I am a quadrillionarire chapter 2720-These include the Elf women and treasures such as the Fountain of Youth.

It would be very troublesome if the heir to the Loughty family came to ____ nd her.

"Did you meet the heir of the Loughty family?" Isa ignored the Berlin family.

In her opinion, the Berlin family were destined to be ignored when the Loughty family was around.

Such was the dynamics of power.

Lyle could only be obedient in front of Ambrose.

'Yeah." Evie nodded.

"Then did he make things dif cult for you?"

'Yes, Ambrose said that he took a fancy to me and wanted me to follow him out of the Elven Forest."

"What happened then?" Isa continued to ask.

"Of course, I didn't agree! I am the Elven Princess. How could I leave with him? Then he said he wanted to bring me to see you, claiming that you would de nitely agree."

Isa looked around but did not see Ambrose.

'Where is he then? Is he waiting outside? Ask him to come in!"

"No! Ambrose is not here." Evie shook her head.

"He's not here? Didn't he want to bring you to see me? Why isn't he here?"

After Isa asked, she added hurriedly without waiting for Evie to answer, "What's going on? Can you stop only answering when I ask, you silly girl? Can you tell me everything at once?"

What she feared had actually.

She was worried that Evie would attract the heirs of those top powers, and if she disagreed, she would de nitely offend them.

However, she could not say yes either.

Evie was the Elven Princess, so how could she leave with a man so casually?

Unless this person could help the Elves avenge the Vingeans ' blood feud and lead the Elves to glory, otherwise, they should not even think about it.

"Mother, calm down and listen to me." Seeing how anxious her mother was, Evie nally got to the point.

"Then spit it out. Don't waste time."

Evie also stopped keeping Isa on tenterhooks.

She began to recall her encounter with the Berlin family and the Loughty family in detail.

She started by telling Isa how she met the Berlin family and was blocked, and then to the Loughty family arriving and wanting to take her away but how she refused. Then, she went on to detail the way David shocked the heirs of the Berlin family and the Loughty family into admitting their mistakes and apologizing. Finally, they were all seriously injured by David.

After listening to Evie's narration, Elven Queen Isa's eyes suddenly brightened up and all her worries disappeared without a trace.

Nothing else mattered anymore.

The important thing was that David could get the heir of the Loughty family to apologize and admit his mistake.

What did this mean?

This showed that the power behind David was much stronger than the Loughty family.

The Loughty family was one of the top families in Leila and they had a partial Overlord grandmaster in charge.

Although they were ranked at the bottom among the top forces, they had de nitely made their way into the ranks of the top forces.

If David could make such a family's heir admit his mistakes, the power behind him would rank at least in the top ve or possibly even the top three among Leila.

Otherwise, Ambrose would never admit his mistake when there was not much difference in strength. He could not afford to embarrass himself like that.

"Evie, is everything you said true?" Isa asked expectantly
