

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1861

After all, after entering prison, Albert is the master. Who knows what he will do then?

Even if you kill them, you can just find an excuse to commit suicide out of fear of crime.

"Don't be nervous, it's just a routine inquiry. I won't eat you."

Albert said indifferently: "Of course, if you dare to resist, don't blame me for being ruthless. Take it away!"

Following his voice Following the order, the Youlong Guards immediately took out the Dragon Trap Rope and tied up Nangong Po and his party.

The Trapped Dragon Rope was specially developed for martial arts masters. Even martial arts masters would find it difficult to break free.

Of course, even if Nangong Po could break free, he wouldn't dare to make any move at this moment.

Albert's strength is far superior to everyone present. If the opponent is angered, the end will only be more miserable.

They could only pray that Albert would keep his promise and not torture them.

"Clean up the scene and guard the surrounding area. No suspicious persons can be spared!"

Albert gave another order, then led Nangong Po and his party into the prison car and went straight to the prison.

At this moment, in the meeting hall of the palace.

Rufus Rhys sat in the middle, holding hot tea in his hand and looking calm.

Princess Elara stood beside him, saying nothing.

Thorian Rhys, wearing golden armor, stood guard at the gate, always vigilant.

Dustin and Dustin Kate sat across the table, with tea and snacks placed on the table.

"Third uncle, you are clean now, can you speak?"

Dustin pushed a cup of hot tea in front of Dustin Kate, his attitude was neither humble nor arrogant.

Dustin Kate coughed twice, then picked up the tea cup and drank it all in one gulp.

"Logan, I didn't expect that after ten years of seeing you, your strength has become so terrifying. Those two swords almost killed your third uncle." Dustin Kate sighed softly.

"Uncle Third, stop beating around the bush and just say it directly." Dustin's expression remained unchanged.

"Logan, I know you won't let me go easily, so I want to take this opportunity to atone for my sins." Dustin Kate's face became serious.

"What kind of atonement?" Dustin asked.

"It's very simple. I can help you capture Ji Yuanzun and even destroy Dragon Guard Pavilion in exchange for my freedom for the rest of my life." Dustin Kate said.

"You mean, you want to use yourself as bait to trap Ji Yuanzun for us?" Dustin quickly reacted.

"That's right!"

Dustin Kate nodded heavily: "I know what Ji Yuanzun did, and I am also very aware of the harm he has done to West Lucozia. As a member of West Lucozia, I have the responsibility to eliminate this threat!"

"Are you sure?" Dustin narrowed his eyes.

"Although I can't say it's a 100% chance, there's at least a 50% chance."
Dustin Kate raised five fingers.

Dustin did not respond immediately, but looked at Rufus Rhys.

"Third brother, tell me your plan. If it works, I will let you out of West Lucozia."
Rufus Rhys said simply.

"Okay!"

Dustin Kate's eyes lit up and he immediately said: "My plan is very simple, that is to find an excuse to invite Ji Yuanzun out, and then we set up an ambush in advance. As soon as Ji Yuanzun enters the encirclement, we will immediately surround him and kill him. , to avoid future troubles!"

"Ambush Ji Yuanzun? I'm afraid it's not that easy, right?"

Dustin said calmly: "Ji Yuanzun's strength is better than mine. If there is any abnormality, he will immediately notice it. If the other party wants to run away, , we seem to be unable to stop it at all."

Ji Yuanzun ranked fifth on the shocking list.

In other words, the opponent is the fifth strongest person in the world. It is undoubtedly difficult to kill such a person.

A simple ambush plan would have no effect at all.

To be able to say such things, either Dustin Kate didn't know Ji Yuanzun's strength, or he was deliberately pretending to be confused.

Chapter 1862

"Killing by force won't work, of course, we can poison and use medicine."

At this point, Dustin Kate suddenly looked at Rufus Rhys: "Big brother's treasure pavilion contains many rare treasures. I remember that there is a kind of poison called Destroying God. "

God of Destruction? The top ten poisons in the world?" Dustin's pupils shrank.

The top ten strange poisons in the world are terrifying existences that make people fearful.

