matriarch Farrell, she suddenly let go of Holden and pounced on Matriarch Farrell.

Matriarch Farrell was more or less skilled at boxing and kicking, but because she was unprepared and a little older, the girl accidentally threw her to the ground, where she straddled her and beat her.

Upon seeing this, the bodyguard team scrambled to pull the girl away.

Matriarch Farrell was already embarrassed enough.

She caught her husband cheating on him, and when the girl was fighting with Holden, she kept swearing and swearing. More and more people were watching, and everything was exposed, making her face extremely ugly.

Even the girl riding on Holden's body beat him several times. Even just a few times was enough to arouse the anger of Matriarch Farrell.

Oh, she was already furious, and now it was a raging fire.

