

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2652

Married at First Sight Chapter 2652-Liberty: "How long ago did that happen, and you turned it out and said, Now Zachary has you at the top of his heart."

Serenity: "Sister, I know, I know. I love him, so you can rest assured and go about your big things."

Afraid that Liberty was going to talk about it again, Serenity quickly surrendered and changed the topic.

In order to prevent Liberty from having to lecture her before leaving home.

"Sister, when will you come back?" Serenity asked with concern, "If you come back from time to time, Sonny and I will miss you."

"Well, I can't tell. I will come back when I have time. My home is in Wiltspoon, and my relatives and friends are all in Wiltspoon. You are still worried that I will not come back after I go to Jensburg!"

Liberty poked Serenity's forehead in a funny way and said, "Stop hugging me. You are such a big person, and you still want to act like a baby. Sonny will be ashamed of you when he sees you like this."

Serenity: "Even if I am a hundred years old, Sister, I will still be the younger sister in front of you."

Liberty was explaining everything to Liberty here, but in the Lewis family over there, Duncan really locked himself in the room and couldn't come out.

The door was locked, and even though Mrs. Lewis and others knocked on the door, Duncan refused to open the door.

After he knew that Mrs. Stone was the biological daughter of the previous matriarch in Jensburg, he had a hunch that Mrs. Stone would investigate what happened back then. Even if she couldn't find out clearly, she might be able to take back the head of the Farrell family.

But Mrs. Stone's own daughter, Elisa, may not be qualified to be the head of the Farrell family.

Serenity couldn't do it either. She was the eldest mistress of the York family, and she was pregnant. She would have to take care of the York family's inner house and have her own business, so she might not be able to do both.

Only Liberty had the least pressure. Although she owned a breakfast shop and a restaurant, it was relatively easy. Among the three cousins, Liberty was the eldest. If the head of the Farrell family is given an important role, if it were returned to the descendants of the previous head of the family, Liberty would be the most likely successor.

However, Duncan did not expect it to come so quickly.

Liberty was leaving for Jensburg this afternoon.

On the surface, it meant going there to inspect the market, start a business, and develop there.

In fact, he was tasked with finding out the truth behind the murder of the previous head of the family, getting to know the Farrell family, and fighting openly and secretly with the current successor of the Farrell family.

When Liberty went to Jensburg, she was like an outsider. She had no foundation and no confidants. In terms of ability, she could not catch up with Kathryn, the true daughter of the Farrell family.

She would have a difficult time in Jensburg.

Although Zachary and the Stone Family would arrange people to protect and help Liberty, Duncan still blamed himself.

He felt that he was too useless and could not help Liberty when she set off for Jensburg.

He proposed to her that he accompany her there.

Liberty refused.

She said she was on errands and would be very busy and would not be able to take care of him.

She was telling the truth, but he felt that he would drag her down, even if she didn't mean to dislike him at all.

He was a cripple!

Nothing could help her.

Not only could it not help her, it would also drag her down!