Among them, the “God of Destruction” ranked at the top of the list can even make people lose their souls regardless of their cultivation level.

And it cannot be defended, resisted, or driven away.

It’s just that the God-Destroying Poison exists in legends and no one has ever seen it with their own eyes.

He didn’t expect that such a powerful weapon would be hidden in his father’s treasure house.

”That’s right, God Destroyer is the first of the ten strange poisons. As long as a person is hit by God Destroyer, no matter how high his cultivation level or how strong his strength is, he will only die. Of course, except for the one from Longhu Mountain.” Dustin Kate said.

The reason why I add this sentence is because the person on Longhu Mountain can no longer be called a human being.

”I didn’t expect you to be so well-informed. You know exactly what treasures I have collected.” Rufus Rhys said meaningfully.

”I also learned about it by accident. It was purely a coincidence.” Dustin Kate smiled sarcastically.

Naturally, he would not tell anyone about planting a mole next to Rufus Rhys, otherwise he would only be more fearful.

”Although the God-Destroying Poison is powerful, it has a big drawback, that is, it needs to be within three meters of the enemy, and it must be unexpected. If the enemy is prepared, the success rate will be greatly reduced.” Rufus Rhys said.

”Don’t worry about this. I will go to a secret place to interview Ji Yuanzun as agreed. At that time, I will use the divine poison to destroy the god by surprise. Even if Ji Yuanzun has the ability to reach the sky, there is only one way to die. Once Ji Yuanzun dies, The remnants of the Dragon Protection Pavilion are leaderless, and it will only be a matter of time before they are annihilated.” Dustin Kate vowed.

"Logan, what do you think?" Rufus Rhys glanced at Dustin.

"Third uncle's method can be tried. If it succeeds, it can help us eliminate our serious troubles." Dustin nodded in agreement.

Now that Ji Yuanzun's whereabouts are unknown, only Dustin Kate has the opportunity to have close contact with him, so he might as well give it a try.

It's best to succeed. If you fail, there won't be much loss.

"Okay, then do as the third brother said."

Rufus Rhys nodded, then looked at Princess Elara beside him: "Elara, go to the third floor of the Treasure Pavilion and get the God-Destroying Poison from my collection."

1

"Yes. ."

Princess Elara responded and left quickly.

"Third uncle, this trip is very dangerous. For your safety, I have a gift for you."

Dustin suddenly took out a black pill, handed it to Dustin Kate, and said with a smile: "This is what I prepared for you. The Narco Pills, after taking them, can not only quickly heal injuries, but also enhance your cultivation. It can be said to have many benefits."

Chapter 1863

Dustin Kate raised his eyebrows, looked at the dark pills with a suspicious look in his eyes, forced a smile, and said: "Logan, I appreciate your kindness, but you should keep this kind of treasure for yourself. "Uncle San doesn't need it."

"I have plenty of Narco Pill. They are not precious treasures. Just enjoy them. One pill is not enough. I have more." Dustin continued to smile.

"This..." Dustin Kate hesitated.

"What? Could it be that Third Uncle can't trust me and thinks I will poison you?" Dustin suddenly said.

"Of course not." Dustin Kate forced a smile: "Logan, you are an upright person, how could you do such a thing?"

1

"Then take it." Dustin pushed the black pill forward.

Dustin Kate's eyelids twitched, he took a deep breath, and finally took the black pill and swallowed it in one gulp.

No matter what this pill is, he must take it, otherwise, he will not be able to gain the other party's trust.

"Uncle Third, how do you feel?" Dustin asked with a smile.

"Yes, it is indeed a panacea. As soon as I took it, I felt a warm current all over my body. All the meridians that had been previously blocked were unblocked." Dustin Kate was amazed.

"Since Third Uncle is fine, our ambush plan will be scheduled for tonight." Dustin said again.

"Ah? Tonight? Are you too anxious?" Dustin Kate frowned slightly.

His injuries could not be healed in a day or two. If the ambush failed and Ji Yuanzun counterattacked, escaping would be a problem in his condition.

"Third uncle, this opportunity cannot be missed, and it will never come back. The news from the palace cannot be kept secret for long. I believe Ji Yuanzun will soon notice the abnormality. In order to avoid long nights and dreams, we must act as soon as possible, otherwise we will let Ji Yuanzun escape. That's not good." Dustin knocked.

"That's the truth, but..." Dustin Kate hesitated.

"Third Uncle, just don't worry, we will try our best to ensure your safety. If you are in any danger, just shout for help. Our ambush people will take action immediately, and we will never let you, Third Uncle, be in danger alone." Dustin comforted road.

"Shouting for help?"

Dustin Kate's eyes twitched and he muttered to himself.

Is this called a method? Are you kidding me?

"Third brother, I will give you a set of golden soft armor for self-defense. With it, it can withstand Ji Yuanzun's full blow." Rufus Rhys spoke at the right time.

"Thank you, brother! Then I would rather obey your orders than be respectful!" Dustin Kate looked happy and quickly saluted with clasped fists.

With gold essence and soft armor protecting his body, his life would not be in vain.

"Third brother, please go down and rest first. We will notify you when the arrangements are made." Rufus Rhys said.

"Yes!"

Dustin Kate responded and left decisively.

Of course, he could not leave the palace now and could only live in a separate courtyard of the palace under the care of Youlong Wei.

After Dustin Kate left, Rufus Rhys spoke again: "Logan, do you think your third uncle's words are credible?" "

Not credible, but...he is still worth using now." Dustin replied Very straightforward.

"Your third uncle has a lot of thoughts and I'm afraid he won't do things honestly." Rufus Rhys reminded.

"Of course I understand this."

Dustin smiled faintly: "So, I just added some special ingredients to the Narco Pill. If he dares to betray us, he will die!"

Chapter 1864

"Oh? It seems you have been prepared." Rufus Rhys smiled meaningfully.

He was indeed a little fox, and he did this deliberately just to put pressure on Dustin Kate.

After taking that Narco Pill, even if Dustin Kate had other thoughts, he didn't dare to show them anymore.

"I can't trust Uncle Hector, so I have to take some insurance measures. If Uncle Hector gets hot and does something rebellious, wouldn't we just draw water from a bamboo basket and get nothing?" Dustin shrugged.

"It's a good thing to be prepared, but is it reliable to use your third uncle as bait?"

Rufus Rhys said thoughtfully: "Ji Yuanzun is powerful and thoughtful. It's probably not easy to deceive him."

"It's definitely not possible to rely on Third Uncle alone, Ji Yuanzun cannot trust a person who has just formed an alliance, so we must make second-hand preparations." Dustin said.

"Oh? Do you have any good ideas?" Rufus Rhys raised his eyebrows slightly.

"The secret must not be leaked. You will know it when the time comes." Dustin let it slip.

"You brat! Did you even hide this from your father?" Rufus Rhys said angrily.

"It's not a secret from you, but from the people around you. No one is sure whether there is a mole around you. Just be careful and sail the boat for ten thousand years." Dustin smiled lightly.

"Okay, now that you have grown up and are able to take charge of your own business, I will leave this matter to you."

Rufus Rhys yawned: "I'm tired. Let's go back to the room to rest. You two brothers will discuss it carefully. West Lucozia Our future depends on you."

After saying that, he waved his hand, got up and left.

"Thorian, change your clothes and go out with me. If nothing else happens, there should be a bloody battle tonight. We have to prepare early."

Dustin said, and then went out in disguise with Thorian Rhys.

Now, in the entire palace, there were only a few close relatives who were trustworthy, and he had to be careful about the rest.

Since being betrayed by Lorenzo, he now looks at everyone with suspicion.

...

Night falls soon.

At this moment, it is located in a Traditional restaurant on the outskirts of Wangcheng.

Dustin Kate, who was dressed in rich clothes, was drinking tea leisurely. His expression seemed calm, but his eyes would glance around from time to time, obviously on guard.

Since taking Dustin's Narco Pill, he has recovered half of his injuries, but he always feels like there is something extra in his body.

After careful inspection, there was nothing unusual, which was really weird.

In fact, he had always been thinking of feigning surrender before, thinking that after meeting Ji Yuanzun, he would directly defect from West Lucozia and become a member of the Dragon Protection Pavilion.

But after taking Dustin's medicine, he had to change his mind.

After all, he couldn't risk his own life.

The biggest question now is, how to poison Ji Yuanzun? How to atone for sin?

The God-Destroying Poison is different from ordinary poisons that can be dissolved in wine. Instead, it is fired from a concealed weapon to attack the enemy.

The effective range is three meters.

If it exceeds three meters, the effect will be greatly reduced.

And as long as the enemy is prepared in advance, it will still be difficult to succeed.

He and Ji Yuanzun only cooperated for mutual benefit and had no friendship. It was obviously impossible to completely gain each other's trust.

He must find a way to make the other party put down their guard.

"Ding dong~!"

At this time, the door of the restaurant suddenly opened.

Chapter 1865

Immediately afterwards, a group of men in black walked in quietly.

The leader was a middle-aged man wearing a black robe and a bamboo hat.

The middle-aged man's hat was held low, his head hung down, and his specific appearance could not be clearly seen.

Just from the appearance, his figure is very thin.

After entering the door, the middle-aged man wearing a bamboo hat went straight to Dustin Kate and finally sat down opposite him.

The group of people behind him began to secretly guard against abnormalities around them.

"Who are you?"

Dustin Kate looked at the middle-aged man in front of him, looking a little confused.

He had seen Ji Yuanzun, who was tall and burly, obviously not so thin.

"General Dustin, long time no see."

The middle-aged man took off the bamboo hat on his head, revealing his true appearance.

Dustin Kate took a closer look and couldn't help but be surprised: "Are you Lorenzo?!"

"General Dustin has good eyesight. I haven't seen him in ten years. I didn't expect you to recognize me." Lorenzo smiled slightly.

Compared to the strong man he was ten years ago, he is completely different now.

"Wait! Aren't you already dead? Why are you still alive?" Dustin Kate blurted out.

During the Forbidden City Incident, almost all the people accompanying the palace, except Dustin and Jiu Kuang, died.

Lorenzo is one of them.

Unexpectedly, after ten years, the other party is still alive and well.

"I was lucky. I was saved by someone, and I was lucky enough to save my life." Lorenzo explained.

"So, like Song Zun, you are also from Dragon Protection Pavilion?" Dustin Kate quickly reacted.

"Yes, we are all secret agents of the Dragon Protection Pavilion. We have been lurking in West Luozia for many years. Now, we have finally returned to our true identities." Lorenzo forced a smile.

"I didn't expect you to hide so deeply and deceive all of us." Dustin Kate narrowed his eyes.

It is really scary to hide one's name for ten years and deceive everyone in the world.

"General Dustin, let's not bring up the past. Let's talk about business now."

Lorenzo changed the subject and asked, "What advice do you have for this meeting with the Pavilion Master?"

"Speaking of this, I'm a little curious, why is it you and not Ji Yuanzun?" Dustin Kate asked tentatively.

"To be honest, the master of the pavilion is a little busy and can't come for the time being, so he asked me to come to see General Lu. If you need anything, General Dustin just tell me and I will do my best to assist you." Lorenzo said with a smile.

"General Lorenzo, it's not that I look down on you, it's just that this matter is very important and I have to interview Ji Yuanzun." Dustin Kate said with a serious face.

He has everything ready now, just waiting for Ji Yuanzun to show up.

In the end, this guy was lucky. He hid in the dark and sent a scapegoat to meet him. He was really an insidious and cunning old fox.

Sure enough, it is not an easy thing to gain the trust of such people.

"General Dustin, the master of the pavilion really can't escape, please forgive me." Lorenzo shook his head.

"Since Ji Yuanzun is not sincere, let's forget it. The covenant between us will be immediately voided. We will not have any contact with each other in the future." After Dustin Kate finished speaking, he stood up and left with a decisive attitude.

In a situation like this, you must retreat to advance, otherwise you will lose all initiative if you are led by the Dragon Guard Pavilion.
